Published by J. H. & G. G. Myrover, Corner Anderson and Old Streets, Fayetteville, N. C.

North Carolina Gazette.

VOL. 4---NO. 10.]

North Carolina Gazette.	GAZETTE COLUMN.	Home Circle.	tI
J. H. & G. G. MYROVER,	READ IT!	"Home is the Sacred Refuge of Our Life." Dryden.	f
Publishers.         TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:         One year (in advance).       $250         Six months       125         Three         CLUB RATES:         10 copies (sent to one address) with an extra copy $22 50         20       1         1       1         20       1         1       1         20       1         1       1         20       1         1       1         20       1         1       1         20       1         20       1         1       1         20       1         20       1         20       1         20       1         20       1         20       1         20       1         20       1         20       1         20       1         20       1         20       1         21       25         22       20         23       1         24       1	SUBSCRIBE FOR IT !!	AN ECCENTRIC PARISIAN.—A corres- pondent writes from Paris that a well- dressed gentleman of sixty, evidently a man of wealth, drives out every afternoon to the lake on the Bois de Boulogne in a fine victoria, followed by a carriage la- den with cooking utensils. Selecting a cool spot under the trees, he stops his car-	67 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
100 copies (sent to one address) with an extra copy and a premium of a fine chromo, value $40 150 00 RATES OF ADVERTISING: One square (9 lines solid nonpareil) one insertion $100 two in 150 one month 250 one month 250 one three 500 three 500	тне	riage, has a rich damask table-cloth spread upon the grass, and servants in livery place a profusion of silver upon it. The service is of the richest sort. The lackeys sit up under another tree and serve this sybarite a most sumptuous repast with iced champagne and everything to be	1
	North Carolina Gazette,	found in the grandest of dinners. He sits there in his dress-coat and white cravat as if in his saloon, unmindful of the hundreds
NEWSPAPERS & PERIODICALS. PROSPECTUS OF THE	THE BEST PAPER IN THE STATE!	of eyes that gaze curiously upon him. When the dinner is over he retires to anothor tree, as if to the smoking room, where cigars and coffee are brought to him. Meanwhile the servants pack up
NEW YORK WEEKLY HERALD.		the silver. When the cigar is finished, the eccentric diner-out gets into his vic- toria, without looking at the crowd, takes his ride about the lake and then drives off
JAMES GORDON BENNETT, PROPRIETOL, BROADWAY & ANN STREET. POSTAGE FREE.	PUBLISHES MORE GENERAL NEWS AND READING MAT- TER THAN ANY SEC-	home. Since the fact became public talk, people are going out to the Bois ex- pressly to see this singular person dine in the open air.
ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $2 CLUB RATES.	ULAR PAPER IN THE SOUTH !!	THE GARDEN OF ENGLAND Thou- sands of the tourists who annually visit the western "Garden of England"-for
Three Copies, per annum		Devonshire well deserves that name- whilst deeply impressed with the general loveliness of the country, nevertheless find it difficult to explain what it is that lends	1
Additions to clubs received at club rates. These rates make the WEEKLY HERALD the cheapest publication in the country. Terms each in advance Money sent by mail will be at the risk of the sender A generous portion of the WEEKLY HERALD will be appropriated to Agriculture, Horticulture, Pomology	FOR THE FARMER, It takes the place of an Agricultural	the peculiar character of softness and grace to the scenery. Here is the secret. The whole country is richly and luxuriantly clothed with ferns. The number and var	e V and the management of domestic animals. Particular attention will be paid also to the Reports of the Markets The aim will be to make the WERKLY HERALD supe- rior to any other agricultural and family newspaper in the contribution	Magazine. FOR THE MERCHANT AND	iety of the most exquisite forms of these beautiful plants to be found in Devon shire are equaled by those of no othe county in the United Kingdom. Devon shire is emphatically the Paradise of the	- r
Every number of the WEEKLY HERALD will contain a select story and the latest and most important news by telegraph from all parts of the world up to the hour of publication Buring the session of Congress the WEEKLY HERALD will contain a summary of the proceedings and the la- test News by telegraph from Washington, Political,	BUSINESS MAN,	British ferns. There they are in very truth at home. The soil and the air are adapted to them, and they adapt them selves to the whole aspect of the place	y e 1-
