EXTORTIONATE PRICES AND THE TARIFF.

On May 28d, Mr. Aldrich reported from the Senate Committee on Finance a joint resolution providing "That purchasers of material and equipment for use in the construction of the Panama Canal shall be restricted to articles of domestic production and manufacture, unless the president shall, in any case, deem the bids or tenders therefor to be extortionate or unreasonable."

The practice of giving the president power to suspend the operation of a general law for a particular purpose is contrary to our theory of government; and if this resolution passes it will constitute a very dangerous precedent. If domestic manufacturers charge extortionate prices, the general tariff law which allows them to do so should be repealed.

WHY NOT?

If the government of the United States may buy supplies in the cheapest market, as it has been doing of late, without paying Dingley duties, why mayn't the rest of us enjoy the same privilege? Why should not the States be allowed to buy cement and other building materials abroad for their own use? Why should not the cities and towns have the same right? Why shouldn't every man be allowed to save his money by purchasing at the lowest price? The only fair answer to these questions is that the Carnegies, Schwabs, Havemyers, Duponts, and the like, won't let their republican friends in congress give us a square deal.

When the whole truth is known about the corruption of the Pennsylvania and other railroads the grafting of the life insurance officials will sink into insignificance in comparison. How much the railroads have contributed to republican campaign funds in cash and how much in transportation for speakers and "workers" will probably never be known in its entirety, but an investigation by a democratic congress will make mighty interesting reading and open the people's eyes to corporation corruption.

The magazine muck rakers failed to discover the rich bed which the Interstate Commerce Commission has just uncovered in its investigation of the Pennsylvania and the Baltimore and Ohio companies. No doubt, they will have the consolation of knowing that the Supreme Court of the United States can't even see a muck bed when it is pointed out to them, if those particular railroad companies are mixed up in it.

There seems to be more trouble brewing between the senate and the president over the type of canal to be built at Panama. The senate fears earthquakes will put the lock type out of business, and Teddy fears that some one else will get the credit for infallible wisdom besides himself. The people who are paying the bills fear they will never see the canal finished, either lock, or sea level.

If all the republican senators were like Mr. Fulton of Oregon, the country would escape unnumbered evils. "I have looked over Senator Fulton's record in congress," said Mr. Rayner recently, "and I find that he never offered anything of any sort at any time." Being the only republican member of congress from Oregon in either house, who has escaped indictment for land frauds, may account for his modesty.

The last eruption of Mount Teddy was notable for the vast amount of noxious gases emitted. Tillman accurately, as well as poetically, described the effect of it, when he said: "I counted two and seventy stenches, all well defined, and several stinks."

No wonder the price of coal is high. The railroad officials are bleeding the operators and with the freight rate put at "all the traffic will bear" and the tariff tax on coal preventing competition, it's a continual rake off for some one from the time it is mined until paid for by the plundered consumer.

Men who cannot control the actions of their own children are in poor business trying to influence other people to vote against good men.

The democrats of Hendersonville have spoken in the primaries and their choice for Congress will be the man who is nominated by the convention when it meets.

It is disgusting to fair minded men to see individuals who are tainted with radicalism taking part in democratic primaries.

And still some people are not what they seem.

Outwits the Surgeon.

A complication of female troubles, with catarrh of the stomach and bowels, had reduced Mrs. Thos. S. Austin, of Leavenworth, Ind., to such a deplorable condition, that her doctor advised an operation; but her husband fearing fatal results, postponed this to try Electric Bitters; and to the amazement of all who knew her, this medicine completely cured her. Guaranteed cure for torpid liver, kidney disease, biliousness, jaundice, chills and fever, general debility, nervousness and blood poisoning. Best tonic made. Price 50c at Justus' Pharmacy. Try it.

Horse Shoe Happenings.

Rev. P. C. Battle's brother, of Bryson City, N. C., visited him at Mills River parsonage on last Friday and Saturday, attended church at Horse Shoe chapel on Sunday, and returned home first of the week.

We are now greeted by the whistle of about eight trains daily on the Transylvania division of the Southern, as per the recently adopted new schedule.

Mr. A. M. Brannon's daughter, Lillie, has been very sick. Drs. Egerton, Kirk, Greenwood and Brown have been in attendance and consultation. She is better.

Ice cold soda water is dispensed from the recently vacated office of Dr. Pinner on Main street, opposite the post office, and just east of the Davenport block, in Horse Shoe. Call when passing through our burg. Don't fail to take in the floral attractions of Elk Cottage.

W. B. Ldbetter has cabbage grown on his farm near Horse Shoe for sale; his early beans and tomatoes are in full bloom.

Miss Sue Cannon pleasantly entertained the Misses Morris, of Hendersonville, at her home on Saturday evening and Sunday.

Miss Callie Morgan visited the pleasant home of Rev. P. C. Battle at the parsonage this week.

Wheat herabouts is putting on the golden tints of harvest, and promises to be good.

On last Sabbath, we had a strongly characteristic and pointed sermon from Pastor Battle, on the text "Let brotherly love outlive." This divine is a swift witness against the wrong and for the right. ROFF.

The County Fair.

The premium list for the fair is now being printed by this office. It is of interest to note, by the way, that the premiums this year have been doubled in every department. The State Board of Agriculture, for 1907, will offer a prize of $100 for the largest and best and most tastefully arranged display of Agricultural products from any one farm. and a prize of $50 for the second best display.

Gov. Glenn will be here and make an address on Educational Day.

Every indication points towards a larger, finer and better Fair, in every way, this year than ever before, and there is a general and wide-spread interest being taken in everything pertaining to it.

Bad Stomach Makes Bad Blood.

You can not make sweet butter in a foul, unclear churn. The stomach serves as a churn in which to agitate, work up and disintegrate our food as it is being digested. If it be weak, sluggish and flogged the result will be torpid, sluggish liver and bad, impure blood.

The ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are just such as best serve to correct and cure all such derangements. It is made up without a drop of alcohol in its composition; chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead of the commonly employed alcohol. Now this glycerine is of itself a valuable medicine, instead of a deleterious agent like alcohol, especially in the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia and the various forms of indigestion. Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says of it:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. It is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs; especially those in which there is catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach). It is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric acidity. It is useful in chronic intestinal dyspepsia, especially the flatulent variety, and in certain forms of chronic constipation, stimulating the secretory and excretory functions of the intestinal glands."

When combined, in just the right proportions, with Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Queen's root, Blood-root and Mandrake root, or the extracts of these, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, there can be no doubt of its great efficacy in the cure of all stomach, liver and intestinal disorders and derangements. These several ingredients have the strongest endorsement in all such cases of such eminent medical leaders as Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, Chicago; Prof. Hobart A. Hare, M. D., of Medical Department, University of Pa.; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Medical Department, University of New York; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., Hahnemann Medical College, Chicago; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., and Prof. John King, M. D., Authors of the American Dispensatory, and scores of others among the leading medical men of our land. Who can doubt the curative virtues of a medicine the ingredients of which have such a professional endorsement? Constipation cured by Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. One or two a dose.

We will convince you that you can "increase your yields per acre" and you won't have to keep it a secret, either. Read what Messrs. Wherry & Son, of the Magnolia Fruit Farm, Durant, Miss., write: "From two acres of strawberries, on which 1,000 pounds of Virginia-Carolina Fertilizers per acre were used, we cleared a profit of $75.00 per acre more than the other 14 acres of strawberries which had only 500 pounds of this fertilizer." Thus double the quantity of these fertilizers on each acre of any crop, and more than doubly "increase your yields per acre." Be sure you buy only Virginia-Carolina Fertilizers.
