FROM GEORGIA - MILLEDGEVILLE CAPTURED

Argusta, Nov. 22 .- The central train from Davisbore, reports that Milledgeville and Gordon were captured yesterday by the enemy. The store houses, Governor's Mansion and Penitentiary were burned. Gen. Wavne holds the Ocones bridge. Nothing frem Macon.

Passengers from the Georgia Road report that the train went up to Greensboro to-day. The enemy appear to have all gone in the direction of Milledgeville and Macon, but nothing certain is known.

A sconting party went into Atlanta, after the Yankees left. They report that all the business portion of the city was destroyed.

From Petersburg.

PETERSBURG, Nov. 22 .- All guiet .-The roads are deep in mud, and the streams are much swollen.

The recent activity of the enemy on our right is ascertained to have grown out of a fear of an attack from us.

The weather is cloudy and cold with indications of snow.

From the Valley

NEW MARKET, Nov. 22 .- Two divisions of the enemy's cavalry, came 2 miles this side of Mount Jackson this morning. We attacked them and drove them below Edinburg a distance of ten or eleven miles. Our loss was s ven or eight kill ed and wounded; the enemy's not known.

The Louisville Journal, of the 12th instant, says, "there can be no retreat or disaster's to Sherman's army, and continues as follows :

The situation of military affairs at the front is very encouraging to those who understand, the stupendous strategic movements of the grand army of the Mississippi in their details. For prudent reasons alone the disposition of our forces is not made public, as such information might frustrate the plans of General Sherman, who has throughly matured and wisely resolved upon a course of action which will prove him to be the nation's greatest General. He is now constructing one of the grandest enterprises that was ever originated by the tertile brain of military genius, and we are convinced that the leading objects of the undertaking will be accomplished, and that the effort will prove a perfect success. We are not at liberty to mention in what theatre this expedition is likely to operate, nor to mention its numerical strength, or its ulterior designs. It is enough to state that good will doubtlese he accomplished by the army of the Mississippi in a few weeks. A more important military movement has not been undertaken since the commencement of the rebellion, and the Confederacy will soon receive a shock that will shake it from the centre to the circumserence. The most startling intelligence may speedily be expected as the natural result of the execution of the programme laid down for the guidance of all the subordinates, who feel a lively interest in the success of the enterprise. Much has been written in error and ignorance concerning General Sherman's situation and movements. We can assure the country that there is no such thing as a retreat, a disaster, or a miscal ulation in the evident intention of the ret ogade movement of a part of our forces, and there are no grounds of apprehension as to the final dollars, is scarcely to be had now for twelve and fifteen dollars a barrel: whisky, which used to be thought high at two dollars a gallon, is worth now eight and ten; bread, formerly three and four cents a loaf, is now seven and eight cents, and the size diminished at that; hotels that used to charge two dollars a day are now asking five and six.

Prices of all kinds have advanced greatly in the North. Gold is two hundred and twenty nine and more. which makes the Federal currency worth about forty cents on the dollar. Owing to this depreciation the necessaries of life and articles of all kinds have run up to the most extravagant prices. Cotton, which was before the war only some six or seven cents a pound, is now worth in New York a dollar and a quarter, common white shirting muslin, which used to be bought for ten to twelve cents a yard, prime quality, now brings fifty to sixty cents; sugar which used to be bought for eight and nine cents, sells now for twentyfive cents a pound; flour which was a drug in the market for five and six House.

The Nashville Whig says Judge Wright, of Georgia, recently a member of the Richmond Congress, has passed through Nashville to Washington to see what can be cone toward bringing about pence.-Northern item.

"Judge Wright," says the Charlotte Democrat, is the man who offered "peace resolutions" last winter in the Confederare Congress, which, it is said, favored reconstruction. He offered the resolutions at about the close of the session and then left Richmond to avoid, it is supposed. censure or (xouls on, We presume he has gone to Y. hkee land to stay. A hankering after the "flesh pots of Egypt" is beginning to manifest itself on others besides "Judge Wright."
