Convention of Daughters of the Confederacy. The Daughters of the Confederacy in all parts of the country are beginning to turn their faces to Charleston.

Where the annual convention of their order will meet on November 11th, for three days' session. The chairman of the transportation committee, Mrs. E. P. Waring, has arranged with the rail road lines and announces that rates of one and one third fare for the round trip—on the certificate plan—will be effective from all parts of the United States.

Sparks Bound Over to Court—$300 Bond Required. Joe Sparks, the negro who shot and killed James Sawyer last Saturday night, was given a preliminary hearing Friday last before Justices of the Peace Overly and McMillan.

Messrs. N. A. Sinclair and T. H. Sutton appeared for the defendant and Messrs. H. L. Cook and A. S. Hall appeared for the prosecution. The principle point at issue was whether or not the prisoner was entitled to bail, that is whether there was reasonable cause to believe him guilty of murder in the first degree, in which case the law says he would not be bailable, or of a lesser degree. After hearing the arguments of both sides, the Court bound the prisoner over to the Criminal Court, and decided that the defendant was entitled to bail, and fixed the bond at $300.

Mr. Hugh Rose, Manager of Wilmington Exchange. Mr. H. McA. Rose, son of our former townsman, Rev. Dr. J. M. Rose, who on November 1st succeeded Mr. T. S. McManus as local manager of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co., Wilmington. Mr. Rose arrived in Wilmington Friday from Asheville, where he has been in charge of the Southern Bell's exchange in that city during the past eighteen months.

The Wilmington Star of Saturday says: "Mr. Rose is a young man not yet out of his twenties; has splendid business qualifications, pleasing address and host of all relatives 'down home in Eastern Carolina,' being grandson of the late J. M. Rose, of Fayetteville, and a nephew of Hon. Geo. M. Rose, of Atlantic Coast Line attorney in Fayetteville. The new manager has been one of the Bell people for several years and will move with his wife to Wilmington permanently in a week or two. Mrs. Rose was a daughter of the late Capt. John Evans, so well known in Wilmington, and Mr. Rose also has a number of relatives here."

Supreme Court Decision. In the case of Mike Folb versus In Insurance Company, in which the Supreme Court found "no error," the following is a digest of the opinion: "In the absence of a special agreement, an insurance premium must be paid in money, and where an insurance agent delivers a policy to a merchant and receives a suit of clothes in payment of the premium, such transaction constitutes a fraud on the principal (the insurer) and in the event of loss before the agent remits the amount of the premium to the insurer, the insurer is not liable."

Retirement of Captain Kennedy. Captain Charles Kennedy, for so long a time foreman of the OBSERVER, retired from service on Saturday on account of his advanced age. The OBSERVER, and everyone connected with it, parts company with this admirable gentleman with the sincerest regret. He was a printer of the old school, very accurate, and highly versed in the details of his art.

Captain Kennedy entered the OBSERVER office in the later forties of the last century, and, with exception of the years of the paper's suspension in consequence of General Sherman's destruction of its plant, has been connected with it ever since.

He went out with the F. I. L. I. in 1861 as sergeant, and served in the 1st N. C. Volunteers in the Bethel campaign. He has since been a captain in that famous organization.

We trust that he may still enjoy years of further life, highly respected, as he is, by every person in this community.

Thirteen prisoners escaped from the jail at Washington, N. C., early Saturday morning.

Mr. Mortimer Dorand is appointed British ambassador to the U. S.

Arrived at Fayetteville.

Saturday afternoon Deputy Sheriff, Monaghan and Holmes arrested Stephen Williams, the well-known negro sexton of the First Baptist church, on a warrant sworn out by his daughter-in-law, charging him with perjury in giving alleged false evidence in a civil action at a recent term of the superior court. He was taken before W. C. Troy, J. P., and released on giving a $300 justified bond, with Messrs. J. A. Oates and John McDuffie as bonds men.

Cockman and the Jackson Woman.

