The only paper in the county giving ALL the news

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

HENDERSONVILLE, N. C. THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 1910

VOL. XXIV, No. 23

MORNING OR EVENING? AT WHICH TIME DO YOU WANT YOUR PAPER?

Do you want your new Hendersonville daily paper, The Herald, to come to you in the morning or in the evening?

How many yearly subscriptions will you send in if it's a morning paper?

How many if it's an evening paper?

Let us hear from you.

The first issue of the Daily Herald will be out this month. It will be a NEWSPAPER worthy of the town and county which is manifesting so eagerly its disposition to support it.

It is generally appreciated, now, just how much a live daily newspaper will mean to this whole community. It means a Greater Hendersonville, for, every day, it will tell the outside world of the incomparable advantages of this town.

A Greater Henderson County, for it will preach good roads, improved farming methods, induce immigration, and keep the farmers thoroughly posted as to market conditions here and elsewhere.

This is an age of advertising, and municipal corporations no less than private business corporations MUST advertise. A daily paper is absolutely the last word in municipal publicity, and Hendersonville, with every possible natural advantage, needs but the right publicity to become a city of ten thousand within a short time.

The Daily Herald, with proper support from the community, will supply that needed publicity.

MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION AND COTTON CONVENTION

At a special meeting, Tuesday night, the Merchants Association again demonstrated its usefulness to the town.

Suitable badges were ordered printed for the members of the Association.

You can secure your badges and free street car tickets at the office of secretary Merchants Association, in town hall, on Friday morning.

THINKS W. J. COCKE MAN OF THE HOUR.

To the Editor:

The campaign in the Tenth Congressional district from the Democratic portion of the vineyard is fast drawing to a close. Thus far the campaign between the aspirants for the nomination for Congress has been all that party harmony could desire.

The several gentlemen in the race have conducted their fight on a high plane and this will be felt in the November election. It is evident that Hon. William J. Cocke of Buncombe county is still leading in the race. His friends are more enthusiastic today than they have ever been.

They realize that the fight is about over and that Mr. Cocke will be the nominee; also, that when nominated he will defeat John Grant at the polls and represent this district in the next Congress of the United States.

Information from Buncombe county—the battleground—is to the effect that Mr. Cocke will carry that county; that he will have a majority over all his contestants. He has gained rapidly in the district, according to the press and the best information obtainable, during the past several weeks and, months, for that matter, and today he is regarded in every county as the leading candidate and the candidate who will win the nomination.

Relative to the situation and the view that is taken of the campaign in McDowell county, the Marion Progress last week had the following editorial comment and commendation of Mr. Cocke: Cocke Will Defeat John G. Grant.

After a careful investigation we are bold to declare that Hon. William J. Cocke, of Buncombe, is the strongest man in the race for the Democratic Congressional nomination. It is to him that the Democracy must look to bring again this district into the Ten Arrests.

Chief Maxwell and Officer Garren have made ten arrests since being in office—all drunks—all, according to the officers, getting their liquor from the infamous "rye patch" on the Asheville road. This place is outside the corporation limits, therefore outside these officers jurisdiction, but it is NOT outside the county officers jurisdiction!

How much longer?

NEW MACHINE ORDERED

Manager Boyte of the Airdome has bought a new $300 moving picture machine for his popular place of amusement, which will be installed the end of the week.

Biograph pictures, the best, will be shown. Vaudeville will be put on July 1st.

Business Men Meet.

A large number of Hendersonville representative business men met at the court house last Friday and made arrangements for the entertainment of the South Carolina Cotton Manufacturers Association, which meets here next Friday.

Mayor Staton presided. The proceedings were strictly business. Sum of $145 was raised on the spot for the entertainment of the convention and Secretary Drake of the Merchants Association was instructed to solicit further contributions from members of the Association.

An entertainment and a reception committee were appointed. The delegates will be made to feel that they have come to the right town for nothing will be left undone which may in the least contribute to their pleasure while here.

When Hendersonville business men DO get together on any proposition something happens!

V. C. V. Shepherd To Make Final Settlement

V. C. V. SHEPHERD,
Tax Collector.

ENDORSE MIKE SCHENCK, DEMOCRAT, FOR SOLICITOR

To the Democratic Voters of Henderson County:

With no intended disparagement to other aspirants for the honor, we feel that it would be the part of wisdom for the democracy of Henderson County to endorse the candidacy of Mr. Michael Schenck for Solicitor.

He is capable, energetic, scrupulously honest, and possesses every other qualification required in the faithful discharge of the duties incumbent upon a State's attorney. He is an enthusiastic democratic worker and ever holds party success paramount to personal ambition. His name would strengthen the democratic ticket in this section. We need new life in the party and men who have not been before the people can best inspire it.

Mr. Schenck has never before asked the democrats of the county to endorse him for any office, and does not approve the all-too-frequent idea of ambitious individuals rushing into the primaries every two years for whatever position seems to be available. Mr. Schenck has steered clear of party quarrels, and, consequently, has no record of sins of omission or commission to atone for. His candidacy would command the hearty and enthusiastic support of a united party in Henderson County and thus aid in the election of a democrat to congress. "A new broom sweeps clean." Let us name men to office who will be the most acceptable to the voters, regardless of our own personal feelings in such matters.

Devoutly wishing for the success of Mr. Schenck in the democratic primaries on June 25th, and asking the active co-operation of his many other friends who are interested in bringing about such a conclusion, we are

REV. G. S. JONES DEAD $10,000 FOR CHARITY.

Rev. G. S. Jones died at the home of Charles French Toms Monday, June 6, at three o'clock—on the anniversary of his wife's birthday.

Brief services were held at the late residence early Tuesday morning, conducted by Rev. A. I. Justice. The remains, accompanied by C. F. Toms, were taken to Wilmington on the early train.

The funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church in Wilmington on Wednesday, and G. S. Jones now rests by the side of his wife, whom he survived six years.

G. S. Jones was born in Pasquotank county, North Carolina, December 23, 1837. In he married Miss Margaret French, daughter of George R. French, of Wilmington. No children were born of their union.

He came to Hendersonville during the first year of the war. His home for many years was with Mr. and Mrs. Charles French Toms. For about 40 years he had been in the employ of the American Sunday School Union of Philadelphia and during that time had established and aided Sunday schools almost without number. He was at one time pastor of the First Baptist Church here.

The work of this truly Christian gentleman will not cease with his death. In his will he has provided that all his holdings in the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, amounting to over $10,000, be left to the American Sunday School Union for the extension of missionary work.

A life consecrated to humanity, a character absolutely spotless, a mind and heart pure and clean as a little child's, no man was ever more beloved in Henderson County than G. S. Jones.

To him all men were brothers. His invariable courtesy, his kindly smile and cheery words made him universally beloved by high and low. His deeds of charity were without number and that tall, spare frame, long a familiar sight on Main street will be sadly missed, as will be his example of a gentle, pure and Christian life. But

"Heaven portions it thus,
The old mystery dim,—
It is midnight to us—
It is morning to him."

Looks Like Famous Pennsylvania Avenue

"Main street, with its magnificent proportions and superb twenty-foot sidewalks, reminds me forcibly of Washington's famous boulevard, Pennsylvania avenue."

So said Mr. G. W. Ragan, of Gastonia, to a Hustler man, Monday.

Mr. Ragan, one of the most prominent cotton mill men of the South, with his family is occupying Mrs. Wilson's cottage on W. Third Avenue for the season.

It is extremely probable that Mr. Ragan will erect a handsome office building on his recently acquired Main street property, opposite the Hotel Gates, one of the most desirable corners in town.
