All Marriages, Obituary, Funeral and Estate Notices, Company and Military Orders for Meetings, Drills, &c., Lodge and Society Notices and Summonses, Wants, Losses and Findings, Exhibition and Concert Notices, all country, transient and foreign advertising, of whatsoever nature or character, must be paid for when left at or sent to the office for publication.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., SEPT. 28, 1864.

Our Subscribers in town will confer a special favor, when they fail to get their papers, by informing us immediately of the fact.

PARTICULAR ATTENTION IS CALLED TO THE FOLLOWING.—The publishers of this paper desire that their terms be fully understood.

NOTICE.—C. C. McCURMIN, Esq., is our authorized agent to receive moneys and receipt for us in all business matters connected with this office, which relates to subscription and advertising.

Gen. Sherman and Gov. Brown.—Our readers will recollect that a statement has been going the rounds of the papers to the effect that SHERMAN sent a message inviting Gov. BROWN, A. H. STEPHENS and others, to Atlanta to negotiate upon a basis of peace.

What will the ultra press, who have gloried in denouncing Gov. Brown as a fit subject for Sherman's infamous designs, say to this? We shall see.

LECTURE.—The address of Capt. Benjamin Robinson was delivered on Monday night, according to notice, before a very respectable audience at the Fayetteville Hall.

The proceeds of this Lecture are to be contributed to a fund for the establishment of a Hospital Library in this place; and we hope that the lead taken by our young friend in delivering the first Lecture may be followed by others of the talented in our community.

The telegram from the Richmond Whig is significant. Before going to press we trust we shall have more particulars. We have been for several days cognizant of this movement, but for prudential reasons have declined to publish it.

The following important order has just been issued by the Adjutant and Inspector General. It makes a clean sweep of all conscript officers:

ADJUTANT AND INSPECTOR GEN'L OFFICE, Richmond, Sept. 22, 1864.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 75.

I. The Generals of Reserves will hereafter control the Enrolling Officers, and conduct the business of conscription and enrollment in their respective States, under the direction of the Secretary of War, through the Conscript Bureau.

II. Commandants of Conscripts and of Camps of Instruction, will be under the direction of the Generals of Reserves.

III. As soon as practicable all officers and men now employed in the enrolling service, whether as enrolling officers, conscript guards, clerks or otherwise, except such as are retained or assigned to light duty by the Medical Boards, will be relieved by details from the Reserve Forces, and sent to the field.

IV. All applications for exemption and detail will be transmitted through the Generals of Reserves to the Superintendent of the Bureau of Conscription for decision.

By order: S. COOPER, Adjutant and Inspector General. Official—Jno. W. HISSDALE, A. A. Gen.

[From the Lynchburg Republican of Saturday.]

The report reaches us from the Valley that Gen. Early has retired from Fisher's Hill, and is slowly falling back before Sheridan. It is further reported that Culpeper C. H. was occupied yesterday morning by three brigades of Yankee cavalry and mounted infantry who were detached from Sheridan's army.

On Wednesday evening the Yankees assaulted the right of our position at Fisher's Hill, but were easily repulsed with some loss. At the same time they made a demonstration on our left but it was only a feint, the real attack being on our right.

Gen. Early, we hear from good authority, puts down his total casualties in the battle of Monday, at 1500. The Yankee official dispatches say they lost 2000. If this number be doubted it will be much nearer the truth.

It is thought that another battle will soon be fought in this quarter, and it is hoped and believed with satisfactory results. We have faith in "old Jubal" and we believe when he gets hold of Sheridan again, he will be "right side up."

In the above fight at Fisher Hill we lost twelve pieces of artillery. Our loss was slight; the enemy's heavy.

AN INCIDENT.—A Virginia correspondent gives the following incident of the explosion at Petersburg:

It is said that a South Carolinian, who was blown up last Saturday, fell to the ground and escaped unharmed. General Beauregard sent for him an enquirer about the circumstances. The soldier said: "He knew but very little, that as he was coming down, he met two officers going up, who told him to fall back to Petersburg as soon as he landed on terra firma, and he had obeyed it strictly."