Religions, Fashionuble, Attisfic, Literary and Sport- ing Intelligence; Obituary Notices, Varieties, Amuse- ments, Editorial Articles on the prominent topics of the day, a review of the Cattle and Dry Goods Markets, Financial and Commercial Intelligence, and accounts of all the important and interesting events of the week. The price of subscription, whenever practicable, should be transmitted by Post Office Orders. It is the	It offers a complete and accurate review of the Markets and business transactions from week to week.	they grow in the ntmost depths of the values; they fringe the banks of the streams they are to be found in the recesses of the woods; they hang from rocks and wall	l- s; le ls
At small Post Unarcs in the country where Post Of- fice Orders cannot be obtained, money may be remit- ted in Registered Letters. Advertisements, to a limited number, will be insert- ed in the WELLY HERALD.	FOR THE HOUSEKEEPER	and trees, and crowd into the towns an villages, fastening themselves with swee familiarity even to the houses. IMMODEST FASHIONS.—There are som	et
PHE DAILY HERALD. POSTAGE FREE. Annual Subscription Price $12-Always in Advance.	It supplies a varied and instructive fund of valuable receipts and general household	I features in the dress of the present da which every modest wife should shrin	k ul
Write the address on letters to the NEW Yorks Ilication in a bold and legitide hand, and give the name of each subscriber, of Post Office, County and State so plainly that no errors in mailing papers will be liable is secur. sept 23 th	FOR THE FAMILY CIDCLE	sense are a direct or covert appeal to set suality, and can have no other purpose- ornaments that are arranged so as to a tract the eye to portions of the person the	n- at-
CHOICE PERIODICALS For 1876.	It is full of select literary matter, shown stories, sketches, poetry, correspondence	like that of the lascivious dances of the	lk he
THE LEONARD SCOTT PUBLSHING CO. 41 BARCLAY ST., NEW YORK,	humorous miscellany, &c , &c. FOR THE GENERAL READER,	have no other recommendation than the they suggest certain ideas as to the fema form that are agreeable to the animal ca- ed man, looking as an animal on wousa	at ile 11-
Continue their AUTHORIZED Reprints of the FOUR LEADING QUATERLY REVIEWS: EDINBURGH REVIEW (Whig),	It gives at once a compendium of the news at home and abroad, the late	was impure and base in man, has enect	ec ee
Jondon QUARTERLY REVIEW (Conservative) WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal) BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEW	intelligence from all important points bet in this country and in Europe; the Legi	the out thinking anything about them. By it should be borne in mind that orname	Ba nt
(Evangelical) Containing masterly criticisms and summaries of all that is valuable and fresh in Literature, Science and Art; and	Lative Congressional and Supreme Con	rt fect upon the spectators, it has some a preciable influence upon the wearers. W	ap 7 o 1 se
BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE The most powerful monthly in the English Languag Famous for STORIES, ESSAYs and SKETCHES,		coarse sensuality, without an injury to l own perfect purity and refinement, wh every mother must watch over in daughters, and every wife guard religio	he ic he
Of the Highest Literary Merit. TERMS (Including Postage):	FOR THE GOOD CITIZEN, It is sound in politics, Democratic	in WONDERFUL OPALS A magnific	e
Payable Strictly in Advance.         For any one Review       $ 4 60 per annu         For any two Reviews       7 00         For any three Reviews       10 00         For all four Reviews       12 00         For Blackwood's Magazine       4 00         For Blackwood's Magazine       7 00	m principle, and Southern in feeling and se timent to the core.	display of opals has been sent by Aust to the Philadelphia exhibition. To opals come from the Government mines the Carpathian mountains, which ext from six to eight miles, and are 1,000 for the second s	tri Fl s i eu fe
For Blackwood and two Reviews	FOR THE ADVERTISER, It furnishes a most desirable medium	at their greatest depth; 400 men are ployed in these mines, which have b worked for five centuries. The ro- opals are shown from their growth in c tal form till they decay; but the gem	ng ry
A discount of twenty per cent. will be allowed clubs of four or more persons. Thus: four copies Blackwood or of one Review will be sent to ONE 2 parses for $12.80; four copies of the four Reviews a Blackwood for $42; and so on.	reaching the people in all the Cape Fo	the collection are the "Kohinoor of op-	al 6( ra toast at a dinner, openly reproached the who in 1862 married Prince Felix Salm-Home Circle. s the Sacred Refuge of Our Life." Dryden. CENTRIC PARISIAN.