THE REPORTER'S DICTIONARY.

BASED ON PHONOGRAPHY. IN PRESS and shortly to be published, a book with the above title, prepared by the subscriber, who has had nearly 20 years practice in Phonographic writing, having been at one time employed as an official reporter in the United States Senate, and who has been for the last seventeen months, and is now, reporter of the Atlanta Intelligencer.

The Dictionary will contain indications, by means of a simple nomenclature, for writing with Phonography letters, about 20,000 words of the English language, of ninety-nine one-hundredths of those in common use—the remaining words being easily written after these are learned.

In the Introduction to the Dictionary, simple instruction will be given for beginners of the study of Phonography, with lithographed illustrations, prepared by one of the best artists in the Confederacy. The object of the publication is to make a STANDARD for Confederate Reporters, and to render it possible for the much coveted and beautiful art of Reporting, to be learned even without the aid of a teacher.

As the work will be expensive, new type having been procured expressly for it, only a small edition will be issued. Those who desire copies are requested to send to the author their orders at once, (to be recorded,) accompanied with the price of the same, which will be five dollars per copy. The book in paper cover, and suitable for use, will be sent to all subscribers, by mail, without additional expense.

CLAIMS OF DECEASED OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS.

WILSON, N. C., June 20th, 1864. THE UNDERSIGNED has been appointed a Commissioner to investigate, collect and pay over to the parties entitled thereto, all claims for bounty, arrears of pay and allowances, due to the representatives of deceased officers and soldiers from this State.

The parties entitled are: first, the widow of the deceased, if any, if there be no widow then, secondly, the child or child, if there be such, if there be neither widow or children then, thirdly, the father, if there be neither widow, child, children or father then, fourthly, the mother of the deceased, and in default of all of these then, fifthly, the executor or administrator of the deceased.

The claimant or claimants must furnish his, her or their affidavit and list of one disinterested witness as to the relationship, and in all cases, where the claimant is not the widow, the affidavit must negative the existence of a claimant of a higher order. The Justice of the Peace, before whom the affidavit is subscribed must certify to the credibility of the witness, and Clerk of the County Court must certify, under the seal of the Court, that he is a Justice of the Peace.

If the claimant or claimants be a child or children of the deceased, and he, she or they be minors, the claim must be pronounced by his, her or their guardian, and the fact of his being guardian must be certified to, under seal of the County Court Clerk.

When the claim is made by an executor or administrator, the fact of the executorship or administratorship must be certified to, under seal by the County Court Clerk.

All of these papers should be sent in duplicate. Any person directly interested will be furnished, upon application to me, with a proper form of these papers in full; a copy of which, for the greater convenience of parties, will be forwarded as soon as may be practicable to each County Court Clerk.

This commission is intended to facilitate the collection of these claims, and save the claimants all expense.

Parties interested may materially aid me in the investigation of their claims, if at the time of forwarding their papers, they will inform me of the date of the death of the deceased, where he died, whether or not they or any one for them, have received the personal effects which deceased had with him at the time of his death, and which or not the deceased (if a non-commissioned officer or private) had ever received the State's bounty.

It is very desirable that all claims should be forwarded at as early a day as may be practicable. In all cases, give the claimants' Post Office and County in full.

JNO. A. STANLY, Commissioner. TO THE FRIENDS OF THE SOLDIERS THROUGHOUT THE CONFEDERACY. QUARTERMASTER GENERAL DEPARTMENT, RAILROAD DEPARTMENT. Richmond, Feb. 20th, 1864.

THE friends and relatives of soldiers in the Army of Northern Virginia are hereby notified that an arrangement has this day been effected with the SOUTHERN EXPRESS COMPANY, to carry all packages of food and wearing apparel to Richmond, Va.

FROM LEE'S ARMY. OFFICIAL FROM GEN. LEE.

Fighting Still Going On! SEVERAL ATTACKS REPULSED.

