North Carolina Gazette.

J. H. & G. G. MYROVER, Publishers.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION :

pies (sent to one address) with an extra copy $ 25 66 | Ciety

RATES OF ADVERTISING

News Budget.

SUMMARY OF NEWS For the Week ending August 26.

General Espartero has advised the Madrid Govermient to appoint General Manuel Conchua to the chief command of the Republican forces in the Northern provinces bordering on the Bay of Biscay, and General Morionez to the command of Navarre.

The Cortes, by a vote of 66 yeas to 63 nays, consented to the trial of civil tribunals of Benitos, one of its members, who participated in the Cantotion. -The prisoners taken by the Govish army in Cuba .- The total strength of the Carlist force operating in the North is 28,000 of all arms.—The Spanish Government is actively h Cortes, suspending the guarantee of individual rights during the continuance of the present troubles.—A special dispatch to the London Standard says the Carlist forces under Elio, Corregarray, Lazzigara, Olio, and Don Carlos, amounts to twen-

tv. five strong battalions. - It is reported that in the evolt of a recess or adjournment of the Cortes. which is regarded as not improbable, Senor Caste-ic will visit London, Berlin, Vienna and Rome, and bring-about the recognition of the Spanish Republic.—Advices from Constantinople afinounce the breaking out of cholera in the province of Bos-nia.—Telegrams from Madrid state that the Reneed Bibae; the Carlist forces occupying the city withdrew without offering battle.—The threatened present, a proposition having been made to submit the differences between employers and workmen to a committee of arbitration.—Dr. Palk, Minister of - of the Left in Paris on the 23rd, it was deciof to seek the support of the Left Centre, to preyout the success of the fusionists and legitamists for the establishment at an early date of the Pourhou monarchy.—Prince Napoleon has been eated President of the Council General of Corsica, a majority of 20 votes.—Intelligence has reach-Madrid that on the 16th an unsuccessful attempt of Don Carlos. The would-be assassin was taken and executed.—Advices from the north of Spain report the Carlist troops as discouraged and insubordinate.—The freighting steamer Singapore, bound for Shanghae, has been wrecked in the Red Sea; the captain and other officers and many of the crew were lost; thirty six of the crew gained land, but were made paisoners by the natives.

The Secretary of the treasury has returned to Washington.—The Grand Lodge of the Jewish orby of Kesher Shel Barzeli of the Atlantic coast met other cities were represented: the Treasurer's reort is satisfactory? H. Resenthal was elected Grand anr.-The first bale of new cotton, classed as mid ling, was received at Augusta, Ga., from Edgefield Co., S. C., and sold at 171, - Cotton in South Carolina and upper Georgia badly injured by the plast. - Efforts are being made to establish a line of steamships between-Savanonh and Liverpool; the cannicipal corporations and boards of trade of Georgia pledge themselves to give support to the line.— The Republican State Committee of New York have decided to hold a State Convention at Utica, Sept. 24.—Cincinnati had 307 deaths last week, a de crease of 15; three of these were from cholera in fantum.-The proceedings of the military commission which tried the modoss were to-day returned to the Secretary of War by Judge Advocate General al Holt, he having completed his review, and, it is understood, approved the findings of the court. They will be transmitted to President Grant tomorrow. Rear Admiral Taylor reports yellow for ver entirely disappeared from Montevideo, South by cutting his throat on the 20th inst.

REVIEW OF THE MARKETS For the Week ending August 26, 1873.

America.—Philetus Sawyer, a prominent member of Congress from Wisconsin, committed suicide,

LIVERPOOL, Aug 20.—Cotton heavy; sales of 10.000 bales; for speculation and export 1,000 fate.

Aug. 21.—Cotton quiet: sales 12,000 bales; for speculation and export 2,000 bales; breadstuffs quit; pork 66s, 6d.

Aug. 22.—Cotton, uplands 83; yarns and fab price dull: common rosin 8s. 6d. Aug. 23.—Cotton, sales of new crop shipment not below good 8 7-16d; turpentine, 32s. 8d.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Gold 1454 @1154; Gov. erament securities dull. Cotton dull and irregular at 194 to 204 cents. Wheat less active and 1 ct:

lower. Corn 1 to 2 cents lower, with active offer ings. Naval Stores quiet.

