

The French Broad Hustler.

Hendersonville, N. C., May 4, 1911

LOCAL AND OTHERWISE.

The board of county commissioners were in session Monday, but nothing more than routine business was transacted.

Mr. J. Henry Jordan has been experimenting in the cattle feeding business for the past few months and has made two shipments of fine cattle to Asheville.

The management feels highly gratified at the patronage given by the people of Hendersonville and will endeavor to give the pleasure seekers a good clean show.

Prof. D. L. Ellis, of Biltmore, was in the city yesterday. He has an application before the school authorities for the position of principal for Hendersonville's graded schools.

The attractions at the Grand are being well attended. The management feels highly gratified at the patronage given by the people of Hendersonville and will endeavor to give the pleasure seekers a good clean show.

Services next Sunday at the First Presbyterian church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. R. B. Grinnan. Morning services at 11 A. M. Sunday school at 9:45. Evening services at 8 o'clock. Everyone is invited to these services.

On Friday evening, May 5, a social will be held at the Baptist parsonage under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society. A musical program has been prepared and a silver offering will be received. All members of the church and congregation are cordially invited.

Mr. L. H. Pollock of Pennsylvania, has leased the bowling alley next to the Candy Kitchen and is having the house repainted and refurnished and is making it an up-to-date place where both ladies and gentlemen will be welcomed.

An exchange says that the biggest trust on earth is the country newspaper. It trusts everybody, gets cussed for trusting, mistrusted for cussing, and if it bursts for trusting, gets cussed for busting. There is but one way to bust this trust—pay your subscription.—Tombstone Epitaph.

When a man in search of a home or business location goes to a town and finds everybody full of hope and enthusiasm over the prospects of the place, he too, soon becomes imbued with the same spirit, drives down his stakes and goes to work with equal interest.—Polk County News.

A gentleman from the country came into the Hustler office a few days ago and said, "I am a republican and you can't make me anything else, but I like to read your paper. Here is the money for another year's subscription and a kitchen set." And that is just the way with lots of 'em. We receive letters as far off as California, saying keep the Hustler coming.

The Young Men's Christian Club have moved into newly fitted up quarters over J. O. Williams store. The first meeting held last week was one of the largest assemblies held since the organization. Fixtures and furniture are being placed in the quarters and in a few weeks the boys will have one of the best fitted club rooms in this part of the state.

Regular services at the First Methodist church next Sunday are as follows: 9:45 A. M. Sunday school conducted by Mr. F. E. Durfee, superintendent. Preaching by the pastor at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M. Epworth League each Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock, conducted by and in the interest of all young people. Service for Bible study and prayer every Wednesday at 8 P. M.

The public is cordially invited to attend these services, while a special welcome is extended to all visitors and strangers to worship here.

Fifty-five towns of 2,000 and more inhabitants are exempted by the Corporation Commission from the requirement for railroad companies to maintain two windows for tickets at stations, one especially for exchanging tickets for mileage. The fact is that about the only stations that are left in the State where the double-window act, which the traveling men fought so far, will apply are Wilmington, Fayetteville, Asheville, Durham, Greensboro, Salisbury, Charlotte, Winston-Salem and Hendersonville. The extra window at Hendersonville was put in Monday.

Among the many new buildings that are being built in and around Hendersonville are the following:

Mrs. M. M. Summey, on Haywood Road, $3,000; Chasley French Toms, four cottages, total cost about $3,000; Mr. Alland Case, cottage near graded school, $1,200; T. B. Cunningham, Batesburg, S. C., and J. P. Matthews, Columbia, S. C., twin bungalow at Laurel Park, $2,000; Mr. W. A. Smith at Laurel Park, $2,500; Mr. T. R. DeShields, Columbia, S. C., on Main street, $5,000; Mr. W. M. McPheeters, Columbia, S. C., on Shaws Creek Road, $4,500, including improvements to grounds; Burnett E. Carter, cottage on Fifth avenue, $1,750; Mr. Harry Jones, Mills River, $1,500; Mrs. H. C. Jones, Mills River, $1,500.

Ribbon and white good sale Monday. Fruit of the loom Domestic 10c. Doors will open at 8 o'clock. 500 pairs ladies oxfords bought in sample lots at 40c off.

G. M. GLAZENER

Everybody who wants to see Hendersonville grow should attend the meeting at the court house tonight.

GLENN AS A BOOSTER

Former Governor Impresses a Fellow Passenger, Who Descants Upon the Numerous Attractions Which Have Made the Old North State Famous in Story and in Song.

