"Glenn County." Facts and Figures of Ragford says: "In Glenn County there will be about 7,000 of the best people living; but few law-breakers; nearly 1,000 polls, 800 voters, $2,500,000 taxable property; but few bridges to keep up, no Scuffie town to trouble us; we will need but few courts; politicians none; Red Springs Ottomans, nothing doing!"

Magistrate's Court. Albert Hales, colored, was fined before Squire Overby yesterday afternoon, charged with shooting another negro named Olive Carter, in Flora Hill township on November 9th. He was bound over to court in the sum of $100 which he gave.

Editor Fayetteville Observer. I do not think the killing of Senator Carmack ought to pass without a loud and long lament being raised in every Southern State and City. He belonged to the whole South, for upon every question raised reflecting upon Southern honor he was not only one of the first on his feet, but with language of surpassing power he championed her great name.

Alex Geddie, colored, is in jail awaiting trial before Squire Overby on Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, charged with a capital offense—that of setting fire to the home of Louis McMillan in Flora Hill township, on the night of November 24th.

Mr. E. J. Marvin and family left yesterday for Indiana, where they go to make their future home. FOR A MORE BEAUTIFUL FAYETTEVILLE

Valuable Suggestions by Dr. Clark. Editor of the Observer: The following letter from Dr. Clark contains so many valuable suggestions that we decided at once to have it published. Why cannot Fayetteville beautify her streets by planting trees and having grass plots like other up-date cities? It will not only beautify, but add so much to the comfort and health of the town. And right now would be the best time, before the paving is done. We all admire the trees in our Southern cities, and know how much they add to the beauty of our largest Northern cities, and yet Fayetteville has shown no disposition to plant a tree. Why is it?

MISS GEORGIE HICK. Savannah, Ga. November 27th, 1908. Woman's Civic Association. Fayetteville, N. C.

It seems to the writer that we are about to make a mistake ourselves in the street matter, if we put in the new pavement without any regard to having a parkway running the whole length of Hay, Person, Gillespie and Green streets. This belief has been reinforced by my stopover at Savannah probably the most picturesque city in the South. Its beauty comes not only from the quaintness of its homes, but from the different small parks at the intersection of the principal streets, and especially by the parkway, running through the middle of these streets.

When the matter was discussed of a line of trees or parkway through Hay street, it was deemed as a practical objection that there was no room for two drive ways on either side of the street. It is true, but I believe that we can make a case in point to show the practicability of all three on one street.

Yesterday I walked through Liberty street, admiring its beauty. I noted two drive ways (one adjacent to each sidewalk), a line of fine trees on one side of a central parkway and a line of shrubs on the other side of this central parkway, the intermediate space apparently being grass full green. Some of these trees were 2 1/2 feet diameter at bottom and fully 60 feet high.

Liberty street from curb to curb is about 80 feet, the width of the parkway being about 25. I enclose three postal cards. No. 1 shows this parkway with one of the trolley poles, the track being invisible. No. 2 is another view of the same street, the parkway being on the right. No. 3 is not Liberty street, but illustrates how a trolley line can be treated by the gardener.

My recollection is that our two main streets are broader than Liberty street. Again it does not require a 25-foot parkway to improve our streets. If the city were inclined to make a parkway as suggested, it does not follow this would have to be planted all at one time. Trees and shrubs could be set out as the money came to hand, and the writer is ready to do his part toward a public subscription which might be added to by the property owners and the city perhaps.

By cable to Observer. Paris, Dec. 1.—With the people in the frenzy of revolution, the government disrupted and the revolutionary army moving against the capital, the island of Hayti to-day presents a despairing state of political chaos. A battle between the government forces and revolutionists is momentarily expected at Lesonne. President Alexis is stubbornly determined to battle to the end, either suffer a crushing defeat or crush the opposing army. The Cabinet is completely disorganized and only the President stands firm. French and American gunboats are in the harbor, ready to protect foreign property.

By cable to Observer. Paris, Dec. 1.—President Castro will not be allowed to enter Paris. Because he is ill he will be allowed to land and be treated at Bordeaux or will be given passports across the country if he wants to go to Berlin, but in no case will he be allowed to enter Paris. The Government feels that after the ignominious fashion in which the French minister was expelled from Caracas, it would be justified in refusing to allow Castro to land, but because of his illness, humanitarian considerations prevent them taking such a step.

SHERIFF OF BRUNSWICK SHOT.

Fatally Wounded by White Man. Sheriff Jackson Stanland, of Brunswick county was shot and perhaps fatally wounded Sunday night by a white man named Walker, upon whom he and a posse of three others were serving a warrant for store breaking, the scene of the shooting being Walker's home, four miles below Shalotte, in a remote part of the country. Walker is said to be a deserter from an army post in Georgia, and came to Brunswick several years ago, marrying a daughter of Mr. Frank Leonard, a well to do citizen. He was a roving, shiftless fellow, generally regarded as desperate, and recently after several stores in Shalotte had been broken into, he was suspected and a warrant was issued.

For several weeks the sheriff had been unable to locate him, until Sunday night when he and three other officers, John E. Robinson, A. S. White and James Long, came upon him at his home while at supper. Walker opened fire on the party with an army revolver Sheriff Stanland falling with a bullet through his kidneys before the man was overpowered by other members of the posse. Walker was sent to Southport to jail under heavy guard for fear of vengeance by the sheriff's friends in the event his wounds prove fatal. Sheriff Walker died at 9 o'clock Sunday night.

By telegraph to the Observer. Washington, Dec. 1.—Daniel J. Keef, of Detroit, president of the Longshoremen's union and an active worker for the Republican cause during the recent campaign, was today appointed Commissioner General of Immigration, to succeed the late Frank P. Baragona. He is prominent in labor circles. It was charged by President Gompers before the election that Keef had been offered this place, if he would desert his fellow labor leaders and lead the Republican party. This was denied by the administration.

GOOD FORTUNE FOR FAYETTEVILLE PEOPLE

Mrs. Roberts and Son, Mr. James C. Rush, Heirs of Late Ben. Rush. It will be remembered our former townsmen, Mr. Benjamin Rush, died in Gainesville, Fla., on Sunday, November 22nd. His second wife, who was Miss Agnes Johnson, daughter of the late F. P. Johnson, at one time a leading merchant of Fayetteville, died several years ago, and later married the late Mr. Jerry Roberts, who was killed some years ago. She was run over in the freight yard here. Mrs. Roberts, who resides at Mountford street, had one son, Mr. J. C. Rush, by her first husband, and several children by her last husband.

A few days ago, Mr. James C. Rush, who is a mechanic, applied to the Carolina Machine Works and a very popular young man, received a letter from Mr. W. R. McKethan, president of a bank at Gainesville, Fla., offering him that he was executor of the estate of the late Ben. Rush, and that he had left his last testament, with the exception of a legacy of $300 to his pastor, jointly to his first wife, Mrs. Agnes Roberts, to her son, Jas. C. Rush, and to Miss Minnie Roberts.

Who the Miss Minnie Roberts mentioned by the executor as one of the heirs is, is a mystery. It is thought that the executor made a mistake in copying the name, and that it must be Miss Margie Roberts, a daughter of Mrs. Roberts, who Mr. Rush married especially attracted, who on a visit here several years ago.

Mrs. Roberts is an excellent woman, in very moderate circumstances, and Mr. James Rush is a hard working young man of fine character. We trust that the estate is large as they are led to believe, and that they will live long to enjoy their good fortune.