Aug. 21.—Gold-115§. Government bonds in active. Wheat 1@2 cents lower. Corn unchanged, with a brisk demand. Flour in light request

Aug. 22.—Gold 116 to 1164. Government curities dull. Cotton steady at 21 to 211 cents for Wheat 1 cent better and inactive. Corn good, with a fair demand. Naval Stores firm Aug. 23.—Gold 1164 Cotton irregular at 21 cents. Wheat steady and in fair demand. Corn 1 to 2 cents better. Mess Pork $18 to $18 25. Na-

2 80. Cotton from 15 to 194 cents. Aug. 21.—Spirits Turpentine 38 cents. Rosin No. 2 at 2 50 and Extra Pale at 4 75. Crude Tur.

pentine, 3 35 for Virgin and 2 for hard. Tar 2 85 otton dull and nominal 'Aug. 22.—Spirits Turpentine 39 cents. Rosi 2 45. Crude Turpentine, 3 35 for yellow dip, 2 00 or hard. Cotton heavy and quotation about as Cotton steady and regular; sales 2700 bales.

Home Circle.

KITTY BLAKE.

for the purpose of ensconsing myself behind a white tie, and of encasing my person in those stereotyped sable garments which cry, "Open, sesame," at the portals of so-

My friends, the Wilkins, were indulging pudence—struck up an acquaintanceship with her, and treated the vulture-looking in the commencement promised to be of a woman badly. I felt inclined to hurl him somewhat mild form, gradually assumed at his partner, impale him upon her nose, tremendous ball. Vainly I pleaded a ne- charming disdain with which I was treated 1 00 cessity for reading up a case with which by Miss Blake, rendered me more misera2 50 the firm of Thizer & Bulsome had entrust5 00 od me. Vainty I declared to Will. ed me. Vainly I declared to Wilkin, up- ciety compelled her, at the conclusion of 15 00 on the honor of a man and a brother, that the dance, to take my arm, in order to be Longer advertisements charged in proportion to the above rates. Special Notices 25 per cent, more than and a protect, and that sort of thing;" that I conducted to the place whence she came, shure enough, whin he was lavin' the nouse, and claim the hand of the had read that particular chapter in the book that I ventured to exclaim—"I implore of he run it into his buzzum, thinkin' it might be wanted, an' forgot it intirely: so he sweet little Irish girl who called me an at the tip of my nose and my extremities upon finding myself stranded in a scene so generall. I pulled myself together, dress-ed hurriedly, and arrived at Harley street compelled, as it were, to drink the bitter sigh." in a humor the very reverse of amiable, cup to the utmost dregs. and with the full determination of merely s.—A bill has been presented in the Span-Wilkin was strolling in the immediate vicinity, with the air of a man who had succeeded in losing half a sovereign, and was engaged in looking for it as though he wanted it very badly indeed.

"Ah, Mr. Brookley! I'm so glad that jou have come. Freddy told me you were doubtful-all clever men are, but you know I always believed in you, and I look to your aid to make this little affair come off well."

Ligreaned in spirit. This meant stopping publican army under the command of General antil the candles were snuffed out—until the tallow-faced greengrocers were paid off —antil the milkman arrived at the area bekout of a portion of their operatives by the iron railings, and until I should be jibed by masters of Manchester has been postponed for the disappointed cabbies as "the cove as was a playin' the pianner."

"By the way, Brookley, there's a little blic Instruction and Ecclesinstical Affairs at Irish girl stopping here, a Miss Blake, Posen to be closed.—At a meeting of the library mine, bobserved Wilkin, dragging me, bon gre, mal gre, towards a mass of fine illusion surmounted by a bunch of white flowers.

Now, any Irish girls whom I had hitherto been fortunate enough to meet had, s meliew or other, been always too much for me. If I was blase, they were saucy. as made to assassinate Don Aifenso, the brother If I was degaye, they were sentimental." If I was learned, they were blissfully and hugely ignorant. I had been invariably foiled, and my most skillful fencing went for nothing. I have not been able to score a palpable hit under any circumstances

I held back much after the fashion of a log being led to corporal punishment thro' the medium of a collar and a string—bowed a grim unearthly bow, and proceeded New York yesterday morning; 200 delegates to fiddle with the buttons of a pair of soiled, bulgy gloves, and to peer in every direction save that supposed to be occupied by Mrs. Wilkin's Hibernian guest.