A more loyal son to his native state than Ex-Governor R. B. Glenn, cannot be found within the confines of North Carolina. He travels a great deal preaching temperance and pleading for missions and boosts the Old North State "between times." In short, he is a walking advertisement for the South in general and North Carolina in particular. One of many evidences that could be offered in substantiation of this claim is contained in the following contribution to which the space it occupies is given most cheerfully:

Atlanta, Ga., April 22nd.
Ex-Gov. Glenn, Winston-Salem, N. C.
Dear Sir:

It was my pleasure to be a passenger on the same train as yourself recently, making the trip from Greensboro to Winston-Salem. Of course I knew that the Old North State had some good qualities, but little did I dream that she had so many and such extremely high class ones until I sat just in front of you on that train and heard your conversation with another gentleman, evidently from that same good Old North State, and you will pardon me, I hope, if I endeavor to tell you something of how that conversation sounded, for really I was expecting the very next town to have its streets paved with that purest of gold, and I know that had Winston-Salem been twenty miles further up the road, I would have believed it myself and been afraid to walk for fear of treading upon angels.

The moonlight falls the softest,
In Carolina;
The summer days come ofttest
In Carolina;
Friendship is the strongest
Love's light glows the longest
And you always feel the youngest
In Carolina.

The cotton is the whitest
In Carolina;
Life's burdens bear the lightest
In Carolina;
The white folks are the cleanest
The corn whiskey is the meaneast
And the ham is always the leanest
In Carolina.

The red hills are reddest
In Carolina;
The anarchist is deadeast
In Carolina;
Homely girls are fewest
Maidens eyes are blueest
And their hearts they are the trueest
In Carolina.

Strawberries grow the roundest
In Carolina;
The bankers are the soundest
In Carolina;
The game is always gamest
The wardens are the tamest
And the bull dogs are the lamest
In Carolina.

Tobacco grows the tallest
In Carolina;
The taxes are the smallest,
In Carolina;
The counties are the DRYEST
The Highways are the highest
And the policemen are the shyest
In Carolina.

The news is always newest
In Carolina;
POLITICIANS ARE THE FEWEST
In Carolina;
The colleges are thickest
The women are the slickest
And they marry off the quickest
In Carolina.

The water is the clearest
In Carolina;
NI-BEER is the nearest,
In Carolina;
The dove notes are the saddest
The streams dance on the gladdest
And in high water makes you maddest
In Carolina.

The Pine Trees are the pinest
In Carolina;
The Climate is the finest,
In Carolina;
If when Peter lets you thru'
You observe a favored few
Get all you've got with you
They're from North Carolina.

WAKE UP MAN

Tell us are you advertising
In the same old-fashioned way
That your grandpa did before you
And persist "it doesn't pay?"

Think the whole world knows your address
"Cause it hasn't changed in years?
Wouldn't the pathos of such logic
Drive a billy goat to tears?

"Just a card" is all you care for
Hidden, lonesome and unread,
Like the signs upon a tombstone
Telling folks that you are dead.

Wake up man and take a tonic,
Bunch your hits and make a drive,
Run a page, and change your copy,
Advertise and keep alive!

Highway From Charlestown To Hendersonville.

A meeting of the various good road association representatives of every town from Asheville, Hendersonville to Charlestown, S. C., in Columbia, S. C., Wednesday evening for the purpose of making plans for a highway from Charlestown through the mountains of Western North Carolina. The outlined plans have been suggested some time. Active work will begin at once, making it an assured fact that during the coming season many automobiles from the South will come all the way to Hendersonville.

For many years these plans have been suggested by prominent good road advocates. Interest has been aroused both in Hendersonville and Asheville and representatives for both towns were at the meeting Wednesday in Columbia. As to the part of the great highway this county is responsible for there is only a stretch of road from here to Polk county that will need very much additional work. The road from Hendersonville to Asheville is in fairly good condition due to the magnificent grading made last winter by the county changing and supervisors. With a few patches here and there this road can be placed in excellent condition.

P. F. Patton could not attend the meeting held Wednesday but he succeeded in having this city represented at making of a great automobile highway from this city to Charlestown. As to the direct benefit received by Henderson county by such a route anyone can readily see.

The route from Hendersonville to Greenville will also need some work on the part of Henderson county. It is thought that many of the farmers who live along the road will lend their aid in making this route one of the most popular one coming into North Carolina from the South.

The outcome of the meeting held in Columbia will be watched with interest by the people of Hendersonville.

Celebrate Founding of Independent Order Odd Fellows.

Elizabeth City, April 27.—The ninety-second anniversary of the founding of the great order of Independent Odd Fellows will be celebrated here with appropriate ceremonies, Sunday, April 30, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the auditorium of the high school building. An attractive program has been arranged and special committees have about completed their work, insuring the meeting to be most successful and entertaining to the public.

Americans Misdirecting Their Benefactions—Doing More for Filipinos Than for Children Near Their Own Doors.

Washington, April 28.—Americans are doing more for the children of Guam and the Philippine Islands than for those in the Southern mountain districts of this country, declared Miss Martha S. Gielow, of this city, representing the Southern Industrial Educational Association, at the International Congress on Child Welfare, here today. She said children in the Southern mountains of Tennessee were compelled to walk seven miles to school. More than 4,000,000 American children, she said, were being brought up without educational facilities of any sort and in many of these cases with little that tend toward civilization.
