REPORTER'S DICTIONARY.
 BASED ON PHONOGRAPHY.
 IN PRESS and shortly to be published, a book with the above title, prepared by the subscriber, who has had nearly 20 years practice in Phonographic writing, having been at one time employed as an official reporter in the United States Senate, and who has been reporter for the last seventeen months, and is now, reporter of the Atlanta Intelligencer.
 The Dictionary will contain indications, by means of a simple nomenclature, for writing with Phonographic letters, about 20,000 words of the English language, of ninety-nine hundredths of these in common use—the remaining words being easily written after these are learned.
 In the Introduction to the Dictionary, simple instruction will be given for beginners of the study of Phonography, with lithographed illustrations, prepared by one of the best artists in the Confederacy. The object of the publication is to make a STANDARD for Confederate Reporters, and to render it possible for the much coveted and beautiful art of Reporting, to be learned even without the aid of a teacher.
 As the work will be expensive, new type having been procured expressly for it, only a small edition will be issued. Those who desire copies are requested to send to the author their orders at once, (to be recorded,) accompanied with the price of the same, which will be five dollars per copy. The book in paper cover, and suitable for use, will be sent to all subscribers, by mail, without additional expense.

CLAIMS OF Deceased Officers and Soldiers.

WISDOM, N. C., June 20th, 1864.
THE UNDERSIGNED has been appointed a Commissioner to investigate, collect and pay over to the parties entitled thereto, all claims for bounty, arrearages of pay and allowances, due to the representatives of deceased officers and soldiers from this State.
 The parties entitled are: first, the widow of the deceased, if any, if there be no widow then, secondly, the child or children, if there be such, if there be neither widow or children then, thirdly, the father, if there be neither widow, child, children or father then; fourthly, the mother of the deceased, and in default of all of these then, fifthly, the executor or administrator of the deceased.
 The claimant or claimants must furnish his, her or their affidavit, and that of one disinterested witness as to the claimant's identity, and affidavit must negative the existence of a claimant or claimants of a higher order. The Justice of the Peace, before whom the affidavit is subscribed must certify to the credibility of the witness, under the seal of the Court, that he is a Justice of the Peace.
 If the claimant or claimants be a child or children of the deceased, and he, she or they be minors, the claim must be propounded by his, her or their guardian, and the fact of his being guardian must be certified to, under seal of the County Court Clerk.
 When the claim is made by an executor or administrator, the fact of the executorship or administratorship must be certified to, under seal by the County Court Clerk.
 All of these papers should be sent in duplicate.
 Any person directly interested will be furnished, upon application to me, with a proper form of these papers in full; a copy of which, for the greater convenience of parties, will be forwarded as soon as may be practicable to each County Court Clerk.
 This commission is intended to facilitate the collection of these claims, and save the claimants all expense.
 Parties interested may materially aid me in the investigation of their claims, if at the time of forwarding their paper to me, they will inform me of the date of the death of the deceased, where he died, whether or not they or any one for them, have received the personal effects which deceased had with him at the time of his death, and whether or not the deceased (if a non-commissioned officer or private) had ever received the State's bounty.
 It is very desirable that all claims should be forwarded at as early a day as may be practicable. In all cases, give the claimants' Post Office and County in full.

J. N. A. STANLEY,
 Commissioner.

TO THE FRIENDS OF THE SOLDIERS THROUGHOUT THE CONFEDERACY

QUARTERMASTER GENERAL DEPARTMENT, RAILROAD BUREAU.
 RICHMOND, Feb. 10th, 1864.
THE friends and relatives of soldiers in the Army of Northern Virginia are hereby notified that an arrangement has this day been effected with the SOUTHERN EXPRESS COMPANY, to carry all packages of food and wearing apparel to Richmond, Va.
 To secure the advantages thus obtained through the express company, the following instructions must be observed:
 Packages must not contain more than one hundred pounds; be well secured, and plainly marked, and sent at the expense of the shipper to either of the Soldiers' Relief Associations, which are located as follows:
 In North Carolina, at Raleigh; in South Carolina, at Columbia; in Georgia, at Augusta; in Alabama, at Montgomery; or at any other point at which one of these Associations have an office.
 The Agents of these Associations will there take charge of them, and supply them, by Southern Express Company, to the proper Agents of the respective States at Richmond, who will see them distributed to the proper individual owners.
 To meet the wishes of the soldiers, and to give them a certain and speedy communication with home the Southern Express Company has agreed to give this freight a preference over everything else; and in order that no obstacle may occur to the success of so laudable an enterprise, the several Railroad Companies are hereby requested to render the Express Company such facilities as will enable it to make this arrangement a complete success.
 As the Southern Express Company assumes all responsibility of the transportation of those packages, the Relief Associations are requested to withdraw their Agents who have heretofore acted as traveling messengers. If the Relief Association will establish agencies in the rear of these armies, they may enjoy the same privileges, heretofore secured to the Army of Northern Virginia.
 F. W. SIMS,
 Lieut. Col. and Quartermaster.

