THE REPORTER'S DICTIONARY,
BASED ON PHONOGRAPHY.

IN PRESS and shortly to be published, a book with the above title, prepared by the subscriber, who has had nearly 20 years practice in Phonographic writing, having been at one time employed as an official reporter in the United States Senate, and who has been for the last seventeen months, and is now, reporter of the Atlanta Intelligencer.

The Dictionary will contain indications, by means of a simple nomenclature, for writing with Phonographic letters, about 20,000 words of the English language, of ninety-nine one-hundreths of those in common use—the remaining words being easily written after these are learned.

In the Introduction to the Dictionary, simple instruction will be given for beginners of the study of Phonography, with lithographed illustrations, prepared by one of the best artists in the Confederacy. The object of the publication is to make a STANDARD for Confederate Reporters, and to render it possible for the much coveted and beautiful art of Reporting, to be learned even without the aid of a teacher.

As the work will be expensive, new type having been procured expressly for it, only a small edition will be issued. Those who desire copies are requested to send to the author their orders at once, (to be recorded,) accompanied with the price of the same, which will be five dollars per copy. The book in paper cover, and suitable for use, will be sent to all subscribers, by mail, without additional expense.

WRITING PAPER.

JUST received and for sale, a superior article of Note and Letter Paper, unusually cheap, at the store under the
June 20-tf CAROLINIAN OFFICE.

CLAIMS
of Deceased Officers and Soldiers.

WILMINGTON, N. C., June 2nd, 1864.

THE UNDERSIGNED has been appointed a Commissioner to investigate, collect and pay over to the parties entitled thereto, all claims for bounty, arrearages of pay and allowances, due to the representatives of deceased officers and soldiers from this State.

The parties entitled are: first, the widow of the deceased, if any. If there be no widow then, secondly, the child or children, if there be such. If there be neither widow or children then, thirdly, the father, if there be neither widow, child, children or father then, fourthly, the mother of the deceased, and in default of all of these then, fifthly, the executor or administrator of the deceased.

The claimant or claimants must furnish his her or their affidavit, before a Justice of the Peace, or other officer authorized to administer oaths as to the relationship, and in all cases, where the claimant is not the widow, the affidavit must negative the existence of a claimant or claimants of a higher order. The Justice of the Peace before whom the affidavit is subscribed must certify to the credibility of the witness, and Clerk of the County Court must certify, under the seal of the Court, that he is a Justice of the Peace.

If the claimant or claimants be a child or children of the deceased, and he, she or they be minors, the claim must be prosecuted by his, her or their guardian, and the fact of his being guardian must be certified to, under seal of the County Court Clerk.

When the claim is made by an executor or administrator, the fact of the executorship or administratorship must be certified to, under seal by the County Court Clerk.

All of these papers should be sent in duplicate.

Any person directly interested will be furnished, upon application to me, with a proper form of these papers in full; a copy of which, for the greater convenience of parties, will be forwarded as soon as may be practicable to each County Court Clerk.

This commission is intended to facilitate the collection of these claims, and save the claimants all expense.

Parties interested may materially aid me in the investigation of their claims, if at the time of forwarding their paper to me, they will inform me of the date of the death of the deceased, where he died, was killed, whether or not they or any one for them, have received the personal effects which deceased had with him at the time of his death, and whether or not the deceased (if a non-commissioned officer or private) had ever received the State's bounty.

It is very desirable that all claims should be forwarded at as early a day as may be practicable. In all cases, give the claimant's Post Office and County, in full.

JNO. A. STANLY,
123-tf Commissioner.

TO THE FRIENDS OF THE SOLDIERS
Throughout the Confederacy

RAILROAD BUREAU,
RICHMOND, Feb. 20th, 1864.

THE friends and relatives of soldiers in the Army of Northern Virginia are hereby notified that an arrangement has this day been effected with the SOUTHERN EXPRESS COMPANY, to carry all packages of food and wearing apparel to Richmond, Va.

