A fine of $200 and costs was imposed in the Federal Court in Raleigh yesterday on former Postmaster W. G. Byrd, of Bule's Creek, by Judge Connor, for embezzlement of postal funds.

Byrd had repaid the shortage and was begging the mercy of the court on the grounds that he was at the time in financial straits and used the money with the fixed purpose of replacing it before there were any calls for it by the government.

The Wilmington Dispatch announces the candidacy of Herbert McClammy, Esq., of New Hanover, for the congressional nomination from this district.

The other avowed candidates are: H. L. Cook Esq., of Cumberland; A. J. McKinnon, Esq., of Robeson; Senator Clark of Bladen, and the present incumbent, Hon. H. L. Godwin, with Mr. J. A. Brown, of Columbus, and George H. Bellamy, Brunswick, as probable candidates. So it is not at all unlikely that every county in the Sixth district will have a candidate.

COLLINS-McNEILL NUPTIALS.

A Marriage of State-Wide Interest.

From Thursday's Daily. The marriage of Miss Mary Hyman McNeill and Mr. Paul Cameron Collins at St. John's Church last night was the social event of this season, and owing to the prominence of the families of both the contracting parties, was of State-wide interest. The historic old church, which had been so tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and holly, was crowded with numerous relatives and friends, who had assembled to witness the ceremony. The delightful music before the ceremony, which was so thoroughly enjoyed by all present, was rendered by Mrs. L. W. Hughes, as an organ solo, and by Mr. W. F. Blount, as a violin solo, with the organ accompaniment by Mrs. Hughes.

At the appointed hour, eight o'clock, the wedding party assembled in the vestibule of the church, and the vestal choir, of which the bride was for some years a leading member, marched up the aisle, using as a processional the beautiful hymn, "The Voice that Breathed 'O'er Eden.'" Quite a happy incident occurred just as the choir was leaving the vestibule, as the bride, whose voice had so often charmed the attendants upon St. John's, joined in with the choir in singing this famous hymn.

Then to the entrancing strains of the wedding march, rendered by Mrs. Hughes, the bridal party entered in the following order and assembled in a pretty and attractive group about the altar: Miss Hattie Taylor, of this city; Miss Maria Webb, of Hillsboro; Mr. Frank Webb, of Durham, and Mr. Cadwallader Collins, of Norfolk; Miss Mary Fuller Robeson, of this city, and Miss Nan Mallett, of Albany, Ga.; Dr. Thos. Ruffin, of Chapel Hill and Mr. Chas. G. Rose, of this city; Miss Dora McRae of Chapel Hill, and Miss Alice Halgh, of this city; Mr. Wm. S. Roulhac, of Hillsboro and Mr. Robt. McNeill of this city.

The bridesmaids were gowned in white tulle and carried bouquets of white carnations. Proceeding the bride was her sister and maid of honor, Miss Minerva McNeill, gowned in hand-embroidered white messalina, and carried an immense bouquet of La France roses. The charming bride, entering on the arm of her father, Hon. Jas. D. McNeill, never looked more beautiful and attractive than in her wedding gown of ivory satin. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley. At the altar she was met by the groom and his best man, Mr. Chester Webb, of Hillsboro, and the impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. I. W. Hughes, the former rector of St. John's, and now rector of the church of the Holy Innocents, of Henderson.

The marriage vows being said, the party left the church, while Mrs. Hughes rendered Lohegrin's wedding march; the choir, using as a recessional, "Oh Perfect Love." The bridal party were then driven to the home of the bride, where a reception was tendered them and the relatives, by Hon. and Mrs. Jas. D. McNeill in their usual hospitable manner. The house was decorated with a profusion of holly, ferns and southern amaranth, and the unusually handsome and numerous wedding gifts, displayed in the east parlor, were convincing evidence of the esteem in which the bride and groom are held by their host of relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins left on the Palmetto Limited for a bridal tour to northern cities, carrying with them the best of good wishes of everyone who knows them.

Among the out of town guests were: Mrs. Geo. Collins, of Hillsboro, mother of the groom; Mrs. Frank Mobane of New York; Misses Henrietta and Mary Arthur Collins of Hillsboro; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wall of Durham; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood, Miss Rebecca Wood and Mr. George Wood, of Edenton; Col. and Mrs. Benahan Cameron, of Raleigh; Mr. Cadwallader Collins of Norfolk, Va.; Mr. J. C. Webb of Hillsboro; Mr. Frank Webb of Durham; Mr. W. S. Roulhac, Miss Maria Webb, of Hillsboro; Mr. W. S. Shepherd of Edenton; Mr. Shepherd Strudwick, Mr. W. B. Snow, of Hillsboro; Dr. Thos. Ruffin, of Chapel Hill; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ross, of Charlotte; Miss Nan Mallett of Albany, Ga.; Miss Dora MacRae of Chapel Hill; Mr. Norfleet Webb, of Hillsboro.

