

THE NEWS & GRAPHIC

Reported by the Press Association, 1863

Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1863, by J. S. Thresher, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Confederate States, for the Northern District of Georgia.

REMOVAL, June 10.—The steam Rams built by Laird, have been purchased by the English government.

REMOVAL, June 10.—The Senate concurred in the House amendments to the bill to establish a Bureau of foreign supplies.

REMOVAL, June 10.—No change in the situation of the two armies. All quiet to-day.

REMOVAL, June 9.—The enemy advanced again to-day with cavalry, but was driven back by Imboden's infantry.

REMOVAL, June 10.—Freeman's letter accepting the Cle Elum nomination declares Lincoln's administration a military dictatorship.

REMOVAL, June 10.—Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

REMOVAL, June 11.—A special to the Tribune, dated Baltimore, June 11th, says that the enemy advanced to-day.

REMOVAL, June 10.—The enemy 5,000 strong, under Kautz, made a desperate attempt to capture Petersburg yesterday.

REMOVAL, June 10.—Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

REMOVAL, June 11.—The report of Sheridan moving towards the front, dated June 11, says that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

REMOVAL, June 11.—No change in relative situation of the two armies. We have occasional discharge of artillery.

REMOVAL, June 10.—European advices to the 25th have been received.

REMOVAL, June 10.—The news of Grant's great battles in Virginia caused profound sensation in England.

REMOVAL, June 10.—Grant's dispatches say that the enemy attacked on the Federal lines on Saturday night.

REMOVAL, June 11.—Both Houses have passed a joint resolution extending the session until Friday noon.

REMOVAL, June 11.—No definite information of Sheridan's whereabouts.

REMOVAL, June 11.—The position of the front unchanged for two days with occasional slight skirmishing.

REMOVAL, June 12th.—The remains of Banks' army in the west end of the river near Fort Hudson.

REMOVAL, June 13, A. M.—Telegraphic communication with Lynchburg is unbroken.

REMOVAL, June 13th.—It is currently reported here to-day that Lincoln and Hamlin were nominated at Baltimore on the 8th.

REMOVAL, June 13th.—The steam Rams built by Laird, have been purchased by the English government.

REMOVAL, June 10.—The Senate concurred in the House amendments to the bill to establish a Bureau of foreign supplies.

REMOVAL, June 10.—No change in the situation of the two armies. All quiet to-day.

REMOVAL, June 9.—The enemy advanced again to-day with cavalry, but was driven back by Imboden's infantry.

REMOVAL, June 10.—Freeman's letter accepting the Cle Elum nomination declares Lincoln's administration a military dictatorship.

REMOVAL, June 10.—Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

REMOVAL, June 11.—A special to the Tribune, dated Baltimore, June 11th, says that the enemy advanced to-day.

REMOVAL, June 10.—The enemy 5,000 strong, under Kautz, made a desperate attempt to capture Petersburg yesterday.

REMOVAL, June 10.—Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Prisoners report that Blair's 17th corps joined Sherman on the 9th inst.

All quiet during the night up to the time of writing.

PETERSBURG, June 11.—The Herald of the 8th has been received.

Lincoln and Andy Johnson were nominated by the Baltimore Convention on the 8th inst.

A victory is claimed for Hunter in the Valley, but the information is gathered exclusively from Southern sources.

Morgan captured Mount Sterling, Kentucky, on the 8th—destroyed bridges, tore up the track of the Kentucky Central Railroad between Cynthia and Paris.

The Herald pitches into the Times of Tuesday for publishing an account of the late battle of Lee and Grant.

Gold closed on the 9th at 134.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

Accounts from the front near Grant's camp, dated June 10, say that the enemy is not in his immediate front.

The enemy were landing supplies on rafts in the bay below Malvern Hill last night.

No general movement to-day.

All 150 prisoners captured to-day in the enemy's abandoned treasuries, have been brought in.

ATLANTA, June 13th.—Advices from the front state that the recent rains have made the roads almost impassable.

Yankee trains are running to Ackworth to-day, indicating a new flank movement on the part of the Yankees.

Our lines are strong and the troops have recovered from their recent fatigues.