At this juncture an attenuated, waxenlooking, beef-fed artist hung in chains, and clad in garments funning with grease and threadbare from age, proceeded to pound away upon the piano, aided and abetted by a pudgey man, who appeared to be throwing his whole person into a battered cornocopian, and another conspirator, who dis charged his duties to society and to Wilkin by dolefully scraping upon a violoncello.

"This is our quadrille," exclaimed a very sweet voice at my elbow, with just a touch of the brogue pervading it like a perfume, and a soft little hand placed itself confidingly upon my arm. I had not asked her to dance-she had evidently taken it for

Would I say that I never danced ?-that I had sprained my foot ? or invent some patent and plausible excuse?

No! It would not be fair to mine hostess, so I sullenly resigned myself to my

"This is my first visit to London," chirped Miss Blake.

"Oh, indeed!" "I live in the wilds of Connemara." "I wish you were there just now," was ny inner thought. "It's the wildest place on the face of the earth, and the loveliest-but won't you secure a vis-a-vis?"

I compounded with a pink-faced youth who was in the talons of a tall, lean, vulture-like woman, to face me in the forthcoming melancholy ceremony, and to assist in carrying out its sad solemnities in all their funeral details. "Have you ever visited Ireland, Mr. Brookley?" asked Miss Blake, at the conclusion of the first figure. "I should think not. Ireland is a wretchish, rude, ungentlemanlike, and I turned ye bastes!" (addressing the horses,) "don't Phil Dempsey to the utmost limit of his to her to apologise.

eyes met mine as she hotly retorted-"You whin a boy kem runnin' up the boreen cry- colt in me hands; but he's a nice man, an'

ered by her beauty.

One bitterly cold night in the February black lashes; a dainty little nose, with a the eye av a midge to wink." of 1872, I quitted my comfortable study rosebud mouth, and teeth like muffled diamonds, radiant brown hair in massive about yez,' says Father James. 'Have and for any step I made in advance I made the President with her complaint, and ask- islature, but at the time was a new part of the president with her complaint, and ask- islature, but at the time was a new part of the president with her complaint, and ask- islature, but at the time was a new part of the president with her complaint, and ask- islature, but at the time was a new part of the president with her complaint, and ask- islature, but at the time was a new part of the president with her complaint, and ask- islature, but at the time was a new part of the president with her complaint, and ask- islature, but at the time was a new part of the president with her complaint, and ask- islature, but at the time was a new part of the president with her complaint, and ask- islature, but at the time was a new part of the president with her complaint, and ask- islature, but at the time was a new part of the president with her complaint, and ask- islature, but at the time was a new part of the president with her complaint, and ask- islature, but at the time was a new part of the president with the president with her complaint, and ask- islature, but at the time was a new part of the president with t plaits—and her expression!

Ay de mi Alkama! We did not speak during the quadrille. The pink-faced youth-confound his imgraver symptoms, until it culminated in a and rush frantically from the house. The and that I was only good for the mahog- I was saying—I am worse than a boor.

My pleading was full of the redeeming showing myself to Mrs. Wilkin, imbibing influence of earnestness, and I succeeded a glass or perhaps two of sherry, and get- in achieving her forgiveness. She danced ting back to resume the perusal of a novel. with me again, again and again. I saw the candles snuffed out, beheld the tallow-The crush had not as yet been well faced greengrocer paid off, met the mornturned on, so my ascent to the drawing- ing milkman without flinching, and reroom was no very difficult task. Upon the turned the playful banter of the cabbies in lobby Mrs. Wilkin was standing, behind a mood so utterly different from that which that ye die a Catholic, says Father James. he saw them. Lobe found the gold seek-ceadingly mortified his daughter by ordera huge bouquet which commanded the I had pictured to myself a few short hours mechanism of the heart?

One glorious morning in August last found the scated beside the driver of one of Bianconi's long cars which travel between Westport and Clifden, and, as a consequence, through the heart of the wildest and most picturesque scenery in Connemara. I had amongst other vows, registered one-that, as soon as circumstances would permit, I would undertake a pilgrimage to Boijoldrun Hall-to the shrine of Miss Katherine alias Kitty Blake.

