VOL. XVII, No. 16

STRICTLY Personal

F. G. Hart and family have returned from Florida.

The Hendersonville Brick and Tile Co. start operations this week.

J. B. Lamb and J. G. Laughter of Horace were in town Saturday.

Temperance Rally meeting at the Court House, Friday evening at 8, p. m. Let everybody come out.

The roof of a building owned by T. M. McCulloch was partially burned on Tuesday afternoon. Damage small.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Barrows, with their daughter Dorothy, are guests of Rev. and Mrs. R. N. Wilcox.

The shortcomings of this week's issue will be excused by our readers. The associate editor has been otherwise engaged.

Thos. Vaughn, age 70, and Ellen Rhodes, 83 were married by Squire G. B. Lyda, of Route 2, last week, and were serenaded hard on Saturday night last.

Miss Madge Dunlap has done broke the record. Sold ten top pieces for ladies at Mrs. Hart's, Tuesday, in two hours. That means ten bills for some men.

Rev. R. B. Grinnan, accompanied by Dr. Carson, left on Tuesday for Hazelwood, Haywood county, to attend a meeting of the Asheville Presbytery. They will return Friday.

Mrs. Ouit Logan of Chimney Rock, was a visitor in the city last week and was the guest of Mrs. F. V. Hunter. She took the evening train for Montgomery, Ala., her old home where she visits relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ladson were here from the Mills River section on Tuesday and paid this office a pleasant call. Said they could not think of doing without the Hustler and extended their subscription to Jan. 1, 1909. Mr. Ladson has been an appreciative reader of the paper for the past ten years.

D. L. Johnson, of Mills River, an old Confederate soldier, died last Thursday, April 9th, aged 69 years. The funeral services were held Friday and were conducted by Rev. Williams. A wife and nine children survive him. The pall bearers were old Confederate soldiers. Mr. Johnson was born and raised in Mills River. As a gallant Confederate soldier he leaves a record hardly surpassed. He was a public spirited man, of great heart and was universally loved. There were over 500 people present at the funeral and their grief was uncontrolled.

Make Claude Brown an offer on three beautiful lots on Broad street, (part of Rickman property) next to the new Hallman house. Try him on the Main street lot, known as the Pickens lot, corner Main and Willow. The most desirable Main street lot in the city. One lot, just one block off Main street, $250. Surrounded by the richest people in Hendersonville. If you are in the market for real estate look up a man that will do business with you. I am land poor and need the money. Remember, I don't deal with children or with minors when I sell dirt.

Mrs. Nan Peaman, Cutler, Ills: "The Hustler is a letter from God's country."

Mrs. C. A. Dameron, Naples: "I admire the independent tone of your paper. I read it with interest, even before my home papers from New Orleans."

The Sidewalks.

The cement walks are now being laid, enough being down to give one an idea of the really wonderful improvement they will make in the town's appearance. Those old forest giants in front of Mrs. Hawkins' property are being cut down. Contractor Jordan is making every effort to push the work.

Damrosch

Negotiations have been completed whereby Walter Damrosch and the New York Symphony Orchestra have been secured for an appearance in the Auditorium at Asheville, on May 2. The famous organization and its distinguished leader are to be brought there by Lou don Charlton, the well known New York impresario, and it is safe to say that the engagement will rank among the most important that the season will offer.

No orchestra leader in America is better known than Walter Damrosch, and none has done more to spread the gospel of music in this country. For over 20 years Mr. Damrosch has labored along the same consistent line, and step by step he has developed the New York Symphony from a struggling organization to a place among the very best orchestras that the country can boast. The orchestra is now aided by a substantial subsidy which has been a tremendous help in bringing it to its present excellence.

As an interpreter of Wagner Damrosch occupies a position altogether unique in America, though he has by no means confined himself exclusively to the works of the great German master. Russian music has likewise claimed much of his attention, while the best of the world's symphonic literature is embraced in his repertory. To music-lovers who appreciate what an inspiring affair a concert by a great symphony orchestra can be, there is no need of emphasizing the importance of the Damrosch engagement, and the announcement is bound to occasion general satisfaction. Only a few cities in this vicinity will be given an opportunity to hear the New York Symphony on the present tour, so the fact that Asheville is included is ground for special congratulation.

Seats can be engaged at Seawell's Pharmacy, on the corner of Haywood and West College streets.

On Thursday night at 8 o'clock, about one hundred knights met in their Hall. The lodge was called to order by Chancellor Commander Harry Duffy. The address of welcome, by Rev. R. N. Wilcox followed, and the visiting brothers were made to feel how heartily welcome they were in Hendersonville. C. F. Fletcher, of Asheville Lodge 106, answered in a few simple words. The rank of Knight in amplified form was then conferred on two candidates, and the team work won the admiration of all the visitors. The representatives from Asheville and Pisgah Lodges were especially loud in their praise of the really excellent work, and very courteously said their own lodges could hardly equal it.

