Local Cotton Market. Cotton sold here Tuesday at 9 5-16, the top price of the season. Last year's same date it sold at 12 cents. About 75 bales were marketed here to-day.

I. O. O. F. Installation. At a regular meeting of Cross Creek Lodge No. 4, I. O. O. F., held Monday evening, the following officers were installed: R. L. Weymann, N. G.; Dr. Wm. S. Jordan, V. G.; W. J. Boone, R. S.; W. T. Saunders, Financial Secretary; E. J. Kennedy, Treasurer. The meeting was well attended, and greatly enjoyed.

Library at Hope Mills. A public library was founded in Hope Mills yesterday, with Mr. W. J. Beattie, Jr., the general manager of the Hope Mills Manufacturing Company, and Mr. J. J. Mahoney as the leading spirits. This is an excellent idea, and we trust that this thriving manufacturing town, will appreciate to the full this great blessing.

Grady-Horne Marriage. At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Reynolds, on B. street, Jan. 15, 1909, at 8:30 p. m., Mr. J. M. Grady, of this city and Miss Annie Horne, of Vander, were married. Mr. Grady is a prominent railroad man and the bride is the charming daughter of Mr. Wm. Horne, one of Cumberland's most substantial farmers. Rev. W. L. Humphry officiated.

Marriage of Mr. Shepherd Bryan. One of the most brilliant young lawyers of the South, who has won high position in Georgia, in Mr. Shepherd Bryan, a leader of the Atlanta bar. He is the son of ex-Judge Henry R. Bryan, of New Bern, and a brother of Mrs. J. B. Broadfoot, of this city, and has many close friends throughout North Carolina who will congratulate him upon his marriage in Atlanta on Thursday last week to one of Atlanta's most beautiful belles, Miss Florence Jackson.

Run-away Marriage. The Register of Deeds granted the following marriage license Saturday: Mr. Jas. H. Jackson, and Miss Mary A. Hall, both of Fayetteville; Mr. John E. Hall, and Miss Mary Adcock, both of Lumber Bridge. The marriage of the latter couple created quite a little sensation in Seventy-First yesterday, where they were married by Squire D. B. Gillis. After the marriage, it became known that the young lady's parents objected to the marriage, stating that she was only fourteen years of age, and that the Register of Deeds of Robeson County had been instructed to this effect and forbidden to issue a license. No such instructions were sent to the Cumberland Register of Deeds, and as the young lady's age was given as 18 by the applicant for the license, it was granted.

Donaldson Military School. It is pleasant to note the golden opinions being won by the above institution. Though its discipline is rigid the students are much attached to the different members of the faculty and are making fine progress in their studies. This School has every promise of fine success and we rejoice over it.

When we take into consideration the healthfulness of this locality as shown by the annual report of the Supt. of Health, Dr. A. S. Rose, published on last Saturday, the fitness of this place for a flourishing military school is doubly assured. Think of it, only an average death rate of 8 whites when the usual number is seventeen. More than that, there was not a single death during the past twelve months that could be attributed to local unsanitary conditions.

Nocheffer will attend the Tartan quest in Augusta to-morrow evening.

Progress of the Street Paving. The laying of the bituminous paving on Person street is about complete, and in a day or two the whole street will be ready for traffic. The concrete foundation on Green street has been completed, and the work of laying the bituminous on this will be begun this week. The concrete force is now at work on upper Hay street, laying the concrete from the A. C. L. station down Hay street.

A Marriage of Local Interest. The following account of the marriage of Miss Roxie Smith, daughter of the late Mrs. Alice Harris Smith, and grand-daughter of the late W. D. Smith, which took place Dec. 22, at Pueblo, Col., is taken from the Pueblo News: "A very pretty wedding was solemnized last Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Babbitt, when their cousin, Miss Roxie Smith was united in marriage to Mr. Lee Silas Miller, of Washington, D. C. The bridal party, led by the bride's maid, Miss Currie Bell, entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's 'Spring Song,' beautifully played by Miss Davis Shaw on the violin and accompanied by Miss Lella Cockrell. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Kirk Miller, who preceded the bride and Mr. Babbitt, who gave Miss Smith away. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Guy H. Wadsworth and was witnessed by a host of friends of the young people. The bride wore a becoming toilette of white mull and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, while Miss Bell wore a gown of pink mull and carried pink roses.

"After the ceremony a delicious wedding supper was served at which Mrs. S. E. Davis and Mrs. T. R. Zeigler presided. "The home of Mr. and Mrs. Babbitt had been prettily decorated for the occasion and the dining room was artistically decorated in green. In the center of the table was a huge basket of white carnations and maiden hair ferns.

