

People and Events

The Hustler would appreciate items of news for this or any other department of the paper when mailed, brought in person or telephoned.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Egerton motored to Asheville Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. C. Few visited Mrs. Vernon Few at her home in the country last week.

P. J. Gilreath, who was hurt by a motorcycle recently, is resting comfortably.

Mrs. P. C. Braswell and sister, Miss Minnie Fishback, have returned from their Florida home.

Brownlow Jackson, Jr., had the misfortune while at play to have his arm dislocated Tuesday noon.

Mrs. N. E. Gaines, who spent the winter in St. Petersburg and Orlando, Fla., returned home last Saturday.

J. W. McIntyre has returned from Scranton, Pa., where he visited his mother, who has been very sick.

Mrs. Earl T. Bass, of Greenwood, S. C., is visiting her parents, Judge and Mrs. C. M. Pace.

Prof. G. W. Bradshaw was confined to his bed on Tuesday as a result of vaccination.

Mr. Floyd Osborne, of the Mills River section, is convalescing after an illness of pneumonia.

Miss Elizabeth Kethley, of the music department, Fruitland Institute, left last Friday for her home in Jackson, Miss.

Rev. James Justice has returned from Tampa, Fla., where he held a successful revival. Rev. Mr. Justice preached in Spanish to the Cubans.

Mrs. Edward Franck, of New York city, who spent the winter at St. Petersburg, Fla., will spend the summer at Oak Retreat.

Arch Preratte, of Lumberton, is spending some time at Dr. Wright's on Fifth avenue. Mr. Preratte came to take osteopathic treatment.

Gordon F. Garlington left on Tuesday for Asheville to accept the advertising managership of the Asheville Times.

Mrs. C. N. Wrenshall and children are visiting in Lincolnton. Mr. Wrenshall took his family in his car and returned the early part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Benford Deacon, of Daytona, Fla., have arrived for the summer and will occupy the Gallamore house at Davis station.

Miss Mamie Kinchley, of Augusta, Ga., arrived Tuesday and will be Miss Florence Jordan's guest. Miss Kinchley is well known in Hendersonville.

Almonte Jones spent the week-end with his family at R. P. Freeze's residence. Mr. Jones travels through Piedmont sections of the Carolinas.

Miss Anne Thompson, the expression teacher of Fruitland Institute, passed through Hendersonville Tuesday en route to her home in Mount Airy.

Mrs. M. E. Ennis (wife of the late Dr. Ennis), of St. Petersburg, Fla., is expected Friday. She will be the guest of Miss Florence Jordan at Laurel Park Villa.

Mrs. C. Few, Mrs. Raymond Browning and Mrs. J. Mack Rhodes, who attended the annual missionary meeting of M. E. church at Winston, have returned home. Mrs. Few is the president of the W. F. M. society in the Methodist church here. Mrs. Browning was the delegate from the society and Mrs. Rhodes attended as a visitor.

Mrs. J. P. Rickman and daughter, Miss Floreid, are visiting Mrs. C. Few. Mrs. Rickman formerly lived here, but has made her home in Greenville, S. C., for several years.

Miss Dean and Miss Sterling, who have been spending some time at the Waverly, left last week for Montreat. After a brief stay there they go to their summer home near Boston, Mass.

Dr. E. B. Pruett and family, of Charlotte, have registered at the Kentucky Home. Dr. Pruett is an oculist of note. He is a friend of Dr. E. E. Bomar.

Mrs. E. T. Henning, of Brevard, died suddenly last week. She had been in poor health for a long time. Mrs. Henning has many friends in this section who will be grieved to hear of her death.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Kernaghan are now occupying their summer cottage in Laurel Park. They motored from Batesburg, S. C. Their daughter, Miss Lois, will arrive within a few days.

William Lott and daughter, Miss Cora Lott, have returned from Hillsdale, Miss., where they spent the winter. Mrs. Lott has been in Hendersonville for several days.

C. F. Bland and son, Frank, Rev. M. F. Moores, W. S. Miller and F. E. Durfee left on Tuesday for Atlanta to attend the Southern Methodist conference. The trip was made in Mr. Bland's car.

There will not be any morning service at the Methodist church next Sunday. Rev. R. G. Tuttle, presiding elder of the Asheville district, will conduct the evening service. The quarterly meeting will be held by him on next Saturday evening.

