News was received he e about 8:30 o'clock Saturday morning, to the great regret of the people of Payetteville and Cumberland county, of the sudden death of Col. Kenneth M. Murchison isst night or early this morning, at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Shirley Carter, in Baltimore. There are, up to this writing, no particulars of the cause of death, but it is supposed to have been from apoplexy.

Kenneth McKerz'e Murchison was born at Manchester, the second son of the late Duncan Murchison, and was about 72 years of age. He graduated at the University of North Carolina, and in early manhood removed to Wilmington. Thence, about 1857 or 1858. he went to New York city, and engaged successfully in business until the spring Josephus Daniels on his release from of 1861, when he returned South to enter the Confederate service. He was an officer of Shaw's 8th North Carolina regiment, but when that com mand was captured at Roanoke Island he was absent on special duty. He immediately raised a company, from which he was promoted to the colonelsy of the 54th North Carolina regiment. He was a brave and faithful soldier. serving from the beginning of the civil war until he was taken prisoner, and was on Johnson's Island at the close of

After the war Col. Murchison re turned to New York, where he again engaged in business with great sucgess, the New York firm being Murchison & Co., that at Wilmington Williams & Murchison, that at Fayetteville J. D. Williams & Co.

He married Miss Kate Williams daughter of the late Joel Williams, of Cumberland, who survives him with the following children: K. M. Murchison, Mrs. James Sprunt, Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. Shirley Carter, Mrs. Hurkent.

Episcopal Convention. The 88th annual convention of the Diocese of the Protestant Episcopal church of North Carolina met in Raleigh on Wednesday. During the sessions of the convention a public meeting will be held in the city hall, where the divorce question will be discussed, with a view to framing an appeal to the legislature to strengthen the present lax laws. Bishop Cheshire has expressed the opinion that the convention of the Diocese would act on the question.

Under the above heading appears as follows one of the leading editorials of Maj. Hale then called for a vote by the Wilmington Messenger of today:
