Practical Enough.
"I certainly got a shock yesterday," confided the breaker to a friend. "A young man telegraphed me from Maine that he had married my youngest daughter."
"Great heavens!" returned the other. "Well, all you can hope for now is that he may turn out to be a practical business man."
"Oh," interrupted father, "I guess he's practical enough. He sent his message 'collect.'"

FREAK CORN GROWN IN TODD'S CITY GARDEN.

When the government edict went out to make two blades of grass grow where one grew before, J. H. Todd of the Hendersonville Lumber Co., got out his faithful hoe and manured his city lot until it looked as pretty as the 18th hole on a Class A links. Then he sowed his seed, and faithfully tended to his truck patch. He was a little Old Guardian of the garden.

But he exceeded his best expectations. He grew a new kind of corn and made five blades of grass grow where one ought to grow.

Leastwise he left a sample in the Hustler office to prove that he did once anyhow.

The freak is fine perfectly defines ears of corn under one shuck, exclusive of the mamma ear which is quite normal.

Now don't say "Oh, shucks." This is a fact. The ears are here if you have the eyes to look upon them.

The Street Dance Saturday Night

The street dance given on Saturday night in celebration of the completion of the reconstruction of the Greenville-Hendersonville Highway was a decided success as have been the two preceding ones. There were not as many dancers on the street as there were at the memorable Shriners ball but the crowd of spectators was larger.

Great crowds from Greenville, Anderson, Spartanburg, Gaffney, Union and other South Carolina towns arrived in cars all during the day Saturday and when the many units assembled at the dance Saturday night the street looked as if all South Carolina had come to Hendersonville. A great many were over from Asheville also, and many other towns and cities sent representatives who came specially for the big celebration, besides the large number of tourists and town people who always turn out for such occasions. In fact the walks in the street roped off for the dance were jammed to discomfort, and cars were parked closely for many blocks near the Kentucky Home of which the dance was held.

The Hendersonville band furnished the music and dancing continued until a late hour.

Pope Benedict Makes New Peace Proposal

HAS ADDRESSED LETTER TO ALL BELLIGERENTS OF SUCH NATURE

BELGIUM AND SERBIA AND POLAND RESTORED

Not Believed Any Positive Action be Taken But General Peace Discussion Might Follow—Proposal Not Reached United States Yet. . . .

Washington, Aug. 14.—All participants in the European war, including the United States, are to be placed on record on a proposal for peace by Pope Benedict, who addressed identical proposals to all belligerents of such nature as to require an answer.

The proposal has not reached the United States as yet. Secretary Lansing today stated that he knows of the contents of the letter informally but cannot discuss what action will be taken on the proposals of the Pope. That will be decided when the Secretary and President Wilson receives the suggestions.

An informal exchange of views will be likely before final action will be decided on by the United States and the Entente powers.

Briefly it is indicated that the suggestions provide the restoration and independence of Belgium and Serbia and the independence of Poland.

The big question affecting France and the restoration of Alsace-Lorraine and Italy's claim for territory acquisition is held open.

Diplomats and officials who would discuss the matter are of the opinion that the Pope's proposals will not bring about any positive action but a general discussion of peace might follow.

EVER SALIVATED BY CALOMEL? HORRIBLE!

Calomel is quicksilver and acts like dynamite on your liver.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for 50 cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.

Umbrella Went With Room.
Jones was miserable. There he was alone, damp and unhappy, eating his Christmas dinner in the coffee room of a woebegone and lonely inn.

Jones' motto has always been "Business before pleasure," but he wished he had shirked the business which had summoned him to this part of the country at Christmastide. He dozed for a while, and then in desperation betook himself to bed. He was awakened by the pattering of rain, and to his disgust he found water dripping on to the bed through the ceiling.

He pulled the bell savagely, and after a lapse of time someone condescended, to answer it.

"You must find me another room, please," said Jones. "The rain is leaking in like fury!"
"Oh, is that all you are bothering about?" snarled the landlady's voice. "If you'd thought to look you'd have found an umbrella under the bed! Use it, man!"

A Cure for Conceit.
"When lecturing in the north of England," says Sir Ernest Shackleton, the famous explorer, "before it was time for the proceedings to begin on one occasion, I took a peep through the curtain to see what kind of an audience I was likely to have. Things looked promising, and I said so."
"Yes," said the chairman, "I think you are going to have as big an audience as the handbell ringers had last week."

"That is the sort of thing," added Sir Ernest, "that keeps me modest."

Still Hoping.
"Now that we are engaged, you mustn't even look at another man."
"I can't promise that."
"You love me, don't you?"
"Yes, Henry, but how do I know that I won't be able to better myself?"
