"Truth" was whole of the unchanging word of God. The empire of Caesar is gone; the legions of Rome are mouldering in the dust: the avalanches that Napoaway, the pride of the Pharaohs has fallen; the pyramids they raised to be their tombs are sinking every day in the desert sands; Tyre is the rock for bleaching fishermen's nets; Sidon has scarcely left a wreck behind: but the Word of God still survives. All things that threatened to extinguish it have only aided it; and it only proves every day how transient the nument that man can build, how enduring is the least word God has spoken. Tradition has dug for it a grave; intolerance has lighted for it many a fagot ; many a Judas has mas has foreaken it; but the Word of God still endures." Isa. 58:13-14.

What was the heritage of Jacob? Isaac said Therefore God give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine: Let people serve thee, and na-tions bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee; cursed be sons bow down to thee; cursed be every one that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee." Gen. 37:28-29. And this heritage is promised to every one who observes the seventh day of the week according to the commandment, and it says "the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God." Ex. 20:19.

Every institution which the Lord required men to obey was plainly stated, the Lord's supper, baptism, the Sabbath, etc. If Sunday had been instituted as a divine day there would inted as a divine day there would have been a plain statement of it in the word of God for he has declared rely the Lord God will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets." Amos 3:7.

LINDEN NEWS.

Unique Matrimonial Experience

Linden, N. C., Nov. 1, 1910,-It was learned late Saturday evening that Mr. J. C. adams had sold his nice little cottage just completed to Mr. G. W. Horner. Mr. Horner said he was going to move in as soon as possible. Linden is growing, after all, and will make a nice town after a while. Not only is Linden growing, but more imnortant still, the country all around tere is, and is growing very fast.

Mr. R. R. Bell has rented his farm to a Mr. otuts, from near Rowland. We are glad to see more good farmers moving in. That is exactly what this every other part of the country

Mrs. Ann DeVillers and Mr. Thomas Hair were married near here last week. Mrs. Hair, it is now, has quite an unusual record in the martimonial line. She was married about two months ago to a man by the name of DeVillers, who was a Frenchman by birth, but had lived near here for some time. He told her that he couldn't live long and wanted some one to give his property to, of which he had a considerable amount. So they were married and he only lived about a month-and now she has married again in less than a month after

Mr William Parker and Miss Boils Blue were married Sunday evening at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Duncan Blue. The waiters were Mr. J. C. Freeman and Miss Lyda Easom, Mr. Ed. IS DEATH A SLEEP?

Correspondence of the Observer.] I lately read a pretty and sad little poem in the Observer whose title was "Death." The writer says: "Oftimes when alone I wonder If death's but a dreamless slumber. The Bible is the only book that teaches about the state of the dead and in many passages death is compared to sleep. See Ps. 13:3; Job 7:21: John 11:11; Acts 7:60; 1 Cor. 11:30; 15:51; I Thesa. 4:14, etc. But is that sleep eternal? The Bible is the book to read for a true answer. For the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archange and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shail rise first-I Thess. 4:16 this is the resur rection of the just. There shall be resurrection of the dead both of the just and unjust, Acts 24:15. How long after the nest resurrection is the second? See Rev. 20:45. What will become of those who are unworthy of a part in the first recurrection? See shall be destroyed is death." 1 Cor. 15:26. Christ came to destroy him which hath the power of death which is the devil.

Correspondence of the Observer 1 The death of Count Tolstoy deserves more than a passing notice, for residence, he belonged to humanity. He was willing to suffer affliction for mankind rather than enjoy the honors of race or class, for white by blood he belonged to the aristocracy of his country, by choice he identified himself with the poor and the oppressed. He was indeed a brother and a father among men. He was a bold advocate of peace. No one denounced war more severely taan did he. He raised his voice and used his pen at all times for peace. He hated shams, religious, political or social. He stood true to the very end. He never played to the galleries, nor made speeches, nor wrote books for popular applause. He loved men and sacrificed nearly life itself for them. May God give the world more men like him!

London, Nov. 23 .- Dr. H. H. Crippen was hanged at 9 o'clock this morning. He was cool and calm to the last, his nerve never leaving him. He dressed with care, being allowed to wear his own clothes, and ate a light breakfast. Only prison officials and the priest were allowed at the hanging, though there was a big crowd of curious on the outside of the prison walls.

