ENGLISH PRESUMPTION.

It has always been a matter of astonishment to us that England has, for ages, set herself up as, par excellence, the just, enlightened, and humane nation of earth; the vindicator of the wronged; the champion of appressed people, all over the world. It is still more strange that she has found perhaps the majority of mankind, willing to shut their eyes to her record as it really is, to take her thing like Irish nationality. In the reign of empire. Edward IV. of England, an act passed parli- Such is English history. These have been said:

They were beaten by William of Orange, king of singland, at Boyne river, and at stion, and again were confiscations the order | congress, in opposition to the administration. ernment into a despotion.

aid was sought from France, who sent over having almost ruined the country. spirit, committed suicide in prison.

faint semblence of independence in the shape hold that position, were he taken from it. We following emphatic language: of a parliament separate from that of Eng. have reason to be glad, therefore, when opland. In 1801, despite the opposition of position begins to raise its head on the floor Grattan and his associates, what was called of the Southern Congress, and point to the the legislative union was effected, and the President as the cause of ruin; for who can the Union," and "that all paper laws we Irish parliament was no more. The last ves- tell what the beginning of oppoistion may have are the strength, force and power of the ings in favor of it. A larger meeting than It says: witnessed the last effort on the part of Irish ginning of the end." patriots. Wm. Smith O Brien, who was a member of the British house of commons, Thomas Frances Meagher, Richard O'Gorgentlemen, together with McManus and 187 talented people; a nation that has produced Jack was decidedly drunk. poetry. She has completely destroyed the ng in a corner. nationality of a people over whom she had no more right to exercise control than she has to claim allegiance from Austria, Spain, or any out, walking on three legs. - One fore-paw other power on earth.

Nor can she claim that all this is of the words could do: past, and that she is no longer guilty of the charges we bring against her. Until she reament, she is allowed a meagre shadow of pole, chattered and grinned defiance. representation in that which assembles in A gun, of which he was always afraid, was ing, he drove into one of them for shelter, London. England, with a population of sixties to become his tributaries; and upon the line of native princes; but let us examine the makers to judgment and trying their own

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., FEBRUARY 10, 1864. VOL 1.

Llewellyn, the duty of fealty was acknow- former, as in the case of Ireland, proscribed following memorable words: ledged by the latter; but he was unwilling, the Scotch national dress, and severe penal-ament which made & lawful to-kill "any her acts, and to-day the same is the policy of persons going or coming, having no taithful the nation that presumes to rebuke the man of good name and fame in their company, people of the Confederate States, for holding patiently by the Fitzgeralds, the Desmonds, without laws and without civilization, we as true. Only an imperial or despotic gov- timated at eight hundred. In 1688 the Irish Catholics again armed land! First cast out the beam out of things potic government could have the right to A fire broke out on Commerical wharf this thetaselves and organized, under Irish and own eye, and then shall thouse e clearly to sat jugated saffected or revolutionary States."

Lish Catholics wa kept up. They were not Advices from the South inform us that II. follows: showed to hold offices of trust, to gerre in S. Foote, who was elected senator in 1817the army or navy, to posses arms, nor exer. an active advocate of the compromise measu-The struggle of the American colonies for as the Umon candidate after an exciting con- maintained by the numerical predominance independence of the role of England, re- test, over Jefferson Davis, in 1851; a member and military prowess of one section, exerted to be free. The British government suspenced | Tenn., in 1859, and where he made strong judgment, as self-contradictory as it is dang-failed. Theobald Wolf Tone, the leading representative men. For this Southern rebel- its organic functions." lion, Jefferson Davis is such a man; nor is As for Mr. Dickinson, another prominent the sons of Erin exclaimed, speaking of Irish cant advocate of Artois had become the tyrliberity: "I sat by its cradle; I followed its ant of France, and held the lives of thousands In 1803, Robert Emmet headed an unsuc- 8th Thermidor, when he came to the As- main cessful insurrection, and was executed. In sembly to brow-beat opposition, the motion 1823. Daniel O'Connell commenced agitation of Bourbon de l'Oiss to refer, instead of any previous one was projected for Clontarf, He never was a man of much weight, eithbut it was prevented by the government. In er in Washington, or Richmond; but his late deformity 1844, O'Connell and some of his fellow lab- tirade may do something towards opening deformity. orers suffered a short imprisonment, and the the eyes of the benighted people of the South repeal agitation died out. The year 1848 to the true state of affairs. It is but the be-markable, finding half a glass of whiskey Thus has England acted toward Ireland. left, took it up and drank it off. It flew, of