Abram Cockman and Nancy Samsom alias Molly Jackson, who were on trial in Darlington, S. C., last week charged with killing M. J. Johnson in a section house on the A. C. L. near Dillon, S. C., on June 6th, were Friday night found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to ten years each in the penitentiary. They did not appeal. All of the above parties were formerly of Cumberland county, and Cockman and the Jackson woman were arrested after the killing.

The Regimental Histories.

We learn that there are some ten or dozen sets of the N. C. Regimental Histories (5 volumes) still left at the New Book Store here. It is past comprehension that any son or daughter of a Confederate soldier, able to invest $5 dollars for any purpose beyond the necessities of life, should be willing to go without possession of a copy of these historical treasures. We are informed that the State Librarian has ordered their sale at $1.00 per volume, which is less than the cost of delivering them here.

A Negro Woman Fatally Burned.

There was a shocking accident in upper Fayetteville Sunday morning, the victim of which was Emma Holmes, wife of the well known negro driver. The woman, who is a paralytic, was alone in her house on Robinson street, when in some manner her clothing caught fire and, before her neighbors, who were attracted by her terrifying screams, could reach her, she was almost burned to a cinder. At this writing she is still alive, but suffering awful pain. There is no chance for her recovery at all.

Marriage Licenses Granted.

Within the past few days the Register of Deeds has granted the following marriage licenses: Mr. Chas. Bass and Miss Wyatt Williford, of Fayetteville; Mr. W. H. Guy, of Florida, and Miss Mary R. Coleman, of Fies Hill; Mr. Edwin C. Bailey, of South Carolina, and Miss Katherine L. Gainey, of Gray's Creek; Mr. Henry Darden and Miss Mattie Newell, of Carver's Creek, Mr. J. T. Thomas and Miss Sallie McLean, of Hope Mills; Mr. Joo. B. Thomas and Miss Leslie J. Strickland, of Fies Hill; Mr. Joo W. Tow and Miss Lucy Astry, of Parson's Mill; Mr. Luther Gentry, of Cross Creek, and Miss Dora Tow, of Parson's Mill.

Not This Week.

The Raleigh News and Observer of Sunday says: "Four big fairs in North Carolina are to be held this week—the one for the Cape Fear, Pee Dee and Scotch people at Fayetteville; the one for the people of northeastern North Carolina and southeastern Virginia at Weldon; the one for the dwellers in Piedmont North Carolina and the Scotch-Irish population at Charlotte; and the one for the mountain counties and the sturdy sons of Western North Carolina at Hendersonville."

"Here's luck to every one and regretting that this scribble cannot attend each."

The Cumberland County Fair is held next week, not this week, as stated above.

Superior Court in Session.

The October term of the Superior Court, for the trial of civil cases only, convened here Monday for a two weeks' session, His Honor, Judge H. R. Bryan, presiding. The first case taken up was Hatcher and wife vs. Wilkes, in which an order was made for other parties. In the case of Emmett vs. Brady the plaintiff took a non suit. The following cases were continued: Rives vs. Western Union Telegraph Co., B. B. Butler (not R. B. Burton) vs. W. J. McDonald, Talbot vs. Ray, Kelley vs. Owens, Gainey vs. Western Union Telegraph Co., J. B. Broadfoot vs. J. B. Anglin, Mallard vs. A. C. L. No cases were tried this morning. Sizemore vs. Hardie will probably be tried this afternoon. Mr. H. S. Averitt, who recently obtained license to practice law, was presented to the Court by Col. C. W. Broadfoot and was sworn in.

Fayetteville Delegates to U. D. C. Convention.

At the last meeting of the U. D. C. the following ladies were elected delegates from the J. E. B. Stuart Chapter to the General Convention, which meets in Charleston: Mrs. Hunter G. Smith, Mrs. John A. Pemberton, Jr., Miss Kate Broadfoot, Miss Alice Mathews.

Two Handsome Residences.