Richmond, June 13.—In secret session on Friday night, Congress adopted a manifesto, setting forth that nothing is more ardently desired than peace.

The series of successes with which it has pleased the Almighty to bless our arms since the opening of the present campaign, enables us to profess this desire.

War on earth has been strictly on the defensive. We do not wish to enter into the peace or prosperity of the States arrayed against us.

The late military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

The present military appointments of the Administration are, to the great dissatisfaction in the North.

Yankee papers of the 4th inst. have been received.

The following is a summary of the news:

THE MOVEMENT AGAINST RICHMOND.

The Yankees are still harrassed by meandering telegrams from the seat of war, and eminently devised fables in the leading newspapers.

The Philadelphia Inquirer says that the Government has at last resolved to concentrate its forces, and collect around Richmond such an overwhelming force as to render it physically impossible for the rebels to defend it successfully.

Here is Stanton to-day—the latest official bulletin, except one, announcing that telegraphic communication with Grant had been interrupted by a violent storm.

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington, June 2, 1864.—2:30 P. M.—To Major General Dix: A dispatch from Gen. Grant, dated this morning, June 2, at Bethesda, Md., 7:30 A. M., has just been received.

It stated that "Yesterday afternoon an attack was ordered to be made on our left at Cold Harbor by the Sixth Corps, and the troops under Smith, Warren, Burnside and Hancock being held in readiness to advance in their respective fronts.

The attack was made with spirit about 5 P. M., continuing until after dark, and resulting in our carrying the enemy's works on the right of the Sixth Corps, where we had held them, and also the first line in front of Smith.

The latter, however, were re-commanded to the front which made these efforts untenable. The enemy made repeated assaults on each of the corps not engaged in the main assault, but were repulsed with usual every instance.

Several hundred prisoners were taken, but I cannot say what number, nor estimate either our or the enemy's casualties.

During the night several assaults were made to regain what they had lost, but failed.

No despatches from any other quarter have reached the department to-day.

THE FOLLOWING UNOFFICIAL PARAGRAPH GIVES TWO ITEMS OF "NOVEL NEWS":

Gen. Turbot is reported to hold Cold Harbor, on the Chickahominy, this morning.

The steamer George Washington from White House, at 7 o'clock this morning, has arrived.

It is reported that General Fitzhugh Lee and five hundred of his cavalry were captured last night while attempting to make a raid in the direction of the White House.

Gen. Smith made the capture.

THE LATEST FROM EUROPE.

The steamer Virginia, from Liverpool on the 24th, via Queenstown, on the 25th, reached New York on the 26th.

The Duke of Marlborough is dead.

The news of the great battles in Virginia, received by the Europe, had caused a profound sensation in all England, and the people are astonished at the magnitude of the losses.

The probable result of the bloody contest is eagerly awaited. The Confederates have received three per cent, and cotton was weaker under the news.

The London Times says, "Gen. Grant has fully sustained his reputation for an incomparable tenacity, and if he did not achieve absolute success, his lot more generally and approached it more nearly than any of his predecessors."

It thinks it hard to discern the inclination of the balance, so evenly do the scales of battle appear to be counterpoised.

The London Morning Post sees no appreciable advantage on either side, but on the following day expressed a conviction that the Federals had sustained a crushing blow.

The London Star thinks that General Grant paid very dear for his victory, and regards his success as indecisive.

The London Morning Herald pronounces the advance on Richmond a failure and hopes the South has passed the last day of its luck.

The London Globe thinks General Lee has fully succeeded in burning the road of Gen. Grant to Richmond.

Soon after the publication of the news by the City of Washington (of the battles in Spotsylvania), the steam Rams built by Laird, on the Mersey, were purchased by the English Government.

The "rebel pirates" of the schooner J. J. Gerphy have been discovered.

GEN. FOREST AND THE NEGROES.—A short time since, says the Marion Commonwealth, Dr. Neely made an appeal to the people of Uniontown, in this county, in behalf of the Association for the relief of colored soldiers.

As a result of the late battles in Virginia, the Yankees have to-day in their power a shell into the city and no doubt seems to mind it.