"Come out! said his master. .

"What a headache I've got!"

Having left him some days to get well and cracy. store to Ireland the nationality and independ- resume his gaiety, they carried him off to the ence of which she has robbed that unfortunate old scene of revel. On entering, he eved the country, she will stand convicted of crucity, glasses with manifest terror, skulking behind rapacity, and injustice. To this day, she re- the chairs, and on his master ordering him tains the fruits of her long wars against Irish to drink, he "bolted," and was on the house liberty. The ancient kingdom of Ireland top in a twinkle. They called him down. He he had met with while he was abroad. Among stands as a dependency upon haughty Eng- would not come. His master shook a whip the rest, he said that there were cannon so land. Deprived by force, of her own parli- at him. Jack, sixting astride on the ridge- large in Egypt, that once being in a carriage, teen millions, has nearly five hundred report of temperance; he ducked his head, and resentatives in the House of Commons; while alipped over to the back of the house. Two Ireland, with a population of six and a half guns were next leveled at him, one from each the truth of that myself; for I remember I millions, has only one hundred and five. All side of the house, upon which, seeing his was at the very same time at the other end vauntings in place of the truths of history, and to accord her the very advanced position ament, in their own right, but are allewed to and getting down the flue, held on with his

and monasteries.

In the year 1002, Brian Born, king of that part of freland called Munster, having driven some Danish invaders from his own kingdom, year crowned at Tara, king of all Ircland. He was a powerful prince and defended his country against all fees; but when he had never that the month of the British had not invadence of the British and not invadence

"The Federal government could not reduce position of provinces! Ok, England! Eng. and to state that "only an imperial or des- wounded. Themselves and organized, under Irish and own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to sat jugated saffected or revolutionary States."

French officers, with James II, for a leader, cast out the mote out of they brother seye."

Does that right exist in a government befactory offices. cause it is "imperial or despotic?" If this proposition be granted, then it must be fell back to Limerick and surrendered. The thern papers have jubilant editorials over a since established their claim to the exercise ed to Marysville.

of the day. All the Roman Cathelies who A summary of the speech was telegraphed So much for Mr. Sewar L. Now let us see only 125 1 could, left the country, and those who were North from the Richarond papers contain what Mr. Edward Everett has to say in recompelled by circumstances to remain, suf-ing it, received at Fortress Monroe The gard to the matter. In his letter of acceptfered the most cruel oppression. For a whole Philadelphia Inquirer, under the title of "A ance of the Union nomination for the Vice century the most relentless persecution of base Jeff Davis," has the loilowing comments: Presidency, in 1860, he expressed himself as

res in 1850; chosen governor of Mississippi, " The suggestion that the Union can be a sm 1 torce, and one more blow was struck | Now, it is the peculiarity of the rebellion States require as its basis the harmony of its wreck. for liberty. It was a feeble one however, and to be embedied, as it were, in one or more members, and their voluntary co-operation in

"No amount of force can ever maintain

The simple fact is this, that a monstrous deception has been practiced upon the people