-A COTTES writes from Paris that a wellcentleman of sixty, evidently a ealth, drives out every afternoon ke on the Bois de Boulogne in a oria, followed by a carriage lacooking utensils. Selecting a Mock's language as disloyal, but Prof. G. under the trees, he stops his car- W. Vreede, of the Utrecht University aps a rich damask table-cloth spread plauds the speech and adds: "If the grass, and servants in livery Prince does not listen to these words, rofusion of silver upon it. The of the richest sort. The lackeys become necessary that more emphatic der another tree and serve this a most sumptuous repast with of the Chamber of Representatives." mpagne and everything to be the grandest of dinners. He sits that gaze curiously upon him. ne dinner is over he retires to tree, as if to the smoking room, Clarendon Hotel restaurant, in London, out at lunch one day to sell another chap who are socially ambitions. A year since down on the group of smaller boys who gars and coffee are brought to igars and coffee are brought to leanwhile the servants pack up viands, with such choice of appropriate knows everything, and to whom no news wife of one of Vanderbilt's "whippers in" r. When the cigar is finished, ntric diner-out gets into his victhout looking at the crowd, takes about the lake and then drives off Since the fact became public ple are going out to the Bois exo see this singular person dine in nected with the police, and had come to about as freely as I visit the Sultan's is remembered and regretted .- St. Louis GARDEN OF ENGLAND .- Thouarrest a person traced there by a dectec- seraglio.) "But," continued the confeder- Republican's Saratoga Letter. the tourists who annually visit tive. The proprietor repelled with haugh- ates, "did you know that the two sisters stern "Garden of England"-for ty dignity the supposition that anybody li- were nieces of Eugene Sue and that they hire well deserves that name- able to arrest should enter his establish- were the originals of the orphan twins in leeply impressed with the general ment, protesting that none but persons of the country, nevertheless find the highest respectability were his guests. "Oh, yaas, I knew that, though I forgot Woronzow's place on the Euxine, and "Undoubtedly, my dear sir," rejoined how they are Sue's nieces, whether his Durham, who was filled with an amazing a bright young lady acquaintance were It to explain what it is that lends aliar character of softness and grace the professed police agent, "but I am not brother married their mother, or their quantity of consequence, said, in referring bantering each other about marriage. cenery. Here is the secret. The in pursuit of a vulgar thief or swindler. mother-confound it, I'll find out;"-and to some scene of English home life: "I "Oh," said she, "you'll get married one of is richly and luxuriantly The man I seek is a political offender of he actually did-that is, came down next was obliged to assert my dignity, for these days, I know; and you'd have me importance. See, here is his description; morning with a clear account of the pre- the fellows had found out who I was." now if I would wait for you." "You'd with ferns. The number and varhe most exquisite forms of these read it and see if it is not that of the gen- cise relationship. He never "thought to The wit looked up and rejoined: "Ah ! have to wait until my second childhood, il plants to be found in Devon- tleman drinking wine at that table." think" that Sue's story opens in October, And who were you ?" e equaled by those of no other The landlord read. "Yes! Yes!" he 1831; so, supposing Badeau's bride to have in the United Kingdom. Devonexclaimed, "it is indeed that of the gentle- been only fifteen at the date of the story, emphatically the Paradise of the man now finishing the last glass of his se- those lovely twin orphans "who by a ferns. There they are in very sweet maternal caprice had been called cond bottle of champagne." home. The soil and the air are "He seems to be a connoissear in wines." Rose and Blanche," would be a round to them, and they adapt them-"It is a pity that he does not confine sixty years old now. Worse yet, Jenkins, to the whole aspect of the place. himself to them and leave politics alone." being the New York correspondent of a lothe the hill-sides and the hill-tops: "Permit me to make a suggestion," said Parish journal, put Badeau's wife and her ow in the utmost depths of the valthe visitor. "He has evidently been drink- sister into good French as the genuine ney fringe the banks of the streams; ing heavily, and his head is no doubt af- Rose and Blanche, of Sue's romance; and e to be found in the recesses of the fected by it. Knowing his precarious po- worser, it has come back and is now going they hang from rocks and walls sition as he does, he will be likely to at- the rounds of the press in good English in not yet aware that they can't get out, even es, and crowd into the towns and tempt resistance to his arrest. Perhaps this country. I tell you the story that for a moment, and get back, on the same s, fastening themselves with sweet he is armed. At all events, for the credit you may "think to think" before you print entrance-fee. I saw an old man try it rity even to the houses. of your house, it is best that we avoid a and help to pass around this particular the other day. He says to the gateman :

