TWENTY-FIFTH ANNAUL CON-VENTION

Of the North Carolina Sunday School Association.

The greatest Sunday School meeting of the year will take place in Burlington on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, April 7-9, in the Christian Church. This will probably be the best convention the State Association has ever held. The Burlington people are making every effort to make the delegates welcome. The entertainment will be free, and anyone interested in Sunday School work may attend The music will be in charge of Mes srs. Tullar and Meredith, of New York city, both of whom are known and loved in our State. It will be worth a trip to Burlington from any part of our State just to be in the song service of the convention. They have few su periors as leaders of gospel music. Among the speakers on the pro gramme are W. C. Pearce, of Chicago, the Teacher Training and Organized Adult Department Superintendent of the International Sunday School Assoclation; Mrs. J. W. Barnes, Superintendent of the Elementary Department of the International Associa tion: Rev. B. W. Snillman, of our own State; Dr. Jas. A. B. Scherer, President of Newberry College, S. C.; besides many other Sunday School workers in our State will do so: The will be of interest to all Sunday School workers to know that the afternoons are to be given to Conference Work. There will be Contenence on from voting upon the liquor question P-mary Work, on Councy and Town for their own benefit, and the voters

Death at Cambro.

We are sorry to anounce the death of Lottie M. Merris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Morris, of Cambro, N. C. She was born Sept. 11th, 1898, and died March 5th, 1908. She was ill only a short time; was taken sick Wednesday and died Thursday night at 9:30 o'clock

The funeral services were conducted ed by Rev. D. H. Graham at Cameron Hill church. The pall-bearers were: Messra Neill Shaw, Oscar West, Willlam T. Clark and Hugh McD. Ray. A friend writes of her death as follows:

"She was the sunshine of her home and the idol of a devoted father, mother, brother and grand-mother. She was too bright a jewel for this world, and her Father has taken her to shine for His giory. May God comfort her bereaved parents and relatives.

"Lottie, thou was't mild and lovely, Gentle as a summer breeze, Pleasant as the air of evening, As it floats among the trees.
