Mrs. T. B. Graham and Miss Emmie Hunnicutt, of Greenville, S. C., are at Mrs. Thomas'.

Mrs. Wm. Berrie and daughter Miss Lottie Berrie are at the Mountain City Inn.

"The Toy Shop," an excellent entertainment, it is said, will be given at the Auditorium tonight.

The excellent display daily made in Brannon's Bakery window is enough to make a chronic dyspeptic smile.

Mr. A. C. Haltiwanger, of the T. C. Williams Realty Company, is in town, superintending construction work on the Hyman Heights property.

Dr. H. H. Briggs and family, of Asheville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patterson, at their beautiful home, "Pat's Hill" on the Hebron Drive.

The street force is now busy on Park Avenue making necessary repairs. Chairman Morrow states that all weeds, etc., on back streets will be cut down at once.

Mr. and Mrs. John Arledge, Miss Annie Justus, of this city, and Mr. Jeffries of Spartanburg, spent Wednesday the guests of Mrs. J. S. Holbert at her home near town.

Don't forget the Orphan's Picnic at Laurel Park, Aug. 24th. Everybody invited to bring a well-filled basket. The list of amusements is long and there will be speakers of note present.

J. C. Morrow says unless people stop bothering him for his votes in the Hustler Popularity Contest he's going to stop the paper or move to Asheville. Colonel, don't—please don't!

Mrs. C. H. Dorn and Miss Lizzie Dinkins of Sumter, S. C., who are guests at Blue Ridge Inn, spent today in Toxaway where they enjoyed the sight seeing in the beautiful Sapphire Country.

The ladies aid society of the Methodist Church held a successful sale, yesterday, of ladies' handmade articles, cakes and home-made candies, which netted about $38.00. The ladies are well pleased with the results of the sale.

There will be a presentation of Tableau at the Flat Rock Country Club on Thursday, the 19th August at 4:30 p. m. Admission 25 cents. Under the management of Mrs. J. P. K. Bryan. Ladies are requested to come prepared to remove their hats.

The fine Studebaker carriages and harness shown in the big repository, formerly the skating rink, are attracting much attention from visitors here. Manager King states the line of Studebaker vehicles there are about as handsome as will be found anywhere.

James Moore, Jr., after gazing soulfully at the base ball score, yesterday, as marked up in the Daily Hustler window, remarked: "God just told me there was going to be ten innings in that game and he certainly told the truth." James Moore, junior, is 6 years old, a base ball fan and a guest of the Gates.

Notice how, if you are young, if you are a male man with a good thatch of hair on your head, have you noticed how it is now the proper thing to walk in the evening promenade on Main street with your hat in one hand while with the other you gracefully point out the beauties of this town to the fair young girl at your side? Have you noticed this?

FRIDAY

Dr. L. H. Snider's many friends here will regret to hear that he is very ill in a hospital at Asheville.

D. H. Hamby, of Florence, S. C., an old and valued reader of The Hustler, is in town for a few weeks' rest.

"Dry Garbage, City Property," is the legend painted on numerous cans with covers tightly placed on top, and which are strung along Main street.

Five steel row boats were taken out to Kanuga Lake this morning by the Star Dray Co. The Clarke Hardware Company supplied the handsome and solid looking boats.

Miss Julia Rudisell and Miss Vida Mauney, of Cherryville, N. C., have returned home. They have been the welcome guests of Mrs. Davis on Broad street.

Mr. Charley Davis, of Henderson, N. C., the son of Mrs. Jennie Davis, came to town yesterday for a few days stay. His visit was unexpected and therefore the more pleasant.

When men of John Carter's stamp believe that Hendersonville is a good town for investments, there must be a solid foundation for the wonderful growth of this town.

"A liberal reward will be paid to the person supplying information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person who broke this window," is the way a notice reads in the big window of the Wanteska Trust and Banking Co.

Messrs. Clarence Andrews and John Smith of Albemarle, N. C., who have just returned home after spending the week very pleasantly here the guests of the Gates, were very much pleased with Hendersonville and its people.

Osceola Lake is the scene of renewed activity these days. New streets are being worked out and John L. Orr is giving the work his special attention. The big Lake View Hotel has a large crowd of delighted guests who seem perfectly charmed with the new hotel and its magnificent surroundings—a combination of lake and mountain scenery, by the way, which is hardly surpassed anywhere.

Hon. Locke Craig will be one of the prominent speakers who will address the people at the great Orphans' Picnic to be held at Laurel Park on Tuesday, Aug. 24. Rev. R. P. Smith, Rev. J. W. Moore, Hon. H. S. Anderson are the others. There will be an entertainment by the orphans, music, baseball and basket dinner in the Park. Everybody is invited and may count on a good time.

SATURDAY

A good sized flock of sheep was a sight on Main street this morning, being driven to the butchers. It takes thousands of dollars' worth of supplies every day to feed the crowds now in Hendersonville.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Abbott, with the children, are now occupying their Summer home at Flat Rock. Mrs. Abbott has been spending the early part of the season on the New England coast.

The Henderson County Teachers' Association will hold its first annual session August 28, at the County Court House. The meeting will begin at 11 a. All teachers are expected to be present.

