

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Report on Agricultural Society—In-provement of Passenger Station—Telephone Service.

The chamber of commerce met at 8 o'clock last evening in the court-room, Mr. Charles Haigh, Jr., presiding, and Mr. F. R. Rose secretary. The following were present, besides some others coming in afterwards, whose names were not noted: G. M. Rose, H. R. Horne, R. M. Jackson, H. Lutterloh, N. H. McGeachy, W. S. Cook, H. T. Drake, J. J. Malloney, J. C. Adams, J. B. Tillinghast, J. O. Ellington, S. G. Ayer, W. L. Hawley, A. H. Slocum, Carlton.

G. M. Rose, from the joint committee of the Cumberland County Agricultural Society and the chamber of commerce, submitted the following report:

The undersigned committee, appointed by the Cumberland County Agricultural and Mechanical Society and the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Fayetteville, to confer and adopt some plan to place the Cumberland Fair in a better condition and infuse some going blood in its body, respectfully recommend to the members of the old, useful and once popular Society:

First: To adopt a constitution and by-laws, with some such article in the former as this:

Whereas, our fathers organized this Society for the upbuilding of our farming and mechanical interests, in their widest and deepest sense, with the social pleasures which always follow the greetings upon the grounds, with full hope and expectation that their work and pleasure were for all time; and

Whereas, our mothers, wives, sisters and sweethearts have smiled upon our efforts, and given, in large measure, their time and talents to the same end, and outstripped us, as they always do;

Now, therefore, to ensure the perpetuity of this corporation, it is declared as a part of our organic law, as follows, viz:

1st. No mortgage or lien shall ever be placed upon the real estate belonging to the Society. Subject to the above, the management may each year pledge in advance the entire receipts from all sources in any manner it may deem advisable.

2nd. Each member shall sign the roll of membership, which shall be headed by the foregoing article, as and for his solemn pledge to keep and observe it.

3rd. The officers of this Society and the duties to be expected of each, their terms and pay, if any, the time and place of meetings and fairs, rules and regulations, premiums, membership, dues and all other matters proper and necessary shall be provided for in the by-laws to be adopted and changed from time to time.

Second: After the adoption of the foregoing constitution, to fix the fee for admission of new members for one year at two and one-half dollars ($2.50), life members at twenty-five dollars ($25.00); these fees to be paid at once by all old members, not life members; and to solicit at once new members on these terms.

Third. As soon as fifty (50) persons, including old members, have signed their intention to join the Society, let a meeting be called, upon short notice, for the election of officers, adoption of by-laws and any other business.

Fourth. In the call for this meeting, urge our farmers, truckers, mechanics, merchants, professional men and others to come forward and join us in a hearty, whole-souled, strong, steady lift at our wheels, now in the old ruts, determined that no obstacle shall stay us from our purpose to make the Cumberland Fair, for this year and next, and always, what it once was, and ought and shall be, something to look forward to and be proud of.

C. W. BROADFOOT,
W. S. COOK,
H. W. LILLY,
Committee from C. C. Ag'l and Mech. Society.

G. M. ROSE,
H. LUTTERLOH,
R. M. JACKSON, Committee from Chamber of Commerce.

After discussion, the fair committee was continued, with instructions to urge a prompt call, on the part of the managers of the society, for an early meeting for reorganization on the terms submitted. The following were appointed to solicit old and new members of the Cumberland County Agricultural Society to attend the meeting when called: J. C. Adams, A. L.
McCaskill and J. B. Tillinghast, with authority to add suitable persons throughout the county to work with them on this line.

The secretary read a letter from the authorities of the Atlantic Coast Line R. R. Co., promising the improvements to the passenger station asked for by the chamber of commerce; also letters from Hon. G. B. Patterson, evincing his interest in the public building, now pending in Congress.

The attention of the chamber was called to the inefficient telephone service, several contending that it seemed to be growing more inefficient each month. The secretary was directed to take this matter up with the proper officers of the system.

