Death of Mr. George Nixon.

Mr. George Nixon, a mill hand and known almost to everyone in Fayetteville, died last Saturday at 7:30 o'clock of pneumonia. The funeral took place from his residence on Massey's Hill, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. He leaves a widow and several children.

A Forgery.

Some one attempted to pass a forged check for $20 through the mills on the National Bank of Fayetteville Monday, but the vigilance of the bank officials discovered the fraud, who returned the check unpaid. The signature of W. S. Prior and endorsement of R. M. Prior were both forged.

New Cases.

Mr. A. E. Martin, the well known Bladen county merchant, has moved to this city, and is occupying the residence on the corner of Person and Kennedy streets.

Mr. Martin will engage in the general merchandise and livery business in this city.

A C. L. Increase in Pay.

A dispatch from Wilmington last Friday says: It is reported on what is considered good authority that the Atlantic Coast Line have given notice to all its station agents and telegraph operators yesterday that in the future they will receive an increase of salary that is said to amount to 10 per cent. There is a persistent rumor that very soon employees in all departments of the Atlantic Coast Line service will receive substantial increases in their pay.

I O F Banquet at Hope Mills.

Hope Mills Lodge No. 123, I. O. O. F., gave their first annual banquet Saturday night. Mr. D. J. Caswell, president and Messrs H. L. Cook and D. T. Oates, of this city, were present by invitation and made short addresses.

These gentlemen say that it was a splendid affair and a credit to Hope Mills Odd Fellows.

The Hope Mills band furnished delightful music throughout the evening.

The McGowan Suit Against the A. C. L.

The Florence Times of Saturday says: Mr. Clayton, the attorney for the plaintiff in the case of McGowan vs. A. C. L. railroad was shown the article from the Fayetteville Observer of January 5th, 1900, as to the issue in the case that under the law of North Carolina the right of action against a party for injuries was limited to one year and had expired before suit was brought, while the limit in South Carolina was two years. Mr. Clayton said that this did not at all disturb him as he had expected the issue would be raised, as corporations are like the tactics of General Grant: they conquer more by attrition than merit. That he considered it was morally certain that the law being quoted as to the remedy, that his case was not barred, as it is the universal practice as to the right to follow the law, but as to the remedy the law is different. But it will delay the case some, as it is more than probable that the Supreme Court will have to pass upon that issue before the case can be tried if at all upon its merits. Mr. Clayton complimented the Fayetteville paper upon its enterprise in publishing the issue raised by the answer before it was served upon him by twelve hours.

President Roosevelt has been invited to attend the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, South, in Lexington, Va., next May.

A TRAFFIC ARRANGEMENT.

Between Three Boat Lines.

The three steamboat lines that ply the Cape Fear between Fayetteville and Wilmington, to-wit: The Cape Fear and Peoples Company, of which Col. W. S. Cook is General Manager, which owns the Hurt and Haws; The Merchants & Farmers Steamboat Company, of which Mr. Oliver Evans is President, which owns the Highlander and Driver; and The Fayetteville and Wilmington Steamboat Company, which owns the "City of Fayetteville," of which Mr. A. A. Llanam is President, and Mr. E. W. Cooke General Manager, have formed a traffic arrangement; and Col. W. S. Cook has been made the agent at Fayetteville, and Mr. T. D. Love the agent at Wilmington for the three lines.

There was a meeting Friday of the stockholders of the Fayetteville and Wilmington Steamboat Company, at which the following stockholders were present: Messrs. H. W. Lilly, W. L. Holt, W. M. Morgan, R. P. Gray, A. A. Llanam, S. H. MacRae, L. A. Williamson, E. H. Williamson and E. W. Cooke.

The meeting was for the purpose of reviewing the financial condition of the company, and to take preliminary steps for the operation of the line, pending the annual meeting of stockholders in February.

Under the new arrangement all the boats of the several lines will use the splendid new wharf of the Fayetteville and Wilmington Steamboat Company.

Dunn and the New County.

Our esteemed Dunn contemporary quotes the article in a recent issue of this paper, telling of a move to create a new county out of parts of Harnett, Sampson, Johnston and Cumberland, with Dunn as the county seat, and then comments as follows: We do not know from whom the Observer obtained its information. It is news to the people of this section. While there are a great many people here who would be glad to have a new county, it is not hardly possible for us to hope that such a thing would be granted by the Legislature as our bonded indebtedness is upon us and we cannot hope for a new county until this is paid.