The condemned man went to his death without making any statement, so the prison officials say, but one paper is publishing an alleged confession aid to have been made by Crippen to a friend. This alleged confes though, is discredited by the efficials.

THE SOUTH ATLANTIC CORN EX-POSITION. To the Public:

South Atlantic Corn Expos ion, to be held in Columbia, Dec. 8-8. 910, which is the first undertaking of its kind ever attempted in the South, gives every promise of being a great success.

The State Corn Contest and th Born' Corn Clubs have developed and are still developing the public interest in the matter of yields of corn.

Now, that so much has been accomplinhed in that direction this Corn Ex position is to be held with a view of setting the machinery in motion to improve the quality of the corn raised in this and our sister States, to stimu late breeding work and make corn bring more per bushel.

No one should fail to compete and send exhibits to the exposition be-cause he has read of one man or boy making a phenomenal yield, and be cause he fears to enter into competi ion with such. At the exposition all exhibits will be judged as to quality whether they are from lote of corn from the large producing acres or not. They will be scientifically judged and scored and the corn from chance with any other.

I would, therefore, urge all corn growers, men or boys, who have what they consider good corn, either pro-lific or single ear, white or yellow, to apply at once to M. J. Miller, Superintendent of Entries, Department of Agriculture, Columbia, S. C., for premium lists, entry blanks and shipping inons, and enter the compe The prises are numerous and handsome and at the present stage of de-velopment of corn growing one man stands as good a chance at these prises as another.

SUPERIOR COURT NOTES

Ab Byrd on Trial for Muniar-Tom

Lomax Arreignest Tom Lomax was arraigned in court Monday, charged with murder in the first degree, in killing his motherin-law, Nancy Snipes, and plead not guilty. Being without means of employing counsel, Judge Allen assigned Messrs. James C. MacRae and Mr. F. T. Bennett to defend him. The trial of the case was set to follow the trial of the Byrd case.

The trial of Ab Byrd, a young white man, charged with killing Fred Thom son, also a young white man, on the night of Saturday, July 6th, was then entered upon. Solicitor Sinclair was assisted in the prosecution by Mr. A 8. Hall. The defendant is represente by Mesers, Shaw & Bennett, Mr. V. C. Bullard and Mr. John Bolton.

The jury empanelled to try the case was as follows: W. W. Hall, Albert Wade, S. M. Spears, J. H. Willliams, A. M. Cadill, E. P. Smith, W. T. Warren, C. H. Graham, Jno. Horn, B. F. Ammons, A. B. McLean, J. H.

The State announced that it would ask for a verdict of murder in the sec ond degree. Several witnesses were examined before the dinner recess, including Dr. J. F. Hightimith and Measrs, R. T. Osborne and Joe Plum

Dr. Highsmith testified to the fact that Thomson was brought to his hospital Monday, with a fractured skull, and died several weeks afterwards from the effect of the wound. (Thomson, it appears, was placed in his room in the Martin House Sat urday night, and received no medical attention until Monday.)

Mr. Plummer testified to seeing Thomson lying on the ground Saturday night with Byrd standing near. He asked Byrd what was the matter and he replied that Thomson owed a board bill at the Martin House (which is kept by his mother) and that as he refused to pay, he "cooned him," as he was advancing on him with a Byrd, on trial for murder in the sec and degree for the killing of Fred Thomsen, had been beard up to the time the Superior court took the usual dinner recess on Wednesday. When court convened in the afternoon, the attorneys began their arguments.

The defendant was placed on the stand in his own behalf Toesday afterneon, when his direct examination was completed. He was subjected to grilling cross examination by Sollei-

One of the most damaging pieces of testimony against the defendant was when the prosecution placed Mr. W. T. Jones on the stand Wednesday morning, and showed that the arc light in front of the Martin House and in fact all the lights on that circuit were not burning the night Byrd and Thomson had the difficulty which it is alleged proved fatal.

Byrd and several of his witness had testified that the fight was burning and that they could see plainly before, during, and after the difficulty. Court will hold a night newton night and it is probable that the case will go to the jury before midnight. This will enable the court to take recess for Thanksgiving day.