A banquet at the Hotel Gates followed the adjournment of the Lodge, at 10:30.

On Friday, at 10 o'clock a. m., the district meeting was called to order by District Deputy Grand Chancellor J. A. Winn.

Five minute reports from the various lodges followed.

Burnsville Lodge No. 190, represented by W. S. Gardner, reported a membership of 25, with an average attendance at the meetings of about 15. He said there were from 75 to 100 men available.

Talkeestee Lodge, No. 171, represented by Bro. Russell, gave a most interesting and encouraging report. Sixteen months ago this lodge was organized and eleven months later they have a membership of 55 knights, and expect to show 100 before another year. They meet twice a month, and the average attendance is 35. The financial showing was excellent.

Fidelity Lodge No. 148, Marshall, two years old, reported 98 members and a steady growth. The outlook for increased membership was said to be very encouraging.

Lodge No. 143, Brevard, is reported in a most flourishing condition.

Columbus Lodge, No. 114, represented by Brothers Mill and Cloud, received hearty words of encouragement from the Deputy Grand Chancellor and members of the different lodges.

Asheville Lodge 106, represented by C. F. Fletcher, made an interesting report. Membership of this lodge is 248, and there are 18 candidates. They now have a sinking fund of $1,000, and the financial report was excellent.

Pisgah Lodge No. 32, Asheville, represented by Bro. White, has 396 members, the largest in the State. Greensboro, the next largest having 380 on January 1, '08. The rank of esquire was conferred upon 19 candidates during March. The lodge met at 5 in the afternoon, adjourned at 7:45 for lunch, and continued in session from then on, often until midnight. The rank of knight was conferred upon 12, during this month. The lodge is in most excellent financial condition.

The District Grand Chancellor said: "The 18th district is the banner district of North Carolina. There are now 1,148 members in it, a gain of 858 members during the past year. The greatest enthusiasm prevails over the entire district, and this district was the

Gov. Glenn not a Candidate.

Louisburg, N. C., April 15.—In an address here today before 700 people Governor Glenn denounced as false the statements of those newspapers and individuals who had said that he was using the temperance movement as a stepping-stone to any other office in the gift of the people. "When my term of office expires on the eleventh day of January, 1909," declared the Governor, "I expect to return to my home in Forsyth county and try to make an honest living at my profession."

The K. of P. Meeting

The annual meeting of the 18th district Knights of Pythias is now a matter of history, and the visiting Knights will long remember their visit to Hendersonville, where, as District Deputy Grand Chancellor Winn said, they received "a most gracious and heart-felt reception."

Nearly all the lodges of the district were represented. They were taken care of by the local men and were made to feel the honor and pleasure of their presence was fully appreciated, and all went home with a new and a greater enthusiasm for their great order.

On Thursday night at 8 o'clock, about one hundred knights met in their Hall. The lodge was called to order by Chancellor Commander Harry Duffy. The address of welcome, by Rev. R. N. Wilcox followed, and the visiting brothers were made to feel how heartily welcome they were in Hendersonville. C. F. Fletcher, of Asheville Lodge 106, answered in a few simple words. The Banquet

A blaze of lights, reflected again and again from polished silver and snow-white linen. A great Maltese cross, reaching the length and width of the dining room. Noiseless waiters, here, there and everywhere, assisting the Knights to the excellent dishes set before them in such tempting array, with Col. Hewitt keeping an ever-watchful eye on the comfort of his hundred guests.

First the excellent and substantial viands occupied the attention of the visiting and the home Knights, but about the time the delicious egg-nog was served, the first speaker of the night was heard, and from then until the close of the banquet the scores of Knights listened to some of the prettiest talks ever heard in Hendersonville.

'Twas almost two o'clock in the morning when amidst a haze of blue smoke from many cigars, each Knight standing at attention, the banquet ended with the singing of the hymn, "God be with you 'till we meet again."

And to say that the occasion was a happy one, that the feast of food and feast of wit measured up to everyone's expectations, is quite needless. Did not Col. Hewitt provide the one? And as to the other these names speak for themselves, as Wyt Ewbank remarked about the ladies in his delicious response to the toast, "The Bachelor K. P."

A telegram was then from Grand Chancellor Crist, expressing regret "his inability to be present.

Geo. L. Hackney read spoke on "Our Orphanage." He said, in part: "No lodge west of the Ridge has voted against the orphanage. The matter was first agitated five years ago, and there is now over $20,000 in the fund. Last year a new committee was appointed to investigate the matter carefully. The final meeting of the committee will be held in a week or so. There are 75 Pythian orphans in this state, and the sentiment is heartily in favor of having a Pythian Orphanage in which to take care of these children. There are offers from all over the State for the Orphanage, but I know of no better place than Hendersonville."

