REPORTER'S DICTIONARY.

BASED ON PHONOGRAPHY. IN PRESS and shortly to be published, a book with the above title, prepared by the subscriber, who has had nearly 20 years practice in Phonographic writing, having been at one time employed as an official reporter in the United States Senate, and who has been for the last seventeen months, and is now, reporter of the Atlanta Intelligencer.

The Dictionary will contain indications, by means of a simple nomenclature, for writing with Phonographic letters, about 20,000 words of the English language, of ninety-nine one-hundredths of those in common use—the remaining words being easily written after these are learned.

In the Introduction to the Dictionary, simple instruction will be given for beginners of the study of Phonography, with lithographed illustrations, prepared by one of the best artists in the Confederacy. The object of the publication is to make a STANDARD for Confederate Reporters, and to render it possible for the much-coveted and beautiful art of Reporting, to be learned even without the aid of a teacher.

As the work will be expensive, new type having been procured expressly for it, only a small edition will be issued. Those who desire copies are requested to send to the author their orders at once, (to be recorded,) accompanied with the price of the same, which will be five dollars per copy. The book in paper cover, and suitable for use, will be sent to all subscribers, by mail, without additional expense.

CLAIMS

of Deceased Officers and Soldiers.

WILSON, N. C., June 20th, 1864. THE UNDERSIGNED has been appointed a Commissioner to investigate, collect and pay over to the parties entitled thereto, all claims for bounty, arrears of pay and allowances, due to the representatives of deceased officers and soldiers from this State.

The parties entitled are: first, the widow of the deceased, if any, if there be no widow then, secondly, the child or children, if there be such, if there be neither widow or children then, thirdly, the father, if there be neither widow, child, or children or father then, fourthly, the mother of the deceased, and in default of all of these then, fifthly, the executor or administrator of the deceased.

The claimant or claimants must furnish his, her or their affidavits, and certify to the existence of a claimant or claimants of a higher order. The Justice of the Peace, before whom the affidavit is subscribed must certify to the credibility of the witness, and Clerk of the County Court must certify, under the seal of the Court, that he is a Justice of the Peace.

If the claimant or claimants be a child or children of the deceased, and he, she or they be minors, the claim must be propounded by his, her or their guardian, and the fact of his being guardian must be certified to, under seal of the County Court Clerk.

When the claim is made by an executor or administrator, the fact of the executorship or administratorship must be certified to, under seal by the County Court Clerk.

All of these papers should be sent in duplicate. Any person directly interested will be furnished, upon application to me, with a proper form of these papers in full; a copy of which, for the greater convenience of parties, will be forwarded as soon as may be practicable to each County Court Clerk.

This commission is intended to facilitate the collection of these claims, and save the claimants all expense.

Parties interested may materially aid me in the investigation of their claims, if at the time of forwarding their paper to me, they will inform me of the date of the death of the deceased, where he died, whether or not they or any one for them, have received the personal effects which deceased had with him at the time of his death, and whether or not the deceased (if a non-commissioned officer or private) had ever received the State's bounty. It is very desirable that all claims should be forwarded as early a day as may be practicable. In all cases, give the claimant's Post Office and County in full.

J. O. A. STANLEY, Commissioner.

TO THE FRIENDS OF THE SOLDIERS

Throughout the Confederacy

QUARTERMASTER GENERAL DEPARTMENT, RAILROAD BUREAU.

RICHMOND, Feb. 20th, 1864.

THE friends and relatives of soldiers in the Army of Northern Virginia are hereby notified that an arrangement has been effected with the SOUTHERN EXPRESS COMPANY, to carry all packages of food and wearing apparel to Richmond, Va.

To secure the advantages thus obtained through the express company, the following instructions must be observed:

Packages must not contain more than one hundred pounds; be well secured and plainly marked, and sent at the expense of the shipper to either of the Soldiers' Relief Associations, which are located as follows: In North Carolina, at Raleigh; in South Carolina, at Columbia; in Georgia, at Augusta; in Alabama, at Montgomery; or at any other point at which one of these Associations have an office.

The Agents of these Associations will there take charge of them, and ship daily, by Southern Express Company, to the proper Agents of the respective States at Richmond, who will see them distributed to the proper individual owners.

To meet the wishes of the soldiers, and to give them a certain and speedy communication with home the Southern Express Company has agreed to give this freight preferential over everything else; and in order that no obstacle may occur to the success of so laudable an enterprise, the several Railroad Companies are hereby requested to render the Express Company such facilities as will enable it to make this arrangement a complete success.

As the Southern Express Company assumes all responsibility of the transportation of those packages, the Relief Associations are requested to withdraw their Agents who have heretofore acted as traveling messengers. If the Relief Association will establish agencies in the rear of their armies, they may enjoy the same privileges hereby secured to the Army of Northern Virginia.

F. W. SIMS, Lieut. Col. and Quartermaster.

Approved. V. R. LAWTON, Quartermaster Gen.

OFFICE SOUTHERN EXPRESS CO., AUGUSTA, GA., Feb. 20, 1864.