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1876.

HOW A GOOD DINNER WAS OBTAINED WITHhis dress-coat and white cravat as OUT PRICE.

over which he will perhaps once rule as mantic adventures of the Princess in Mexi- been the intended bride of Mr. Wilson, the his regret that the Crown Prince had not after the fall of the empire, have been pute this report, as it is countenanced by yet given the nation the opportunity to chronicled by herself in an entertaining the lady herself, and will not be contraand its publication in fall in the Conserv- efforts to his position in the Prussian army, ough, another lady is distinguished by the

WHAT A CORRESPONDENT FOUND.

The Hartford Times has one of the best Mr. Wilson read but a few hours before which were spoken at a banquet, it will hits on this peculiar class of Bohemians his death; each had penciled some favorite that has appeared in some time, so rich is lines, found to be consoling at that trying language should proceed from the benches the joke and so well known are the parties hour, and to each a message of rememmentioned that it will bear repetition :

> Badeau, Grant's pupil, married one of two mental interest around these two pretty very charming sisters, both petite, pretty, women, which it is not necessary in such still lived and was water-proof. and wonderfully alike in form and feature, weather to question. Mr. Wilson was a

An elegantly dressed man recently en- though there are three years difference in devoted admirer of the fair sex, and appretered the fashionable and very expensive their ages. Two chaps I wot of laid it ciated the attentions of a number of ladies wines to accompany the conrest is bespoke whatever can be told. So the confeder-him a thorough bon vivant of untrammeled ates approached the omniscient Jenkins, slender education. When asked what atmeans. It was served and done ample "Did you know that Badeau had married traction Mrs. Blank could possibly possess on the street, but don't put two ounces of justice to by him, and just as dessert was a very pretty girl, who is scarcely distin-placed before him another man entered the guishable from her equally pretty sister?" for him, he answered: "She is so kind to me that I forget how she murders the restaurant and engaged in a mysterious "Oh, aw, yaas," says Jenkins, "it's the principal talk of fashionatle circles" (Jen-The last comer said that he was con- kins trequenting the "fashionable circles" the gentle, pleasant-faced Vice-President can stand such horrid paintings !"

