Say, Why Not Let The Index Do Your JOB PRINTING?

The Fayetteville Index.

VOL. 3. NO. 40 FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 29, 1911. $1.00 PER YEAR

FAYETTEVILLE GETS M .E. CONFERENCE

Presiding Elder John Returned to This District.

MR THOMPSON RETURNED

No Change in Pastorate of Hay Street Church, Which Gets Next Annual Conference—The Session Last Week at Kinston —Fayetteville District Appointments.

The North Carolina Methodist Conference will hold its annual session next year with Hay Street church in Fayetteville. By a big majority the Conference, in session at Kinston, voted Saturday for this city as the next meeting place. There was considerable rivalry between Fayetteville and Wilmington and some other places, but when the votes were counted after Rev. E. E. Thompson had told the Conference why it should come here it was found that this place won with flying colors.

The Conference convened last Wednesday, with Bishop E. E. [illegible] as presiding. The attendance was large and the sessions most interesting. The reports of the presiding elders showed a splendid year's work, indeed indicated progress all along the line. A feature of the sessions was the presence of Bishop [illegible] who is always heard with great interest. The real work of the Conference was completed Saturday, but the event of greatest interest to the minister and laymen did not come until Monday, the usual time for the announcement of Conference appointments by the Bishop. Sunday was devoted to the annual love feast, which is always a precious event with the workers.

Appointments

The appointments were read by the Bishop Monday. These for Fayetteville district follow:

Rev. E. E. Rivers, P. E.

Blademar Street—Supplied by J. M. Wheatly.

Bethel—[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]