HOME DEMONSTRATION WORK

Girls Are Canvassing Their way to an Education. Reports are coming in of the girls who have helped to keep themselves at school this year with the profits made from the summer's work in canning and preserving.

Miss Jessie Maske, of Anson county, is at Meredith because of her success in canning. Miss Leah Kendall has been given a scholarship to Littleton for helping with the canning there this fall. Misses Ruth and Virginia Jones and Annie Bell Smith are at Albemarle Industrial School by the help of their canned products.

In Wake County Miss Esther Shearson and Miss Rennie Caudie, through the same means, are maintaining themselves at Peace, Dr. Ramsey, of Peace Institute has been so much interested in these Canning Club girls that he has offered a scholarship, giving not only the regular course, but any extra which the winner may choose. Miss May Shearson and Miss Grace Batts are equally fortunate in arranging to go to the State Normal College at Greensboro.

In Franklin County Misses Monnie and Mary Stallings filled 1,000 tin cans each and are using the profits for tuition at college.

Miss Annie Garris, of Northampton, has taken her products to Murfreesboro in exchange for her tuition. In many other counties similar accounts of girls at school are sent and we hope to be able to report, when all returns are in, a large number of North Carolina girls receiving an education through their own efforts at canning and preserving and their business ability in marketing what they have produced.

State Board of Health Employs Prosecuting Agent.

The Bureau of Vital Statistics of the State Board of Health closed a contract today with Mr. J. A. McIntyre, of Mount Olive, wherein the latter becomes prosecuting agent for the Vital Statistics Bureau in North Carolina. Mr. McIntyre is ex-deputy sheriff of Wayne County, a former local registrar, and a young man fully equipped for this particular work. He starts on his first trip Monday, October 4, to visit those counties where incomplete registration is suspected. His itinerary will be arranged altogether by the Bureau of Vital Statistics in accordance with those counties reporting low death rates, that is to say, those counties that rest under suspicion of incomplete registration. Mr. McIntyre will travel by motor cycle, which will enable him not only to hold down traveling expenses, but to reach the remotest districts of this State.

"The State Board of Health is determined to enforce the State registration law," declared the Secretary of the State Board today. Mr. McIntyre's continuance in office will be based on his ability to find infringements of this law and to secure convictions. In addition to knowing where people are dying and the relative importance of the various causes of their deaths, the Board proposes to secure good standing with the United States Bureau of the Census and to be admitted as a registration state. To this end the Bureau will employ county and district agents in addition to the State agent, to find and prosecute violators of the Vital Statistics law.

Musical Note.

Hokus—Old Gotrox is devoted to music. There is a clause in his will leaving $25,000 to establish a home for poor singers. Pokus—How inadequate. Twenty-five millions wouldn't begin to house all the poor singers.—Life.

STRONG PLEA IN BEHALF OF THE CARNEGIE LIBRARY.

Editor, Democrat. Dear Sir: It was with surprise that I read in your current issue that the town commissioners were thinking of closing, or curtailing the facilities of the Carnegie library. They can scarcely realize what a very valuable asset it is to the town. If they did, they would be anxious rather to extend, than curtail its scope. From an educational standpoint I believe that a library is indispensable to every town, for the library should supplement the work of the schools. A student who can not have access to a good library is apt to become a narrow-minded and intolerant citizen. The Carnegie library seems to have done excellent work in its short existence both for the summer visitors, as well as for its regular devotees. I can vouch for the very great assistance one can obtain from both its reference department and its lending department. I think it would be a sad reflection on the town of Hendersonville to let such a valuable institution lapse. Yours truly, M. COFFEY.

M. L. SHIPMAN RETURNS FROM GRAND LODGE AT S. FRANCISCO.

Returns via Washington on Departmental Business, Appreciation of Carolina Increased.

(Raleigh News and Observer.)

Mr. M. L. Shipman, the commissioner of labor and printing, returned yesterday afternoon from the Pacific coast, where he went to attend the Sovereign Grand Lodge Independent Order of Odd Fellows in San Francisco as one of the representatives for the North Carolina grand lodge. He also represented the State in the National Association of Industrial Accidents and Boards in Seattle, Washington. On his return Mr. Shipman spent a couple of days in Washington, L. C., studying the methods employed by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce in the extension of trade relations with foreign countries, particularly Latin America, which offers the most inviting field while the European war continues to rage. Commissioner Shipman plans to secure the establishment of a branch of the National Bureau in the State Labor Department and feels encouraged with the prospects of being able to comply with the requirements incident to putting cooperative branches in operation.

