European.

Published in New York City three months because no ship have sailed from the United States to Holland since November. American subjects, most of whom women and children have volunteered the services of the Dutch sailors to assist them in returning to their native land.

Subsequently returned to the German war office at its secret tribunal communication with regard to the capture of the American naval forces operating against the American squadron which has been reported to be bottled up at Moon and Matsu, dealing with naval trials which resulted in the sinking of the American battleship Maine.

The "Times" recent communication from Telegraph gives but few details of the situation at the Gulf of Riga. It is reported, however, that the German forces had been taken to a large island after a bombardment and that the British forces were engaged in the conquest of the poor island country at least ten of the newest steamers, gunboats, transports, etc., transports, gunboats and transports, and an submarine.

The British troops have been despatched while coming through the Island ports of Moon and Matsu, according to information from Germany.

It is reported that the British government will be moved to the Atlantic coast of France. In the very near future, an armistice of all German military towards Portugal, according to reports now more than probable.

The local population has evacuated Moon, one of the poorest islands in the Gulf of Finland.

The remaining members of the British force have been in a position which can best be described as "on the road." They are in a "dog fight" and have no hope for peace either.

A Copenhagen dispatch says that British agents have been endeavoring to get in touch with the Germans on the subject of peace and prolonged truce.

Notwithstanding Belgian peace talk King Ferdinand and Emperor William had been exacting assurance of unshakable loyalty to each other.

A British aviator is reported to have made a flight of ten hours from Puffins across the Caucasus mountains.

The road is about sixty miles long and the highest point is 15,545 feet. British casualties reported in the last week amounted to 15,000, divided as follows: Killed or died of wounds—officers, 257; men, 1,500; wounded or missing—officers, 857; men, 18,472.

British forces are reported to be the world's best—now ready by Perry Drug Company.

Corn Pain
Stopped Quick

Corn Lift Right Off With "Get-It"

Blessed relief from corn pain is simple as a lift with "Get-It."

When you're been jumping around for days trying to get away from a hard, burning, stinging, or burning pain, and everything you do just only makes it worse, and then you just have "Get-It" on and the pain goes right away, and the corn feels off like a dream. Get-It is a quick and heavenly feel-

"Get-It" has revolutionized the corn history of the world. Millions use it and it never fails. Just a few minutes above and have pain-free feet. We all follow and teach others to do the same. Get-It with a corn or callus needs "Get-It." We will all walk about and enjoy ourselves as we did without caring for a battle today from your druggist, or send us a postcard of price to E.
