Camp 852. United Confederate Veterans, met in the city hall at noon to-day, Commander J. H. Robin presiding, and Adjutant A. A. Mc-Kethan secretary. The commander declining to serve longer on account of ill health, called Capt. A. D. Mc-Gill to the chair, and the following officers were elected:

G. M. Rose, commander: A. D. Me-Gill, H. H. Bolton, J. H. Currie and D. N. McLean 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th lieutenant commanders; A. A. McKethan, re-elected adjutant; Walter Watson, quartermaster; T. J. Powers, commissary; Dr. T. D. Haigh, surgeon; Dr. H. A. McSwain, assistant surgeon; Rev. David Fairley, chaplain; E. W. Nolley, J. W. Currie and J. C. Geddie, 1st, 2nd and 3rd color guards; W. W. Cole, vidette.

A subscription was taken up to keep up the soldiers' graves on Johnson's Island of $6.00, and $1.00 for the women's monument; and, on motion of Maj. McKethan, the committee was continued to increase both subscriptions.

On motion of Col. C. W. Broadfoot, the thanks of the Camp were tendered to Rev. David Fairley, chaplain, for his godly sermon last year, and a request made that he give the Camp another discourse this year, setting Dying Poet - Gottschalk - Ethel his time and place.

Mr. J. W. Atkinson made a motion, which was carried, tendering the congratulations of the Camp to Gen. Hoke on his long life, so useful to his State, so brilliant to his fellow sol-

Maj. McKethan made a few very Carnival - Deshayes - Mamie and appropriate remarks, urging that at the next Reunion North Carolina show more organization. The State is popular everywhere, but slouches along in parade like a mob.

On to Lower Little River.

Says Saturday's Raleigh News and

Effective Sunday, the 6th, the train leaving here over the Raleigh & Southport at a o'clock in the afternoon will run through to Lower Little River, instead of as has heretofore been the ease, making Lillington its point of return. The management makes this change in deterence to the wishes of the travelling public, expressed by a number of patrons of the Mr. John Capps, of Seventy-First road. The train will arrive at Lower township, who lives near Galatia Little River at 4:05 p. m., and leave there on its return at 4:50. It will arrive in Raleigh at 6:55 as before. Southbound, however, the train gy, wagon, somewhere between 300 leaves Fuquay five minutes earlier, and 550 bushels of corn, peas, etc., that is at 3:05 instead of 3:10. A farming implements with karness. more pleasant outing than the one afforded by this trip could not well be found. The present southern terminus, Lower Little River, where 45 minutes are spent, is a lovely bit of scenery: sheer sixty feet bluff lofty trestle, swiftly flowing water and a wealth of vernal foliage combining to make it most charmingly picturesque.
