His Heavy Loss. Mr. David Sessoms of Stedman was in the city today. He says that only a few articles were saved from his house, a large ten room dwelling, which was destroyed by fire Saturday at noon.

His loss is several thousand dollars with only $1,000 insurance on the house and $250 on the furniture. Many of the things lost were the accumulation of a life time, articles prized beyoud monetary value. Mr. Sessoms and his family are now occupying one of his tenement houses and making the best of the situation until he can rebuild. Fortunately his stables and barns were saved though his smoke house was also burned. Mr. Sessoms has paid insurance premiums on his APPLICATION FOR THE PARDON house for 40 years.

DISTRICT STEWARDS MEET.

At Hay Street Methodist Church Last Tuesday Night.

The District Stewards of the Fayatteville district held their annual meeting in Hay Street Methodist Church in this city Tuesday night last, Dr. J.-T. Gibbs, presiding elder, of the district, occupying the chair. . The district embraces quite a wide stretch of territory, extending from Pittsboro, in Chatham county, to Roseboro, in Sampson, and White Oak in Bladen counties. There are nineteen pastoral charges in the district-four stations and fifteen circuits, the circuits being composed of from four to seven churches, mostly in the country.

Nearly all the charges were repre sented in person or by letter. Mr. M. C. McPhail, of Sanford, was elected secretary. The principal business of this body of church officials is to fix the salary of the presiding elder, apportion the assessments ordered by and Davie Streets, containing 40 acres, the annual conference to the several charges in the district, and provide for the maintenance of district prop-

> The salary of the presiding elder was fixed at $2000 for the ensuing year, and the conference assessment for bishops, church extension, education, conference claimants, orphanage, and other causes, were apportioned on the basis of the pastors salaries for the past year.

Plans were discussed for the coming year, and the outlook was considered favorable for a most prosperous year throughout the district.

Negro Boy Shoots Another Saturday Afternoon

From Monday's Daily. Andrew Burns, 12 years old, son of Alex. Burns, shot and killed his first cousin, Charles McLauchlin, near the latter's home, near Sherwood church, in Gray's Creek township Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock. On Friday Alex. Burns presented his boy with a new single-barrel shot gun. Saturday the boy went to the house o John McLauchlin, and after exhibiting his gun, told Charles that he was going to shoot him. The latter's father, who heard the remark, told the boy "to go away, and quit fooling with that gun." A little later the boys went into the woods to gather some wood. Thirty minutes later, Andrew Burns returned to John McLauchlin's and said that he had shot Charles. The father hurried to the place indicated by Andrew, and found his son dead, shot through the neck, and with his clothing in flames, showing that the shooting-must have been at Yesterday Dr. McGougan, County Coroner, and Deputy Sheriff Pate went to Gray's Creek. The latter went ton to be congratulated, but all Cum- to the home of Alex. Burns and arrestberland will rejoice at the coming of ed the boy and carried him to the house of John McLauchlin, where Dr. McGougan held an inquest over the body of the dead boy, who was about 17 years of age.

The jury returned a verdict that the deceased had come to his death from gun shot wounds at the hands of Andrew Burns. On account of the extreme youth of the boy, the Coroner left him in charge of his mother, who is to produce him before the Judge at the next term of the Criminal Court of Cumberland

The question of dealing with youthful criminals has frequently arisen in Cumberland county, as well as in other counties, and the only solution will be the establishment of a State institution for the detention of youthful

A VICIOUS ATTACK ON TWO MEN YESTERDAY AFTERNOON,

On Holt-Morgan Hill By A Young Drunken White Man.

From Monday's Daily. As Messrs. D. L. Long and W. R. Everett were passing through the Holt Morgan village late yesterday afternoon, two young white men under the influence of whisky, approached the vehicle, and one of them, Eugene Howell, 18 years of age, grabbed a wheel of the buggy and tried to stall it. Some words passed between young Howell and the occupants of the vehicle, when the former snatched the whip from its socket in the buggy and struck Messrs, Long and Everett with it. Not satisfied with this he drew a pistol and a pair of brass knucks from his pocket and was on the point of shooting the above named gentlemen, when it is said his companion, who was not so drunk, interfered, and prevented what would probably have been a double murder. This morning deputy sheriff W. G. Moore arrested Howell, and the latter asked permission to enter his home and speak to his mother. While the Deputy was awaiting him on the outside, Howell escaped by a rear door, and has not yet been apprehended.

CONGRESS TO PROVIDE FOR CAN-ALIZATION OF CAPE FEAR

Distinguished Body to Visit Fayette ville in January

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11.-Senator Simmons, member of the National Waterways Commission, who recently eturned from inspection of European waterways, and three of his fellow members will visit Fayetteville about the middle of January. They have accepted my invitation to be Fayetteville's guests while there. Captain Brown, United States Army, in charge of our district will be asked to convey the party down the Cape Fear river in his launch, as he did in the case of Chief Justice Clark last June. It appears to be understood that our canalization project will be provided for at this session. It is now only a ques tion of whether there shall be movable or fixed dams.