Mr. Miller for the past five years has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Babbitt and has won a host of friends who will regret to learn that her marriage will take her away from Pueblo as Mr. Miller is in the employ of the general land office in Washington, D. C.

"Mr. and Mrs. Miller left immediately after the wedding for Santa Fe, N. M., where they will remain for two months, after which they will go to Washington to reside."

"Marse Robert is asleep" By Miss S. B. Valentine. The following verses are based upon an incident of the Civil War. General B. D. Fry, of the Confederate army, related the story to the author. General Lee, sorely fatigued by a hard day's march, lay down on a log beside the road and quickly fell asleep. Soon a column of soldiers came down the road, laughing and talking as they marched along. A burly cooper, who had been standing guard by the General's impromptu couch, rushed out into the road and whispered: "Hush! Marse Robert's asleep!" The word was passed down the line, and the ranks instantly subdued, tiptoed past their sleeping leader. Had you heard the distant tramping On that glowing summer day! Had you seen our comrades running To meet us on the way! Oh, the wondrous, sudden silence! 'Till 'unilitary creep. As down the line that caution ran, "Marse Robert is asleep!"

Give me your hand, Old Blue Coat. Let's talk of this awhile. For the prettiest march of all the war was this of rank and file— Was the passing of that army. When 'twas hard, I went to keep Those men from crying out, "Hurrah! Marse Robert is asleep!"

There lay that knightly figure. One hand upon his sword. The other pressed above his heart. A vow without a word! Two laurel leaves had fluttered down. For flowers their vigils keep. And crown'd him, though I think they knew "Marse Robert was asleep!"

In glorious old Westminster No monument of war. No marble story half so grand As this our army saw! Our leafy old Westminster— Virginia's woods—now keep Immortal that low whisper, "Marse Robert is asleep!"

As we clasp hands, Old Blue Coat, List, Brother of the North: Had you then for assault your homes? You then had known his worth! Unbroken vigil o'er those homes It had been his to keep; Step lightly o'er the border then—"Marse Robert is asleep!"

He's yours and mine, is Robert Lee. He's yours and mine, is Hurrall! These years you've shared have sealed the past. And closed the wounds of war! Taps clanging hands, Old Blue Coat. We'll swear by the tears you weep. The sounds of war shall be muted—"Marse Robert is asleep!" Richmond, Virginia, May, 1885.

A New Airship. By telegraph to Observer. Salt Lake City, Jan. 19.—C. L. Dowser, of this city, completed a five plane aeroplano model, one of many others, and has had remarkable success with it. The materials used are very light and the model weighs but a trifle over one pound. It is three feet in length and has a lifting surface of 2.2 square feet, with a shooting start flights have been made as long as 125 feet.

MAJOR HOLLINGSWORTH TO GET APPOINTMENT.

As Paymaster General. From Tuesday's Daily. Governor Kitchin will announce his military appointments to-morrow. Major James G. Hollingsworth, of this city will get one of the best positions on the staff, that of Paymaster General.

Major Hollingsworth was endorsed for this position by the leading citizens of Fayetteville, our members of the Legislature, and also by a number of prominent men in the State. He has been in the military service since boyhood, beginning as a cadet at West Point Military School and a few years ago reached the highest post of military honor in the State; that of Major of the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry Company. Some of the other appointments will be: National Guardsman Joseph F. Armfield will be adjutant general; William W. Shingfield, inspector general; Francis McCou, quartermaster general.

STATE NEWS OF INTEREST. Speaking of Congressman Willett's speech in Congress yesterday, the Associated Press correspondent says: So vehement was the denunciation of the chief executive that it seemed as if the New York member had taken the dictionary for words which would properly express his feelings. The President was characterized as a "garbage, tyrant, pigmy, descendant of Dutch trades people; hay tender, fountain of billingsgate, a jocular, imitation of a King and bogus hero."

Mr. J. Kemy Doughton was yesterday elected as State Bank Examiner to succeed Mr. F. J. Haywood, who resigned. The salary that goes with the position is $2,400.

Mr. Doughton is the son of former Lieutenant Governor R. A. Doughton, of Sparta, Alleghany county, a member of the present House of Representatives. For some time he filled the position of teller in the office of the State Treasurer, a position which he resigned two years ago, to accept that of assistant cashier in the People's Bank of Winston-Salem.

Speaking of Seawell's appointment as Judge, the Washington correspondent of to-day's Raleigh News and Observer says: "The appointment is without value and can only be regarded as a compliment. The Senate will not permit Seawell's confirmation and the appointment to the judgeship will be left open to President-elect Taft until he becomes chief magistrate of the Nation March 4th. Seawell's nomination, in the meantime, will be assigned to sleeping quarters with the committee on Judiciary. At the first meeting of the committee a subcommittee will probably be appointed to consider the appointment."