and many reasons to urge me to take this excursion, and that I had one in particular; in fact, my heart had, somehow or other, slipped from beneath my waistcoat -had traveled, in company with Miss with a view of receiving it, and of taking the young lady in question into the bargain, if my luck was up, that I was now perched high in air, behind a pair of "roarng gimlets," and jogging along the road way skirting that desolate but romantic inlet of the Atlantic, known as the Killerin. In a happy moment I negotiated with the driver, Phil Dempsey, for possession of the box-seat, and almost ere we had quitted the town of Westport, I had come on close, if not confidential, terms with that worthy son of the whip. Phil is a crooked, hard-featured, sentenious little man, whose word is law, whose decision is the ultimatum. He knows every man, woman, and child along the roadtheir belongings, their respective histories, their hopes, and their fears. He carries small parcels for the "quality," and a letter, if good cause is shown why it could not travel by the legitimate course of her Majesty's mail. He has all the Dublin news, and is regarded in the light of "a knowledgeable man." Instinctively I led up to the subject nearest to my heart.

"Me know the Blakes av Boijolderun Begorra, I do thin, breed, seed, and gineration. They're dacent people av the rale ould stock. Miss Kitty thraveled wad me a few weeks ago; she kem from Dublin, but she was over the water beyant, in London. Sorra a much good that wud do her, or any wan else." I expressed a hope that she was looking well after her trip. "Och! rosy an' well, shure enough; and why wuldn't she? What wud trub!e her, and her mother wud burn the house av she riz her finger. They'll not be trubled wad her long; she's too dawny a creature for the boys to lave glone. I tuk a Misther Crane from Dublin over to the Hall last week, an', be me sowl, he was mighty tendher on her."-This was alarming. I endeavered to probe into the antecedents of this abominable person, but I could only ascertain, after a deal of circumlocation, that he was the possessor of "an illigant portmantle," and that he was "a nice man, an' a nicemahnered man."

"Good morning, Father James, good morning kindly.

This was addressed to a Catholic clergyman, who was swinging along the road with a jaunty air, bespeaking the motion of one to whom a twenty-mile walk was

"That's wan o' the most knowledgeable to her to apologise.

The hot flush was upon her cheek, the little hands were elenched until the gloves threatened to "bust up," and her flashing threatened to "bust up," and her mornin, and he was prayin, and her mornin, and he was prayin, and her mornin, and her mornin morni in' murther, an' that a man was wracked a nice-mannered man, as I wish yez joy."

proper form of apology, and I was bewild- shure enough, there was a poor sayfarin' ara con amore, my portmanteau was placed son was President, a heartless clerk in the Lovely blue eyes, with sweeping blue- not as much breath in him as wud cause away with it, leaving me to walk across ness to a poor landlady to the amount of says Father James, risin' at it.

last Biddy O'Donoghoe, who is always as the Mecca of my hopes? bowld as trass, savsbottle that's stickin' on av ver coat-pocket.' minated most satisfactorily-"'How dar' ye, ye owld faggot?" says Father James, but he pulled up short, for lifted the poor sayfarin' man's head up, and English boor. any; he didn't, or rather wouldn't see it, Hear me for one moment;" and in a few gev him a scoop. Bedad, but it put life and with a sense of bitter injury at my eager words I honestly revealed to her the into him, sir!' cried Dempsey, giving the heart, and an unmistakable sense of frost irritated and inflamed condition of my mind, horses a tremendous cut, probably with a view to instilling a little life into them-

"He wants another sup, yer reverance,

"Let me hould the bottle, Father James,' sez another.

rattles was in his throath.

pealed to the driver. "'Mister Dempsey, I'd have ye call to this young man—he's insulting me, sir.' Thus appealed to, Mr. Dempsey quietly to be learned, and for diamond buyers worth turned in his seat, and eyeing the seargeant | learning .- N. Y. World.

"See here now, sargint, av ye don't lave that young woman alone, I'll take them three stripes aff ver arm, an' lay them A roar of laugter from all the occupants of the vehicle followed this sally, in which the gallant seargeant joined with a heartiness and good-will that clearly demonstrated how keenly he enjoyed the observation, although it told against himself. "Are ye expected at Boijolderum, sir?"

"Well-yes-oh, yes, certainly," I reolied, somewhat confusedly. "Yer an English gintleman, by yer way av talkin', sir ?" "Yes, I'm English." "Maybe yer from London, sir ?"

"I am." "And seen Miss Kitty over there. Whem!" Here he gave a prolonged whistle, which might have been intended for the horses, but I felt that it bore direct reference to myself. "Troth, thin, you are expected, sir, an there'll be bright eyes and red cheeks at the cross-roads whin we rache there, or I'm boccagh-Miss Kitty will be there, sir, in her own poney-carriage." I did not know whether to be amused or

"You seem to be well aware of Mis Blake's movements, Mr. Dempsey."