THE SOUTHERN EXPRESS COMPANY hereby notify the friends and relatives of Soldiers in the Army of Northern Va., and elsewhere, that they are prepared to carry out arrangements as announced in the above card and that they will do all in their power to fulfil its requirements.

TELEGRAPHIC

Reported by the Press Association 1864

Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1863, by J. S. Thrasher, in the Clerk's office of the District Court of the Confederate States, for the Northern District of Georgia.

FROM THE VALLEY.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Oct. 15.—Sheridan has marched with two corps of his side of the mountain, through Thornton's and Chester's Gaps. General Early followed and engaged a remaining corps, under Johnston, at Thornton's Gap, through Strasburg and a Cross Cedar Creek.

THE NORTHERN ELECTIONS.

RICHMOND, Oct. 15.—To night Northern papers of the 12th were received. Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio went for the Republicans by large majorities. Sheridan is at Fisher's Hill.

The Governor General of Nova Scotia is on a visit to General Grant. Nothing later from Sherman.

FOOTSTEPS OF LOVE.

The first step towards love is to play with a cousin. There is a "freedom from starch" in the intercourse of young people in the relationship that ripens as naturally into affection as buds into fruit, or tadpoles into bullfrogs.

Doctor, looking learned, speaking slow: "Well, my niece, what tooth you want extracted? It is a molar or an incisor?"

back, short and sharp: "It is in the upper tier, on the larboard side, bear a hand you swab, for it is nipping my jaw like a lobster."

General Sherman is very truthfully described as a "man who has a gaunt look about him—as if he got hungry when a boy and never got over it. A nervous man or quiet, pulling his whiskers or buttoning his coat or twisting a string, or rubbing a finger.

A friend of ours has invented a capital way to prevent the smell of cooking in a house. It is to have nothing for breakfast and warm it over for dinner and supper.

The moral and apprehensive nature of girls is more rapidly developed than the mind of boys, as satellites move quicker than planets, or as flowers bloom sooner in valleys than on mountains.

"Let us remove emption" from the path of youth," as the frog said as he plunged into the water, when he saw a boy pick up a stone.

The silk worm feeds upon the mulberry leaf and spins his silk. The poet feasts upon the world of nature, and spins his beautiful thoughts and fancies.

The woman who neglects her husband's shirt front, is not the wife of his bosom.

Parties recently out from Atlanta report that several stores have been opened in the city since the Federal possession; sutler's shops are in full blast; calicoes, gingham, and bales of domestics line the sidewalks on business thoroughfares; an immense amount of railroad iron, chains and spikes has been sent down since the occupation of the city; the warehouses are full of commissary stores; the passenger depot is one vast pile of creakers. The citizens that remained were freely exchanging Confederate currency for greenbacks at the rate of forty for one.

We take the following from the Jackson County (Wisconsin) Banner:

Mr. E. L. Brockway, who is South procuring substitutes for this town, says he procured eleven negroes and was on his way home with them, when Wheeler's cavalry made a raid on the railroad, cutting it in half a dozen places. The train he was on was attacked, but he escaped, and so did most of the negroes, they taking to the woods. He got five negroes as far as Nashville, when the provost marshal impressed them, and Brock was left without a nigger to his lack.

THE FLOWERS COLLECTION

YANKEE STEAMER WRECKED.—The Aphrodite Yankee steamer transport with recruits for the Southern squadron, ran ashore on Monday the 31st inst., on Shark-leford's Banks, twenty miles east of Fort Mifflin, with over five hundred men on board. Twelve of the men were drowned. Six others deserted and reported on the 6th inst., to Col. Whitford at Kingston. We have not learned whether the vessel was a total wreck; but we learn from those acquainted with the locality of the disaster that she was likely to go to pieces.—State Journal.

MISSOURI.—Jefferson Barracks.

which the Yankee General Smith has retired, is only ten miles from St. Louis, and the most important point this side. From all accounts, Price is in fair way to capture St. Louis. Should such a fortunate event transpire, North Missouri, always true to the South, will be open to us, with its thousands of recruits. Look out for an invasion of Illinois, and a rear march on Sherman, which will make the said Sherman rue the day he ever ventured from Chattanooga.

FORREST IS REPORTED BY THE YANKEE PAPERS TO HAVE BUTCHERED ALL THE NEGROES FOUND AT SUGHER SPRINGS; BUT THEY DO NOT TELL WHAT HE DID WITH THEM AFTERWARDS.

A moderate brigade of their ghosts may be seen any morning marching out to our encampments, in military order, all in Yankee uniform and with spears on their shoulders; and we certainly never before saw that many hundred ghosts presenting so substantial and contented an appearance.

REINFORCED.—The State Journal learns on good authority, that the Yankee garrison at Newbern has been reinforced by three regiments of negroes.

The Journal also learns that, at the same place, the yellow fever is carrying off eighty persons per day.

Three negro Yankee soldiers were killed last Saturday, on Brice's Creek, by a party of Col. Whitford's scouts.
