

Office:
2nd Floor
Forrest Building
PHONE 101-J

THE NEWS

OF HENDERSON COUNTY

Subscription
50 cents per year
in Advance
PHONE 101-J

Name changed from VISITOR Nov. 19, 1918.

Vol. 3. No. 7

HENDERSONVILLE, N. C., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1918

50c Per Year

BIG STILL CAPTURED

On December 27, Sheriff Case, T. M. Staton and J. E. Bane, made a raid this side of Saluda, and captured a 85-gallon still, all copper and in first-class shape for making moonshine whiskey. Also poured out 3,000 gallons of beer. There was no one at the still at the time.

WE BOW "DOUBLE."

Miss Beatrice Cobb of the Morganton News-Herald, who resents being called editress, although she is producing one of the best newspapers in the weekly realm and making the poky males of the old school open their eyes, by her progressiveness, comes forth with the following compliment for which we make our most graceful bow:

"The News" is the new name that appears across the front page of what was formerly 'The Visitor,' of Hendersonville. This is one of the first changes to be made in the paper under the ownership of Editor N. M. Hollowell. Mr. Hollowell is one of the best all-round weekly newspaper men in the western part of the state, and his friends of the press will watch with deep interest the progress the News is bound to make under his management.

MISSSES PEDEN ENTERTAIN

Misses Eliza and Dixon Peden entertained on Friday evening, December 28, in honor of their cousins who are their guests, Miss Anna Belle Goodwin and Mr. Bertran Goodwin. The other guests were Misses Helen, Ruth and Bess Child, Margaret Bailey, Margaret Justus, Alice and Lena Latham, Mrs. Child and Mrs. Alexander, Frank Bland, Will Hodges, Harry Sample, Ben Williams and Allan Rhodes.

Miss Goodwin delightfully entertained with piano selections. Many games were enjoyed, one was a contest. Refreshments were served by Misses Peden at the close of the evening's festivities, which consisted of ice cream and cake. The house was beautiful with the usual Christmas decorations.

DINNER PARTY

The dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. J. Mack Rhodes, on Tuesday evening, December 24, was a delightful social affair. Holly and Christmas bells were used for the decorations. Covers were laid for twelve guests which included the following: Misses Gladys and Louise Hodges, Alice and Lena Latham, Bess and Helen Child and Ruth Wooten. Later in the evening there was an unexpected visit from several young men. Music and games added to the evening's pleasures. Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes are constantly sharing their hospitality with their friends and know how to give them a good time.

Mrs. George Valentine has returned from New York where she visited her sister.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. Alexander from the Blue Ridge School for Boys is an invited guest of the Misses Peden for the holidays.

Miss Birdie West is reported as being sick with influenza at her sister's home in Knoxville, Tenn.

Major Oglesby, one of the physicians at Plattsburg, N. Y., has returned to his work after spending the holidays at the Kentucky Home with his family who are there for the winter.

Lieut. C. G. Barr spent Christmas here with his family. Mrs. Barr and children are leaving this week for Georgetown, S. C.

An informal dance was given at Marlboro Villa on Friday evening, December 27, by Mrs. Ethel Coleson a guest of the Villa.

Rev. Mr. Cody, a native of Henderson county, who has just returned from the seminary, conducted the 11 o'clock service at St. James Episcopal church on Sunday morning. Rev. Mr. Codey will serve a parish soon.

Mrs. Burnice Eans has returned to her home at Mullins, S. C., after spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Grainger.

Mrs. A. E. Hart has been the guest of her cousin, Edile Pike, at Laurel Park.

John Begg has returned to Spartanburg, after a visit to his mother and sister, Mrs. J. F. Brooks.

Mrs. J. F. Brooks entertained the members of the choir from the First Baptist church last Thursday evening.

On Tuesday afternoon, December 24, Margaret Kevohan entertained her little friends by giving them a Christmas tree at her home.

The dance given by Mrs. E. H. Allison at her home on Fifth avenue, Tuesday evening, December 24, was one of the largest social events of the season. The guests numbered about 150 and wore evening costumes. The decorations were appropriate to the season. Punch, cake and mints were served throughout the evening.

Misses Eliza and Dixon Peden have as their guests their cousins, Mr. and Miss Goodwin from Arkansas.