The Observer obtained its information from a resident of Dunn, possibly the leading citizen of Harnett county, and a man very well informed.

The Death of Mrs. Butler of New York.

Telegrams were received here by her relatives on Saturday last (January 10th, 1903) conveying the sad tidings of the death of Mrs. Sue Schuyler Butler, the beloved wife of Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, President of Columbia College, which occurred at her home in New York early that morning.

Our press dispatches several days ago told of her critical illness, and her death was not entirely unexpected. She had been suffering for some weeks past with acute brain trouble, and the most eminent skill invoked in her behalf was able to bring but temporary relief.

Beside her husband she leaves a daughter six years of age; a sister, Mrs. DeLaguel Haigh; and a brother, Mr. E. O. Schuyler of New Jersey.

She had many friends in Fayetteville, having visited here several times, who remember her with much pleasure as a beautiful, accomplished and most estimable woman, and who regret her death sincerely.

Mayor's Court.

Charles Moseley, alias Jim Williams, was tried before Mayor McMillan last Tuesday charged with numerous robberies and was bound over to court on the following charges: Breaking into and robbing the store of Hollingsworth & Company, breaking into and robbing the warehouse of the Armour Packing Company, and breaking open and robbing the tool chest of J. T. Squires, a carpenter who is working on Mr. W. L. Holt's new residence on Haymount.

He is suspected of several other robberies, but the above were the clearest cases against him.

Deputy Sheriff Monaghan and Policeman Benton have suspected Moseley of the several robberies recently committed in this city, and have been on his trail; but it was by chance and the vigilance of Policeman Benton that he was captured early Saturday morning.

Mr. Benton had just come off duty and was on his way home when he saw a familiar figure turn down a side street in front of him. He hurried up to the man, and to his surprise, it was the much sought for Moseley. He put him under arrest and carried him to police headquarters where he was searched. A chisel, afterwards identified by Mr. Squires, was found on his person; and it was evident that he was on his way to rob a store when caught. Some of the goods taken from Hollingsworth & Company and from the Armour Packing Company have also been recovered.

Another chisel which he took from Mr. Squires was found at Armour & Co's warehouse the next morning after the robbery.

Moseley was discharged in October from the penitentiary, where he had been serving a sentence for robbing Mr. J. S. Maulsby's Bee Hive store.

The police consider this the most important arrest made in Fayetteville in several years.

May Get Here Some Day.

General Manager Angler of the Cape Fear and Northern railway, says 15 miles of the extension is graded and that tracking begins this week from Angler south-east.

Tracking laying on the extension of the Raleigh and Cape Fear railway is in progress, but slowly. General Manager Mills has secured 30 convicts who on the 20th will begin the work of laying track and surfacing the new part of the road from Fugay Springs to a point on the Cape Fear opposite Lillington.

THE SUPERIOR COURT IN SESSION.

Special Venue for the Utley Case.

The January term of the Superior Court, for the trial of criminal cases only, convened in this city this morning, Judge C. M. Cook, of Louisville, presiding, and Solicitor C. C. Lyon representing the State. This morning's session was taken up in the Judge's charge to the Grand Jury, and the arrangement of the cases on the docket.

This afternoon a special venire is being drawn from the box for the trial of E. L. Utley, charged with the murder of T. B. Hollingsworth. A number of depositions, in regard to Utley's insanity, have been received from Florida and New York, and to-morrow, they will be opened and read in court. The trial of the case will probably begin Wednesday or Thursday.

The drawing of the special venire, which consists of 200 names, occupied the court up to 4 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Utley was in court sitting with his counsel and his uncles, Messrs. Ralph B. and Herbert Luttrell.

THE GRAND JURY.

The following Grand Jury was drawn and Mr. Morris Hall was appointed Foreman: J. N. Talbot, R. M. Johnson, G. F. Hall, W. M. Page, G. E. Edge, N. J. King, J. C. Gaddie, Morris Hall, D. C. Mathis, H. L. McMillan, W. H. Kyle, Dan Huley, C. M. Jordan, D. W. Royal, Homan Jones, W. B. Warran, L. P. Hair and Chas. F. Hall.

Mr. John Holmes was appointed officer of the Grand Jury.

