HENDERSONVILLE, N. C., OCTOBER 30, 1916

No. 1.

I. O. O. F.

The members of Ochlawaha Lodge, No. 161, met Tuesday afternoon. At the close of a very interesting business session, John T. Wilkins made a very interesting talk for the good of the order on the subject, "On the Road to Jerico."

M. N. Orr, J. T. Meteer and J. F. Stepp were appointed as a committee to co-operate with the W. O. W. in entertaining the Hon. W. A. Frazier, of Omaha, Nebraska, Sovereign Commander of the Woodmen of the World. Delicious refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, ice cream, cake, coffee and cigars were served under the supervision of L. R. Meteer, to the seventy five members present.

Dr. J. E. Ennis has returned to his home in St. Petersburg, Fla., after spending the summer at his beautiful place in Laurel Park.

Arthur English has gone to Indiana to enter college. He held a position in Glazener's department store.

If you want to get sunshine into your life, help put it in the lives of others. The experiment is simple, try it.

New Residence

Mr. S. Maxwell is having erected a beautiful eight room residence on 5th avenue west. Another indication of the building activity evident in Hendersonville. Our city is pre-eminently a city of homes.

Among the most attractive stores in the city is the Rose Pharmacy---by reason of the beautiful flowers always displayed there. Mr. Rose takes great pride in his flowers and has an assortment of cut flowers and potted plants, arranged to enhance the beauty of an already attractive store. The soda fountain is decorated with cut flowers summer and winter and received many complimentary remarks from numerous tourists visiting our city.

The Rhodes Automobile Co. is a very busy place these days. Recently a car load of Fords were received. These have been sold. Another shipment is expected daily.

Frank Corriher, one of G. M. Glazener's head clerks, has accepted a position in Michigan.

The Chrysanthemum Show and Bazaar, given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church, proved very successful

A. J. Williams has sold his residence near the Southern Railway station and purchased the dwelling house on Sixth avenue East known as the T. B. Carson property. He expects to occupy the house at an early date.

Speaking Tonight

Hon. McKinley Pritchard, Republican District Elector, will speak at the court house to-night (Monday) at 8 o'clock. Everybody, especially the ladies, invited to hear the speaker discuss the important issues of the day.

The wise man sees, hears and thinks. The fool is tickled with the sound of his own voice.

Mrs. G. W. Worley won first prize on the cut flowers, and Mrs. DeShields first on the pot flowers at the Chrysanthemum Show.

Have you seen H. Patterson's Fall and Winter suits and coats? He has some of the finest in town.