Conscript vs. Conscript -A few days since-two sub-enrolling officers for the county A Monkey on a Spree .- "In Dr. Guthrie's of ----, in this State, enrolled and carried to "Jack as he was called, "seeing his master stopped at Marietta, to have a "bust" before O'Donoughoe, were transported. Most, or all and some companions drinking, with those returning to the discharge of their ardnous of them found their way to the United imitative powers for which his specis is reof the Camp-of Instruction ascertained that For centuries has she been engaged in the course, to his head. Amidst roars of laughter the conscript, just brought to camp, was a task of enslaving a brave, chivalrous, and he began to hop, skip, jump, and dance. very intelligent man, and conferred upon him the appointment of Enrolling Officer for the some of the most gifted of the children of Next day, when they went, with the in- said --- county, superceding the other two genius; a people whose sons have given to tention of repeating the fun, to take the poor, officials alluded to, and sent them forward Great Britain some of her brightest lumin- monkey from his bex, he was not to be seen. with his papers and now official position. On aries in statesmanship, arms, eloquence and Looking inside, they discovered him croach- arriving at Marietta, he found the late disturbers of his "rest," the two defunct enroll-Afraid to disobey, he came shamed facedly ing officers in the midst of their "spree," enrolled them and carried them to the Camp portunity of informing their friends of their federacy: new "change of base." - Atlanta Confed-

A common liar, who, to the improvement of his faculty, had been a traveler, was telling many stories of the remarkable things which drawn by four horses, and a shower fallwho was listening to him, "I can vouch for of Lords, and these number four hundred. I the fire than the "fire water," the monkey in at the mouth I drove out at the touch hole."

and arms, extended the British power unsubject. Mr. Seward acknowledged it in a the contents of a mail at that place they re- the House, contemplated a tax on Confederate sfand or fair, free—Confederate. An attempt was made to destroy every til, at last, they enslaved the whole of a vast letter to Mr. Adams, our Minister to England, crossed to Culpeper county They have been notes so heavy as to absorb the bulk of the before the war broke out. In that letter he scouting for the past week and changing currency with the view of increasing the cur-day, and is the guest of Gen. Lee.

of the galling slavery to which the Irish were reduced—even their national dress being slavery to their national dress being several sources, state reduced-even their national dress being worst kind of barbarism, anarchy, want, and, question the proposition. But, in fact, he that Gen. Early has captured a force of Yanproscribed. This iron yoke was borne imigrated, the most miserable form of slavery, continues. the President willingly accepts it kees at Petersburg, Hardy county, Va., es-

the O'Neils, and other gallant spirits, as may compel them to work, for which we clothe ernment could have the right to subject | Charleston, Feb. 1 .- One hundred and easily be imagained; and many were the at- and feed them in their prime, and nurse and disaffected or insurrectionary States. The thirty-one shells were fired at Sumter yester. tempts made to recover their lost independence, by this brave peoply. In 1649, Cromwell took Dragheda by storm and gave it up to nillare by his soldiery. At length he to pillage by his soldiery. At length he ra- Ireland and Scotland, with ruthless hand We will not stop to criticise the language continued to-day-100 shells were fired up and a popularity and influence not inferior to duce t the country to what seemed complete de-troys their governments-their nation in which this admission is clothed, but merely to a this evening, since which the firing has any other-published in cur capital, and cirsubjection, and four-lifths of the land was alities and reduces them to the degrading desire to show how absurd it is of Mr. Sew- been more rapid. Two persons were slightly culating in wery direction through the land was not as great as at first reported, being serted that "the success of the cause is em-Weather clear and very pieasant. MOBILE, Jan 30 .- The Court house here the attic. The County records are safe in the lower story, which is fire proof .- The Library, &c., in the second story were saved only to dispense its benefits in times of peace!

more does a union of co-equal sovereign is believed that the vessel will be a total very brink of war when it was framed and Up to this time, Ireland did posses one there any one in the whole South who could war man, he has put himself on record in the 5 o'clock yesterday to 5 o'clock yesterday yesterday to 5 o'clock yesterday to 5 o'clock yesterday to 5 o'clock yesterday to 5 o'clock yesterday yesterd

Irish parliament was no more. The last vestige of nationality had departed. It was about this time that one of the most gifted of the strength of the government are not worth a single rush to confer.

