Light Contract

The contract between the city and R. M. Oates has been signed. It is practically the same as the Hustler had last week, without any material changes. Runs for two years from Dec. 1, 1907, with privilege of three more. There are ample precautions taken by the city authorities to insure good service. The previous contract contained no such provisions. Mr. Oates has an investment of over $40,000 and is spending many more thousands now. The contract is a fair one and seems to give general satisfaction.

McD. Ray was the company's attorney.

The Hotel Gates.

The Hotel Gates will open on Nov. 2, next Saturday, with Mr. Wm. Hewitt in charge as lessee and manager. Mr. Hewitt will keep the hotel open the year round, which is a good thing for the town, and will maintain the high standard of excellence set by Mr. A. A. Gates. It will be a strictly first class commercial, tourist and family hostelry. Mr. A. A. Gates, who has been in town the past few days arranging the details of the transaction with Mr. Hewitt, will devote his time to his large interests in Greenville. Mr. Gates, with his charming family, have made scores of sincere friends in Hendersonville, and has done more to advertise the town than any other one individual.

The farmers of Henderson county report the finest crops they have experienced for years. This is good news. "The farmer is the man who feeds 'em all" any way and when he reapes a rich harvest the world is glad. Long live the honest tiller of the soil.

Henderson for Good Hunting!

A party of twelve hunters, amongst them being Monroes Lyda, Scott Freeman, John Lyda and Bill Goves, have just returned from a trip to Black Mountain. They had excellent sport, getting plenty of rabbits, squirrels and coons, and also had the pleasure of running a big bear for twelve miles. Mr. Bear, however, being able to read, took refuge on posted land and so escaped the hunters.

Double Wedding.

A double wedding is scheduled for next week, Nov. 5th, when Miss Eva Douglas-Smith and Mr. Earle G. Stillwell, and Miss Helen Smith and Mr. John W. Grimes will be married at the home of the brides, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Smith.

The wedding will be very quiet, only the immediate relatives of the family being present.

Mrs. Ivins and Mrs. Egerton gave a linen shower for the young brides-to-be, at Mrs. Egerton's home, on Thursday.

Back from Jamestown
Brownlow Jackson, J. D. Boyd and R. P. Freeman returned Sunday evening from Jamestown, where they said they had a good time. While there they met Rufus Kay, brother of McD. Ray, to whom they are indebted for many courtesies shown them while at the big show.

Medical Society

The tenth district medical society, which will hold their second semi-annual session at the Court House, on Nov. 5, will hold three sessions; at 4.30 p. m., at night, and the next morning if necessary. A very interesting program has been arranged and some excellent papers will be read. You are invited and requested to be present.
