HOLTON NOT TO PROSECUTE. Judge Lunsford, of Virginia Will Conduct Case of Representative Blackburn at Greensboro.

Washington, D. C., March 27.—Judge Lunsford L. Lewis, United States District Attorney for the Eastern District of Virginia, will, in all probability, conduct the government case at the trial of Representative Blackburn, fifteen days hence in Greensboro. The selection of the prosecuting attorney will not be announced for several days, but the information comes pretty straight that Judge Lewis has been selected as the most available prosecutor from the names of a half dozen district attorneys who have been considered.

Judge Lewis was the Republican nominee for Governor against Claude Swanson, having resigned the district attorneyship to make the race, and was reappointed after the election. He is a man of ability and is regarded as a strong prosecutor by the Department of Justice. He is hardly as aggressive as Holton, but it is said for him that he fights his legal battles to a finish.

It is possible that an attorney from the Department of Justice will also take a hand in the prosecution, though the present arrangement is to place the government's case in Judge Lewis' hands. Mr. Holton will be on hand and will give the government attorneys the benefit of his counsel and advice.

The selection of a non-resident attorney to prosecute Blackburn is significant in that it shows that the government is behind the case and not District Attorney Holton.

The Boyd letter to Judge Pritchard, in which the former Assistant Attorney General of the Department of Justice advised that there was no violation of law in a congressman practicing before a department of the government, is to be sprung on the public shortly. It is said that Judge Boyd had a copy of the letter with him when here several days since. The letter purports to be dated Salisbury and not Washington.—T. J. Pence, in News & Observer.

IT SHALL NOT GO BEGGING.

Prof. J. J. Britt Would Take Republican Nomination for Congress.

Assistant District Attorney J. J. Britt said today that the published statement to the effect that he had declined to be a candidate for the republican congressional nomination in the tenth district this year was an error. Mr. Britt said that he had not authorized such a statement. Asked if this meant he would be a candidate, the assistant district attorney said that he had not fully determined his course but that in all probability his name would be presented to the nominating convention.

If Mr. Britt desires the nomination there is little in the way of his securing the coveted honor. He is practically the only available candidate thus far who has so much as considered the nomination. Mr. Britt has many friends in western North Carolina who have interested themselves in his behalf and who desire to secure for the Asheville man the nomination.

There is a wide difference of opinion among the rank and file of the party relative to the chances of the republicans have of carrying the district this year. There are no few who believe or profess to believe, that the factions will get together before the day of election and give loyal support to the nominee. Others declare that there is no such thing as the factions getting together; that the breach is too wide to be closed, and that he who accepts the congressional nomination is doomed to defeat.—Gazette-News.

Don't tie a cough or a cold up in your system by taking a remedy that binds the bowels. Take Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It is different from all other cough syrups. It is better. It opens the bowels—expels all cold from the system, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. An ideal remedy for young and old. Children like it. Sold by F. V. Hunter.

Highpoint (N. C.) Union wood-workers are refused employment by manufacturers.

Nothing will relieve indigestion that is not a thorough digestant. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, and allows the stomach to rest—recuperate—grow strong again. A few doses of Kodol after meals will soon restore the stomach and digestive organs to a full performance of their functions naturally. Sold by F. V. Hunter.

DOOR CLOSED TO BLACKBURN. The Indicted Congressman is no Longer Recognized at the White House.

The Washington Correspondent of the Raleigh News and Observer has this: There is no longer any doubt of the fact that the administration has denied Representative Blackburn the privilege of dispensing patronage in his district by reason of his indictment by a Federal grand jury.

This action on the part of the administration is taking from the congressman from the eighth district his most valuable prerogative was perhaps responsible for his absence from the house today when the insurgents were making a desperate effort to concur in the secede amendments, so as to defeat finally post statehood for Arizona and New Mexico.

The absence of the North Carolina Congressman was noticeable for the reason that he voted with the administration when the statehood bill was originally before the house in return for two appointments given him by the president, namely, the Greensboro and Goldsboro postmasterhips. Since then Mr. Roosevelt has turned on Mr. Blackburn, who evidently did not consider that he was under further obligation to support administration measures.

There were a number of anxious inquiries for Mr. Blackburn while the vote was being taken, but he did not show up at the capitol during the day.

It is said that Mr. Blackburn will make no further recommendations for the distribution of patronage, realizing as he does that all administration influences are against him. His first recommendation after his indictment was that of Postmaster Ramsey for reappointment at Salisbury. It has been ignored entirely. In the case of Postmaster Loug, of Statesville, he did make a recommendation, but State Chairman Rollins pulled that official through with his O.K.

THE CONFEDERATE REUNION.

Will Be Held in New Orleans Beginning April 25.

The 16th annual reunion of Confederate Veterans will be held in New Orleans, April 25, 26 and 27. Unusual preparations are being made to entertain, in the most enjoyable way, those attending. It is just the right season for that climate, and many of us know what that historic old city can do for giving an old soldier a good time. The "Director General" says: "The three days and nights will be crowded with interesting events."

The usual free entertainment to all Veterans desiring it. The Veterans' rate of one cent a mile each way will be given by the railroads, making fare from Asheville $14.90 round trip. Tickets on sale 22 to 25 inclusive Good until 30th, with privilege of extension in New Orleans to 21st of May by paying an additional 50 cents. Parties wishing to go further or make any side trips will be allowed half rates. Stop-over privileges will be allowed anywhere.

The routes and schedules via Spangenberg and Chattanooga have each been thoroughly considered and that by Chattanooga, thence by Queen & Crescent, via Birmingham, Tusculocosa and Meridian thought best suited to meet persons going from here, and the purpose now is to take the midnight train from here on Monday, April 23, reaching Chattanooga for breakfast Tuesday morning, spending the day there in visiting Chickamauga battlefield. Lookout Mountain, Missionary Ridge, Confederate and National cemeteries, and arriving in New Orleans on Wednesday morning for breakfast. The visit to Chickamauga, Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge is worth the entire expense of the whole trip. Nowhere else can half so much be seen and learned in the time, as to the stirring events of the war; three battlefields to look over and possibly three thousand monuments and markers to be seen, the additional expense incurred less than one dollar.

On return from New Orleans, by leaving there in the morning, the order of travel can be changed and that part of route gone over at night made in daytime. J. M. RAY, Brig Gen. U. C. V.

J. B. Carroll, Culpepper, Va., writes: "I have for upwards of thirty years handled your Wadsworth paints, have used the same in painting my own property with entire satisfaction, and in comparison with other prepared paints have preference for Wadsworth for covering more surface with less cost and have found it to cover more surface than white lead and to last much longer." When you need paints call on or write, Wilson Mercantile Co., dealers, or King Paint Manufacturing Company, Brooklyn, N. Y.