Two more very attractive dwellings are nearing completion on beautiful Haymont—those of Mr. E. H. Williamson, on the east front of the old arsenal grounds, and of Mr. T. M. Green on the same front farther north. Both are built in fine architectural taste.

A thousand negro longshoremen are on a strike at Mobile.

Saves Two From Death. "Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and to-day she is perfectly well."

Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to an other medicine on earth. Infallible for Coughs and Colds, and on bottles guaranteed by B. E. Sedberry & Sons. Trial bottles free.

Marriage at Siedman.

Miss Rosa Livingston, the charming daughter of the Rev. John D. Livingston, was married Monday morning at the home of Mrs. Strickland at Siedman, this county, to Mr. Henry J. Elmore, of Durham, N. C., by Rev. T. A. Smoot of this city.

It was a quiet home wedding, only a few intimate friends and relatives being present. The drawing room was tastefully decorated with palms, ferns, amaranth and other evergreens.

As the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march pealed forth from the piano played by Miss Carrie Sutton, of Mr. Oliva, the bride entered the room on the arm of the groom, followed by the others. Mr. C. Herman Elmore, of Mr. Oliva; brother of the groom, and Mr. William Wood, of Durham. The bride was beamingly attired in a going-away gown of blue cloth, and carried an exquisite bouquet of bride's roses and white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmore left immediately after the ceremony for their future home in Durham. The bride is a gifted young lady and a graduate of Trinity college and until recently a teacher in the Siedman High School, while the groom, who is the son of Mr. C. B. Elmore, of Mt. Olive, N. C., is a well known young business man of Durham, being interested in the drug business of that city.

Mrs. Jordan W. Branch Injured.

The friends and relatives in Fayetteville of Mrs. Branch will regret to learn of a painful accident to that lady in Wilmington Monday. The Messenger of this morning says: "Mrs. Jordan W. Branch, the aged wife of Mr. Jordan W. Branch, junior at the court house, suffered a serious accident yesterday afternoon. She fell down the front steps at her residence, No. 516 South Front street, and broke her right leg just above the ankle, and sustained several painful bruises. Medical attention was given her as soon as possible and the broken leg reset by Dr. E. S. Pigford. "Mrs. Branch's many friends will be sorry to learn of this misfortune, but will be glad to know that she is doing nicely under the circumstances and resting easy."

Horrible Murder in Bennettsville.

News has been received here of a horrible murder in Bennettsville at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning. A white carpenter named Henry Patrick, aged 35 years, went home drunk and picking up a shot gun, shot and almost instantly killed his wife, aged 23 years, while she lay asleep in bed. Whiskey is said to have made him temporarily insane. He was arrested as he left the house and is now in jail. There is great excitement and indignation in Bennettsville over the deed.

State News.

The attendance at the Masonic fair, Raleigh, Monday night was larger than ever. Grand Secretary Drewry, of the Grand Lodge of Masons, says the total receipts approximate $3,000 and the net receipts will be about $5,000. Interest was manifested in the drawings for the more valuable articles. Mrs. C. L. Jenkins, of the state hospital, drew the piano; Mr. John C. Drewry, the buggy.

Postmaster Bailey, who has charge of the payment of all the rural free delivery mail carriers in this State, says there are now 415 of these, and that the monthly pay roll is over $20,000. McKeeburg leads in the number of routes with 246 second. The first route ever established in the State was at Oxford and the next at Raleigh.

Three more convicts have escaped from the penitentiary. They were in the hospital. The officials say all are consumptive and are in a very low state of health. They got away during the storm Friday night. The news was not made public until Monday afternoon, when the governor gave it out. Penitentiary officials say the men are all negroes. William Wilson, of Davidson county, who entered the prison in 1902, to serve ten years for felonious slaying; Josiah Kirk, of New Hanover, who entered in 1890, to serve five years for burglary; Mack McMillan, of Rockingham, who entered in 1899, to serve ten years for larceny. They escaped through the floor of the hospital.

Fayetteville Now Has 33 Lawyers.