But not a shell would be thrown the other side of the city to-day.

MISS ANN PICKENS, the daughter of our country, never contented to leave her native land, she remained bravely in the front ranks, attending the wounded and cheering all with her presence.

Among the wounded officers under her care was Mr. Andrew de Rochelle, a deacon of the noblest Huguenot families of the city.

This young man was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

He was full of the bravest and noblest feelings, and he was not only a brave soldier, but a noble man.

A GALEY NORTH CAROLINIANS.—The heroic deeds of a gallant officer, as they have been generally recorded in the papers of the day and will be applauded for the history of our glorious struggle for independence.

From the nature of things the daring deeds of many a private are necessarily overlooked.

It therefore affords us special pleasure to be able to present to our countrymen from the Petersburg Express, the following incident.

During the severe artillery duel on the 24th instant, between a portion of Cooke's battalion and the enemy's batteries, a 32 pound shell, thrown by the enemy struck the parapet over one of the guns belonging to Cunningham's N. C. Battery.

The shell struck the parapet, and the explosion caused the death of a private named James P. Peck, of the detachment, seizing it in both hands, hurled it over the embankment, thus sending it where its explosion could do no harm, and saving the lives of many of our countrymen.

Major Castle has forwarded this gallant soldier's name to General Beauregard, who expressed his admiration of the noble deed.

The Patriot says that in Albany provisions are beginning to fall in. A bushel of wheat is selling at 80 cents, and corn at 25 cents.

SHIRMAN'S STRENGTH.—A correspondent of the Columbus Sun, writing from Gen. Johnston's army, under date of the 22d, states that late advices from within the lines of the enemy state that he looks 120,000 men.

Subtract from this, numbers sufficient to garrison his depots and his communications, and the killed and wounded in the late fights, with the sick, and it leaves him about 90,000 effectives.

CAPTURE OF ARMS.—Col. Ballavia, chief of ordnance for the army of Gen. Lee, informs the Richmond Enquirer that we have already secured eighteen thousand Yankee muskets on the battlefield in Spotsylvania, and four thousand in Chesterfield in addition to five pieces of artillery, including three twenty-pound Parrotts and two Napoleons.

The London Army and Navy Gazette does not think the Union can be restored by any means. It says: "The Union, let us say for the twentieth time, can never be restored."

It is doubtful at least if the means which the Northern employ to subjugate the South are equal to the work.

AVERTILL.—The latest reports from Averill locate him in Pocahontas county, where he is said to have been on Thursday last.

The opinion appears to strengthen that his design is to join the force in the Valley.

The Mason Confed rats learn from a gentleman from Southwestern Georgia, that the crops are looking exceedingly well. The wheat is just ripening and there will be an abundant yield.

THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON.—The friends of John Mellon, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON.—The friends of John Mellon, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON.—The friends of John Mellon, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON.—The friends of John Mellon, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON.—The friends of John Mellon, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON.—The friends of John Mellon, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON.—The friends of John Mellon, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON.—The friends of John Mellon, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON.—The friends of John Mellon, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON.—The friends of John Mellon, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON.—The friends of John Mellon, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON.—The friends of John Mellon, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON.—The friends of John Mellon, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON.—The friends of John Mellon, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON.—The friends of John Mellon, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON.—The friends of John Mellon, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON.—The friends of John Mellon, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

Express Agency: THE SOUTHERN EXPRESS COMPANY, having completed its arrangements, will receive and forward freight to any points in the Confederacy, to which their lines extend.

All articles of freight must be securely packed, and all boxes properly headed, and the name of the person to whom addressed.

MINISTERS: THE SOUTHERN EXPRESS COMPANY, having completed its arrangements, will receive and forward freight to any points in the Confederacy, to which their lines extend.

CANDIDATES: THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

CANDIDATES: THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

CANDIDATES: THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

CANDIDATES: THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

CANDIDATES: THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J. C. Goddard, on the 24th inst.

CANDIDATES: THE FRIENDS OF JOHN MELLON, a candidate for the next session of the Legislature, are holding a meeting at the residence of Mr. J