Recent arrivals at Kentucky Home are Mr. Wm. R. Lee and wife, of Selma, Ala. Mr. Lee is an admirer of this paper and likes Hendersonville fully as well as he does the Hustler. Glad to see him back and appreciate the interest he manifests in this section.

Congressman John Grant and his private secretary, Mr. G. H. Valentine, are home on a vacation. They will remain here until the opening of Congress in December.

W. D. Christy, so well known here, is seriously ill at his home in Balfour.

Misses Halsey, of Charleston, were here recently looking for a cottage for next summer.

Mrs. John McMakin, of Wellford, S. C., was the guest of Mrs. Gantt last week, as she returned from Toxaway.

Harris Chewing, after spending a week in town with relatives and friends, has returned to Greenville, S. C.

Lawrence Williams, colored, was arrested yesterday for disorderly conduct and will be tried before Mayor Staton this evening.

Attorney White, of Spartanburg is in town investigating the recent death of—Reynolds, killed by Southern freight train.

Mrs. J. E. Banning returned Sunday from Sylva, N. C., accompanied by her sister, Miss Lela Rogers, who will spend a few days in the city.

Mrs. Julian Thomas left yesterday for her home in Fullerton, Cal., after several weeks spent here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. D. Anders.

315 dined at the Gates yesterday and pretty nearly that many today. That popular resort place is alive with guests and aglow with gaiety these days.

The nicest mild smoke imaginable is those Rough Havanas at the Climax cigar store. "Proof of the pudding is found in chewing the bag."

An argument between a colored gentleman and three colored ladies, Sunday night, in front of Dr. Waldrop's, resulted in the colored gentleman knocking down the three colored ladies.

Mrs. Zoro K. Justice and two children, of Davidson, N. C., passed through Hendersonville this morning enroute for Brevard where they will visit for awhile with the parents of Mrs. Justice, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Osborne.

The Flat Rock bridge being not yet completed, and the creek being too high to ford, residents of that beautiful section are obliged to make a wide detour to reach town, add are complaining at the great inconvenience.

F. W. Lott and Miss Alice Lott, of Inda, Miss., the father and sister of W. M. Lott, are his guests at his pleasant Flat Rock home. With them is Mr. M. P. Hatton, of Lumberton, a brother-in-law of Mr. Lott's who will remain for a few days only.

T. B. Carson has returned from Washington, where he has been interviewing the Southern Railway authorities, as to the cross tie situation here. Mr. Carson will have something to tell Henderson county folks in a day or so.

W. A. Smith, esq., made a flying visit to Marion yesterday to visit his sister, Mrs. Pless of Knoxville, who is visiting her son, Mr. J. W. Pless, in the McDowell county seat. Mrs. Smith has been in Marion for several days.

Mrs. "Hi" King the woman who told Zeb Arledge last week that she had killed a man, was fined $5.00 by Squire Hood, Saturday. Mrs. King's allegation about the killing was found to be untrue. She was under the influence of liquor at the time.

The auction sale of these fine Flat Rock lots, belonging to George Justice and John L. Orr, will be held tomorrow. Two free autos will help carry the crowd and Tom Israel will auction the property, which is situated half way between town and Flat Rock.

Col. Sylvester T. Everett, the well known capitalist of Cleveland, Ohio, passed through town this morning enroute to his summer home on the Brevard Railroad. Mr. Everett's home "Forest City" is one of the show places of that big city—a great, massive pile, fashioned after the old English castles.

Geo. W. Tilson, the well-known music man of Asheville, is here today on business. The concern represented so well by Mr. Tilson supplied the splendid new instrument for the First Baptist Church here and that gentleman is largely responsible for the consummation of the deal. George has any number of friends in Hendersonville who wish him all kinds of success.

The Hendersonville Realty Company now has a large force of men at work, continuing the work of beautifying Hyman Heights. The streets are being graded and sidewalks placed, which makes this property the most modern for residential purposes. They have a limited number of lots for sale, which will be offered by their force of salesmen, beginning this week. Their automobile will arrive tomorrow as a mode of conveyance to property.

Editor M. L. Shipman returned to the city this morning from River Bend Farm near Mt. Holly, where he went last Thursday to attend the annual picnic of the River Bend Farm Association. He says fully 3,000 people were in attendance on Friday and pronounces the affair "the biggest thing of the kind that he has ever witnessed." Mr. Shipman thinks Col. R. L. Abernethy, who is at the head of the attraction, deserves great praise for the success he has attained in pulling off these big events annually at River Bend.

Army Deserter Caught.

Pless Fisher, the son of Charley Fisher, a deserter from the United States army, was captured at Upward, Friday by J. H. Brock, taken to Atlanta on the five o'clock train, Saturday, by Brock and Deputy Sheriff Stroup.

Fisher deserted about 13 ago. A reward of $50 was offered for his capture. He has been selling medicine around here for the past year, it is said. Mr. Brock found Fisher in the company of Merritt Blackwell, wanted by the county authorities. Blackwell was armed, Fisher was not. Brock slipped up on them through the underbrush, covered Fisher with his gun and handcuffed him, but Blackwell escaped. Fisher was taken to Fort McPhearson, Atlanta, where he will be tried by court martial.