In the mayor's court in Chester, S. C., yesterday Charles Fahoes, a Greek cook in a restaurant, was fined $100 for offering an indignity to Miss Jackson, a member of the "Knights for a Day" theatrical troupe. The alleged insult was offered at a hotel in this city Sunday night. An interpreter was required at the trial, as Fahoes is a recent arrival in this county and cannot speak English.

Eyes of State Concentrated on Chapel Hill To-day. By telegraph to Observer. Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 19.—Both Houses passed a joint resolution to adjourn in honor of Lee's birthday. In the Senate a bill was introduced by Elliott to increase the salary of the State Librarian. Mr. Barringer presented a petition asking the repeal of the clause in the constitution as to homestead exemption. Mr. Gay introduced a bill to punish drunkenness in North Carolina, also to amend the law as to separation of the races on cars. Mr. Scott introduced a bill to appropriate funds for the Deaf and Dumb. In the House Mr. Koonce introduced a bill to pay Solicitors stipulated fees.

THE MARKETS. By telegraph to Observer. New York, Jan. 19.—Cotton opened 1 7/16 points lower, on large selling orders. The opening was: March, 9.50; April, 9.45; May, 9.42; July, 9.35. New York Jan. 19.—The stock market opened with a heavy tone, and fractional losses. At the end of fifteen minutes there was little change from yesterday's close. Chicago, Jan. 19.—Higher wheat, with a half to 3/4 over yesterday. The opening was: Wheat Jan., 108.24; corn, May, 61.58; oats, May, 61; half pork, May, 17.12. New York Cotton Market.

Senator Overman Re-Elected. By telegraph to Observer. Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 19.—Senator Lee Slater Overman, of Salisbury, a former speaker of the House of Representatives, was to-day re-elected to the United States Senate by the Legislature. In the Senate, Mr. Overman was placed in nomination by Senator Whitehead Knott, of Rowan, and the succeeding speech was made by Senator E. L. Travis, of Halifax. In the House, Mr. John A. Julian, of Rowan, made the nominating speech, and was seconded by ex-Lieutenant Governor R. A. Donahugh, of Alleghany. Mr. Overman received the solid vote of all the Democratic members of the Legislature.

Cleveland's Home for Sale. By telegraph to Observer. Princeton, N. J., Jan. 18.—The home of the late Grover Cleveland here is advertised for sale. The house had been Mr. Cleveland's home ever since his retirement from the White House March 4th, 1897.

Earthquake at Smyrna.

By cable to Observer. Smyrna, Jan. 19.—People of this city were thrown into a panic this morning by an earthquake. Little damage done. Several houses were knocked down and three persons were killed.

The Duke of Abuzid Arrives. By cable to Observer. London, Jan. 19.—The Duke of Abuzid arrived in London to-day, accompanied by Count Di-Cambresis. He says he expects to visit the Holy Lands in Thibet in March. Asked to say something definite about the Ekkid affair he replied, with a laugh, that something "Definite" already has been said.

Burned to Death. By telegraph to Observer. New York, Jan. 19.—Two persons were burned to death today in a tenement, and forty families were driven into the freezing cold weather. Yesterday and last night was the coldest this winter.

Mrs. Ray Freeman, 42 years old, and her husband, Robert, the former professor of mathematics, were burned to death today in a tenement, and forty families were driven into the freezing cold weather. Yesterday and last night was the coldest this winter.

Taft and President's Brother-in-Law Before Grand Jury. By telegraph to Observer. Washington, Jan. 19.—Douglas Robinson, brother-in-law of the President, was the first witness called today before the Federal Grand Jury in the suits instituted by the Government against the New York and Indianapolis publishers. He was on the stand only ten minutes. H. P. Taft, brother of the President-elect, was the second witness. Several other witnesses were called, and practically the whole day was taken in hearing their testimony.

CHINESE PAPERS FOR WOMEN. (Barbours Southerner.) Li Sum Ling, who is the editor of the Chinese Mail of Hong Kong, was in New York last week on his way around the world. When interviewed he wore a purple broadcloth suit, a morning gown, though the cuffs of the white man showed below the edge of his sleeves; and though he wore black satin shoes and his hair was in a long braid down his back, he smoked the cigarette of the white man and spoke the tongue of the Anglo-Saxon without break or accent. He discussed at length the conditions in China and the relations between the empire and the United States, and on each which he said his people are very friendly. He spoke in favor of a commercial alliance between the two nations.

