Business Locals.

Walter Jessup—$400, 12 Acres. An Interesting Visitor. N. C. Marsh, Esq., of Eldorado, Ark., an old Cumberland boy, has arrived in this city for the purpose of appearing as an expert in the case of James Marsh, vs. the A. C. L. for $30,000 damages, for injuries received on the A. C. L. in Florida.

Interesting Visitors. Rev. J. B. Hartwell, D. D., who has been a missionary in China for over fifty years and his daughter, Miss Anna, also a missionary; Rev. J. H. Edwards, wife and little girl, are visiting Mrs. E. L. Remsburg, who is a niece of Mr. Hartwell, and a sister of Mr. Edwards.

Cumberland in the Legislature. Mr. Currie yesterday introduced a bill in the House to establish the stock law in Cumberland and Lee counties. The bill by Mr. Nimocks, in the Senate, to improve the rural free delivery service by requiring the erection of automatic gates across the public roads went over till Tuesday for consideration.

Mr. James Adams Dead. From Monday's Daily. A telegram received here today from Asheville, N. C., announced the death there yesterday, of Mr. James Adams. The remains will arrive from Asheville this evening, and the funeral will be held at Raeford in the morning, at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Adams leaves a wife, who was Miss Mollie Lamont, a niece of Maj. J. W. McLaughlin, and several children. A Large Gobbler. Mr. W. M. Gaddy, of Offerman, Ga., arrived in the city Saturday night with a large wild turkey gobbler. He had a beard twelve inches long. Mr. Gaddy killed him near his home Saturday morning, and brought him to his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Pearce, of this city.

Mr. Gaddy is always a welcome visitor to Cumberland County, his former home, where he has many friends. He will leave today to visit his sons at Chapel Hill. Mr. M. F. Scott in Jail. Mr. F. Scott, a local insurance agent who has figured so many times lately in the magistrate's court, charged in each case with embezzlement, was before Judge McLean Saturday, on a similar charge, and was bound over to Court in the sum of $200. He failed to give this bond, and was committed to jail.

He was already under bond, in three other similar cases, and on Saturday, the bondsmen in these cases asked to be relieved. Womans' Betterment Association Report. Report of the January meeting of the Woman's Betterment Association and the Teachers' Association of Cumberland County.

The fourth monthly meeting of the Woman's Betterment Association of Cumberland County convened at the Court House in Fayetteville, N. C., on January 29, 1909. Miss Mary McArthur, president.

Many ladies were present. All answered to the roll call with interesting reports of the improvements made in their schools. All had done much in the way of keeping their yards cleaned off, and making their school houses neat and attractive. Some of the young ladies have made decided improvements in their schools, such as painting the school rooms, and buying new pictures and putting in new window lights.

Two of the members had assisted in raising money for new school buildings. The meeting proved a very interesting and helpful one. The enthusiasm of the great work seems contagious, and the Woman's Betterment Association of Cumberland County, under the supervision of our estimable president, Miss Mary McArthur, has done great things in the past year in the interest of the public schools of Cumberland County.

Step Toward Better Roads. The County Commissioners have under test and consideration a steam road roller, which is at present being used near town. The Kelly Springfield Road Roller Co., of Springfield, Ohio, have sent this roller here in order to show by actual demonstration, in practice, the necessity for modern equipment, for road building, not only to effect a reduction in cost, but to very greatly increase the life of the road and to minimize the repairs.

This firm who are making the demonstration, are well recommended, having sold the first roller sent to Mecklenburg County nearly twenty years ago, which has been followed there during the past twelve months by three modern rollers of the latest type and efficiency. The good roads question is receiving considerable attention and the Cumberland County Commissioners would do well to investigate the saving and efficiency of modern methods.

THE HEARING AS TO A NEW COUNTY OF HOKE.

Before the Committee Yesterday Afternoon.

From Friday's Daily. The capital city was stormed yesterday by the good Scotchmen of Cumberland and Robeson composing the various delegations who were contending for and against the formation of the new Counties of North Robeson and Hoke. It was a four-cornered fight and the contending clans were in fighting trim. The first delegation to arrive was the special train-load from upper Robeson, who wore badges bearing the words, "Vote for North Robeson," then came another train-load from Raeford and vicinity, wearing badges equally as conspicuous reading, "Robesonians for Hoke County," and "Vote for the County of Hoke."