HOW STANDS MR. PENDLETON.—The Herald asks where Mr. Pendleton, of Ohio, stands, and what has become of his letter of acceptance? The World replies that Mr. Pendleton accepted the Chicago nomination on the floor of the convention, and that no letter of acceptance is therefore necessary from him.

This does not meet the case. We want to know whether Mr. Pendleton stands upon the Chicago platform or the McClellan platform. The Chicago platform is a secession platform, a peace platform and a cowardly platform.

We call attention to the advertisement of the "The Thespian Corps," in to-day's paper. Several talented young gentlemen of our acquaintance will perform. Altogether we look for a treat, and as the object is so commendable, we trust the Hall will be crowded.

BIBLES FOR HOOD'S ARMY.—Sixteen thousand copies of the Bible and Testament arrived in Selma on the 15th inst., en route for Hood's army.

The Yankees are enforcing the draft at Vicksburg. All who refuse to enlist are lodged in jail.

[From Macon Telegraph, Sept. 24.] PRESIDENT DAVIS IN MACON.

President Davis arrived quite unexpectedly on the Central train at 4 o'clock yesterday morning. Indeed, no one in the city had the least intimation of his coming.

After an organization had been effected, a committee consisting of Clifford Anderson, Howell Cobb and H. A. Trotman, was sent to the residence of Gen. Cobb, where the President was stopping, to extend him a formal invitation.

Introduced by General Cobb, Mr. Davis said: Ladies and gentlemen, friends and fellow citizens...

What, though misfortune has befallen our arms from Decatur to Jonesboro', our cause is not lost. Sherman cannot keep up his long line of communication, and retreat sooner or later he must.

How can this be the most speedy effected? By the absence of Hood's army returning to their posts. And will they not? Can they see the banished exiles, can they hear the wail of their suffering country-women and children, and not come?

The President then alluded to the objects for which the meeting had assembled, and expressed the hope that the refugees and exiles would be well provided for.

A CONSCRIPTION ORDER.—Brig. Gen. J. S. Preston, head of the Conscript Bureau, has issued the annexed order: Commandants of Conscripts will instruct County Enrolling Officers to proceed diligently...

I know the deep disgrace felt by Georgia at our army falling back from Dalton to the interior of the State; but I was not of those who considered Atlanta lost when our army crossed the Chatahoochee.

If I knew a General did not possess the right qualities to command, would I not been wrong if he was not removed? Why, when our army was falling back from Northern Georgia...

Recent tidings from Arkansas are to the effect that Shelby has withdrawn his forces from between the White and Mississippi rivers, and is gathering them at Pocahontas and Batesville.

Snacks, on reading an account of the woman that had eight children at a birth, remarked that if she was a wife of his, he would apply for a divorce...

Exchange with whom no Commissioner of Exchange would hold intercourse, had published in the newspapers that if we would consent to the exchange of negroes, all difficulties might be removed.

This is reported as an effort of his to get himself whitewashed by holding intercourse with gentlemen. If an exchange could be effected, I don't know but that I might be induced to recognize Butler.

I love my friends and I forgive my enemies. I have been asked to send reinforcements from Virginia to Georgia. In Virginia the disparity in numbers is just as great as it is in Georgia.

With this we can succeed. If one half the men now absent without leave will return to duty, we can defeat the enemy.

The information to be furnished is regarded as of great importance, and the service must be accurately as well as promptly performed.

CHANGES IN HOOD'S ARMY.—From the Lovejoy correspondent of the Columbus (Ga.) Times of the 16th, we learn, that on account of irreconcilable differences with Gen. Hood, Lieut. Gen. Hardee has been relieved of the command of his corps.

WHEELER.—We hear it stated from a reliable source, says the Macon Confederate, that Gen. Hood expresses himself perfectly satisfied with what Wheeler has done, and that in a few days the people will be made aware of the service he has rendered.

Gov. Yates has forbidden recruiting for other States in Illinois. A Massachusetts recruiting agent was recently arrested at Cairo on the strength of this order.