Mr. A. P. Spill, of Sampson county, has located in Fayetteville for the practice of law. This addition gives Fayetteville twenty three attorneys at law.

Special Premium.

Hunter G. Smith offers one pair "America's" $3.50 shoes for the oldest veteran registering at the "Daughters of the Confederacy" candy booth during the Fair.

Bryan Speaks in His Own Defense.

By telegraph to the Observer: New Haven, Conn., Oct. 27.—It was after one o'clock this morning when W. J. Bryan concluded his speech in his own defense after he had received a merciless scoring from Judge Stoddard, counsel for Mrs. Bennett in connection with the will of Phil S. Bennett, which leaves the Bryan family eighty thousand dollars.

Mr. Bennett's lawyer called Bryan a liar in court and accused him of coming an easy prey to disease. Kodak speech which put the opposing counsel to shame.

Bristow's report on the postoffice investigation has been placed in the hands of President Roosevelt.

Dieting Invites Disease. To cure dyspepsia or indigestion it is no longer necessary to live on milk and toast. Starvation produces such weakness that the whole system becomes an easy prey to disease. Kodak Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that one cares to eat, and is a never failing cure for indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Kodak Dyspepsia Cure what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold by King Drug Co.

WANTS McPHERSON MARRIAGE.

Beautiful Church Ceremony—Wedding Supper at "Beech Vista".

Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, the impressive and beautiful scene in the interior of historic McPherson Church, four miles west of the city, Mr. E. B. Evans and Miss Flora McPherson were united in marriage, Rev. D. M. Paisley performing the ceremony.

The mellow light from pyramids of candles stayed evening's gathering shadows, and the church was rich and tasteful in decoration of boughs, Southern amaranth and white erysanthemums, while the pulpit was banked in foliage of green, shot with the ruddy hues of autumn. Just before the ceremony Mr. W. M. Morgan, with Mrs. I. W. Hughes' accompanying, delightfully rendered the beautiful soprano solo, "O Promise Me!" after which, to the music of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. L. W. Hughes, the bridal party entered the church, the attendants advancing up the two aisles, and forming in front of the pulpit a double group, presenting a striking scenic picture, with the lovely young women in white evening gowns and the men in light evening dress: Mr. John B. Tillinghast and Miss Alice Lee Edgett, of Thorburns; Mr. L. W. McPherson, of Columbus, Ga., and Miss Mary McNeill; Mr. John M. Rose, Jr., of Greensboro, and Miss Lois Long, of Statesville; Mr. Frank McPherson, of Georgia, and Miss Alice Haig; Mr. Charles Hasek, Jr., and Miss Mary Leary, of Raleigh; Mr. George H. Currie, of Clarkton, and Miss Bessie McArthur; Dr. L. B. Evans, of Clarkton, and Miss Janie McPherson.

Miss Mary McPherson, her twin sister and maid of honor, preceded the bride, who was escorted by her father, Capt. J. A. McPherson, meeting in front of the pulpit the groom and his best man, Mr. L. A. Williamson. There, in that sanctuary where he had so often pointed his beloved flock to God, doubtless the venerable minister never uttered words from a heart more moved than when he joined the hands and blessed this fair woman and gallant man.

The toilettes of the bridesmaids were of white China silk, and they carried bouquets of immense white erysanthemums, while the flowers of the maid of honor were white carnations. The bride wore an exquisite gown of white crepe de chene, with accordion pleated ruffles, and her bouquet was of bride's roses and smilax.

Leaving the building to the strains of the beautiful music, the bridal party, with the relatives of the bride and groom, were conveyed in carriages to "Beech Vista," the country home of Capt. J. A. McPherson, the five old residence glad and festive in all the bravery of woodland greens, fall foliage and flowers and potted plants. There the guests were entertained in a generous board, and served with a supper typical of the bounteous, while he varied hospitality of a Scotch Irish roof. The wedding gifts were numerous and handsome, especially in silver service, China and cut glass, and attested the wide circle of friends and well-wishers.

