She had four children, only one of whom survives her. She has one sister living, Mrs. Carrie Strudwick wife of Dr. Wm. Strudwick, of Hillsboro, Her brother, the late Wm. Watters, of Wilmington, died about two years ago.

The funeral services were conducted from the Catholic church in Raleigh yesterday morning, and the remains were taken to Jackson, N. C., and laid to rest by the side of her husband. Only ten days ago Mr. H. B. Hardy, the only surviving son of Mrs. Hardy, went to Jackson on the sad missian of burying his wife. His friends throughout the State deeply sympathize with him in his double bereavement.

Unique Conditionin in a Church.

The Wilmington Messenger of today gives the following account of a remarkable state of affairs in a colored church in Brunswick county:

A most unusual state of affairs exists in Brunswick county in regard to and balls at a cost of about $150. Cedar Hill Christian church. It is a negro church, and the denomination to whom the church property was given has been driven out, and former Christians who have gone over to another faith have taken possession.

In 1897 a lot was deeded to the deacons and trustees of the Cedar Hill Christian church, and in the following year a church was erected on the All moved along peacefully until some months ago, when a Bethelite Methodist preacher came along and converted several of the trustees and a number of the members to his faith. Then it was that trouble began. The converted members claimed that as they were in the majority the church was theirs, and they went so far as to drive the Christians out entirely and take possession of the church The members of the original Cedar Hill Christian church bave resorted to the law and employed Hon. John D. Bellamy to represent them. A civil action has been instituted and an application will be made for an injunction to restrain the Bethelite Methodists from using the church. The members of the Christian church, or Cambellite Baptists as they are sometimes called, have no place to worship at the present time.

"Rome" to Rise from Its Ruins.

Mr. G. F. Talbot, who bought the property known as "Rome," just across the river, the sale of which we noted nesterday, informs the reporter that it is his intention to build on this property a large cotton ain house, and an oil mill, with a store and sev-

This might be called "Rome restored." Fifty and more years ago there was a flourishing village on that spot, bearing the ambitious name of "Rome," and not a few goods were sold by enterprising shopkeepers to the entire east side people, who, on a president of the North Carolina dismall business trip, did not choose to vision of the Southern Cotton Asso-Payetteville.

After the civil war "Rome" declined, and its houses fell into dilapidation; until finally the making of Clarendon bridge a free bridge blotted 'Rome'' out of existence

PAVETTEVILLE, N. C. January 24th, 1906. EDITOR OF THE FAYETTEVILLE OB-

As I was chief marshal of the last Cumberland fair, and know something about it; and as I was one of the young men who got interested, and wanted to improve the fairs we are accustoded to have, I attended the public meeting called by the Cumberland County Agricultural Society this morning:

I now wish to say in public printviz.: the OBSERVER-that I take exception for myself and associates at being classed as "rag tag and bob tail" by one gentleman, and to the statement made by another that the town of Fayetteville did not support

I make the following statements, which I challenge anybody to dis-

First. The "rag tag and bob tail" merchants of the town of Fayetteville and others gave me $200 willingly for my parade and tournament. Second. The "rag tag and bob tail" sporting fraternity and others, under Mr. Martimer Martin, gave the racing committee about $350, and the committee stood for $150 or so more. Third. Some "rag tag and bob tailed" gunners shot at clay pigeons at their own expense, and paid for their own prize.

Fourth. The "rag tag and bob tailed" Cumberland County Agricultural Society invited the Lumber Bridge company up here to shoot for a prize, and then forced the Independent Company and John Vann to furnish the prize. (I defy anybody else to do this.)

Fifth. The "rag tag and bob tail" boys gave two elaborate receptions This was all the fair there was, and the people of the town of Favetteville paid for it. The Cumberland County Agricultural Society "hogged" all the gate receipts and the license and privilege moneys, and distributed among the 'rag tag and bob tail" rooster-raising, turnip-sprouting, quilt-making fraternity the magnificent sum of $136.50 in premiums, as published in the OBSERVER of November 2nd, 1905.

Mr. Editor, facts are facts and figures are figures, and we can all of us live without any fair, but we don't want to have to. This is a free fight, and everybody is cordially invited to get in the game. "Every little bit

A resolution was offered at this meeting, permitting all present and interested (in accordance with the call of the meeting) to join the society, in accordance with the law and custom heretofore prevailing. This resolution being put and apparently voted down, a division was called for and the result was as follows: for the resolution, H. W. Lilly and H. R. Horne; against the resolution, Walter Watson, G. W. Lawrence, A. A. McKethan, W. S. Cook and C. W. Broadfoot. It is most unfortunate. Mr. Editor.

that we boys will grow up as big as our daddies, and have ideas of our own; but it is entirely in accordance with the plan of nature.

To any reasonable man who reviews the circumstances, the younger men of Fayetteville and Cumberland county are entitled to enter and control the county fair, or anything else in

Respectfully, I. B. TILLINGHAST. Letter to Cotton Growers

Mr. C. C. Moore, of Mecklenburg, pay the bridge toll to get across to ciation, has issued the following let-

> To the Cotton Growers of North Caroolina:

"Every county cotton association president is requested to call a meeting of farmers at the court house of his county, to be held Saturday, February 3, at 11 o'clock a. m. Every cotton grower, business and profes sional man, and all others interested in the general prosperity of North Carolina, are cordially invited to attend this meeting, which will be the most important yet held in the new year. Business and professional men are in liberal sympathy with the tremendous cotton movement in the South, and they are desirous of encouraging the planters in their efforts to win their rights, and of co-operating with them to achieve the objects of the Southern Cotton Association, We are working for their interests as well as for the welfare of the farmers.

If we prosper they prosper also. "Farmers, are you familiar with the cotton situation? Do you realize that we occupy ground which can be held only by exerting ourselves earnestly, honestly, patriotically and unanimously; and that it you go backward this movement, which is for your emancipation from the treacherous market controlled by gamblers and specula tors, will be lost?

"Be careful what you do. Learn the conditions which affect this mighty crop. Then do your duty. If you plant more land in cotton this year than you did in 1905, you will sell your staple at a low price. But if you are wise, and remain loyal to the association, your cotton will bring you a fish Station, and is FINE PARMING living and profitable price. This is your work and your opportunity. It is to support you and your family; to provide you with the necessities and comforts of life, and to educate your children. It is for all the farmers. The tenants and one-horse farmers are wanted and needed in the association as much as the larger producers. The man behind the plow is the sal-vation of the State and the bone of the Southland. "I shall endeavor to secure speakers i r every meeting on the 3rd of February and these gentlemen will be thoroughly informed in regard to the cotton situation. They will speak acts worth knowing and remembering. The leading farmers of your county will address you. February 3rd is to be a grand rally day in the cotton growing counties of North Car-olina. Let the cotton growers turn out en masse, and sing : 'Long Live

King Cotton. "CHARLES C. MOORE, President, N. C. Division Southern Cotton Association.
