FRIDAY, NOV. 26, 1915.

MOTHER.

While editors and individuals have different convictions, see things from various angles in the political, financial and religious world, all have the same hopes, aspirations, pleasures and sorrows...

OPPOSITION AT THE HEAD.

John Sprunt Hill tells the Durham correspondent of The News and Observer that from his conversation with delegates to the State Farmers' Convention...

If two members of the Farmers' Union could push through the Durham convention a resolution that the majority was against it...

The farmers may all be against plans for American defense, but we don't believe it. They may be hard-headed and sometimes fail to do as much thinking as they ought...

COTTON GINNING.

Cotton has many cross currents and counter influences to make the market one of animated guesswork. Monday's ginning report showing 5,713,347 bales ginned to October 18...

Estimates of world consumption also are not infallible. Two leading authorities are far apart in their figures. But the crop foreshadowed by the ginning figures...

It may be Godwin's committee in the Sixth will put all the other candidates out of running.—Hoke County Journal.

TO THE ADVERTISER

The News is being sent to practically every home in the city and for this reason it is one of the best advertising mediums in the county.

The Index has a general circulation in Cumberland and all the surrounding counties. The two papers cover Fayetteville and the Cape Fear section...

If you want to reach the people place your advertising in The Cape Fear News and the Fayetteville Index, the papers that have the circulation and the readers.

If you are from Missouri, ask to be shown. We make no statements that we cannot back up and our list is not hidden, but can be seen and read.

The combination offered by The Index and The News is unequalled as an advertising medium in this section. Try them if you want your advertising to pay.

The News is published every morning except Monday and copy ought to be in the office at noon of the previous day.

The Index copy should be in the office not later than Monday to insure publication. We want to publish The Index Tuesday evening and if our advertisers will remember this and send in their copy they will get better service...

We haven't a man to go after the advertising every time, so please mark amount of space, number of times the ad. is to appear and send it early so that we will have time to set it up.

Remember that The News is the only paper delivered in Fayetteville early Sunday advertising Saturday morning for Sunday's News. It morning and arrange your will pay you to do so.

Now They Don't Speak.

Funniman—"Now, there's your husband coming." Mrs. Candor—"Let's make a surprise for him." Mrs. Funniman—"I will hide behind the curtain here, and you tell him that your expected guests haven't come. Then we'll step out and surprise him."

Some Big Lemons.

In Mr. D. W. Townsend's window on Person street are two lemons grown by Mrs. D. W. Townsend, one weighing one pound seven ounces, the other, one pound six ounces. In stead of "handing people a lemon," we wouldn't like to receive one of these.

GONE TO RALEIGH TO CARRY PRISONERS

Deputy Sheriff John Monaghan and Police Chas. Davis left yesterday at noon to carry Neil Black and John Garvin to the State's Prison at Raleigh, where they start their sentence of fifteen years each.

THANKSGIVING OFFERING FOR THE ORPHANS

A most interesting Thanksgiving service was held at the First Baptist church yesterday. Rev. Joel S. Snyder made an able address on Thankfulness and laid particular stress upon the fact that we live in a land which has for its foundation the home...

REPORT OF GRAND JURY

To His Honor H. W. Whedbee, presiding at the Cumberland County Superior Court, criminal term, November 22, 1915. The grand jury beg leave to make the following reports: We have examined into 12 presentments and found 11 true bill bills and returned one for lack of witnesses.

The County Home. The County Home is in good condition except some of the walls, which need to be repaired. The Home has 21 inmates, who are satisfied with the fare. Everything is clean and sanitary around the Home.

The Convict Camp. about six miles west of Fayetteville, in Seventy-first township, on the Yaddin road, is in a satisfactory condition. There are 25 prisoners in the camp.

County Offices. The county offices are in excellent condition; the Treasurer's office needs a large fire proof safe in which to keep papers and books and we recommend that one be purchased for this purpose.

The furniture in the clerk's office is old and inadequate and we recommend that a center desk and a roller cabinet with space for books in lower part be purchased for this office.

The basement in which old books and papers are kept is in good condition.

County Jail. One outside door of the county jail has been damaged by the prisoners and the levers operating the corridor doors are rusty and worn to such an extent that they will not open said doors.

Seventeen magistrates have made their report; also the sheriff and his deputies. A number of the magistrates have failed to make report as required by law and others have made reports to the civil court. We therefore recommend that the clerk of the court publish the law so that they may know their duty in this matter.

This report was unanimously adopted. T. L. GIBSON, Foreman.

W. B. MALLOY, Secretary.

Mr. Root's bland admission that if he is given the Republican nomination for President he will accept, has stirred up the Progressives. If the Republicans should put Root in the field, there seems no way in which the Progressives could meet the issue other than in the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt.