Nat Walker, formerly with McClellan's 5. 10 and 25c store arrived in New York from France not long ago.

Hon. M. L. Shipman and family are spending the holidays here.

PERSONAL MENTION

Hugh Waldrop who is stationed at Camp Polk, Raleigh, N. C., arrived on Saturday for a visit to his mother and other relatives.

H. H. Ewbank, traveling salesman for Park-Davis Drug Co., is spending the holidays with his family on Fourth avenue.

Willie Laws from Orange City, Fla., is spending the holidays with his mother on Fifth Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Razook have gone to St. Augustine, Fla., and will open an oriental shop similar to the one they had here.

Misses Lily and Jessine Brooks are visiting near Charleston, S. C.

Glenard Harris entertained quite a number of his friends with a rook party one evening recently.

Miss Harriette Dittmer was made happy on Christmas day by the gifts that were showered upon her by many friends. Miss Dittmer has been an invalid for months and has been confined to her bed for some time.

Born, to Rev. and Mrs. Raymond Browning, a daughter on Sunday, December 29.

Miss Lilian Clouse is spending her vacation in Asheville with relatives.

Miss Ethel Manders is spending the holidays with relatives and friends in Sumpter and Charleston, S. C.

Roy Bennett, who is stationed at Fort Caswell, spent his furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Bennett.

Lewis Potts, from Camp Sevier, spent Christmas with his mother, Mrs. Charles Potts on Fifth avenue.

Mrs. H. L. Grainger and two children are visiting in Mullins, S. C.

Miss Eleanor Sargept, after spending the holidays at home, returns today to the Woman's College in Columbia, S. C.

Mrs. George Iltis, a sister of Mrs. Sargept, at Laurel Park, arrived Friday from Memphis, Tenn. The sisters had not seen each other for 13 years.

Miss Dorothy Barrows, who came from Washington, D. C., to spend holidays with her mother, returns on Wednesday to her work in the Internal Revenue department.

Mrs. W. S. Miller has as her guests for the winter, her aunt, Mrs. Sade Pasley and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Price, from Hubbard, O.

W. O. W. BANQUET

All Woodmen of the World, of White Pine Camp No. 213 are requested to be present at their hall on Thursday night, January 2nd, for a banquet and installation of officers.

As this the beginning of the New Year all are urged to be present and start the New Year off right. Visiting brethren are invited to attend.

BRYSON MARKHAM DEAD

Bryson Markman, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Floyd Jackson, died December 12, at his home near Cedar Mountain and was buried the Saturday following at Mud Creek. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Morgan. Mr. Markman is survived by his wife and three children.

MISS MILLER DEAD

Miss Mary Miller, who has been so ill at Patton Memorial hospital, died on Sunday. Miss Miller was a sister of the late Mrs. T. M. Smith and made her home with her and later with her niece, Mrs. Caldwell. She was 85 years old. The funeral services were conducted, by her pastor, Rev. J. L. Ligon, at the house and the interment was at Oakdale cemetery on Monday afternoon.

'POSSUM HUNT

The 'possum hunt given by J. Mack Rhodes, one evening recently was thoroughly enjoyed by these young people: Misses Helen and Bess Child, Alice and Lena Latham, Gladys, Louise and Virginia Hodges, Ruth Wooten, Jean Williams, Reese Pope, Allen, Gaither and Cecil Rhodes.

DINNER PARTY

On Thursday evening, December 26, Miss Dorothy Waldrop was hostess at a dinner party given at her home in honor of her guest, Miss Hines. The other guests were Miss Mary Carol Bland, Gladys Waldrop, Frank Bland, William Penny, Will Hodges and Paul Waldrop. The dinner was excellently served in four courses.

Supt. G. W. Bradshaw arrived Friday afternoon from Ivor, Va., where he spent part of his vacation.

Mrs. W. Reddin Kirk is out again after being on the sick list for several days.

Mrs. A. S. Truex is reported as being just a little better than she was last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Valley motored to Greenville, S. C. last Saturday for the week-end. They will bring their daughter, Margaret, back with them.

Miss Kate Dotson leaves this week for Raleigh, N. C., where she will enter Peace Institute.