"Arrah, didn't she tell me herself, the crayture! Didn't she say to me, says she, Dimpsey, take care av a very handsome young gintleman that's comin' to see me from London,' says she. 'Is it the gintleman that I posted all the letters to in Westport, miss? 'Go ow o' that, Dimpsey, says she. 'Bluran-agers! why didn't ye tell me ye wor Mister Brookley, and I'd have roused the griddle for ye, sir, an' no mistake." I could have taken Phil Dempsey to my arms and cherished him.

"Begorra! there's the cross-roads and ther's Miss Kitty in her basket shandhracan like a pitaytee creel. Didn't I tell tempest from the beholding multitude. ye, sir, how it wul be !"

It is scarcely necessary to observe that min in this country, sir," observed Demp- I experienced that sinking sensation of the sey, when we had proceeded a little dis- heart which the immediate prospect of a tance; "but he was wanst bit intirely, cute | meeting with the adored one never fails to Wilmington, Aug. 20.—Spirits Turpentine 3 30 for Virgin, 2 00 for hard. Tar Turpentine 3 30 for Virgin, 2 00 for hard. Tar 2 80. Cotton from 15 to 194 cents. The moment the words escaped from my as he is—an' there's the spot," he added, create; that I pretended to be looking the soul battling with temptation, struggling corded in Scott's Demonology are horrible pointing to a small patch of strand directly beneath us.

"This is how it kem about, sir,—Get up; agility of an acrobat, and that I "tipped" agility of an acrobat, and that I "tipped" And as a pebble's fall may have been the cause: a man, for instance, the utual to the put to bed, but the parents did not remain up the results of his have been the cause: a man, for instance, the utual to have been the cause: a man, for instance, the utual to have been the cause: a man, for instance, the utual to have been the cause: a man, for instance, the utual to have been the cause: a man, for instance, the utual to have been the cause: a man, for instance, the utual to have been the cause: a man, for instance, the utual to have been the cause: a man, for instance, the utual to have been the cause: a man, for instance, the utual to have been the cause: a man, for instance, the utual to have been the cause: a man, for instance, the utual to have been the cause: a man, for instance, the utual to have been the cause: a man, for instance, the utual to have been the cause: a man, for instance, the utual to have been the cause: a man, for instance, the utual to have been the cause: a man, for instance, the utual to have been the cause: a man, for instance, the utual to have been the cause: a man, for instance, the utual to have been the cause in the utual to h

I had no words at will to cudgel into a that very spot, sir, as nimble as a roe; an' familias, who welcomed me to Connemthis poor man's shammy an' the cowld? bravely on, and sacrificed a bran-new pair pay the bill. "Now, sir, they were all afeared to say the excruciating process. But what cared note is good for nothing." 'Yes,' bekase he denounced potheen from I for boots, or mountain, or physical anthe althar, an' if they wor to say 'yes,' they'd | guish ! Was there not love-light in the | the President. be only kotched be the holy father. At eye of Kitty Blake ?-was I not approach-

owld as trass, says—

"'Arrah, where would we git it, Father Hall. I held the stereotyped interview James? Maybe ve'd have a dhrop in that with Blake pere in his study, which ter-

And-

DIAMONDS

There is a curious reminiscence, for lov-Portuguese India, where he had seen rough struction. "'Say wan little word to let me know diamonds, and learned to know them when alone." "Single yer freedom, an' double and the Brazilian may be seen in juxtayer distance, tended to prove that the gal- position with the new African diamonds, lant warrior's potations were carrying him he will wonder as much at the notion of beyond the laws of conventionalism. At their being confounded with each other, as fort to snatch a kiss, the young lady ap- eau Lafitte, or Persian silk for Chinese, or the Bartlett pear for the Duchesse. All diamonds are valuable, Why all diamonds are not equally valuable is a thing easily

"Not yet," said the little boy, as he was busy with his trap and ball, "when I grow older I will think about it."

now about to enter into trade; when I see ble task of retailing dry goods, or of toilmy business prosper, then I shall have ling at the accountant's desk, than learn a more time than now."

Business did prosper. "Not yet," said the man of business; 'my children must now have my care; beeter able to attend to religion." .