Mrs. Sallie J. Hart is with her niece, Sallie Cuming, in Biltmore hospital. The operation on little Sallie's throat was successful. Her playmates will be glad to know she is improving rapidly and will soon be at home.

Dr. L. S. Webb, Lewiston, N. C., came to Hendersonville several weeks ago on account of ill health. He has improved so much that he expects to return to his practice at Lewiston in June. Dr. Webb is a guest at Oak Retreat.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Smith spent Sunday in Asheville with their daughter, Mrs. John Grimes. Mr. Grimes' father and mother, of Portsmouth, Ohio, who are well known here, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Grimes. This occasion was a happy family reunion.

Dr. Kerr Boyce Tupper, of Philadelphia, Pa., a well known preacher and lecturer, will reach Hendersonville Saturday. Dr. Tupper is to be entertained by Mrs. M. A. Brown at Park Hill. He will spend some time here. It is hoped to arrange for a lecture and sermon in some of the churches. There is a treat in store for the town.

Dr. J. H. Hunter and wife (nee Mrs. Anna Parker) from Spartanburg, S. C.; Maj. B. R. Hunter, from Camp Sevier; Miss Nina Hunter, of King's Mt., N. C., and Miss Mollie Barr, of Greenville, S. C., motored to Hendersonville last Sunday. They spent the day with their relatives, Mrs. Sample and daughters. Mrs. Hunter owns the Quality Shop here and has a wide circle of friends who will be sorry to learn that her voice has failed her.

Miss Della Davis was home from Asheville for the week-end.

Wilson Allen has moved from Daytona, Fla., to Winthrop, Me.

Miss Edith Blythe, of Asheville, spent the week-end with her parents.

Miss Kate Smith spent the week-end in Brevard as the guest of Miss Gladys Glenn.

Mrs. J. E. Shipman and children have returned from ma visit to relatives in Columbus and Forest City.

Orme Edwards is home from Norfolk, Va., having been called here on account of the serious illness of his father, W. F. Edwards.

Major Black, of South Carolina, has been visiting Mrs. C. G. Barr and family. Major Black is the grandfather of Mr. Barr.

The friends of Miss Kate Dotson gave her a surprise party on Monday night of this week in celebration of her birthday. The party was made up by about twenty persons.

L. T. Williams, who has been quite ill of late, shows signs of improvement. He is not suffering as much as he formerly did.

John Brooks left on Wednesday for the A. & E. college at West Raleigh for a course in mechanical work, having been sent under the provisions of the draft law.

W. F. Edwards, Sr., who underwent an operation at the Patton Memorial hospital on last Wednesday, is resting well and his condition shows a decided improvement.

Charles Zimmerman suffered painful injuries, mostly in the head, last week when he fell from a tree. His condition is not considered dangerous, although it appeared quite serious soon after the fall.

Corporal Albert Edwards was in Hendersonville on last Thursday and Friday on a visit to his father, who was quite ill. Corporal Edwards was immediately called back to his post of duty at Fort Caswell.

Miss Horne Entertains.

Miss Carson Horne entertained Monday evening at her home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Pittsburly and daughter, Miss Avis Curville, of Boston, Mass.

Thirty guests had the pleasure of accepting Miss Horne's invitation. During the evening Miss Curville sang several selections. Miss Curville has a wonderfully sweet, bird-like voice. Mrs. A. B. Drafts accompanied her at the piano.

A salad course was served by Mrs. Robert Lee Hunt, Miss Irene Caldwell and Miss Avis Curville.

Miss Horne's attractive bungalow was decorated with potted plants and cut flowers. The dining room was lighted with candles. Roses were used in this room.

Miss Horne's guests spent a very delightful evening.

Boling-Kilpatrick.

Miss Lila Boling, of Hendersonville, and Fred Kilpatrick, of Spartanburg, were married on May 8 at the Methodist parsonage in Hendersonville, Rev. M. F. Moores officiating.

The ceremony was attended by only a few close friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Kilpatrick left on Thursday for their home in Spartanburg, where Mr. Kilpatrick is ticket agent for the Southern railway. The groom is a Henderson county boy, formerly living at Flat Rock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boling, of this city, and she and her husband carry with them the good wishes of quite a large circle of friends.

