The Ocean Lines Disasters.
It appears that some steamships on the best lines running between Liverpool and New York make a profit of $20 to $30 per month. The average profit varies from 10 shillings to the most half crown, although occasionally a pound note change hands. "It is quite true," says a stewardess in a London paper, "that ladies are not nearly so generous as gentlemen. I received a share one trip, eight and a half dollars upon an exacting millionnaire and children, but they left the ship without giving me even 'Thank you.' I know one stewardess, though, who received $25 as a tip from one of the Vanderbilts, who had his servant standing by him with a satchel of oranges, from which all the stewards and other attendants received something. The most generous people are military and civil officers homeward bound from India. Sometimes a rich gentleman passenger falls in love with a stewardess and marries her. But fortunes from tips are rarely made, although a comfortable competency is frequently secured in this way."

Curious Names.
Chicago is an Indian word meaning wild onion or skunk weed. Chicago is also Indian and is variously interpreted as highly salted water, great waters or country on a great river. Chautauque is also an Indian word and has had several interpretations, as a foggy place, a bog in the middle (referring to the shape of the lake), a piece where a child was washed away, where the fish are taken out, place of easy death or, finally, place where one was lost. Des Moines is usually supposed to refer only to the Trappist monks, and it is also connected with an Indian word meaning the road. Niagara is an Indian word, signifying across the strait or at the neck. Shenandoah is Indian and means the spray stream or a river flowing alongside of high hills. Massachusetts means near the great hills or the hill shaped like an arrowhead or, again, the blue hills. Mississippi means great water or gathering in of all the waters of an almost endless river spread out.—Leslie's Weekly.

Playthings of Ancient Children.
The most primitive toy is the doll. It dates back to prehistoric times and is found in every part of the world. This one would naturally expect to find a child, seeing its mother nursing other younger children, would imitate the example with an improvised doll. Toy weapons, again, are older than history. Many of the other toys at present in use date from the earliest times of which we have any record. In the tombs of the ancient Egyptians, also.

Ancient Toys.
Dolls, toy horses and wooden carts and ships. In the Louvre there are some Greco-Roman dolls of terra cotta with movable joints fastened by wires. Greek babies had rattles. Greek boys played with whirling tops. So did the boys in ancient Rome.

Why Safety Matches Strike on Glass.
There are two reasons why ordinary safety matches can be struck on smooth glass. The head of the safety match is composed of a mixture of sulphide of antimony, chlorate of potassium and powdered glass. A comparatively small increase of temperature will cause this to ignite. Now, glass is a bad conductor of heat, and the rapid passage of the substance over it raises the temperature of that substance sufficiently for that purpose. When the glass is rough the friction crumbles away the loosely combined mixture before the temperature rises to the point of ignition; hence, given the composition of the match head, the two circumstances which answer the question are the comparative smoothness of the glass and its imperfect conductivity of heat.

The Tallest Men of Europe.
The tallest men of Europe are found in Catalonia, Normandy, Yorkshire and the Ardennes district of Belgium. Francis gets her tallest recruits from Silesia, which is the original home of the Anglo-Saxons; Austria from the Tyrolean highlands. In Italy the progress of physical degeneration has extended to the upper Apennines, but the Albanian Turks are still an athletic race, and the natives of the Caucasus are as sneaky and gaunt as in the days of the argonauts.

Masters of the World.
Riddle words, short maxims, homely truths, old sayings, are the masters of the world. Great reformations, great revolutions in society, great eras in human progress and improvement start from good words, right words, sound words, spoken in the fitting time, and finding their way to human hearts as easily as the birds find their homes.—D. March.

The Landlady's View.
"They say a carrier pigeon will go farther than any other bird," said the boarder between bites.
"Well, I'll have to try one," said the landlady. "I notice a fowl doesn't go far."

Literary Item.
"They say very few authors sleep more than seven hours a day."
"But think how much slumber they furnish other people."

Soft.
Cholly—I wish that I could find something to absorb my mind. Molly—Have you thought of trying blotting paper?

Among all the fine arts, one of the sweetest is that of painting the cheeks with health.—Rusk.

Kidney complaint kills more people than any other disease. This is due to the disease being so insidious that it is not recognized until the system before it is recognized. Foley's Kidney Cure will prevent the development of fatal disease if taken in time. Medicine Drug Store (O. D. Sanders, Prop.).