Richmond, Oct. 28.—An official dispatch from General Lee, last night, says the enemy crossed Bonham's Creek, below Burgess' Mills, and forced back our cavalry. In the afternoon Heth attacked and first drove them, but found them in too strong force. Afterwards the enemy attacked our lines but were repulsed. They still hold the Plank road at Burgess' Mill. Heth took some colors and prisoners.—The movement of the enemy against our left to day was repulsed. Two attacks upon our lines were made—one between Henrico Poor House and the Charles City road, and the other on the Williamsburg road. Several hundred prisoners and 4 stand of colors were captured. Our loss very slight.

On the 27th, Col. Mosby, near Bunker Hill, captured Brig. Gen. Duffie and several other prisoners, a number of horses and killed a number of the enemy. He sustained no loss.

FIGHTING AROUND PETERSBURG—NO DECISIVE RESULTS.

PETERSBURG, Oct. 28th.—Last night about dark the enemy charged our works on the Baxton road, capturing a small portion of them, from which, however, they were subsequently dislodged, with the loss of about a dozen prisoners. Our loss small. Lt. Col. Harrison and Wise, of Wise's Brigade, were captured by the enemy.

About 10 o'clock last night the enemy charged our works on the Jerusalem Plank road, capturing a part of our picket line and driving in the rest of it. At 12 o'clock, however, this part of the line was re-established.

In the fight yesterday evening, on the Boyton Plank road, below here, three battle flags were captured from the enemy. About 200 prisoners were taken yesterday. Nothing heard from below this morning. The enemy's cavalry are on the road towards the Southside Railroad.

FROM THE FRONT.—The Columbus Enquirer has the annexed news from the front:

The latest accounts seem to show that Hood's advance has induced Sherman to move up still nearer to Chattanooga.—The latest movements of our army are not certainly known or fully understood. There is, however, nothing confirmatory of the yankee report that it is 'falling back.' Whether its march is still to be onward, even into Tennessee, or whether it will go into winter quarters conveniently near its new base, remains for the future to disclose.

The late movement has effectually relieved Middle and Western Georgia of the immediate pressure of war; and though the Yankees still maintain a garrison at Atlanta, it is retaining its hold by a tenure, every day slackening, and which must soon be entirely broken, without some altogether improbable occurrence.

It is stated that Gen. Beauregard left Jacksonville a few days since, but his destination is conjectural. Some say that he was about to cross the Tennessee river. It is not likely, however, that his intentions were known outside of high consulting officers. The place of the two armies for the winter, must soon be developed by their acts, and until we have such manifestation, speculation would be idle.

WOODEN LEGS.—It is stated that a single Eastern leg factory has leased eight square miles of forest in Maine, for the purpose of obtaining supplies of timber for the manufacture of the artificial limb. All kinds are turned out, from the flesh colored and silver plated prop for the General, down to the rough, unpainted stump for the private soldier.

THE CELESTIAL ARMY.

BY O. W. HOLMES.

I stood by the open casement, And looked upon the night, And saw the westward going stars Pass slowly out of sight.

Slowly as the bright procession Went down the gleaming arch, And my soul dis-cerred the music Of the long triumphal march.

Till the great celestial army, Stretching far beyond the poles, Became the eternal symbol Of the mighty march of souls.

Onward, forever onward, Red Mars led down his clan, And the moon like a mailed maiden, Was rising in the van.

And some were bright in beauty, And some were faint and small, But these might be in their great heights The noblest of them all.

Downward, forever downward, Behind earth's dusky shore, They pass into the unknown night— They pass—and were no more.

No more! Oh! say not so! And downward is not just; For the sight is weak, and the sense is dim That looks through heated dust.

The stars and the mailed moon, Though they seem to fall and die, Still sweep with their embattled line, An endless reach of sky.

And though the hills of earth May hide the bright array, The marshalled brotherhood of souls Still keeps its onward way.

Upward, forever upward, I see their march sublime, And hear the glorious music Of the conquerors of time.

And long let me remember That the palest fairest one, May to diviner vision be A bright and blazing sun.
