HOTEL LAFAYETTE.

Sale Made To-Day-Messrs, M. Mcl ews and F. W. Thornton

The Hotel LaFavette, one of the most valuable hotel properties in North Carolina, was bought last week by Messrs. M. McI. Matthews, present manager and lessee, and F. W. Thornton, prominent business man. The sale gives a clear title to all the property, absorbing mortgage of the Bank of Fayetteville for $36,500, and the property interests of Col. J. B. Starr, the largest shareholder; F. W. Thornton, and the estate of the late Capt. A. B. Williams.

The new owners will at once make intensive (improvements, increasing even its present popularity. The lobby, stores, offices, and barber shop will be laid with mosaic or tesselated pavements, with galvanized sheet ceiling overhead, and a system of fine baths installed in the hotel. The house will be refurnished through out, and its service and cuisine will be of high grade.

Hon. Charles M. Stedman.

The following is taken from the Wilmington Star of last week, and the OBSERVER reechoes the good wishes of that paper in the matter:

It will be of interest to his troops of friends in this section of the State to learn that Hon. Chas. M. Stedmar left Greensboro yesterday for New York, whence he sails for Liverpoo on the steamship Etruria next Satur day. He will be absent about six weeks on important professional business, being counsel in a case in volving very large pecuniary interests. It is very gratifying to his friends and admirers that he has been retained in a case of such magnitude and has been entrusted with such an important mission. The Morning Star wishes him a pleasant voyage out and a safe return.

Is It the Cumberland and Randolph? For the past few days two or three well-dressed, intelligent-looking men, whose names have not been ascertained by the reporter, as they have probably been stopping at a boarding-house, have been taking long hack-drives west and northwest of the city toward Little River and Raeford, and southeast toward Cedar Creek, making what looks like a birds-eye or preliminary railroad survey of the country. They were provided with sulted during their drives, and espec- A. L. SHAW, General Merchant. fally made close examination of all

A Little History

Told in One Chapter. CHAPTER 1.

Subject: Perfection Flour.

This popular Flour was first introduced on this market by us.

"How did you happen to discover it?" is a question often asked.
It happened in this wise: Among other head-millers employed by the Carolina Holler (Flour) Mills some 12 years ago was Mr. Ira E. Bogart, of Richmond, Ky., who knew about every Flour Mill of consequence throughout the West, inving worked for many of them. One day we saked him the direct question: "What in your opinion is the best Flour made in the United States?" Without a moment's hesitation he replied—"PERFECTION Flour, made by the Trow Milling Company, Madison, Ind."

Not long afterwards, we ordered 25 bbls as a sample. It sold rapidly. The people called for more, "just like the last." We ordered 50 bbls more, which went almost as quickly as the 25 bbls. Then a car load, and another, until now it takes a car a month, or about 1500 bbls yearly to supply the growing demand. Clearly, Mr. Bogart knew whereof he spoke.

During the twelve years we have handled PERFECTION, it has never been necessary for the mill to send a "druinner" to solicit our orders—the Flour literally sells itself. We buy direct from the mill, never through brokers, drummers, or middlemen, and give our customers the benefit of the saving.

It's not advertising (as some profess to think) that imakes PERFECTION the BEST and CHEAPERT Flour sold in Fayetteviller, it as SOLID MERIT. Buy it, and you will get THE FLOUR THAT NEVER FAILS—everytime.