The hearing of the two measures was set for 3:00 o'clock before the Joint Committee on Counties, Cities and Towns, but long before this time the hall of the House, the galleries and every available space was filled with the opposing factions, and when the committees were ready to meet, the seats had to be cleared in order to afford the necessary room for the members. The advocates of Hoke County presented their cause first, and were represented by good speeches from Judge T. B. Womack, of Raleigh, Hon. C. A. Webb, of Asheville, and Maj. J. W. McLaughlin and Mr. Jno. W. Moore, of Raeford. The North Robeson citizens were then heard and Messrs. R. E. Lee, Leon T. Cook, ex-Representative McEachern, Maj. Geo. H. Hall, and others were among the speakers, the main address being a classic presentation of the cause by Maj. Chas. M. Stedman, of Greensboro. Cumberland and Robeson were each given 45 minutes to present their wishes against any dismemberment of the respective counties, the former being defended by Maj. McKethan, Messrs. H. H. Bolton, I. A. Murchison, and Chas. G. Rose, Chairman of the County Democratic Executive Committee, and Chairman of the Delegation. Both Senator Nimocks and Representative Currie made urgent appeals to their fellow members to let Cumberland alone. Messrs. A. W. McLean, Steven McIntyre, and E. J. Britt, of Lumberton, and Hon. G. B. Patterson, of Maxton, urged that Robeson County be not disturbed by submitting any New County matters to them to vote on as they had enough elections down there now, having had four last year.

No action was taken by the Committees, after hearing all sides, but the House Committee adjourned until today at 3:00 o'clock, when they will have an executive session and vote on the questions. No intimation which is at all authentic can be given as to the result of the committee's vote, each faction contending that it has the favorable side, but the general opinion of experienced legislators and others is that while some of the new county movements may get favorable reports from the committees, that no new county will be formed at this session.

Hoke and North Robeson Counties Doomed. From Saturday's Daily. The House Committee on Counties, Cities and Towns late yesterday afternoon, McDonald of Moore acting as chairman, by a vote of 5 to 13 defeated the bill proposing the new county of North Robeson. Mr. McLeod of Robeson gave notice of a minority report.

The Hoke county bill met the same fate, the vote being 6 for to 12 against. Mr. McDonald of Lee and Moore counties gave notice of a minority report. Mr. Shepherd of Robeson and Mr. Morton of New Hanover, of the committee, made earnest and effective arguments against both bills, declaring it was not the time for the creation of any more new counties.

The committee made favorable report on the bill to allow Cumberland county commissioners to create a sinking fund.

TWENTIETH STILL CAPTURED. Found on Little Rockfish. From Tuesday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon, Deputy Sheriffs Culbreth and Moore and two special deputies, added the twentieth scalp to Sheriff Watson's belt of stills captured during his administration. As they approached the still, which was located half a mile from Strickland's bridge on Little Rockfish, they saw a white man run off with the cap and worm in his hands, and took after him. The chase became so hot that the moonshiner had to drop his precious burden, after which he outdistanced his pursuers.

The still was found to be a 30-gallon, copper one, in good condition. After spilling nine barrels of beer, the officers brought the outfit to Fayetteville Superior Court in Session. From Monday's Daily. The February term of the Superior Court for the trial of Civil cases convened in this city today; Judge Adams presiding. The court adjourned for the dinner recess, before any case had been taken up.

The only case so far taken up in the Superior court is that of J. C. Lindsay vs. N. B. Lindsay and wife, a suit involving seven or eight thousand dollars, and it still occupies the attention of the court.

Was Run Down and Killed. By telegraph to Observer. Greenwood, S. C., Feb. 16.—Irene Wade, a school girl, was run down and killed by a Southern Railway train here this morning.

The Register of Deeds has granted the following marriage license since our last report: Mr. David B. Horne and Miss Mary C. Carter, of Cedar Creek.

COMMISSIONER OLIVE'S POSITION.

Wade, N. C. Feb. 11, 1909. Editor Observer:

As to complaint of stopping transportation across Cape Fear river at Clarendon bridge against County Commissioners, I beg to state as one member of the Board, without consulting with any other member, that I knew nothing of the transportation being stopped until Tuesday (the 9th), when our Board met to receive bids for new bridge, etc.

The day the Clarendon bridge was burned, I received a wire message notifying me of same. I boarded the first train and went to Fayetteville to help arrange for immediate transportation. There had already been a committee of the citizens of Fayetteville to arrange immediate transportation, and to confer with the County Commissioners their plans, etc.

The committee reported that they had employed the steamer Lyon for three days. Had also arranged for a flat to be built on oak, which would take six two-horse teams across the river at a time, and that said flat would be ready for use by Monday, (Feb. 8). Said committee asked us to pay half the expense and town pledged to pay the other half. Our Board readily accepted their proposition, and voted its thanks to this committee for interest they had taken in the matter. Said committee further stated that the flat would be ready by Monday.

Mr. Blount, one of the committee, said it would be ready if he and J. A. Oates had to help build it. I, for one, believed our Board would have voted to continue the use of the Lyon until the flat could have been asked of our Board. Now, as to launched, had the Citizens' Committee any action the Board has taken to discontinue transportation, or being asked to continue transportation, I know nothing of it, save the criticisms I have seen in the paper.

Since I have been a citizen of Cumberland I have had a deep interest in the grand old county, and have always felt proud of her, especially because the town and county were so closely allied to each other. More especially since I have been a member of the Board have I had a deeper interest in her well fare, and watched with pride every movement of our capital city. I always have and ever will be ready to lend a helping hand to aid in her prosperity.

