TO PUT SAND ON THE ROADS

Right NOW is the accepted time to put sand and plenty of it on the dirt roads.

Mr. J. C. Morrow is at the head of an organization which proposes to do that very thing for a mile out of the Edgelyville Road. The sand applied now is worth ten times what it would be later.

It's a pity there are not a dozen road drags in the county to use now, also. The roads are in the right condition to get the best results from this demonstrated successful method of making hard-surfaced roads.

At The Palace.
A glance at the crowd at the Palace last night would have offered evidence in support of the claim that the visitors are being away to their homes. As usual, the theatre was packed even to and beyond the doors and many had to avail themselves of the seats outside the doors while waiting for an opportunity to see the pictures. Waiting outside is not really such a tax on one's patience anyway for some excellent music is heard even there and this changes the aspect of things considerably. If there ever was a true delineation of youth in all its glory of temporary power and, sometimes, consequent arrogance it was seen in one of the films last night. A true and amusing portrayal of some of the foibles and weaknesses of human nature.

AUTO BALL ON SATURDAY

The Automobile Ball, to be given Saturday night at Laurel Park in honor of the contributors to the Automobile Meet Fund, will undoubtedly be the social event of a season marked by an unusually large number of pleasant affairs.

The Casino is very prettily decorated with masses of green. Japanese lanterns and electric bulbs will softly shed their rays upon the throng on the floor, and the excellent orchestra engaged is a guarantee that the dancing will be pure pleasure.

The event is given in honor of the contributors to the Automobile Meet Fund, these public spirited citizens and well-wishers of Hendersonville who appreciated what the meet would have meant to the town.

Among the contributors are the following:
Wanteska Trust & Banking Co., W. H. Hawkins & Son, K. G. Morris French Broad Hyster Co., Rigby Morrow Co., Slayden-Pakes Co., Walter B. Smith, S. F. Wheeler, Jimmy Furlow, B. Brooks, A. Ficker, F. V. Hunter, Hendersonville Mercantile Co., Kramer's Garage, Clarke Hardware Co., Wetmur & Houston, F. W. Scheper, W. F. Ostendorf, Edward Ehrlich, Mrs. E. Cahn, W. E. Chenoweth, Glover Orr, Citizens Bank, Pruett's Garage, Kanuga Club, Burckmyer Bros., Gus Ward, J. W. Bailey, J. C. Cullum, Hubert Smith, Claude Pace, D. E. Stepp, Charles Burnette James, A. Switzer, H. Patterson, J. C. Sherrill, Chas. J. Sunofsky, E. R. Black, C. C. Jordan, R. M. Oates, J. E. Shipman, Wilshire Griffith, M. M. Shepherd, M. S. Woodall, J. H. Harris, C. F. Toms, Brownlow Jackson, Mr. McDonald, Mrs. C. F. Whitaker, B. J. Smith, G. Bush, John Maybank Mrs. A. M. Gover, S. T. Hodges

TO TRAMP MOUNTAINS FOR ABOUT TEN DAYS

Huntly Gover with several companions expect in the course of a few days to take quite an extensive tramp of a destrian stunt which will include the Blue Ridge mountains. This peabout two hundred miles of mountain territory is expected to last for about ten days. A couple of blankets and a small pack of provisions will constitute the outfit of each member of the party and with this load it is hoped to cover an average of nearly twenty five miles per day. An allowance of two days is made in order to provide for any necessary delays. The tramp will include the following places: Mt Pisgah, Waynesville Marylands, Flatfield, Sapphire, and Toxaway. When Toxaway is reached they will probably come back on the train. This proposed itinerary is an excellent one, embracing as it does so many points of interest, and the members of the party will no doubt enjoy their temporary sojourn in the mountains where nature in all her magnificence can be communed with at first hand.

SHORT LOCAL NOTES

Mr. Vance Norwood, the good natured and very efficient linotype operator in the Herald office left for Wilmington today where he will spend several days on matters of business. In his absence Mr. Charlie Norwood, ably seconded by Messrs Billy Kinch and Leonard Hesterly, will convert into cold, senseless lead the hot, sometimes senseless, words from the pen of the Herald scribes.