The bride is a girl of great personal charm, with rare gifts of mind and heart, and is one of the "McPherson twins," well known throughout the State, and greatly admired in every social circle.

The groom, son of the late E. H. Evans, is a young man of fine character, an experienced and successful farmer and business man.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans, with their attendants, rode to town, taking the northbound train at 10:30 o'clock for a honeymoon journey.

The Belgian Hare.

The Belgian Hare Company, conducted by Messrs. Moore Brothers, is a new industry for Cumberland county and the upper Cape Fear section, and it is to be presumed that the enterprising promoters will ere long offer in market a new tit-bit for the palate of the good liver. The Belgian hare is said to multiply very rapidly, to be easy to raise, and to be as fine a table game as the English hare, highly esteemed in the old country.

Charged With Embezzlement.

Mr. M. F. Jeffries, agent here of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, returned yesterday morning from Rockingham, N. C., where on Monday he had J. T. Edwards of that place arrested and placed in jail on the charge of embezzling $700 from the Singer Company.

News of Neighbors.

Yesterday the State Board of Education made a loan of $9,000 in eleven coupons for building and improving school houses, of which $4,275 goes to Mecklenburg county. The total amount so far lent by the State is $70,000.

The Mecklenburg fair opened at Charlotte yesterday, with a large attendance on the grounds and an address by the president, Col. J. S. Cunningham.

The receipts of cotton at Galveston, Texas, yesterday were the largest in all the business history of that port, amounting to 49,984 bales.

The Standard Oil Company has with its new Bryan made an advance of one penny per gallon on the wholesale price of all grades of refined oil.

Cotton future market in New York Monday was excited and higher; nearly a million and a half bales were sold.

A Perfect Painless Pill.

It is the one that will cleanse the system, set the liver to action, remove the bile, clear the complexion, cure headaches and leave a good taste in the mouth. The famous little pills for doing such work pleasantly and effectively are DeWitt's Little Blue Pills. Sold by King Drug Co.

New Enterprise Proposed.

"Men of straw" all over the country seem to have their eyes on Fayetteville, as a hopeful field for enterprise and investment, a point for profitable industrial and business development.

Mr. F. H. Rose, who recently, to the regret of the whole community, tendered his resignation as secretary of the chamber of commerce, is in almost daily receipt of letters from abroad, making inquiries as to business and labor conditions here, value of real property, rents, rate of taxation, etc.

Among others, is a letter from Mr. J. H. Hattam, of Trenton, N. J., who designs to establish a scientific and industrial school, operating in connection with a model farm and garden, cultivated by the students, and he asks the price of land, the kinds of timber of the forest, the character of the soil and other information. A large whole sale house believes that this would be a good point for the establishment of a candy manufactory.

It is hoped that success will attend the effort now making to procure such an appropriation from the municipal government as will measurably regenerate a secretary of the chamber of commerce for valued and manifold service.

Women's Auxiliary.

The members of the Women's Auxiliary of the Liberty Point Monument Association are requested to meet at the residence of Mrs. A. S. Burns on Dek street tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. A full attendance is especially desired.

Local Briefs.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Marsh will occupy the Gilchrist house for the winter.

Capt. Alonzo Garrasoy continues very critically ill, with no hope entertained of his recovery.

Mrs. E. M. Downing has accepted a position with the King Drug Company as stenographer.

Experts of the Marine Hospital Service are making investigation of the typhoid fever situation in Virginia.

Boone's Pile Cure—An Important Letter.

Fayetteville, N. C., Oct. 5th, 1933. My Dear Sir, I have used one bottle of your Pile Cure, beginning its use when I was suffering intensely from that dreadful misadventure. After a thorough treatment, consuming one bottle, I feel entirely relieved. I believe it has cured me. No other treatment ever reached my case. I believe it to be the best remedy on the market for piles. Very respectfully, T. A. HALL, Late Pastor 1st Baptist Church (white). Put up only by J. A. D. Boone, 50 cents Laboratory, Fayetteville, N. C.
