Harry Stoliker Celebrates

Master Harry Stoliker, son of Mrs. H. O. Stoliker of Dayton, O., who is stopping at the La Motte house, celebrated his fourth birthday Wednesday afternoon, April 2, with a party. The children played several games, then kodak pictures were taken of them after which they were served refreshments. Miss Ernestine Cain and Mrs. E. Bailey assisted in serving. The dining room was prettily decorated in pink and green. Around the table hidden among the flowers were nests of Easter eggs. Tiny pink rosebud holders contained candy while in the center of the table was the large white birthday cake with its four pink candles. The place cards were hand painted. Music for the occasion was furnished by Mrs. J. Lummus. The guests were: William, Isabel and Roy Keith, Jr., Mary and William Bangs, Robert Robards, Jr., Elmer Gill, Roman Cone, Annie, Louise and Sarah Lummus.

Mr. Ewbank's Syllabub Safe

We wish to inform Brother Hollowell, of The News of Henderson county, that the joke is on the editor of this paper. We recently told him we would endeavor to ascertain if there was any "syllabub" running at large in Polk county. Imagine our consternation when our good wife, who has been away on a visit all winter, told us on reading our little squib that she had been feeding me on "syllabub" for a long time. Such being the case, Brother Hollowell, we guarantee that it has no dangerous effects, or at least it has failed to put us to the bad.—Tryon News.