Mrs. Harris Wilcox and son who have been spending sometime at and Arden Highland Lake returned to their home in Charlotte today.

Mr. C. W. Yates and Miss Lydia Yates of Wilmington are in the city for a stay of several days at Edgemont. Miss Yates has recently returned from Cornell University where she has been taking special work during the summer months.

Mr. J. C. Fowler of Statesville, N. C., reached the city yesterday and will remain several days here.

Mr. C. W. Ellis arrived yesterday and will spend sometime in the city.

Mr. R. P. Raymond of Baton Rouge, La., who has been spending several weeks in the city left yesterday for Philadelphia where he expects to complete his course in medicine at the University of Penn. this year.

Mr. Herbert Millard of Asheville is in the city for several days.

Mr. B. F. Gudger of Asheville, who is to succeed Mr. Brown as local manager of the Asheville Telephone Co., reached the city yesterday and will assume charge of the office in the cause of the next few days. Mr. Gudger is now familiarizing himself with the local conditions and will be well prepared to take complete charge after the departure of Mr. Brown. He comes from the same field of work in Asheville where for a long time he has been connected with the same company. No doubt he will fill the position with entire satisfaction to the patrons and the company as well. The people of the city are glad to welcome him into their midst and feel that he will prove to be as popular as his predecessor.

The Postal Telegraph Office which has been keeping open until 10:30 during the summer months will resume former hours, beginning today and the closing hour will now be at 8:00 p. m.

Mrs. E. Z. White and little son of Spartanburg are expected in the city for a stay of several weeks.

Mr. Erskine Daniel of Spartanburg arrived in the city this morning and will spend several days here.

Effective today, the Western Union Telegraph office will resume regular closing hours 8:00 p. m. each night. The all night office will be found at The Southern railway station. Phone messages to nearest all night office without extra charge.

Miss Daisy King who has been visiting friends in Asheville for several days has returned to the city.

Mr. Frank Conder of Asheville has been spending several days in the city visiting his aunt, Mrs. Freeman.

The series of services begun several days ago at the First Baptist church under the direction of Dr. H. H. Hulten are attracting considerable interest among all classes of people and are doing an immense amount of good. Dr. Hulten is one of the leading divines of the state and the power of his eloquence and the charm of his wonderful personality are winning for him a deep and intense interest in the services.

GREAT SERMON LAST NIGHT

Dr. Hulten preached an exceptionally fine sermon last night to a large congregation.

Interest in the meeting grows perceptibly from service to service.

Those who were so fortunate as to be present last night heard one of the finest presentations of the theory and practice of prayer that one hears in a life time.

When a table is laden with choice eatables and people are invited to come and help themselves if they refuse or decline the invitation they are the losers.

Tonight Dr. Hulten preaches on his favorite theme, "The Personal Element in Evangelism." It is safe to predict that the capacity of the First Baptist Church building will be taxed at each service now.

Dr. Hulten to night wants to meet the Teachers and Officers of the Sunday Schools of the city with a view to making Sunday a soul-winning day in the Sunday Schools.

At The Lyric

A large crowd journeyed out last night to pay their debts to the two distinguished gentlemen temporarily sojourning in our midst and were considerably edified in the seeing thereof. Colneels Mutt and Jeff lived up to press notices and won further renown through their fool antics. They will be seen again today along with two other good films, one of which will undoubtedly draw a large crowd. This one is "The Coronation" and will show scenes of unrivalled splendor. The orchestra which has been recently secured is a good collection of musicians and their selections contribute greatly to the success of the show.

JUST PURE WATER.

One of the assets of beautiful Laurel Park is the many springs of crystal water found on the estate. Basin Spring, a photograph of which is reproduced elsewhere in this issue, is one of the best known to the tens of thousands who have visited Hendersonville's playground during the present season. While far less beautiful than the famous Crystal Spring whose limpid waters boil from the solid rock in one of the most picturesque parts of the park, it still has been a favorite camping place for hundreds of picnic parties the past few months. The great old trees shown in the picture have been many years in the growing—possibly they stood guard over the spring while the red men still roamed the primeval forest and the estate's sylvan retreats may have been the scene of many a primitive courtship.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE AT METHODIST CHURCH

The Fourth Quarterly Conference of the First Methodist Church will be held this evening at 8:30 at the church. A full official Board is requested to be present at this meeting which is very important. The public is cordially invited to attend tonight interesting reports of the various work done will be read and no doubt found to be full of interest.