Following are the receipts and disbursements for March:

Table with 2 columns: Description, Amount. Includes Cash on hand at last meeting, Disbursements (Printing, Advt., Free Press, Salary), Cash on hand.

The secretary furnished, by direction of the chamber in March, a list of members who for various reasons had ceased to pay anything for the support of the same. He also read a report showing the regular contributions, that could be relied on, to be less than $40 a month.

There was some discussion at the close in relation to a Federal Court for Fayetteville.

Scotch Lasses in South Carolina.

Our readers will be glad to hear pleasant things said of Scotch Lasses (Miss Elouise McGill, daughter of our talented county-man, Hon. A. D. Mc-Gill), who used to delight them as well as the staff of the OBSERVER with her scholarly and entertaining letters.
Her duties as a teacher in South Carolina have for a year or two past caused us to lose the benefit of her cheery as well as instructive correspondence.
But that these duties do not conflict with her propensity for giving others pleasure, is shown in the Lamar (S.
C.) correspondence of the Columbia State, which contains the following:

The little town of Lamar has been favored beyond the ordinary, and fortunate indeed this winter, in having in its midst ladies of such high accomplishments, pleasing personality and charm of manner as Miss Meade Hawley of Columbia, Miss Elouise Mc-Gill of Fayetteville, N. C., Miss Daisy McIntyre of Marion, and Miss Ersel Ellis, of One West, the first being a teacher of music and the others teachers in the graded school.

By their efforts our town has won a place along social lines, and has had many merry evenings. They have given a series of "at homes" and other functions, which have been thoroughly enjoyed by all so fortunate as to gain admission to the coterie of the "T. R. G." or the "F. D. S."

The ladies' prize, a box of beautiful stationery, was won by Miss Ellis, as she proved herself mistress in the proper use of letters. The gentleman's first prize went to Mr. China Reynolds, an excellent speller, who appreciated the book, whose leaves were of parchment in the form of inten handkerchiefs. The "boobies" were easily won by Miss McIntyre and Mr. M. L. Jenkins. They were given primary spellers, and it is hoped that next time they will do better.

A rival event in point of fun and real enjoyment was an "old-fashioned evening" given by Miss McGill at the home of Mr. E. J. Rose. Many games of the olden time were played, such as "thimble," "marching round the level," "going to Jerusalem," "cross questions," "commotion in the yard," "clap in and clap out," etc.

Fortunes were tried with a cat on the quilt. The quilt was tightly held by the eager students of fate's mysterious ways. The cat was on the quilt and was closely watched, for she would surely jump over the shoulder of the man or maid who was to be the next victim on Hymen's altar. After various and desperate efforts to escape, the cat finally leaped determinedly above the fair shoulder of Miss Hawley, and all agreed that that was quite the proper thing for pussy to do.

After this momentous question had been settled to the satisfaction of all concerned, refreshments were served.
These followed the general law of the evening, and consisted of gingerbread and sweetened water—water sweetened with "long sweetening." These edibles were received with appreciation for the sake was all eaten, and the unique beverage was drunk to the last drop.

School Closing.

On Friday evening, March 30th, at the closing exercises, a most delightful entertainment was given by the pupils of the McPherson church school, which reflected much credit upon both teachers and pupils. In addition to the amusing plays enacted, a string band, composed of the finest musical talent in Seventy-First township, was present, and at intervals gave some delightful music. Following were some of the pieces enacted, which were a source of much enjoyment to a crowded house: The "Burlap on a Glee Club," by the large boys; the "Delicate Pantomime," by eight girls, dressed in soft white robes; "An Old Time School," "The Naughty Little Girl,"
"The Missionary Waiting for the 2-40 Train," "The Woman's Rights Association" (dialogue); "The Garden Swing" (song); "The Blue Doll," sung by fifteen little girls; "Vacation Song," by larger girls.

Taking it in every way, too much praise cannot be bestowed upon the teachers, Misses Mary and Elizabeth McArthur, for their untiring energy and good taste displayed on this occasion.