The district meeting passed a resolution endorsing the establishment of the orphanage. Mr. Hackney said this orphanage would be the best piece of work ever done by North Carolina Pythianism.

C. E. Brooks spoke briefly and to the point on "Our Revival," followed by Rev. R. N. Wilcox in a few remarks on the good of the order.

The exemplification of the secret work by D. L. Jackson was watched closely by the knights. This was followed by adjournment.

Notes

District Deputy Grand Chancellor Winn says that Hendersonville is the banner lodge of the 18th district, and is more than pleased at the great revival here, in the spirit and enthusiasm shown and in the excellent team work. Mr. Winn said: "Get a hundred members and then get the Grand Lodge. You can do it."

Hendersonville will try and get the Orphanage. The local lodge has a definite proposition to submit.

The district is composed of the following: Pisgah, 32, Asheville; Asheville, 106; Columbus, 114; Columbus; Hendersonville, 116; Tryon, 118; Transylvania, 143; Brevard; Estato, 147; Michaelville; Friendship, 148; Marion; Spruce Pine, 171; Spruce Pine; Talkeestee, 185; Fletcher; Burns, 190; Burnsville.

Geo. L. Hackney, of Asheville, is chairman of the orphanage committee and is heartily interested in that great project.

Pisgah Lodge will try to get a new hall by September.

The visiting Knights were delighted with their cordial reception here, and extended hearty invitations to visit their different lodges.

The team work of No. 116 was admired and commended by all.

Hendersonville K. P.'s know how to welcome the stranger Knight.

Bro. Wilkie at the piano was the right man in the right place.

Bad Fire.

The residence of T. R. Barrows, two miles out on the Clear Creek road, was completely destroyed by fire on Sunday afternoon, at 3:00 o'clock.

The contents of the house were practically a complete loss. A rather extensive collection of books were partially destroyed. All wearing apparel, china, cut glass, some jewelry, rugs, linen, etc., were destroyed. The building fell in within 25 minutes after the discovery of the fire.

The building would cost to replace from $2,500 to $3,000. The contents were valued at $2,000. The total insurance is $1800.

To the scores of neighbors who were soon on the scene, for their efforts in trying to save some of the contents of the building, and for their kindly offers of assistance, Mr. and Mrs. Barrows desire to extend their sincere and heartfelt thanks. More especially do they feel indebted to Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Wells, who were present when the fire was discovered, and to Mr. J. S. Holbert, who was the first neighbor to arrive on the scene and who rendered most valuable aid.

MR. CRAWFORD ENDORSED

Buncombe County Enthusiastic For The Tenth District's Able Representative.

The following is a copy of the resolutions of endorsement passed by the democratic county convention on Saturday and instructions to the Buncombe delegates to support Honorable W. T. Crawford for congress.

They were presented by Dr. W. J. Clontz and were adopted with applause and an enthusiasm which shows the high regard in which the talented congressman is held in this city.

HON. W. T. CRAWFORD.

RESOLVED, by the democrats of Buncombe county in convention assembled:

FIRST: That the people of the Tenth Congressional district are to be congratulated that they are represented at Washington by a bold, able, fearless and effective champion and friend of their rights and interests.

SECOND: That we point with pride to his valuable and faithful services and to the large measure of confidence which has been accorded him in the congressional body as evinced by the appointments he has received on some of the most important committees.

THIRD: That his course in congress is endorsed and the delegates to the congressional convention from Buncombe county are hereby instructed to vote for the re-nomination of the Honorable William T. Crawford first, last and alltheims in said convention.—Citizen.

Death of Mrs. Elizabeth L. Heatherly.

Mrs. Elizabeth L. Heatherly, venerable wife of Mr. J. R. Heatherly died at her home at Heatherly's Heights in Green river township at 6 o'clock Tuesday afternoon March 31.

Old age and a complication of diseases was the cause of her death. She had reached the advanced age of 78 years 6 months and 7 days when death called her home.

Until about seventeen months ago she kept remarkably strong and well. At that time she had a severe attack of pneumonia and for many weeks was not expected to live, but being given every possible attention that a beloved mother could receive at the hands of her devoted husband and children she survived the attack, though she never regained her strength sufficiently to be able to walk without assistance. Her family and friends realizing that her days were numbered, did all in their power to make her few remaining days on earth happy ones, and their efforts were not in vain.

She was the last member of a large family. Her father was John McMinn, of this county, who died many years ago. Her brothers were Jesse, James, George, Jefferson and Nathaniel McMinn. The last named died at his home in Brevard about two years ago. All the rest died in Hendersonville or Henderson county many years ago. Her sisters were, Mrs. William Wolf, of Arkansas, Mrs. J. Downing, of Hillsboro, Texas and Mrs. Mary —, of Morris-town, Tenn.