He lived to be a grey headed old man. "Not yet," still he cried-; "I shall soon stocked; while on the other hand, the de- who slept in the next room, a retire from trade, and then I shall have mand for really skilled mechanices of withdrew from her bed so no nothing else to do but to read and pray." And so he died. He put off to another the supply. The crying need of this countines the supply the supply. The crying need of this countines the supply the supply the supply. The crying need of this countines the supply child. He lived without God and died father who neglects to provide his son with hard earnings of a ties a fire broke out in a lofty dwelling. It was near midnight, and the flames had not vicious, members of society. It is doubtless of her husband and children, and made headway before they were discover- stated in the report of the I'rison Associa- being plucky withal, she af once twined ed. The fire companies rallied, but the tion, lately issued, that of fourteen thousand her fingers in his hair, and gave him a smoke had become so thick that the out- five hundred and ninety-six prisoners conlines of the house were scarcely visible, fined in the State prisons in 1867, seventyand the fiery element was raging with fearful power when a piercing cry thrilled all the number, had never learned a trade. in the fall, and getting on top, with her hearts as they learned that there was one The fact conveys a lesson of profound inperson yet unsaved within the building. In a moment a ladder was swung through the flames, and planted against the heated walls, and a brave fireman rushed up its rounds to the rescue.

Overcome by the smoke, and perhaps daunted by the hissing flames before him, he halted and seemed to hesitate. It was an awful scene. A life hung in the balance, and each moment was an age.

erowd, and a wild "Hurrah!" burst like a That cheer did the work, and the brave in a moment descended with the rescued one in his arms. Friend, brother, when you see a brave change a river's course, so your words of was obliged always to sleep sitting up, for the night and enjoy the scenery, and M

MADE HIMPAY, - When General Jackman lying for dead on the say rack, an' in the basket-carriage, and Kitty rattled Treasury Department ran up an indebtedthe mountain to the Hall .- And such a sixty dollars, and then turned her off as he "Have none of yez a tent av sperrits mountain, bare and bleak and precipitous; did other creditors. She finally went to in the upper branch of the New York Legnone av yez a tent av sperrits to put betune two in the opposite direction; but I pushed ed him if he could not compel the clerk to the Assembly, relates the following > of patent leather buttoned boots during "He offers his note," she said, but his foot in Albany. Money wor "Get his note and bring it to me," said a little fun with him, so I went jeering request that "she would let him railroad bill? Are you going to ver know when she got the money on it." / it?" Taking it to the President, he wrote told her she would get the money at the think it a good bill; but why do you ask?"

to pay the note: but when he learned who for it, I just wanted to say to you that the was the endorser, he made haste to "raise men interested in it are paying five hundthe wind." The next morning he found red dollars for votes, and as it is coming up a note on his desk, saying that his services on its final passage to-morrow, you can inst were no longer required by the Govern- as well have the money as not; you'll vote ment—and it served him right.

EXTRAVAGANCE .- Said a young hus vers of the diamond, in the story which has band, whose business speculations were come down to us from the last century, of unsuccessful, "My wife's silver tea-set, the the first discoverer of the Brazilian bridal gift of a rich uncle, doomed me to diamond fields. This was one Bernardo financial ruin. It involved a hundred un-Forseca Lobo, a man of an old Portuguese expected expenses, which, in trying to meet, family (the same name is born by the pres- have made me the bankrupt I am." His "'Whist, ye haythens!' says his river- ent Portuguese Envoy at Washington) who experience is the experience of many othance, houldin' up his hand, for the poor lived in the Brazilian province of Minas ers, who, less wise, do not know what is sayfarin' man was thryin' to spake, but the Geraes. He had previously traveled in the goblin of the house, working its de-