A Correction

The automobile ball will be held on Saturday and not on Friday night, as an unavoidable typographical error in yesterday's Daily Herald announced. The ball will be on Saturday night and is given in honor of the contributors to the Automobile Meet Fund, all of whom are cordially and especially invited to be present.

CONTEST ENDS

The beautiful little range which has created so much interest at Edwards Hardware in the contest which has been running for the past few months among the children of Henderson county will be given away this evening at six o'clock.

The ballot box where thousands of votes have been cast for the many contestants will be opened and counted. The winner of the range will be announced this evening.

With every dollar purchase at Edwards Hardware Company one is entitled to one vote. Votes have been coming in rapidly the last few days of the contest and there will likely be close races among the contestants in this popular contest.

MR. BROWN LEAVES CITY FOR POSITION IN S. C.

Mr. J. Edward Brown, who has been the local manager for the Asheville Telephone Co., in this city for the past three years leaves the 6th of September for Bennettsville, S. C., where he will assume charge of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co., at that place.

Mr. Brown has made numbers of friends in the city during his stay here who will learn of his leaving with universal regret. His pleasing personality and gracious manners have made him a favorite not only among his business connections but among the social set as well.

From the beginning of his work here Mr. Brown has shown extreme consideration in his dealings with the citizens and has always been careful to see that the good service was continually up to the standard. He is indeed well qualified for the position he holds, being both conversant with the nature of the work and possessing that rare tact necessary in dealing with the people in a public capacity. He will be missed. The best wishes of his numerous friends go with him in his new field of labor and it is their sincere hope that the same measure of success which has heretofore attended his efforts will also mark his work in the Palmett state.

Gates' Left $250,000 to Nephew if He Takes a College Degree

Aurora, Ill., Aug. 31.—Henry Baker 21 years old, of St. Charles, Ill., only nephew of the late John W. Gates can testify that "education pays."

By the terms of the late financier' will just read in private today young Baker will get $250,000 if he graduates from college. He is given $10,000 with which to pay his college fees and intends to enter Harvard university this fall.

Mrs. Lucerne Angell, a blind sister-in-law of Mr. Gates, receives $100,000 while her daughter, Dolores Angell 10 years old, is left $100,000 in trust. She gets the principal when she is 2 years old.

C. J. Baker, who married a sister of Gates' wife, receives $25,000 and a farm near St. Charles valued at $50,000. Baker's wife is left $25,000.

According to the St. Charles legatee of Mr. Gates he left an estate of about $33,000,000.

STREETS WILL BE PAVED?

The current rumor on the streets is authority for the statement that asphalt pavement is soon to be placed on some of the principal business streets of the city. It seems that there is some real truth in the report and that in the course of a few weeks both Main and Anderson streets will be paved.

A representative of the Asphalt Company is expected to reach here in a few days and it is very probable that terms will then be made for paving the two streets mentioned. The present condition of these two streets, especially that part of Anderson leading to the station, make it almost imperative that something be done if the former good condition is to be maintained. Visitors are given a rather severe ride in coming from the station to the central part of the city and if some means can be devised whereby this can be remedied then so much better for the widespread reputation of this summer resort of the South.

With these two streets asphalted the many new buildings now projected erected and the street car line in operation, Hendersonville will be more than ever a summer resort next season. She could then offer all that the season demanded in the way of modern conveniences and attractions. The season drawing to a close has been far greater than any preceding one and the season for the year 1911 already gives promise of eclipsing any enjoyed by this city. The people will certainly come, and the present plans are in anticipation of their coming.

Surprises on all sides will greet those returning next year. Among the many good things which the new year promises to see completed or, at least, in process of completion are a new hotel at Laurel Park, Female College located somewhere in the city street railway system, free city delivery of mail, postal saving bank, and, last but by no means least, asphalt pavement on the leading streets. Truly an alluring prospect for both the citizens and the visitors, who come here so regularly that almost the same civic pride actuates their discussions of the resort in their native sections.