She was the mother of thirteen children, nine of whom are living. Her daughters living are Miss Mack Heatherly, Mrs. W. D. Guice and Mrs. Edward Ward, all of Henderson county. Her sons living are, James M., of Brownwood, Texas, Robert L., of Coolemea, N. C., Clinton J., of Zirconia and Stonewall J., of Saluda. All were with her in her last illness except James M. and Robert L.; the latter arriving after his mother's death. She had one daughter dead, Julia, aged 8. Three sons died before her, George W., aged 3, Jesse N., at the age of 26 and John M. at about the age of 30.

She was a woman of strong mind. She knew how to accomplish things. While for four years her husband was in the war her farm yielded abundantly under her skillful supervision, and the wolf came not near the door.

Mrs. Heatherly was a devoted Christian, being for 64 years a member of Mountain Page Baptist church. Free from cant or vain show of religious things, she was always happy in the rich consolations of her faith in Jesus, and lived a life which is promised a home beyond the stars, where all is peace and happiness and eternal rejoicing. That promise has been redeemed. She is there. The battle is over and she is wearing the crown. We would not call her back to this land of pain and sorrow and grief. "She is not dead, but sleepeth." For such as she:

"There is no death; what seems so is transition. This life of mortal breath Is but a suburb of the life elysian, Whose portal we call death."

She was a faithful, affectionate and devoted wife and mother. She lived for her husband and children, and her only regret to die was that it parted her from them.

The funeral services were conducted at Mountain Page Baptist church, Wednesday afternoon, April 1, by Rev. Rufus Rhodes. The interment was in the cemetery at that place.

Her venerable husband, Mr. J. R. Heatherly, survives her. He is 86 years and 6 months old and enjoying good health.

"Dearest, loved one, we have laid thee In the peaceful grave's embrace, But thy memory shall be cherished 'Till we see thy heavenly face."

A FRIEND.

At that time she had a severe attack of pneumonia and for many weeks was not expected to live, but being given every possible attention that a beloved mother could receive at the hands of her devoted husband and children she survived the attack, though she never regained her strength sufficiently to be able to walk without assistance. Her family and friends realizing that her days were numbered, did all in their power to make her few remaining days on earth happy ones, and their efforts were not in vain.

She was the last member of a large family. Her father was John McMinn, of this county, who died many years ago. Her brothers were Jesse, James, George, Jefferson and Nathaniel McMinn. The last named died at his home in Brevard about two years ago. All the rest died in Hendersonville or Henderson county many years ago. Her sisters were, Mrs. William Wolf, of Arkansas, Mrs. J. Downing, of Hillsboro, Texas and Mrs. Mary —, of Morris-town, Tenn.

She was the mother of thirteen children, nine of whom are living. Her daughters living are Miss Mack Heatherly, Mrs. W. D. Guice and Mrs. Edward Ward, all of Henderson county. Her sons living are, James M., of Brownwood, Texas, Robert L., of Coolemea, N. C., Clinton J., of Zirconia and Stonewall J., of Saluda. All were with her in her last illness except James M. and Robert L.; the latter arriving after his mother's death. She had one daughter dead, Julia, aged 8. Three sons died before her, George W., aged 3, Jesse N., at the age of 26 and John M. at about the age of 30.

She was a woman of strong mind. She knew how to accomplish things. While for four years her husband was in the war her farm yielded abundantly under her skillful supervision, and the wolf came not near the door.

Mrs. Heatherly was a devoted Christian, being for 64 years a member of Mountain Page Baptist church. Free from cant or vain show of religious things, she was always happy in the rich consolations of her faith in Jesus, and lived a life which is promised a home beyond the stars, where all is peace and happiness and eternal rejoicing. That promise has been redeemed. She is there. The battle is over and she is wearing the crown. We would not call her back to this land of pain and sorrow and grief. "She is not dead, but sleepeth." For such as she:

"There is no death; what seems so is transition. This life of mortal breath Is but a suburb of the life elysian, Whose portal we call death."

She was a faithful, affectionate and devoted wife and mother. She lived for her husband and children, and her only regret to die was that it parted her from them.

The funeral services were conducted at Mountain Page Baptist church, Wednesday afternoon, April 1, by Rev. Rufus Rhodes. The interment was in the cemetery at that place.

Her venerable husband, Mr. J. R. Heatherly, survives her. He is 86 years and 6 months old and enjoying good health.

"Dearest, loved one, we have laid thee In the peaceful grave's embrace, But thy memory shall be cherished 'Till we see thy heavenly face."
