The Twin Auctioneers Will Sell At

AUCTION!

on Monday Sept. 14 at 10 A.M.

Rain or Shine the entire contents of Claude Brown's Mammoth Stable. Consisting of 75 to 100 head of horses, all the vehicles, harness, saddles, bridles, blankets and everything in his barn. One car load of new vehicles "buggies and surries" made by Studebaker Bros., 25 sets of new harness, 1 car load of farm wagons.

1 car load of high class horses consigned by Ky.-Tenn. Horse and Mule Co., sold without reserve.

Mr. Brown has signed the contract with us to sell his stuff regardless of price he has used this stuff in livery for seventy five days, they are young sound and ready to go on in home work. We have carefully looked his stable over and can say truthfully we have never seen better horses and rigs. Remember when you quit bidding they will belong to the best bidder, as the livery season is over and every thing will positively be sold. You can get what you want from the pony to the large draft horse, matched teams, saddlers, single horses, and brood mares.

All the above stuff must be as represented.

Valuable Real Estate

THE GRAND AUCTION SALE

of 85 acres of land 2 miles south of this city,

Known as the Marshall Findlay lands. This property will be sold at the court house door at 2:30 p. m. Sept. 14, 1908. We have subdivided this land into tracts containing 8 to 25 acres each. Well wooded, overlooking the city, a fine stream of water and good springs, a beautiful place for country homes near the two lakes now being constructed; just far enough out to avoid city taxes and noises. Any real estate dealer can get in this deal and make plenty of money. Listen to me, you good farmers, don't fail to be with us on this day. Sept. 14, 1908, an all day sale. The city is building this way.

Four of the finest lots in this city will be sold next. This property is on Broad street, part of the Rickman block and the highest elevation in the city, surrounded by the finest homes. Then we go to OVERLOOK HEIGHTS and sell 75 beautiful lots, grand view overlooking almost every home in this beautiful city, you home seekers and money makers can invest here and the returns will be far greater than anything you can find else where. Free carriages. Remember the all day sale, the great amount of stuff to be sold, the gamest man in North Carolina we are selling for. Monday, Sept. 14, 1908, all day sale. Your price is ours.