ORANGE C. H., Feb. 2.—Reports received the strength of the government are strength, force and power of the conference of the strength of the strength which measure was finally carried in the position, and secured the fall of Robespierre? men whom they elevated to high political Guik, of the third Mississippi cavalry, enter-British parliament. He then undertook the The New York Herald, while it basn't positions, and who enjoyed their fullest trust ed Lagrange yesteaday, and occupies it now. as it now is, dies. repeal of the legislative union-speaking for much affection for Mr. Foote, hopes that and confidence. It is about time the fraud Mobile, Feb. 2.—A special dispatch from it in parliament, and holding immense meet. something may result from his speeches, was exposed, that the mask was torn off, and Como to-day, says that 27 taansports in all, the features which mark this unnatural strife, averaging six to eight hundred each, have meeting is going on.

PETERSRUG, Feb. 3 .- The Philadelphia Inquirer of the 1st has been received. Lincoln

Alabama-Thomas H. Watts. Arkansas-T. Flannagin. Florida—John Milton. Georgia—Joseph E Brown. Kentucky-Richard Hawes. Louisiana—Henry W. Allen.
Mississippi—Charles Clark.
Missouri—T. C. Reynolds.
North Carolin.—Zabulan B. Vance. South Carolina-M. L. Bonham. Tennessee-Robert L. Caruthers (no) yet inaugurated.)
Texas—Pendleton Muray. Wirginia-William Smith.

Lincoln for President

Congressional.

po her record as it really is, to toke her record as it place of the truths of his large and the truths of his her reacting in place of the truths of his making in place of the truths of his morning in the section of her part of the truths of his morning in the section of his morning in the claims of heavelf in the rank of uniform the part of his morning in the house, of his morning in the flowes, and the line, his morning in the flowes, of the truth of his morning in the flowes, of the Confederate States and part of his morning in the flowes, of the Confederate States and the flowes, the flowes of the confederate states and the flowes, the flowes of the confederate states and the flowes, the flowes of the confederate states and the flowes, the flowes of the confederate states and the flowes, the flowes of the confederate states and the flowes, the flowes of the confederate states and the flowes, the flowes, the flowes of the confederate states and the flowes, the flowes of the flowes, the flowes of the confederate states and the flowes, the flowes of the confederate states and the flowes, the flowes, the flowes of the flowes, the flo clothing and $11 per menth.

are the most eminent publicists of the United Editors. And for what purpose are the recolution for the consideration. The Secretary of War is authorized to emtreaty then concluded with them, founded on the frequent relation of lord and vassal, the feudal relation of the North No.! The Records feural the North No.! The feudal relation of the North No.! The tween the ages of 18 and to be taken tion, which is two monstrous and revolting to attained by this wholesale conscription. It from their homes, where they have much to ledged by the latter; but he was unwilling, by going to London, to place himself in the power of a monarch, who had receasily violating the solemn obligations that a military despotise. It is no attempt, so power of a monarch, who had receasily violating the solemn obligations that a military despotise. It is no attempt, so the government would liberate all prisoners slightly masked as to be visible to the didle a way of the government would liberate all prisoners slightly masked as to be visible to the didle a way of the government would liberate all prisoners slightly masked as to be visible to the didle a way of the government would liberate all prisoners slightly masked as to be visible to the didle a way of the government would liberate all prisoners slightly masked as to be visible to the didle a way of the government would liberate all prisoners slightly masked as to be visible to the didle a way of the government would liberate all prisoners slightly masked as to be visible to the didle a way of the government would liberate all prisoners slightly masked as to be visible to the didle a way of the government would liberate and the government would liberate all prisoners slightly masked as to be visible to the didle a way of the government would liberate and the government would liberate and the government would liberate and the government would liberate a primary of the government would liberate and the the da solemn treaty with him; and hence arose a war which resulted in the death of Llewellynand the subjugation of his country. This was England's protection of Wales.

