Judge Long was still more severe on the mob in an address yesterday. He said :

"The court is informed that a kinsman of the murdered people pleaded with the cut throats and murderers to who gave encouragement by word or presence or took any part in it was guilty of murder in the first degree.

"The question now is simply whether the law shall be enforced by the courts or by a mob; and Rowan county shall find, as I have said before, that no man of character and standing was in that mob. I am going to perform my duty as I see it, and have no tear. I said before I apprehended any trouble that the law of the land is stronger than any local mob. I do not take that back, notwithstanding the shots about my ears ingly fine.' The honor and integrity of Rowan must be preserved.'

The grand jury then retired to its deliberating room and court adjourn

The three companies of militia are still on duty around the jail and the city is practically under military rule, but beyond the arrests there have been no developments.

Sentiment Undergoing a Change. A dispatch from Salisbury says:

While there are no visible signs of of the organization of a strong party to liberate from the Salisbury jail Saturday night the lynchers of the morning of the barn and two horses on the farm of Isaac Lyerly, who with his wife and two children were murdered by the lynched negroes. The military still guards the jail and courthouse, and gatling guns will be fired. on a mob should it attempt to enter the jail premises.

A special venire of sixty men has jury will be selected to try Hall, whose case will be called to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Six men have so far been arrested in connection with the triple lynching at Salisbury Monday night. These are Bud Bullobaugh, George Hall, John Cauble, Francis Cress and Geo. Gentle, all Rowan county men save Hall who is from Montgomery coun-These men were taken into court this afternoon. Hall alone was arraigned. He was charged with murder on three courts. He pleaded not guilty. He was represented by ex-Congressman T. F. Kluttz. Judge Long told the other prisoners to employ counsel. The hearing will probably be continued to-morrow.

appears that the actual instigators were men from other counties.

Republican County Convention.

The Republican executive committee has called the Republican county convention to meet in this city on September 15th to nominate candidates for county offices.

Caught at Last.

Ben Canady, a negro who, some eighteen months ago was arrested, charged with larceny and bound over to court, and then jumped his bond, was captured at Sikes' mill in Seventy-First last week by Sheriff Marsh, and is now in jail awaiting trial on the old charge.

Bladen County Convention.

The Democratic executive committee of Bladen county met at Elizabethtown last week and called the primaries for the various townships to meet Saturday, September 8th, at 4 o'clock, and the county convention to nominate candidates for the different county offices to meet at Elizabethtown Wednesday, September 12.

Moore County Convention.

The Democratic convention of Moore county was held last week. Mr. A. A. F. Seawell, of Jonesboro, was nominated for the the Senate. Mr. J. E. Buchanon was nominated for the House. Mr. J. Alton McIver was nominated for Clerk of the Court, in place of Mr. D. A McDonald, who has held the position for twenty years. Mr. A. C. Kelly was nominated for Sheriff, and Mr. N. A. McKethan for Register of Deeds.

The Text-Book Commission.

The Sub-Text Book Commission of city, is a member, at work in Raleigh the past month examining school books offered by publishers for adoption in the public schools of the State completed their work last night and filed their report with Gov. Glenn for the Text Book Commission composed of the State Board of Education this morning. The report is voluminous, covering their findings in the examination of all books in every branch

Not quite a year ago, in the account of the Veterans' Reunion at Longstreet, published in the News and Observer, your correspondent paid a little tribute to the memory of Capt. McKellar, and mentioned the trouble, there are persistent rumors fact that his grave is unmarked save by a bunch of rosemary growing at

We had forgotten the article, but three negro murderers of the Lyerly that one fact seems to have lived in family. Feeling runs high again to- the memory of one who is the son of night over the burning early this a Confederate soldier, and from him has come the request, within the last few days, that this pen will again propose a sentiment to the gallant Capt. McKellar, and ask for contributions to form that sentiment into a stone to mark his grave in the old cemetery at Longstreet. This young man heads the list with a subscription of five dollars. That is a worthy been ordered and from this number a precedent, and we shall tell you his name later, if he doesn't object.

As to the sentiment: Is it not sufficient to offer the memory of Capt. John McKellar? His reputation justifies the assertion that the chivalrous days of the Crusaders did not know a knightlier soul, nor did the plume of a Chevalier Bayard ever crown a man of more peerless character. Surely he must have "kept the whiteness of his soul" unblemished if the plaudits of his contemporaries are a criterion. And yet he lies in a neglected spot, which will be utterly unknown by the next generation. Shall we not save it from oblivion?

He was Captain of Co. A, 5th North Carolina Cavalry, and right nobly did he discharge his duty as a soldier of Public sentiment in Rowan county in regard to the lynching is said to front rank of the heroes from Cumhave undergone a great change and berland. He left no near relatives, there is now a strong desire that the so far as we know, and we suppose leaders of the mob be punished. It this is the reason why he has not been given a monument. But we hope that he will get one now. We feel sure that his comrades in arms will gladly contribute to this cause, and no doubt there are other Sons of Veterans and Daughters of the Confederacy who will like to help, also. In order to expedite the matter, this correspondent will take charge of any amount which any one may choose to give, and we shall be very glad if these funds are sent in just as quickly as possible.

"HELLO!"

The Red Springs Citizen of Friday contains the following which will be read with interest in Cumberland, where Mr. Patterson has so many friends:

HELLO!

Being thus accosted, I turned around to find my neighbor over the way brandishing a newspaper in his hand and seemingly in a high state of mental excitement. "Hello!" he repeated again. "Have you seen to-day's Robesonian?"

"Well, it's a hummer. That paper has been a little dull of late, but it makes up for lost time."

"Well, what's the matter now?" "Stephen B. McIntyre turns State's evidence and gives us the secret history of the Lumberton consuiracy to defeat Patterson for Congress "I didn't know that he had a B. in