The Commissioner thinks the Pan-American Exposition in San Francisco is immense. While not dissimilar in many respects from other exhibitions of like character it is built on a much larger scale and has been patronized to a gratifying extent. The last obligation against the management was met weeks ago and the stockholders figure on a handsome dividend when the gates close at the end of the twelfth month since President Wilson pressed the button that started the wheels in motion. The San Diego Exposition is also a very creditable one, says Mr. Shipman, and the people of Southern California have exhibited wonderful skill and enterprise in presenting the varied resources of that favored section in one of the prettiest exhibitions the country has witnessed in a great many years.

"I was surprised to find so many people form the South in various sections of the west and northwest," said Commissioner Shipman last night. "Many of them went out there years ago and have done well. Others have accumulated very little and would really like to get back home. While it is a greatly enjoyed trip, it has doubly increased my appreciation of North Carolina. Of the eighteen States through which I passed not one of them is, to my mind, in a class with ours. A man of means can find splendid openings out there, but the average farmer and business man in this State, or elsewhere in the South, had better let well enough alone by contenting himself to remain in good old Dixie land. Our climate, our soil, our scenery, our resources, and, above all, our people appeal strongly to any patriotic Tar Heel who has wandered even for a short time. It is the 'Old North State forever' with me."

HOSE SHOE CURVES.

Mr. and Mrs. Waddell of Asheville spent last week with Mrs. Corrie Johnson.

Miss Lexine Davenport of Brevard institute spent the week end here with her parents.

Mr. F. C. Snyder and family are visiting relatives in Jackson county.

Mr. Robert Lockaby of Pisgah Forest, is filling Mr. Snyder's place as depot agent during his absence.

Mrs. Stone of Asheville made an interesting talk at the Methodist church last Wednesday on ladies missionary work. A society was organized at this church with Mrs. J. O. Johnson as president.

Mr. Thos. Duncan of Asheville spent last week here.

Mrs. Betts of Asheville is the guest of Mrs. D. N. Davenport.

Miss Lexine Davenport won the piano in the Asheville Gazette-News contest.

FEEL WELL, THANK YOU.

Idea Concerning Health Rapidly Changing. "I don't believe in telling a lie, not even a white lie, as a usual thing," said a good natured man the other day, "but when you can make a man take a new lease on life by telling him he looks well and young when he's beginning to feel old and diseased; and by telling a fellow he'll yet make good when he's down and out, and by telling yourself that you have not an ache nor a pain and that you are as youthful and healthful as you ever were—then, if ever," said he, "a white lie seems justifiable." "The principle, you see, is this," he continued. "It encourages; it makes us think differently and act differently; for after all we are only what we think we are. Thank goodness we've gotten away from that old habit of saying, 'we're poorly, thank the Lord, and we're only common,' on being asked as to our good health. I've known people to find real pleasure in recounting either personal ailments or those of the family, as if they were so many family virtues.

"Thanks to the new health movement, that has put a new song into the mouth and perhaps a new feeling in the body. Now it is not only bad taste to talk of your pains and ailments, but it reflects on your integrity; your say nothing of personal hygiene, not knowledge of health and sanitation, to keep well and fit and enjoy good health.

"We are not far from the time," said he, "when disease will be considered a disgrace and the cause of illness will have to be personally accounted for. In other words, God is no longer going to be blamed for sickness when it is simply the result of our ignorance, indifference or wrong way of living."

SPLENDID RECORD IS MADE IN HANDLING OF PASSENGERS

Atlanta, Ga.—More than sixteen and a half million passengers—a number greater than the combined population of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee and Kentucky—were transported by Southern Railway during the year ended June 30 with only one fatal injury to a passenger while on a train and that one was standing on a car platform in direct violation of the company's rules. This excellent record was shown in the official figures given out indicating the high degree of safety that has been attained in the handling of Southern Railway passenger trains. In marked contrast are figures recently given out by President Fairfax Harrison of Southern Railway, showing that during the same period twelve persons riding in automobiles were killed in accidents at public highway crossings, every one of which accidents could have been prevented had the driver of the car observed the familiar warning, "Stop, Look and Listen."

Why Take CHANCES Do you know that we can issue you a LIABILITY POLICY that will pay all damages that you may have in case of accident in running your automobile? Suppose you run into another car or other conveyance, or run over someone and have a heavy damage suit entered against you, wouldn't it be a great satisfaction to have some adequate protection against judgment that may be gotten and assessed against you. It does not cost much to get all this burden taken over by a good strong reliable indemnity company and WE CAN DO IT. FOR YOU RIGHT. Ewbank, Ewbank & Company Insurance Underwriters