THE LATE VICE-PRESIDENT'S Two ed his train on its way, convinced that he Prince for going into voluntary exile and Salm, then a brigadier in the Union army FIANCEES .- A tall, elegantly formed wo- had drowned the tramp, or at least flooded for spending on the boulevards the time and afterwards an aide-de-camp of the un- man, dressed in the extreme of fashion, him so far away that he could never get which ought to be given to his country, fortunate Maximilian, of Mexico. The ro- Mrs. W-, is often mentioned as having back again. But when that conductor drove into the William IV. Mr. Mock further expressed co, where she saved the life of her husband. deceased Vice-President. No one can dis- depot in the early morning, there was a surprise in store for him. "Be you the conductor I" inquired a welcome a Crown Princess. This speech book. Prince Felix, restored through her dicted by the gentleman; but, strangely en- shivering voice at his elbow, as he stepped on the platform. ative Dagblad created a great sensation. fell gallantly fighting at Gravelotte. His same report a Mrs. C, of Washing-All the liberal papers are condemning Mr. widow has since resided in Germany. "Yes," said he, looking round and gaz-C., at the United States. Each lady, it is man. "Then I want ter ask yer why yer said, collected the verses in a collection of don't run around the end of the lake in verses called "The Changed Cross," which comin' inter town !" "I do," said the conductor.

"Yer do ?" exclaimed the man. "Certainly," was the reply. "Wal, I gosh !" muttered the stranger brance and affection was sent by a faithin a bewildered tone, "blest if I didn't It is some time gone by since Adam ful attendant. All this throws a senti- think yer swum through the lake !" Then the conductor knew that his tramp

[WHOLE NO. 164

WORDS OF WISDOM .- Standing on the postoffice steps yesterday and looking wanted to know why he had plasters on his face and his arm in a sling, he said :

"I don't care whether you are Democrats or Republicans, nor how much you holler powder into an old dinner-horn and think you've got the biggest cannon in town." "Did you ?" asked a small newsboy. "Did I ? Go up to my house and see the dent in the ground where I came down -see mother's left leg-see my old goat in a corner of the yard, waiting for a New York surgeon to come and pick the powder out of his nose ! You move on, small VERY PROUD .- The late Lord Alvanley, who was delightfully odd, met the boy !"

Dobbs (who is a jolly old bachelor) and

PREMIUMS.

New subscribers (applying early) for the year 1876 may have, without charge, the numbers for the last quarter of 1875 of such periodicals as they may sub-scribe for.

scene and a scandal by effecting the arrest sell. ODEST FASHIONS .- There are some outside. Suppose you tell him that his s in the dress of the present day friend Lord Graham wishes to see him in -There is one more picture in the Cenhis carriage at the door. Then when he howing upon herself, every careful comes out we will nab him."

The landlord respectfully delivered the message as suggested.

"Lord Graham ! You don't tell me !" the Apple of Discord; I have only a dim stay in all day. exclaimed the diner as he helped himself memory of some old myth concerning it, S .- But I want a bite teet. It'll cost ents that are arranged so as to at- to a choice cigar. "What can he want but in itself it is a delight and the story me 50 cents in here. he eye to portions of the person that with me? Only to offer me his box at may go. Beantiful enough for a goddess G-That's the rule, old man, and you'll mon. Mix the butter and flour, add sugar be passed over by the modest gaze; Drury Lane to-night, I presume. Never that gives a character to the walk mind, I will see. I have now only coffee at of the lascivious dances of the to take to finish my dinner. Be kind edistortions of the limbs and figure nough to order it for me, to be ready when a veil about her lovely form, from which sell you a sandwich for 20 cents.

