suggests that the Department of every instance. Labor and Printing be given the power to inspect the mills and Governor Glenn announced that report with reference to sanitary conditions, in connection with the investigation into the matter of child labor. The Governor calls attention to the fact that there are exceptional cases, having reference to the children of widowed mothers and disabled fathers, upon whose labor their support depends. Such cases are not numerous and a general law should compel the attendance of children in school.

Governor Glenn announced that it was his purpose to become North Carolina's 'Industrial Governor,' but his name will go down in history as our 'Temperance Governor,' which carries more henor with it. Every good woman in the State loves 'Bob' Glenn, on account of the great service he has rendered the temperance forces since he became governor. He has consistently fought the whiskey traffic and is more responsible than any other individual in the State for the conditions that now exist with ance of children in school, conditions that now exist with as the terms continue, each year.