Approved,
 V. R. Lawton, Quartermaster Gen.
OFFICE SOUTHERN EXPRESS COMPANY,
 AUGUSTA, GA., Feb 20, 1864.
THE SOUTHERN EXPRESS COMPANY hereby notify the friends and relatives of Soldiers in the Army of Northern Virginia, and elsewhere, that they are prepared to carry out arrangements as announced in the above card and that they will do all in their power to fulfill its requirements.

MOVEMENTS OF PRICE AND FORECAST!

A SEVERE BATTLE!
FROM LEE'S ARMY.
MOVEMENTS OF THE ENEMY!
 &c., &c., &c.

RICHMOND, Oct. 12.—The Whig has received the Washington Chronicle of the 8th. Stanton sends a telegraph dispatch to Dix, dated the 7th, based upon a dispatch from Gen. Thomas, dated Nashville, the 7th, whose information was derived from Chattanooga, where Gen. Smith telegraphs to Thomas that the Confederates retreated from Altoona on 4th, moving in the direction of Dallas, leaving their dead and wounded in the hands of the enemy. Meanwhile Sherman's press dispatch of the same date says in the fight at Altoona on the 5th, our forces completely vanquished the rebels, who retreated, leaving in our hands between 400 and 500 killed and wounded.
 Report says Forrest is enroute for Florence from Lawrenceburg. Another account says he is surrounded. An important movement is going on in Missouri. Late advices state that Price attempted to cross Osage river at Castle Rock, but was prevented by Yankee troops on the other side. As the river has swollen, it was supposed he would try to cross at another point.
 It is also reported that several hundred Confederate cavalry crossed the Missouri into Montgomery county, Missouri.
 The bridges over Gasconade river and Cole's creek were burned. At the latter point 20 locomotives and 30 cars were destroyed.
 A dispatch from St. Louis of the 7th of October says the enemy appeared before Jefferson City to-day. It is not known whether a battle has been fought.
 The amount of damage to the Pacific Railroad is $300,000, and the prospective loss in business the same amount.
 Rosecrans reports Ewing arrived at Rolla.
 Neither Stanton or the press give any thing from the Army of the Potomac.
 Grant is in Washington.
 Gold in New York on the 7th, 20 1/2.

CHARLOTTEVILLE, Oct. 12.—Our cavalry have had a severe fight near Edwering, in the Valley. We drove the enemy's cavalry for several days, but on Sunday ventured too far and got in among their infantry. The result was we were repulsed and lost 8 guns. In other respects the affair does not seem to be serious.
 PETERSBURG, Oct. 12.—Northern dates to the 9th received. Nothing from Sherman. Butler reports that in fight below Richmond on Friday, the rebels attacked with spirit, Kautz's Cavalry, in three detachments and drove them back with small loss of men, but with loss of his artillery, but says Birney subsequently advanced and regained Kautz' old position and holds the enemy in his inner line of entrenchments around Richmond. Butler says we have much the better of this day's work. 1,000 of the enemy were killed and wounded, 100 prisoners and a bloody repulse.
 PETERSBURG, Oct. 12.—Last night there was heavy artillery and musketry for an hour or more, growing out of an alarm on the part of our pickets, amounting to nothing.
 The enemy is demonstrating in front of Bermuda Hundreds to day. The enemy were moving across pontoons to the north side of the James river all last night. Hospitals, wagon camps and other places are being rigidly inspected, and able-bodied men required to report to the front, disabled men and negroes to take their places as far as possible.

BATH BULLION ON THE PRESIDENCY.—The tender-hearted and affectionate father, in a letter to "Dear Uncle Sam" (of Pennsylvania, Lincoln's former secretary of War) in which he bids adieu to the Democratic friends and sides with Lincoln, essays to satisfy his old confederates that there is no difficulty in the way of their voting for Lincoln. He says if they elect McClellan they rent the country to the hands of Vandalism, Vandalism, Wood, Seymour and others, who, if even they carry on the war, will disband two hundred thousand colored men now doing duty as soldiers. But if a trump, this argument will be against Yankeeism. The hundred thousand of them have no fear of putting their lives in the power of the negroes! But if Lincoln is elected, the negro will be a free man. It is an idle one, for the critics settle it as they advance. Slavey terminates wherever they appear.
 He objects with great earnestness to McClellan's proposition to give the South guarantees, and asks it is possible anybody at the North will agree to concessions to the South, forced at the point of the bayonet? For himself, he declares he has but one article in his political creed, and that is "war," until the authority of the Union is acknowledged and its laws obeyed upon every foot of soil ever within the boundary of the United States. Most amiable and conciliatory least! May you have enough of war before you descend to your final abode!
 Richmond Dispatch.

FROM GEORGIA.—Northern dates of the 6th say that they have heard nothing from Sherman for five days. They suppose that he is engaged in strengthening his position and destroying rebel communications, and that he is only silent because he is too busy to communicate with the Government; by useless dispatches. They are seemingly convinced that he is playing smart generally.
 General Hood is probably aware of his movements, and will keep him from doing much harm.