I have written this in reply to yours of the 10th in the Observer. Hope the matter is now made plain to you in regard to my position as a member of the Board. Yours truly, W. J. OLIVE.

AND DOES IT RANKLE YET Correspondence of the Observer.] Fayetteville, N. C., February 15th. Editor: The writer was not particularly pleased at your first notice of the ferry, it did not have a "God-speed" ring to it. But here comes "fare minded-American citizen" from manhood-honest Government Patriotic Law-abiding Business-like and last and least the Peanut vendor. I did not care to be "out in public," but here comes another man asking in thunder tones "where the responsibility lies" in that the steamer Lyon did not continue the ferry and waited to see who voted against it. The east side Tax payer realizes the fact that "talk is cheap but it takes money to buy land," and free advertising is something very unusual and the opportunity must not be lost. Held up as he is through your columns with a "stand and deliver" Mr. Olive says he does not know anything about a meeting stopping the steamboat, but the Commissioners I don't know anything about it and I know Mr. Keith does not, and I don't believe Mr. Bell or Mr. Bullard know anything about it. Your correspondents were just a little too "previous"—the Legislature is not going to divide the County. The writer went to the public meeting held in the City of Fayetteville, he did not see any of your correspondents there and when he asked about the "ways and means" a gentleman got up and said that if the steamer was engaged for Friday and Saturday that he and another gentleman would guarantee that the flat would be running Monday morning. The meeting seemed to be thoroughly satisfied and then adjourned. The commissioners agreed to pay half the expense incurred in establishing the ferry and then to operate the same until the bridge was completed but was then to own the flat. Who complained that the steamer did not run Sunday so that some of the churchgoing people of the East side could get to their places of worship? I am at a loss to know why Commissioners are attacked as they are—they have been benighted with river mud all the week in their attempt to discharge their duties, and the question must suggest itself to the community as they get little or no pay for it, why do they get it? The mere fact that a certain crowd wish to put others in their places has alarmed them for they certainly feel that they are working for the counties good as they see it. The mere fact of a contract being given by them for a 783 foot steel bridge has not awakened the "Green eyed monster" in their souls. The bridge had to be built and the order was given a reputable company who were willing to take the contract for one Thousand Dollars less than the lowest bidder of five other companies. I have crossed many and many a ferry and this is as safe as any I have seen. You must expect to get your patent leather shoes muddy when you cross a river ferry and you must expect a foot mule to run sideways and turn your buggy over if you hold him in the shafts. Now Mr. Editor when a man misrepresents facts and then writes to the writer of such communications I do not think it is fair to the people of Cumberland Co or to the Democratic party to say nothing of their representatives to publish such communications—Not even fair to the writer of such communications. Yours truly, HERBERT LUTTERLOH.

[The Observer's "first notice of the ferry" appeared the afternoon of the same day on which the bridge was burned, viz: Wednesday, February 3, and was as follows: A Free Ferry—To Be Established At Once Across The Cape Fear River. Major E. J. Hale, President of the Chamber of Commerce sent telegrams today to the newspapers of the State announcing the fact that there would be a free ferry established at once across the Cape Fear river at Fayetteville for the convenience and accommodation of the public, made necessary by the burning of the Clarendon Bridge to-day about 12 o'clock. This bridge was the only means of communication between eastern Cumberland and Fayetteville. The nearest railroad bridges, which cross the Cape Fear, was at Duke, now destroyed by the flood. Below Fayetteville, and also to Wilmington, there is not a bridge across the Cape Fear. The nearest ferry is at Hair's Landing in Gray's Creek township, 15 miles from Fayetteville. A great number of people from the east side were in Fayetteville to-day, and they are now trying to work out which is the best way to reach their homes. Some Fayetteville people and western Cumberland folks are also caught on the east side. The situation will be relieved at once, however, by the establishment of a ferry system. The Board of Commissioners and the Board of Aldermen are now in session for the purpose of having such a ferry established at once. The County Commissioners will call for bids for the erection of a new bridge. At the meeting of the Commissioners, Aldermen and citizens this afternoon, a committee was appointed to have a free ferry in operation across the river by noon to-morrow.

The communications by "Fare-minded American Citizenship," "Free Manhood," etc., referred to by our correspondent, have not appeared in the Observer. Its files show only the suggestions about poisons by Messrs. A. A. McKethan and C. B. Newberry; the communications of Messrs. W. E. Kinley and W. J. Olive; the correspondence by Division Counsel Rose, and the President of the Chamber of Commerce, with the A. C. L. about train service; and the report of Secretary Rose, of the Chamber of Commerce, concerning telegrams sent to the newspapers that a free ferry would be established at once. The bearing of our correspondent's allusion to the Democratic party and to its representatives, is not apparent.]