A sagacious father of great wealth ex-"The sayfarin' man made a great strug- ers of Brazil using certain pebbles careless- ing it to be printed on her wedding cards gle and screeched loud enough to be ly as counters in card playing. He knew "No presents except those adapted to an heard in Leenawn, 'Down wid the Pope!' them at once to be rough diamonds; and income of $1,000." Said he, "You must an' he died, sir, an' that's how Father took them to Lisbon, where the discovery not expect to begin life in the style I am was confirmed. At once the European able, by many years of labor, to indulge; The car was pretty well crowded, and diamond brokers and traders took the alarm. and I know of nothing which will tempt upon one side amongst the occupants was The new diamonds would destroy the val- you to try it more than the well-intended a sergeant of a militia regiment, proceeding ue, they exclaimed, of the old stock. So but pernicious gifts of rich friends." Such to the depot stationed at Galway: This they put about a story that these Brazilian advice to a daughter was timely. If othgallant son of Mars was seated beside a diamonds were poor diamonds from India, er parents would follow the same plan, very good-looking young girl, to whom he sent to Brazil, and from Brazil to Europe. many young men would be spared years of paid the most chivalrous and marked at- In 1750 an Englishman wrote a treatise incessant toil and anxiety; they would not tention. Now it was the sergeant's habit to prove this. The Braziliar diamonds find themselves on the downward road, beat intervals along the road, to bound gaily were thus shut, out of the market. But cause their wives had worn their salary, from the car, enter a shebeen, remain there Lobo was too clever for his foes. He took or expended it on the appointments of the few minutes, and then rejoin the vehicle, his diamonds out to India, and at Goa sold house. The fate of the poor man who betraying all the symptoms of having "laid | them as Indian diamonds. This may seem | found a linchpin, and felt himself obliged | on" a little refreshment during his tempor- a little extraordinary to us now, when then to make a carriage to (fit it, is the fate of ary absence. His aftentions to the young the difference between the diamonds of the husband who finds his bride in the lady because more marked as we proceed- Brazil and of India is so well known, If possession of gold and silver valuables, and > their sons to a trade? A skilled mechanic 'rise in the world,' as they say-are more her around the delighted suitor read these willing that they should study for a profession, with the chances of even moderate The little boy grew to be a young mant success heavily against them, or run the "Not yet," said the young man, "I am risk of spending their manhood in the ignotrade which would bring them manly Henry, on South street, Friday night. strength, health, and independence. In soon as he detected the noise, which s point of fact, the method they choose is peared to be down stairs, he softly ere the one least likely to achieve the advancewhen they are settled in life, I shall be ment aimed at, for the supply of candidates for a match. His wife was soon awak for 'errand beys,' dry goods clerks, and by the same noise, and believing the kindred occupations is notoriously over- thing was the matter with the every description is as notoriously beyond her husband and started a useful trade, and to see that he thoroughly stake. Before him se masters it, does him a grievous wrong, and bers. With an exclasiation of condensed CHEER HIM!—In one af the large circums the risk of helping by so much to in-es a fire broke out in a lofty dwelling. crease the stock of idle and dependent, if thought is not quite so evident, but it was seven per cent., or over ten thousand of tive duties of life."

length, after a playful but elephantine of- at a man's mistaking Chambertin for Chat- the following paragraph from the Manufacturer and Builder:

POWER OF IMAGINATION .- No doubt fancy goes a long way. Hearne, travelling among the Red Indians, was asked by a friendly chief for a charm against his Mrs. Davis was not dressed for cor enemy. He wrote some words, and made some marks on a piece of paper. The In-"Cheer him!" shouted a voice from the dian took care to let this come to his enemy's ears, "who forthwith siekened and before long died." It was often so, of the villain, when recognition ensued no doubt among our Saxon forefathers.! Then Mrs. Davis laid down her candle is fireman went upward amid smoke and They had such faith in charms that they called the gods charmsmiths. Nightmares they dreaded and looked on then as fiendly her yellow flannel nightcap, as it s visitations. And verily some of those rethe stairs, being the first thing Mr. A lady in western New York made ar- a servant always on watch to wake him the The lacerated feelings London, Aug. 22.

Common Rosin 9s. 6d.

London, Aug. 22.

New York, Aug. 22.

New York, Aug. 22.

New York, Aug. 22.

Cotton—Net receipts 40 bales; gross 414; sales for futures 9,700; for Aug. 19, Sept. 18 7-8; Octometral 7-9, 16; December 17 1-2.

Cotton steady and regular; sales 2700 bales.

The pas seul commenced, and, to use a below on the rocks fornist ye, an' that a man was wracked below on the rocks fornist ye, an' that he below on the rocks fornist ye, an' that he below on the rocks fornist ye, an' that he below on the rocks fornist ye, an' that he below on the rocks fornist ye, an' that he below on the rocks fornist ye, an' that he below on the rocks fornist ye, an' that he below on the rocks fornist ye, an' that he wasn't expected for to live, an' for Father James to run to him at wanst, for the love invited has been take, and I felt it. She went through the entire figure alone. She would not deign to take—to touch my out-stretched hand.