JOHN Y. GARLINGTON AND J. STOB YOUNG CONVICTED

Former Officers of the Seminole Securities Company Now in Jail.

From Saturday's Daily. A dispatch from Columbia last night says:

"John Y. Garlington and J. Stob Young, formerly president and secretary, respectively, of the Seminole Securities Company, whose transactions with the Southern Life Insurance Company created such a sensation, tonight were found guilty of breach of trust with fraudulent intent, the fourth in the indictment against them. The other accounts were dismissed."

"A motion for a new trial was made immediately after the announcement of the verdict. Judge Prince announced that he would hear arguments on the motion tomorrow morning. In the meantime the defendants, Garlington and Young were remanded to jail. Judge Prince refusing to continue their bonds."

"At 11 o'clock the jurors announced that they had arrived at a verdict. The defendants were called into court and the verdict was announced. The defendants received the verdict with perfect composure. The verdict carries a prison sentence of two to ten years."

"The specific charge on which Garlington and Young were convicted is that they fraudulently appropriated from the Seminole Securities Company funds amounting to $55,596.77. The other counts in the indictment charged breach of trust with regard to stock of the Seminole Securities Company; larceny of stocks and larceny of money, and conspiracy."

"After two days of hard fought legal battle the case was given to the jury at 2 o'clock this afternoon after the attorneys for the defense had completed their closing arguments, and the judge had delivered an exhaustive charge to the jury. Eight hours later the jury announced its finding. Both Garlington and Young are members of highly respected and prominent families of Laurens county this State."

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

The following resolutions were adopted at a meeting of Cumberland County Medical Society, Tuesday Jan. 11th, 1910:

"Whereas, we mourn the death of Jno. Henry Marsh, our brother and co-worker in a profession to which he gave zealous and faithful service as long as God, in His judgment, saw fit to spare him; be it

Resolved, That we deplore the loss of our brother at his period of greatest usefulness to his patients and to the profession he loved so well, feeling greatest pride in the self-sacrifice he made to serve suffering humanity, bespeaking the true heroism of the man, for it was his disregard of self that made him attend the sick on Xmas day at a time when he was himself sick, the exposure in the cold rain of that day precipitating the fatal illness that terminated his life in the short period of one week;

That we are proud to feel that his service to the medical profession has been of a high order, and he was never too busy with his rounds to his patients to devote a goodly portion of his time to attending professional gatherings, imparting, for the good of his brothers, knowledge that he had gained through study and experience; and further, we appreciate the keen foresight he had of possibilities in the organization work for in the organization of the Fifth District Medical Society of North Carolina, comprising Cumberland and seven adjacent counties, he must be said to be directly responsible, and in its present flourishing condition it will live as a monument to the man who was the prime factor in making it a successful association, he being its first president;

That we lament the loss to Fayetteville of one of her foremost citizens, for he was progressive and aggressive, ever interested in her welfare, being associated with others in many enterprises that have instilled new life into the community;

That we extend our sincere sympathy to his bereaved family and ask that we be permitted to mingle our tears with those of his loved ones in the great sorrow that has befallen them;

That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and a copy be spread on the minutes of the society.

Conference of Governors Called to Order.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—Gov. Wilson of Kentucky called the Conference of Governors to order, and the Conference organized by electing him temporary chairman, and Gov. Sloan of Arizona temporary secretary. Committees were appointed and the Conference then adjourned until this afternoon, when it will receive a committee from the Civic Federation.

For Sprains

Sloan's Liniment is the best remedy for sprains and bruises. It quiets the pain at once, and can be applied to the tenderest part without hurting because it doesn't need to be rubbed—all you have to do is to lay it on lightly. It is a powerful preparation and penetrates instantly—relieves any inflammation and congestion, and reduces the swelling.

Here's the Proof. Mr. L. ROLAND, Bishop of Scranton, Pa. says:—"On the 7th of this present month, as I was leaving the building at noon for lunch, I slipped and fell, spraining my wrist. I returned in the afternoon, and at four o'clock I could not hold a pencil in my hand. I returned home later and purchased a bottle of Sloan's Liniment and used it five or six times before I was able to go to work and use my hand as usual."

Sloan's Liniment is an excellent antiseptic and germ killer—heals cuts, burns, wounds and contusions, and will draw the poison from sting of poisonous insects. 25c, 50c, and $1.00 Sloan's book on horses, cattle, sheep and poultry free. Address: Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass., U.S.A.