e injurious to health, and which can I return." o other recommendation than that He stepped to the door and the police iggest certain ideas as to the female hat are agreeable to the animal call- Queen," pushed him into a back in wait- yet splendidly handsome head, with flow- boy with sandwiches, and, taking one square, and quite thin-removing all the n, looking as an animal on woman. ing and drove away. After a shilling ride ing beard and kingly poise. He holds the through the slats, passed out a 50 cent crusts. Layers of cold ham, spread with econd French Empire, appealing as the bon vivant and his captor alighted, dis- apple at which my goddess looks disdain- stamp. systematically to everything that charged the back, and separated, with the fully. It amazed me to stand and note npure and base in man, has effected understanding that on the succeeding day how the married folks treated this picture. shion of dress to an unusual degree; their comedy should be re-enacted in some Of course there are many others about it, ery many follow the fashions with- other hotel.

inking anything about them. But BROTHER JONATHAN .- The origin of their coat sleeves an impatient twitch, ald be borne in mind that ornamentss is always designed to be effective this term, as applied to the United States, ne direction. If it produces some ef- is as follows : When General Washingpon the spectators, it has some ap- ton, after being appointed commander of terward, that man is seen coming back A .- Don't you know this is Centennial ca; cook about ten minutes longer, then ble influence upon the wearers. Wo- the army of the Revolutionary War, went annot wear an impure style of dress, to Massachusetts to organize it, he found and I were gazing and criticising when ally one that has in it an element of a great want of ammanition and other two typical old maids, skinny, skimpy, sensuality, without an injury to her means of defence; and on one occasion it and vinegar faced, looked at us severely erfect purity and refinement, which seemed that no means could be devised for and remarked, "The times are getting mother must watch over in her the necessary safety. Jonathan Trumball, awful when women who look like ladies iters, and every wife guard religious- the elder, was then Governor of the State herself. of Connecticut; and the General, placing the greatest reliance on his excellency's he Philadelphia exhibition. The general did so, and the governor was suc- at her table by hurrying in to dinner and pay 50 cents to get back-just for 30 ed for five centuries. The rough name has now become a designation for the arrival of the mother, who watched Centennial. are shown from their growth in crys- the whole country as John Bull has for with great solicitude the food taken by

UNCLE SAM .- Immediately after the was reached, when "baby" ordered icesection, being the leading and recognized ed as cameo likenesses of the Emperor declaration of war with England, in 1812, cream. Being cut down in her allowance Elbert Anderson, of New York, then a by her mother, she took it with such undeclaration of war with England, in 1812, cream. Being cut down in her allowance and Empress. These portraits were done contractor, visited Troy, where he purchas- usual quiet that surprise was manifested, organ of ten counties in the interior of North Carolina. A substrian artist in two years, and are estimated the finest specimens of their kind in the world. It had been consid-

Humorous.

"A Little Nonsense, Now and Then, Is Relished by the Wisest Men" (and Women. Joe Miller.

A STRANGER AT THE CENTENNIAL.

Many strangers at the Centennial are

"I want to go out a minute. You'll know me when I come back, won't you !" MARRIED COUPLES AND OLD MAIDS. Gatemam-Yes; I'll know you by a 50 cent stamp.

tennial gallery, says Anna S. H. in the Stranger-What! Ain't the money I Cleveland Plain Dealer, where all the paid good for all day?

faces are perfect in their way. It is called G .- Yes; it's good for all day, if you is the central figure. Her wealth of burn- have to stand it. But I'll tell you what and cinnamon. Mix to a paste with the ished auburn tresses ripples back from her you can do. You can go down by them eggs, roll out thin; cut with a tea biscuit white forehead, then descending they make palings, and there's some boys outside will cutter. Rich and most delicious.

the garments have dropped away. At I followed the old gentleman down by one side is a cupid, with his cherub face the palings to witness his investment. agent arrested him "in the name of the peeping out; on the other there is a dark Sure enough, he found an auburn-haired but the men invariably exclaim at this Arab-This is Centennial year.

> "This is 1876," says the brick-top Arab. S .- Well I guess I knowed that before. Gim my change!