Let us see what she did for Ireland. We not go into the early history of this war, into the day of the sole of t seed not go into the early history of this is another, which, if given in detail, would a government that makes war and carnage been for more than ten days under trial, The House adopted a resolution of thanks to century—to plant a power in the bind, from part of troops from his State my affections nost interesting country. In the year 684, cause the blood of every right minded man the only means of supporting itself—a gov- charged with the murder of Dixon, former of Dixo reland, over which England had no more right to rule than she fast this moment to govern France or Russia, or Mexico, was first invaded by a band of English under Egfred plunder, and they ravaged many churches and money than seemed to have govern for the seemed to have government at plunder, and they ravaged many churches. The end that former of the suspending and princes a frequent for the suspending itself—a government of the suspending itself—a which produced wars; taking advantage of frequent attempts were made to commit the wars found guilty. His war. The Senate passed a bill to create the now being made, under the tyrant's plea of from North Caro in a during this war, and of > rency value of notes left in the hands of hald-Major Gen. Breckinridge arrived here to- ers. It is also understood that the Senate has rejected this plan and referred the matter gives the following humerous account of a vention was unamious and her Legislature to a Special Committee, who have it now under consideration.

> > Absolutism.—The following extract is from the columns of the Petersburg Express, d an is worthy of perusal:-

We have before us at this moment a Vir--and in its leading editorial, we see with amazement the very case, the supposition of which, or the i'ze of it, we held a little way . Morrisrown, Teny., Feb. 1,-Our cavalry back to be irreconcileable with the spirit and Aughrim, sustaining a still worse deleat, they "Down wird Jeff Davis "-" The Nor- admitted that the Administration have long occupy Seviersville, the enemy having return- genius of our institutions and the character reputation?" of our people, as it is was, say one, two and wictors disregarded the terms of the capital. recent speech delivered by Mr. Foote, to of that "right," by the conversion of the govbarrased by the trammels of a Constitution designed and constructed for the developwas burned this forenoon, Fire was set in ment of a people in times of peace, but which fetters the present conflict of life and death.'

The Constitution, it seems, was intended CHARLESTON, Feb. 2 .- The steamer Presto This, to say the least of it, is a strange idea. Capt. Horney, from Nassau 29th ult., in at- There is nothing in the instrument itself that awakened in the hearts of the Irish, a desire of the Southern Convention at Knoxville, to course the other into submission, is, in my off Sullivan's Island, and remains immovable, struction can be interpreted into such an the habeas corpus act; would not allow pu- speeches against disunion, has lately attacks erons. It comes loaded with the death-smell Most of the cargo, which is on government intention, and certainty there is every thing the habeas corpus act; would not allow pu- speeches against disunion, has lately attacks. the habeas corpus act; would not allow public meeting; and bideted troops in the ed the President of the Southern Confederacy from fields wet with brothers' blood. If the account, will be saved in good condition.—

