TEN MORE DAYS Sale will Continue TEN MORE DAYS
Starting Dec. 8 ending 18

The success of our opening has been marked by the low prices which we have initiated and has surely been attested by the colossal sales each day.

People for miles and miles around have attended, some coming to town for the first time in 20 years, and verily, they did not come in vain, for even if their purses were slim their haversacks and baskets were filled.

The great opening sale of the LIBERTY BELL will continue for 10 days more. By a special request from a host of satisfied customers and pledged patrons. THE LIBERTY BELL has agreed to continue the great unparalleled landslide sale for 10 more days

Beginning Dec. 8th
Ending Dec. 18th.

The sound of the LIBERTY BELL has resounded from hilltop to hilltop and the people have given their hearty response. They have come to see for themselves and their's was the prize.

The people have reposed in us their confidence and the public at large have set their seal of approval upon our business methods.

We have come to Hendersonville to stay. What the people shall desire shall be gratified.

We Have Come, ^{We have seen} We have Conquered

We have been selling at a tremendous rapid rate, everything, has been sacrificed to attain a rock bottom estimate in prices, and the values we have given during these 10 days have surprised, astonished, astounded the disbeliever. But now, think of it! Another 10 days that will surpass by far the first 10 days.