Li Sum Ling says, "there are four women's daily papers in Canton, five or six in Shanghai and the same proportionally in every large city in China. These papers are all run by Chinese women and women do all the work on them. They give summary of all the news of the world of interest to women, and you will find the educated Chinese women informed on what is going on all over the world. They publish many translations of articles of interest to women in foreign languages. China is full of periodicals for women and monthly publications just as it is here. "The new system of education introduced into China includes girls. Municipalities everywhere have opened girls' schools, and soon the girls going to school in crowds every morning. As yet it is only the children of the well-to-do who are educated, but we hope to extend it as fast as possible to all children of the empire. "There are now cities and towns and schools for higher education for girls—not colleges, but corresponding perhaps to your High Schools. There they study Chinese classics, foreign languages and general educational branches. There are somewhere between 10 and 20 such schools in Canton. The pupils are usually daughters of rich men. There is no dormitory system. They board in families when they do not live at home. In Hong Kong the Beilios school has existed for 20 years. It is for Chinese and foreign women. It has more than a thousand pupils. "All this is not new, you must understand," said the visitor, "there was a period in Chinese history when the women were very highly educated and occupied a high social position. Female education fell into neglect, and now it is being resumed, that's all. It is necessary for the women to be educated if a country is to advance. Modern Chinamen appreciate that, and are acting on it. A country in which one half of the people is left uneducated cannot compete with one in which all are educated. We understand that. No matter how educated the father is, the children lose something if the mother is not educated. All the graduates of our girls' schools marry at from about 16 to 18. We have not the old girl in our country," said Li Sum Ling, simply.

Medals For the Wright Brothers Are To Be Presented by President Roosevelt Next Week.

By telegraph to the Observer. Washington, Jan. 19.—President Roosevelt will present the gold medals to the Wright Brothers, co-discoverers of the Aero Club of America, in the East room of the White House, next time next week. The medal of honor is the one designed by Victor D. Brenner. The observer will contain the portraits of the Wright brothers, and the reverse will show an accurate figure of the Wright airplane in flight. In addition to the seal of the club, the medals will be of gold, three inches in diameter and a number of replicas in silver and bronze will be struck off to present to the subscribers. It is estimated that the total cost will be somewhat over $2,000. Action was also taken whereby Congress will be petitioned to let the official cognize of the work done by the Wright brothers in presenting them with a medal by the Government in appreciation of the fact that the Wrights have placed America in the front rank in the science of aviation.

Congressman Herbert Parsons, who is a member of the Aero Club of America, has been requested to draw up a bill for this purpose and introduce it into the House. This will be a separate and distinct honor apart from the medals to be given by the Club.

The annual dinner of the Aero Club at which it is to have both Otville and Wilbur Wright as guests of honor, will be held a few days after President Roosevelt's presentation of the medals. The dinner will be held in New York. Secretary of War Wright will make a speech.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson endorses the movement for enlarging the foreign field of trade in American cotton.

Better Not Get Dyspepsia

If you can help it. Kodol prevents Dyspepsia, by effectually helping Nature to Relieve Indigestion. But don't trifle with Indigestion.

A great many people who have been troubled with indigestion, have been sorry for it—when nervous or chronic dyspepsia resulted, and they have not been able to cure it. Use Kodol and prevent having it. Everyone is subject to indigestion. Stomach derangement follows stomach abuse, just as naturally and just as surely as a sound and healthy stomach results upon the taking of Kodol. When you experience sourness of stomach, belching of gas and nauseating fluid, bloated sensation, gnawing pain in the pit of the stomach, heart burn (so-called), diarrhoea, headache, dullness or chronic tired feeling—you need Kodol. And then the quicker you take Kodol—the better. Eat what you want, let Kodol digest it. Ordinary peptic "dyspepsia tablets," physics, etc., are not likely to be of much benefit to you in digestive ailments. Pepata is only a partial digester—and physics are not digesters at all. Kodol is a perfect digester. If you could see Kodol digesting every particle of food, of all kinds, in the glass test-tubes in our laboratories, you would know this just as well as we do. Nature and Kodol will always cure a sick stomach—but in order to be cured, the stomach must rest. That is what Kodol does—rests the stomach, while the stomach gets well. Just as simple as A, B, C. Our Guarantee. Go to your druggist today and get a dollar bottle. Then after you have used the entire contents of the bottle if you can honestly say, that it has not done you any good, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay. We will then pay the druggist for the bottle. Don't hesitate, all druggists know that our guarantee is good. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family. The large bottle contains 24 doses as much as the fifty cent bottle. Kodol is prepared at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. SOLD BY ARMFIELD DRUG STORE.
