We, the Fayetteville Chamber of Commerce, in meeting assembled, feel that in the death of the late lamented Captain Arthur Butler Williams this community has lost a prominent and nseful citizen, and this Chamber a progressive and zealous member.

Conscientious and energetic in all his undertakings, he has been especi ally so in all things tending to the material development and upbuilding of this his native city and county; and we thick it especially appropriate at this time that we should express our appre ciation of his distinguished services and commend his example to all, especially to our younger members. We deplore his untimely death and resolve as follows:
1. That we tender his family our deepest sympathy. 2 That a copy of these resolutions be sent to them.

3. That the same be spread upon a separate page of the minutes, and that the Fayetteville OBSERVER be requested to publish.

WIDE-AWAKE BUYERS

who are alive to their own interests, consider two points in buying. vis: (1) QUALS ITE, and (2) PRICE. It is a pleasure to deal with this class of buyers, because they know a good thing when they see it and are quick to grass it.

To such we again direct attention to the fact that none but standard goods, of recognized merit and reputation, are handled in this store.

Our method of buying in CAR LOTS FROM FIRST HANDS, at lowest prices and best discounts, enables us to give the retail buyer the benefit of "inside prices," and best discounts, enables us to give the relian buyer the benefit of "inside prie and the wholesale buyer gets value received for every dollar spent with us. Whe you want little or much, come to see us; we will make it well worth your while, don't want the earth, and a small profit satisfies us. A full stock always on hand. "Just out" is a phrase seldom heard here. Heavy and Staple Groceries.

I have found Dr. Hoffett's TEFTHINA a splandid remady and aid for my teathing child, every successful gds warred us that we would investibly lose him. I happened upon FESTHINA, and began at once a diministering it to him, and his improvement was marked in 94 hours, and from hast day on he recuperated. I have countantly kept it and used it since with my children, and have lakes great sense in sounding its praises to all mothers of young children. I found it invitable over a fibr the teething seried was passed.
