EAR ADMIRAL WIRENIUS. whose formidable squadron of Russian warships was on its way from the Baltic to Port Arthur when war was declared, is assistant chief of the general staff of the Russian navy and one of the czar's best sen fighters.

MEAR ADMIRAL WI-

His fleet, consisting of the battleships Osliabia, Imperator Alexander II. and Navarin the armored cruisers Dimitri Donskol and Admiral Nakhimoff, the protected cruisers Aurora, Almaz and Admiral Korniloff and a fleet of torpedo boat destroyers and torpedo cruisers, steamed as far cost as the Red sea, and its approach doubtless hurried Japan's declaration of war, for if it had succeeded in reaching Port Arthur the czar would have had a more powerful fleet in Asian waters than the mikado. When the Japanese in a single day put so many Russian ships out of business at Port Arthur and Chemulpo, Rear Admira Wirenius was ordered to return to the Baltic, because the Japanese could con centrate practically their entire navy against him and overwhelm him. Thus by Japan's prompt action Russia was robbed, for a time at least, of the service of eight big ships. Wirenius, being a man of war, doubtless thinks he is playing in hard luck, but he may get all the fighting be wants

In all the broad domain of Russia there is no more impressive figure than that of Father John of Cronstadt, the revered old priest whose piety and good works have made him the uncrowned pope of the czar's dominions. 'Although holding no high place in the Greek church, his power over the Russian people is hardly exceeded by that of the czar. Born over seventy years ago, the son of a simple servant in a village church, Father John has been a priest for nearly fifty years, ministering alike to prince and peasant.

While he claims no supernatural powers, marvelous cures have been attributed to him, and it is even asserted that be has raised the dead. He is a man of great stature, of commanding presence and almost angelic expression. Despite his more years, he looks like a man in middle life. At the coro-nation of the present czar Father John. in the gorgeous robes of the Greek church, with a chasuble of spun gold and wearing his hair in long curls on his shoulders, was the most picturesque and imposing figure in the imperial procession

The fighting men of the czar, high and low alike, eagerly seek his parting blessing ere they depart for the east Admiral Makaroff's last act before leaving Russia to take command of the Port Arthur fleet was to receive the sacrament at the hands of the aged

If he lives, the interesting infant whose picture is given berewith will one day be emperor of Japan. His father is Prince Yoshihito, heir to the throne of Japan, and his mother is Princess Sadako. The crown prince

Mitinomiya, heir presumptive to the throne, will be three years old next April, and has PRINCE HIROHITO being the first baby of the royal house of Jimmu Tenno who has been allowed to grow his hair like an American baby. Both his father and the mikado, when babies, had their heads shaved daily. Soon after the birth of Prince Hiro hito measures were taken to eliminate the "almond eye" of his race. An incision was made on the outer point of the baby's eyelids in a straight line for the barest part of an inch. The lashes were then drawn into shape and held in place by chemically prepared sticking plaster.

The wound healed in less than week, and the effect now is that Prince Hirohito does not look his oriental birth, so far at least as his eyes are concerned. The young prince is learn ing to ride a Shetland pony, and it is interesting to note that his toys are miniature battleships.

Mme. Takahira appears much youn-ger than her husband. Her figure is slender and graceful, and her pretty oval face would attract attention in any assemblage. She discarded the national costume of her country many years ago, and is said to be one of the best dressed women in Washington. She speaks English nearly as fluently as her distinguished husband.

Lieutenant General Linevitch, wh was in command of the entire Russian army in Manchuria under Viceroy Alexeleff prior to the appointment of General Kuropatkin as the czar's chief military leader in the far east, knows the Japanese fighting men, for in 1900 he directed the movements of 12,000 of them during the Boxer uprising

General Linevitch, who is sixty-six years old, distinguished himself during the Russo-Turkish war. For brilliant service at Plevna and at Shipka pass. where he fought with General Kuropatkin under the renowned Skobelet he was made a colonel and presented with a golden sword of honor. When the war with Japan opened, Linevitch was directing the movements of three army corps and was also governor get eral of Amur. LAND 18 WEALTH

More than that—land is the source of all wealth. The ratio of population to acreage is the sliding scale upon which opportunity is guaged, success determined. Cut the number of land-holders in any State in the Union in two and what opportunity is guaged, success determined. Out the limits of land-holders in any State in the Union in two, and what is the result? It's simple arithmetic—opportunities doubled in that State. What if three fourths the population be clim nated ? Opportunities quadrupled; and so on. That's the condition in the great Southwest, Arkansas, Indian Territory and Oklahoma. This wast territory is supporting less than one fourth the population of its capacity. Fertile—a land where wheat and cotton thrive side by side - where two yeariy vegetable crops are demonstrated possibilisies—the great-est fruit section in the country; but that's only half the story. The low ratio of population to acreage makes land cheap— That's the main point. There's room for success in the great Southwest Illustrated literature sent on request.