PATRIOTIC MEETING SUNDAY AFTERNOON FOR RED CROSS.

Dr. Kerr Boyce Tupper, a speaker of note, will deliver an address in the interest of the Red Cross at the First Baptist church next Sunday afternoon at 3:30.

EXCUSED FROM COURT.

Owing to shortage of farm labor, Judge C. M. Pace announces that jurors and witnesses will not be required to attend court which convenes on May 27. There will be no jury trials.

WATCH OUR MONDAY SPECIALS

Commencement Specials

WATCH OUR MONDAY SPECIALS

Beautiful Merchandise--Priced so Low are the Remarks

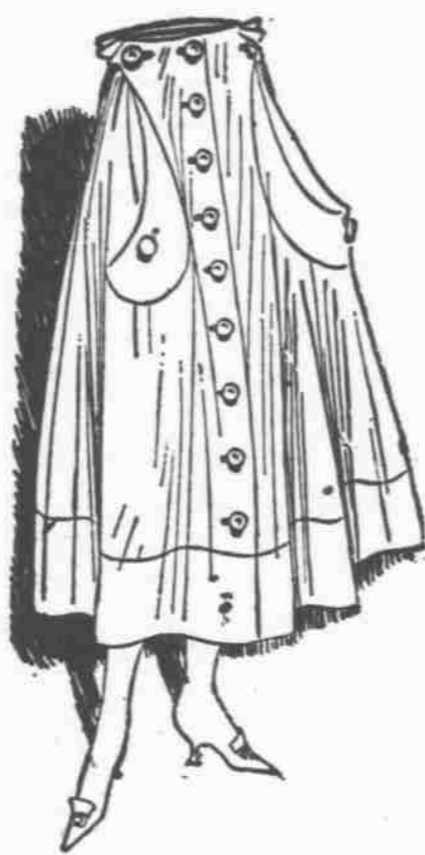

we Hear so Often

It is to your advantage to visit this store before you make any purchases. You will then become one of our regular patrons. Being in our own building--and employing our own help--with our merchandise bought direct from the largest manufacturers for Spot Cash--puts us in a position to sell at prices that are not possible in the average store.

A Visit to This Store Will Convince You
Headquarters for All Commencement Needs

Beautiful white ready-made Dresses in voile, crepe de Chine and Georgette. Values from $10 to $25. Special, $4.98 to $17.50

Corset Covers and Camisoles, in white and flesh. Special, 35c. to $2.48

Mercerized Teddies in beautiful quality, white and flesh. Special ..... 98c

Specials for Monday May 20

White Lawn, nice quality. Monday special ..... 12 1/2 c
Yard wide Percale. Monday special ..... 18c
Percales, 27 in. wide. Monday special ..... 15c
Solid color chambray, 5 yard limit. Monday special ..... 15c
Soft Silks, 27 in. wide, beautiful colors. Monday special ..... 29c
Lingerie Waists, latest styles. Monday special, 69c

Middy Blouses, all sizes. Monday special ..... 98c
White Middy Suits, extra quality, pleated skirts. Monday special...$2.98 Suit
Ladies' Middy Suits in khaki, blue and old rose in great demand now. Monday special.....$5.98
Ladies' Silk Skirts, in stripes and solid colors, unusual values. Monday special...$4.98 and $5.98

White canvas, high top shoes, in high, low and military heels. Special .....$1.98 to $3.98

White high top washable Kid Shoes. Special .....$6.98

White Nubuck Shoes. Special, $4.98

Low quarter white canvas Pumps, pretty styles. Special .....$1.48 to $2.98

Pretty Hosiery, all colors, in lisle and silk. Special, 25c to 93c

THE DAY OF ECONOMY

Buy a Jack Rabbit Sewing Machine Motor and turn work into a pleasure.

Only $15 00, payable $5.00 month

Electric Appliance Company

A THRIFT STAMP FREE WITH A $5 PURCHASE OR OVER. ASK FOR ONE.

Don't Forget Our Monday Specials

A THRIFT STAMP FREE WITH A $5 PURCHASE OR OVER. ASK FOR ONE.

E. Lewis & Son
THE UNDER SELLERS