Lee's Birthday.

The OBSERVER is indebted to Mrs. Jane Sholar, recording secretary, for a report of the meeting of J. E. B. Stuart chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, held in the hall of the Knights of Pythias last week.

After consideration of various matters pertaining to the work of the chapter, it was decided to give a reception in observance of the one hundredth anniversary of General Lee's birthday. As the 19th comes on Saturday, the reception will be given on Friday night, the 18th of January. An interesting programme of good music, filled with patriotic sentiment, will be rendered, and light refreshments will be served. Committees were appointed to make arrangements for the reception. On Saturday, the 19th, a special meeting will be held, when crosses of honor will be given to the Veterans.

Takes the Market House.

Mr. M. Folb, the well-known clothier of Market Square and Person street, has rented the market house entire from the municipal government, and he has dismantled the interior of the old shells of stalls, etc., making it already look better. He will whitewash it, and the members of the Women's Civic Improvement Association, which met yesterday afternoon, expressed their thanks te him for the already perceptible betterment of the building

This rental lasts only until Mr. Folb has finished the handsome remodeling of the double store he now

Sensation at the State Capital.

Growing out of an article last week, reported to the Sunday newspapers from Washington city, there is quite a sensation in political circles in Raleigh. The article, of which Spencer Blackburn was said to be the author, charged that Governor Glenn and Congressman-elect Hackett were "implicated in a scheme to advance the interests of the American Book Comparty for personal profit." Governor Glenn says of this that one of two things ought to be done: "Either the Governor of North Carolina should be impeached, or Spencer Blackburn should be sent to jail."

The Governor proposes to prosecute the Republican Congressman to the full extent of the law, and has notified Solicitor Brooks to take steps to that end

But Blackburn denies the libel in the following statement sent to Solicitor Brooks yesterday over his signa-

"The statement in last Sunday morning's papers concerning the notice of my contest upon Mr. Hackett and the reflection upon Governor Glenn is without my authorization. My notice to him, signed by myself, will be sufficient for public scrutiny. Thus far any signature appearing in the papers purporting to be mine is a forgery. In the notice of my contest which I have issued there will be found no suggestion of corruption on the part of Governor Glenn. The notice will speak for itself."

Mr. John Wright and Miss Loula Barlow, of Parkton, N. C., were united in marriage by Rev. V. G. Smith at his residence on last Wednesday at 2 o'clock.

Did you ever see the word "Sun Cured" used in any chewing tobacco advertisement, or on any chewing tobacco tag or label, or in any other way, before it was introduced and used to identify the genuine Reynolds' Sun Cured? You see it frequently now, because many imitation brands are being made to appear as nearly like Reynolds' Sun Cured as they dare—with tag, shape of plug and style of package so similar that experienced buyers sometimes accept these imitations as the genuine Reynolds' Sun Cured.

Don't be deceived into taking imitation brands for the genuine. Be sure the letters on the tag spell "R.e.y.n.o.l.d.s' Sun Cured," and you get the best value in sun cured chewing tobacco that can be produced for chewers. The Nation's Finances. Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, in his report, just issued, in round num bers places the receipts for the calendar year 1906 at $625,000,000, and the expenditures at $566,000.000, or an excess of receipts over expenditures of $59,000,000 As there has been no change in the tariff laws relating to international revenue, Secretary Shaw says the arge increase in receipts is due solely to the extraordinary trade activity. The total expenditure, however, for 1906, as compared with 1905, he says, shows a decrease of but $5,000,000.

Discussing the finances of the government for the six months of the fiscal year just closed, the Secretary says that the books of the Treasury show a surplus of receipts over expenditures of $25,000,000, as compared with a deficit of $8,000,000 for the corresponding months of the previous fiscal