framed and adopted to indicate that it was non-es of the citizens of Ireland. Secret in a severe speech, in which he attributes to vital principle of all Republican governments The enemy opened a heavy fire on the steamsoci ties of Urited Irishmen were formed. Davis military disaster, and accuses him of is the consent of the governed, how much er at daylight, and continued it all day. It in times of peace, for the country was on the accepted, as was well known at the time to to you?" Sunter—136 shots were fired at the city from ment was organized, of which the Constitu- among de vanities." RICHMOND, Feb. 3.—The House went into the very midst of a war, which had already been waged on a gigantic scale for more than without resistance?" secret session a few minutes after assembling six months, and yet nothing was then said or to day, and so remained all day. Nothing of thought about its being designed only for it: I would'nt put my life in de scale overawe and silence her people. Distrust of Constitution and the Government (not the no gubberment could replace de loss to me." and now she is alarmed afresh at the dangerand derives from it all its vitality. There "May be not.sa. A dead white man ain't the State, because the propriety of calling a ant of France, and held the lives of thousands at the mercy of his nod, and yet how, on the at the mercy of his nod, and yet how, on the at the mercy of his nod, and yet how, on the at the mercy of his nod, and yet how, on the hour in the Confederacy longer than it chose to re
| The state to remain one hour in the State to remain one hour in the Confederacy longer than it chose to re
| May be not set. A dead wante man to the State to remain one hour in the Confederacy longer than it chose to re
| A dead wante man to the State to remain one hour in the State to remain one hour in the Confederacy longer than it chose to re
| A dead wante man to the state to remain one hour in the State to remain one hour in the Confederacy longer than it chose to re
| A dead wante man to the state to remain one hour in the State to remain one hour in the Confederacy longer than it chose to re
| A dead wante man to the state to remain one hour in the Confederacy longer than it chose to re
| A dead wante man to the state to remain one hour in the Confederacy longer than it chose to re
| A dead wante man to the state to remain one hour in the Confederacy longer than it chose to re
| A dead wante man to the state to remain one hour in the Confederacy longer than it chose to re
| A dead wante man to the confederacy longer than it chose to re
| A dead wante man to the confederacy longer than it chose to re
| A dead wante man to the confederacy longer than it chose to re
| A dead wante man to the confederacy longer than it chose to re
| A dead wante man to the confederacy longer than it chose to re
| A dead wante man to the confederacy longer than it chose to re
| A dead wante man to the confederacy longer than it chose to re
| A dead wante man to the confederacy longer than it chose to re
| A dead wante man to the confederacy longer than it chose to re
| A dead wante man to the confederacy longer than it chose to re
| A dead wante man to the confederacy longer than it chose to re
| A dead wante dearth of news here. Stuation unchanged, orbit in which it moves and the movements MOBILE, Feb. 2 .- A special dispatch from themselves, are ordained and regulated by the Como on the 1st, says that Col. James Mc- Constitution, and the moment this connection

But why, we should like to know, cannot the affairs of the country be conducted as who reached there on the Norfolk and Pez rolina was an occasion of alarm to her friends, of peace? It has given every power to Con- a gunboat came up Pagan Creek, and landed burg, or was it her last Convention, when she this fratricidal conflict, were exposed to the passed down. An enormous three tier gun- gress and to the Executive necessary for a twenty-five cavalry, two pieces of artillery unanimously assumed the position which she gress and to the Executive necessary for a twenty-five cavalry, two pieces of artillery unanimously assumed the position which she vigorous and successful presecution of the and one hundred infantry, at Smithfield, now holds? I speak against ne party, and At Clinton Mississippi, an enthusiastic war. What more could it do, and what more the parties composing this expedition had that whether she call a Convention or not, could be desired?—What is to hinder Con- instructions to march across the country to or whatever else she may do, will be so mark Jackson's cavalry is re-enlisting for the gress from enacting suitable laws to carry war. The Texans are re-enlisting to a man. out the granted powers which that body DALTON, Feb. 2.—Official information was possesser, so far as raising and maintaining three the Confederate-pickets there. In the come, as in time past, will evince their high received here to day that six thousand of the President from execution was a received here to day that six thousand of the President from execution was a received here to day that six thousand of the President from execution was a received here to day that six thousand of the President from execution was a received here to day that six thousand of the President from execution was a received here to day that six thousand of the President from execution was a received here to day that six thousand of the President from execution was a received here to day that six thousand of the President from execution was a received here to day that six thousand of the President from execution was a received here to day that six thousand of the President from execution was a received here to day that six thousand of the President from execution was a received here to day that six thousand of the President from execution was a received here to day that six thousand of the President from execution was a received here. quaint-styled book, the Old Year's Warning," the Camp of Instruction, at Decatur, a diswe find the following laughable description and the Camp of Instruction, at Decatur, a disSherman's corps, chiefly infantry, cavalry and using his prescribed authority so as to have Grove. At Scott's Pactory, some five miles Appreciate North Carolina, Senators, as I man, and others, again made application to we find the following laughable description to we find the following laughable description charged soldier, and on their return home, artillery, crossed the Tennessee river on January 29th and 30th, at Larkin's Landing, the enemy? From the battle of Bethel to that about 75 Confederate cavalry, when a skirm- at home or in the field, will be faithful to midway between Graterville and Belleforte. of Lookout Mountain, embracing an interval ish ensued, and the Yanke's retreated back every pledge she every pledge she every pledge she every pledge she every gave you. It is presumed the move is for the purpose of establishing a depot of supplies for future operation.