S .- (snapping his fingers nervously and their wives almost as invariably give through the crack)-Here, boy ! don't ter two tablespoonfuls tapioen until perharrying them on where no beautiful wowant no fooling. Gim my change right fectly soft; stew whole two quarts of canned men may be seen. As soon as may be af- away.

alone to look at his leisure. My sister venr f yon owdacious devil. A .- Don't give any change, Centennial year. S .- You cussed, infernal, red-headed brat of Satan, if you don't gim me 30 cents, er bread crumbs, a few thin slices of oni-I'll come out there and get a policeman ons, a little pepper and salt on each layer; A PIECE OF STRATEGY .- A bright hold of you.

ONDERFUL OPALS.—A magnificent judgment, remarked, "We must consult little girl at one of the fashionable hotels ay of opals has been sent by Anstria Brother Jonathan on the subject." The recently surprised the waiter and guests ness. You don't want to come out here bake about two hours.

come from the Government mines in cessful in supplying many of the wants of among the first, and in advance of her cents-and if yer was ter do it for spite, Carpathian mountains, which extend the army; and thenceforward, when diffi- mother, and ordering ice-cream, raisins, where'd I be when you got out I You see, six to eight miles, and are 1,000 feet culties arose, and the army was spread over and other delicacies of the dessert before this is the Centennial year. Have to make eir greatest depth; 400 men are em- the country, it became a by-phrase. "We her soup and meats. The solution of her our jack this year. Now, you go along ed in these mines, which have been must consult Brother Jonathan;" and the conduct appeared shortly, however, after quiet and nice, and it'll be the same next Finale-Arab performs a short warthe child. It was, "Baby, don't eat this," dance and yells, "Run here, Jimmy ! and "Baby, don't eat that," until dessert I've done it to another of 'em !"

> How HE ROUNDED THE LAKE .- He was a tramp, says the Chicago Journal, bound Chicagoward, and as he boarded bound Chicagoward, and as he boarded the couplers at the rear of an incoming en-gine, just across the line in Indiana, one recent dark and chilly night, he had faith

then," said Dobbs. "Well, I shouldn't have long to wait," was the quick repartee from the lady.

There was a little gathering the other evening, and some one asked a Raleigh man if he wasn't fond of Mendelssohn. He said he was passionately; but unless very carefully cooked it always disagreed with him.

"Do birds," asks a magazine writer, "die a natural death f" We know of many who have probably died in that way. We shot at them, anyhow.

The Household.

"The way to man's heart, the hungry sinner Since Eve ate the apple, is a good dinner."

SHREWSBURY CAKES .- One pound of flour, one pound sugar, half pound butter, three eggs, two spoonfuls powdered cinna-

SANDWICHES .- Make them of cold tongue, thinly sliced, and tea biscuit, or light bread sliced and cut four inches a little mustard, give a good relish. Of course use a fair allowance of butter on the bread or biscuit, and put on plates, in symmetrical, pyramid form.

PEACH TAPIOCA .- Steep in warm wapeaches; when tender, stir in the tapiosweeten to taste, and cook slowly about S .- Yes, sholy I do. Gim my change, five minutes. To be eaten cold. Prepare in a porcelain kettle.

> BAKED TOMATOES .- Put a layer of tomatoes in a deep pudding dish; then a layfill up the dish, having the grated bread

PLAIN SUET PUDDING .- Take one pound and a half of common flour, half a pound of beef suct chopped very fine, two eggs well beaten, one pint of new milk; mix. Have ready a bowl well greased; put in your pudding; tie down with a cloth; boil steadily for two hours. Grated leuron peel improves it.