To secure the advantages thus obtained through the express company, the following instructions must be observed:

Packages must not contain more than one hundred pounds; be well secured, and plainly marked, and sent at the expense of the shipper to either of the Soldiers' Relief Associations which are located as follows:

In North Carolina, at Raleigh; in South Carolina, at Columbia; in Georgia, at Augusta; in Alabama, at Montgomery; or at any other point at which one of these Associations have an office.

The Agents of these Associations will there take charge of them, and ship daily, by Southern Express Company, to the proper Agents of the respective States at Richmond, who will see them distributed to the proper individual owners.

To meet the wishes of the soldiers, and to give them a certain and speedy communication with home the Southern Express Company has agreed to give this freight preference over everything else; and in order that no obstacle may occur to the success of so laudable an enterprise, the several Railroad Companies are hereby requested to render the Express Company such facilities as will enable it to make this arrangement a complete success.

As the Southern Express Company assumes all responsibility of the transportation of those packages, the Relief Associations are requested to withdraw their Agents who have heretofore acted as traveling messengers. If the Relief Association will establish agencies in the rear of there armies, they may enjoy the same privileges hereby secured to the Army of Northern Virginia.

F. W. SIMS,
Lieut. Col. and Quartermaster.

Approved.
V. R. Lawton, Quartermaster Gen.

OFFICE SOUTHERN EXPRESS CO.,
AUGUSTA, GA., Feb 20, 1864.

THE SOUTHERN EXPRESS COMPANY hereby notify the friends and relative of Soldiers in the Army of Northern Va., and elsewhere, that they are prepared to carry out arrangements as announced in the above card and that they will do all in her power to fulfil its requirements.

Reported by the Press Association 1864

Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1863, by J. S. Thrasher, in the Clerk's office of the District Court of the Confederate States, for the Northern District of Georgia

No telegraph dispatches up to the time of going to press.

(From the New York News, Aug. 16.)

The great mass meeting held here last night to demand immediate armistice and a national convention for the peaceful adjustment of our troubles are the only means of saving our nation from unlimited calamity and ruin."

The meeting of the Democrats of Chester county, Penn, call upon their delegates to Chicago, to present to the people a candidate and a platform, in accordance with their demand for peace.

The Michigan people have commenced to organize associations in favor of peace These societies are about to issue a "people's address" to the President demanding an immediate suspension of hostilities.

The Democracy of Chester, Pa., resolved last week, in county meeting, "That the only hope of escape from the evils now pressing is through peace.

The Luzerene county Democrats of Pennsylvania, resolved that they demand by petition to the President, a suspension of the draft until the next meeting of Congress.

The Chicago Times advocate an immediate armistice and a National Convention of all the States.

PREPARATIONS FOR AN ATTACK ON FORT MORGAN, ETC.

New Orleans, Aug. 12.—The steamer Kate Dale. from Fort Gaines and Mobile Bay yesterday morning, arrived here last night.

Admiral Farragut had prepared his fleet for action, and ordered the attack on Fort Morgan to be commenced at 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

It was to receive all landing fire from the fleet and land force. Its rear is said to have resisted the attack wherever there was a foot of ground to stand upon.

The rebels have destroyed all the outbuildings of the fort, and had also burned their only vessel, lying under its guns.

Everything about the fort indicated a determination on the part of the rebels to contest the battle to the last.

The Channel to Dog river is unobstructed.

At a late hour last night we heard that the Admiral had demanded the unconditional surrender of the fort.

The demand of Farragut on Tuesday last for the surrender of the fort, was refused by the rebel commander, who replied that he had six months' provisions, plenty of fighting men, and would resist to the last moment.

Before this General Granger's force in rear had cut off all the communications of the fort.

The ram Tennessee was to be in the attack.

Farragut was confident of reducing the fort.

The Hartford was badly injured.

We hold all the channels to the bay.

STRANGE ACTION IN NASHVILLE.—The Nashville Dispatch of the 14th says:

"There seems to be a general disposition on the part of landlords, agents and the military to turn out poor white tenants and put in negroes. We saw one yesterday who went out to pay her rent, leaving the balance of her money in the house under the bed; when she returned the house had been broken open, furniture had been thrown out, her money gone, and the house occupied by a negro family. During yesterday nine women went before Recorder Shane for protection against, or redress for similar proceedings."