Of Economic and Interval at Interval is the every pledge she ever gave you.

The Confederates retreated back to Smithfield. The Confederates retreated to wards Blackwater with seven prisoners.

It is presumed the move is for the purpose of every pledge she ever gave you.

The resolution being read the requisite number of times, was considered in Comparison. ling block to the Executive. Every body was . When last heard from, the Yankees were mittee of the Whole; and, no amendment besatisfied with it and no journal raised the at Smithfield without any means of escape, ing poposed, was adopted, and ordered to be voice of discontent that we are aware of. But their gunboat having gone to meet them at sent to the House of Representatives. has ordered a deaft for 500,000 men to serve | since the battle of Lookout a great change | Cherry Grove, and the Confederates, reinforcthree years or during the war, to be made on has come over the spirit of at least one jour- ed, were marching upon theur. the 10th of March. Gold in New York on nal, and it now raises the cry of; down with N. B.—Since the above was put in type made his appearance in and around Rome. the 30th 57%. No other pews of importance. the Constitution! Its trammels upon the we learn that the whole party have been We believe, says the Courier, the physicians government are insufferable. It had better be "torn up as waste paper" than remain, at captured. GOVERNORS OF THE CONFEDERATE STATES. a time like this, the clog that it is to the Con--The following is a list of the Governors federacy. Such, in substance, is the import was laid on his forehead, saying as plain as of Instruction, without their having an op- of the article in the Richmond Enquirer, upon of the several States composing the Contact of the several Stat

ple of the Confederate States are prepared as Then we had the savage Indians at our backs becomes drawn back and the patient experiyet to give themselves up to the embraces of the tories over our hearth stones and a fair and absolutism. They can conquer the enemy open enemy in our front. Augusta Savan- lock-jaw, and generally becomes deranged in without the shadow of a necessity for resort- nah, Charleston, Camdem, and Ninety-siz, ing to this prodigious sacrifice? They can were all then British posts, and Georgia and triumphantly near themselves through the struggle, and preserve at the same time the for three long and dreary years yet a heroic struggle, and preserve at the same time the Constitution, which is the charter of their rights.

for three long and dreary years yet a heroic possibly prove epidemical.

Some fwenty persons have fallen victims to the malady, in this vicinity, in the past three persons have fallen victims to the malady, in this vicinity, in the past three persons have fallen victims to the malady, in this vicinity, in the past three persons have fallen victims to the malady, in this vicinity, in the past three persons have fallen victims to the malady in this vicinity.

A-friend who has tried persimmon seeds in can do even should our land be overrun by coffee says he will defy any man to detect vandals." the difference in the taste between a decoction of roasted persimmen seeds and the genuine lava not Ric-which can be imitated success-The N. Hampshire Republican State Confully, as we are informed with parched ground says the Macon (Ga) Telegraph.

DESPERATE MEASURES .- During the Yel-

correspondent from the Cumberland River' Governor." It matters inching that her Concolloquy with a philosophic darkey; who she is disloyal, and disloyal she must be. had been present at the battle of Fort will not make the Senate the arms for bat-Donelson:

"Were you in the fight at Fort Donelson?" "Had a little taste of it, sa."

"Stood your ground, did you?" "No, sa, I runs." "Run at the first fire, did you?" "Yes, sa, and would hab run sooner had I knowed it war cumine"

"Dat aint in my line, sa; cooking's my perfeshun."