COACOANUT CUP CAKE .-- Take three, coffee-capfuls of flour, one of butter, two of sugar, one of cocoanut, one of milk, half orm till they decay; but the gems of England. e largest known, and weighing 602

<ul> <li>Neither premiums to subscribers nor discount te clubs can be allowed upless the money is remitted di-</li> </ul>		ered impossible to engrave upon so soft a	gentleman (universally known as "Uncle	the second s	to believe that he had a "soft thing" of it	two teaspoonfuls of the extract of bitter al-
rect to the publishers. No premiums given to clubs. Circulars with further information may be had on application		stone as the opal, but in both of these	a large number of workmen, who, on this	AN ACEING HEART UNBURDENS IT-	to believe that he had a "soft thing" of it for a cheap ride. But the conductor, with his eagle eye and railway lantern, soon es-	blanched and pounded; this quantity will
THE LEONARD SCOTT PUBLISHING CO	tinct departments, edited with great care	finast annaos	1 occasion were employed in overnauling the	English at Croonbring White Sainhar	pied the moneyless passenger on his un- cushioned and comfortless seat. Did he	maac the searce, cance in manifest passes
AL DADOT LOS AND AND ADDRESS AND ADDRESS		THE CROWN PRINCE OF HOLLAND	The casks were marked "E. AU. S." Their inspection fell to the lot of a faceti-	and a croshed heart: "I be firt is the pain-	order him off! No. He had a deeper plot. He let him remain, while on and an	MINUS SLEAL WILL AUMAIUND
······································	mands of all classes of readers.	Mall Gasette writes. "For some time	lons fellow, who, on being asked the mean-	guised ravening wolf of the affectional fold. Her fangs drip with the gore of the	want the train from dation to station on.	with about an equal quantity of ripe to- matoes; season with an even teaspoonful
WILL SECURE THE		I duct of the Grown Prince. He lives in	Tess it meant Libert Anderson and Uncle	foolishly fond and true. Like the hide-	gine stopped to "water up."	of pepper, a heaping teaspoonful of salt;
CHICAGO LEDGER		Paris, his palace in the Hague is closed, and all endeavors to induce him to return	joke took among the workmen, and passed	ous spectre bat of the Orinoco, she drains the last purple drop from the veins of her	"Now for him," grinned the heartless	in a pudding dish, put in the mince-meat
FOR ONE YEAR.	······································	to the Hagne have failed. The Prince	currently; and "Uncle Sam," when present,	spell-hound victim, while her soft bland-	"Now for him," he maliciously continu-	and tomatoes, spread a thick layer of bread
The LEDGER is the BEST FAMILY PAPER in the	" " 3 "	of performing his duties as the first subject	was often rallied by them on the increased extent of his possessions.	lishments lull him to rest and fill his dreams with dazzling scenes of beauty and	ed, as he grasped the water-trough from the fireman's hands and directed it over	pour over a tea-cupful of water. Dake it
United States-ably edited, handsomely printed, con- taining every week choice completed stories, an install- ment of an interesting illustrated serial and general	0. 11. te 0. 0. 11110 ( Lin,	of his royal father. This behavior has	The second state of a state of a second	felicity. More cruci than the great war	the back of the engine.	one hour, and you will have a dencious reading for old and young, for the farmer, for the housewife and for all classes. Special care is taken to	Publishers & Proprietors,	created much discontent, but till now si- lence has been preserved on the subject.	AN AMERICAN PRINCESS.—An Ameri- can princess is about to be married at	god of the Aztecs, she leasts upon the torn and bleeding hearts of her own most	"Now for him," he fiendishly grunted, as he heard a Noah's deluge pouring over	ter, or a cap of stock, are alour for moist-make its tone uniformly chaste and moral. Send $1, and 15 cents for postage, and your address to	Nos. 11 & 12 Anderson Street, Fayetteville, N. C.	To the great surprise of every one, howev-	Stuttgart to an English gentleman named	frevent worshippers. With savage fero-	the head and down the back of the luck-	ening than water. Butter enough should be used to make the top brown like escaloet 5 4t THE LEDGER, Chicago, Illinois,	july 1 tf	politician, the other day, in proposing a	Heneage. She is no less a person than Miss Agnes Leclerq, formerly of Baltimore,	city she crunches the tenderest feelings and emotions of the human soul."	All grew still and the conductor order-	