From Tuesday's Daily.

The depositions from New York and Florida in the Utley case will be opened this afternoon. These depositions were taken by the defense for the purpose of showing that his behavior in those two States that Utley is insane. It is said that the defense will also plead self-defense.

To-day Sheriff Marsh has deputies out all over the county summoning the 200 special venire for the trial tomorrow.

Dr. P. L. Murphy, of the Asylum at Morganton, who has been summoned as a witness by both the defense and State, was excused from attending by Judge Moore, as he wrote that his attendance might be required at Raleigh by the Legislature at any moment.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday and this morning:

Walter Council a. d. w. Found guilty and sentenced to 60 days on the county roads.

Hood King a. d. w., guilty. John Ashley assault. Plead guilty and sentenced to 12 months on county roads.

From Wednesday's Daily.

The Superior court cleared up the criminal docket to-day, except the Utley case which will be begun tomorrow morning.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday afternoon and to-day: Ike McLean, Stephen McLean, Fonco McLean, Theo Lucas, all for carrying concealed weapons, plead guilty and judgment was suspended on payment of costs.

Charles Moseley, the ex-convict and store robber, was found guilty and sentenced to 12 months on the roads.

Grant Graham, disturbing a religious congregation; guilty and sentenced to 14 months on roads.

John Ashley, assault; 12 months on the roads.

Day Ray, c. c. w.; 6 months on the roads.

George Robeson, larceny; not guilty.

A Mix-Up.

Messrs. Beville & Vanstory have been expecting a car load of mules and horses from St Louis for several days, and last night the car arrived consigned to them.

After the animals had all been safely landed in the big stable on Gillespie street, it was discovered that a mistake had been made, and that they were not the ones expected. Messrs. Beville & Vanstory should have received 4 horses and 23 mules, while this lot consisted of 2 horses and 25 mules, while the animals themselves did not tally with the invoice. It was evident that at some watering and feeding point along the route the animals for the car consigned to Beville & Vanstory had been loaded into some one else's car, and vice versa.

Now this some one else is in the same predicament as Messrs Beville & Vanstory, and the railroad is holding the bag with some fifty odd head of cattle to feed pending the straightening out of themix up.

The Florida Specials.

The famous Florida Specials of the Atlantic Coast Line are now on between New York and Florida. The south-bound train arrives here at 4:30 a. m., and the north-bound at 11:7 a. m. These trains run daily, except Sunday, and are made up entirely of Pullmans.

W. McLaughlin, T. B. Upchurch, H. McD. Robinson, A. R. McRachern, W. H. Sikes, John Elliott, R. H. Williamson, W. M. Morgan and C. J. Cooper.

The bank's business shows a continued increase, the deposits being over a hundred thousand dollars.

Fayetteville's Priceless Possession.

The Florence (S. C.) Times of Tuesday says: We congratulate Fayetteville, N. C. on her good fortune and water line to New York and the markets of the world, a route that the greed of the trusts cannot over with a merger, nor foreign bond holders wrest away from the home people. We would that we could have something of the same sort for Florence.

More Office Buildings.

Mr. D. H. Ray is having another office building erected on Anderson street, and if the demand for office buildings remains as at present, he will demolish all the old Pumpkin Row buildings and complete the row with new ones similar to those already completed or building.

Cats of Ancient Egypt.

By some persons the popularity of the cat in Egypt has been attributed to the fact that the animal was valuable in ridding the palaces of rats and mice and also in hunting fowls. There are several paintings in the British Museum, executed by ancient Egyptian artists, representing Egyptian sportsmen in boats on the river Nile, accompanied by large cats, sitting on their haunches in the stern. Other pictures show the cats swimming with birds in their mouths after the manner of retriever dogs. These pictures have greatly perplexed modern naturalists because the cat of today has a strong aversion to water, and it is difficult to reconcile such different traits even after the lapse of thousands of years.

Fond We Ought to Eat.

It has been said that a man should be in very good health if he takes no more than three different kinds of food at any one meal. It should be served as nearly as possible in its simple state. More food is required on a damp, raw, cold day than on a cheerful, dry one.

As a rule, it is safe to assume that what we crave for is best for us, though not to be strictly adhered to.

Men require a good deal more food than women; those who work hard more than those who lead a sedentary life; those who are growing more than those who have reached maturity.