"Reputation is nuthin to me by de side Do you consider your life worth more than other people's? Its worth more to mer sa." "Then you must value it highly?" "Yes, sa, I does - more dan all dis world law wid me, sa.'

values on da lives; mine is not in the market, disarm her, because she was suspected. Time satisfaction of knowing you died for your thrown into prison in Richmond and else; "What satisfaction would dat be to me, The decisions of her judiciary have not sa, when de power of feelin' was gene?"

"Then patriotism and honor are nothing The enemy have discontinued firing on its framers. When the Permanent Govern- Nuffin whatever sa, I regard dem as "If our soldiers were like you, traitors against any gubberment dat ever existed, for her has begotten distrust in her toward them, well under the Constitution now as in times tersburg train last night, that on Sunday last, Was it that first little Convention in Mecklen-

THE FIRST WAR FOR INDEPENDENCE, -4 A We do not - we cannot think that the peo- suffered in the first war for independence, back part, and in the spine. The head South Carolina were occupied almost entirely perish rather than survive as claves and they drove our conquerors from the soil; and so we

.The Democratic Congressmen in caucus at Washington decided on Circinnati as the place English peers are allowed to sit in the House predicament, and less afraid, apparently, of of it in a post chaise, and upon your coming vention and there a cockroach thrown in for holding their National National Convent

Re-calistment of Yorth Carolina

PERCH OF HON. E. C. READE IN THUSING

We End the following remarks of tion. I. Saturday last, in the processings of that day! We ask for them at eareful purusal at the ands of every man in the State. Mr. Horde of North Caroline, latvoluced a joint resolution of thanks to certain North matters nothing that her youthful executive, called from the field to his responsible postion, has managed her affairs, interest and A Pumosorme Darker -- A newspaper external, as to have obtained the name, "model provident nothing matters. Malignity says thing with the malignant charge against North Observing him toasting his ships against Carolina. Her reputation is very dear to me the chimney, I broke in upon his profound It can scarcely be less so with you, Senators: but that repulation depends not upon any now, and will be hereafter. I do not conceal from Senators that there is dissatisfaction in North Carolina. And the mestion is again and again asked. "What oes it mean?" It is easy to tell you what it does not mean, and quite as easy, but much "Why, that wasn't very creditable to your more tedious to tell you what it daes mean, It does not mean disjoyalty. It means rather am excess of loyalty to the State, without any abatement towards the Confederacy. "Well, but have you no regard for your This ought to be satisfactory, at least to all outside of the State.

noor word of mine .-- She calls upon the history of the past as witness of what she is

I will only mention a few of the annovances which she suffered. Her people are sensitive and spirited; as easily led as a child in the right way, because they are a good people. But against the front of affense she stands a giant form. Very early in this struggle, an order was more dan a million of dollars, sa, for what sent to North Carolina, which, so far as I would dat be worth to a man wid de brei know, was sent nowhere else, to deprive the out'n him? Self-preserbation am de first people of their arms, "good, bad and indifferend.' I believe I quote the words; I am sure "But why should you act upon a different I have the substance. This may have been all innocent; but the impression was made, "Because different men sets different not unreasonalds, that the purpose was to and again her citizens have been arrested "But if you lost it, you would have the without warrant and without cause, and > been respected. Many of the offices in this State to which her tizens have been entitled by courtesy, if not of right, were filled by obnexious strangers. Suspicions, distrusts and threats on the part of the authorities, have chafed her conmight have broken up the Government tinually. And Senators have doubtless heard, as I have, that it has been gravely consider-"Yes sa, there would hab been no help ed whether force ought not to be employed to the public. Its enemied say it means mischief; its friends say it does not. I suppose tersburg Express learns through passengers ever this may be, let me enquire when was is

----Georgia. - A new and fatal disease has call it Menegetis, and say its pathology is an inhamation of the base of the brain and the mind. The disease generally proves fatal in from twelve to thirty-six hours. The disease is not considered contagious, though it may weeks.

The N. Y. Herald publishes an intercepted letter dated 31st ult., which states that Gen, Lee has been joined by Longstreet, and to about to execute a combination, the result of which will be the planting of the Souther flag in Baltimere,