The pas seul commenced, and, to use a straight the below on the rocks fornist ye, an' that he wasn't expected for to live, an' for Father James to run to him at wanst, for the love wife head; "I'm afraid he has been take, and I felt it. She went through the entire figure alone. She would not deign to take—to touch my out-stretched hand.

The lacerated feelings of the rocks fornist ye, an' that he wasn't expected for to live, an' for Father James to run to him at wanst, for the love wife head; "I'm afraid he has been take, and I felt it. She went through the other has been take, and I felt it. She went through the other head; "I'm afraid he has been take, and I felt it. She went through the other head; "I'm afraid he has been take, and I felt it. She went through the other head; "I'm afraid he has been take, and I felt it. She went through the other head; "I'm afraid he has been take, and I felt it. She went through the other head; "I'm afraid he has been take, and I felt it. She went through the other head; "I'm afraid he has been take, and I felt it. She went the wo

Humorous.

A CORNERED LEGISLATOR

A gentleman who now occupies a sea

Perkins was as honest a i and I knew it, but I thought I his room one evening, and said, The clerk gave her the note, with the what do you think of that und

"Well," said Perkins, "I haven't may 'Andrew Jackson" on the back of it, and up my mind yet, exactly. I am inclined to "I thought you were in favor of it," said When it became due the clerk refused I "and as long as you have concluded to vote for the bill anyway?"

"Vote for the bill! I'll be hanged first." cried the irate Perkins. "No, sir. If improper means are being taken to pass the thing, as you say, I for one will vote against it every time. You can put me down

"Oh, I don't care anything about the bill," said I; "I was only trying to do you a favor, and I think I can yet, for, to tell the truth, the rival companies are in full force and are moving heaven and earth to defeat it. They are paying the same sum for 'noes,' and as long as you are bound to vote that way, I'll get you the $500 all the same." "Can such things be," exclaimed Perkins, rising from his seat, and tearing up and down the room in a whirlwind of righteons wrath and virtuous indignation; "what a state of things this is! A plague on both your houses; I won't vote at all!"

"All right," said I, as I laid my hand on the door, "I'll get you $500 for being ab-And as the jolly Senator brought to mind the horror of perplexity in which this last proposition involved old Perkins he roared with laughter .- Albany Times ADROIT .- Professor Aytoun was too timid to ask papa for his wife. When Jane Emily suggested that before she could give her absolute consent it would be necessary that he should obtain her father's approval: -"You must speak for me," said the suitor; on our journey, and such exclamations as one goes into the establishment, where the "Gelang owt o' that, sargint," "Lave me choicer varieties of the old India diamond gold and silver style.

| Possession of got the owner's no large income to support the owner's choicer varieties of the old India diamond gold and silver style. you had better go to him," said the suitor, "and I'll wait till you return." The lady proceeded to the library; and, taking her There is the soundest common sense in father affectionately by the hand, mentioned that Professor Aytoun had asked her in marriage. She added: "Shall I accept "Why is it that there is such a re- his offer, papa? He is so diffident that he pugnance on the part of parents-to putting | won't speak to you about it bimself." "Then we must deal tenderly with his feelings," is an independent man. Go where he will said the hearty old Christopher North, "I'll his craft will bring him support. He need write my reply on a slip of paper, and pin ask favors of none. He has literally his it to your back." "Papa's answer is on fortune in his own hands. Yet foolish par- the back of my dress," said Miss Jane, as ents-ambitious that their sons should she entered the drawing-room. Turning > night, and hearing burglars at work in your house. This was the case with M out of bed, and commenced to prowl ar words: "With the author's compliments."

DOMESTIC SCENE.—There is a peculiarsaddening effect in awakening in the wrench that made him thak of death. Then both of them went down to the floor together, she having the advantage hands still in his hair, she shook his head on terest to those who have in charge the the floor with an energy and courage that training of boys, and girls too, for the ac- would undoubtedly have filled him to overflowing with admiration, had he known who it was, or had he known anything at all. Every time she rapped him she shricked for help, and in a brief space of time the children and Mrs. Eben Davis who lives down stairs, were on the scene. but in the excitement she didn't mind adornment. She had a candle in one hand and a long carving fork in the other, and was about to drive the latter into the le one direction, and the fork in another, immediately retired to her own apar