This will be the last copy of The Hustler sent to those whose subscriptions have expired. The Hustler is going to comply strictly with the order of the War Industries Board, which asks that all delinquent subscriptions be discontinued. Statements were recently sent to all whose subscriptions have expired and this will serve as the last notice. A violation of the Board's ruling is construed to mean that newspapers which ignore the order will not be able to get paper on which to print the news.

CAMP BOYS BOOSTED HENDERSONVILLE RED CROSS FUND SATURDAY

A select group of entertainers from Camp Sevier, under the able direction of Mr. C. C. Buchanan, of the Army Y. M. C. A. gave an entertaining concert at the opera house Saturday evening for the benefit of the Red Cross. The house was filled and the boys did themselves proud.

Stage Manager Corporal Teddy R. Myer, of New York, was as busy as a one-arm man with prickly heat and was right in his element. He sang well, acted well, managed well and amid the multitudinous duties of his position kept wearing the "smile that won't come off."

The talent was all of a high order and each man acquitted himself with honors. Private Carmony's sweet tenor voice was delightful to hear and his songs were well rendered. Private Baron, the pianist demonstrated that he was thoroughly at home at the piano.

Corp. Myer showed his versatility by singing a rousing patriotic song and then a comic song, which received rounds of applause.

Mr. Clark, another Y. M. C. A. worker, has a baritone voice of great sweetness and richness and held his audience to the last strain of melody. The great surprise of the evening was Corporal Verna, the Italian baritone, formerly a member of the Metropolitan Grand Opera and a man who has a voice of wonderful sweetness to which has been added the finish of a thorough training. His songs were in Italian—songs from the old masters. He was somewhat handicapped as his accompanist was unable to be present, and he sang without the piano. But it is impossible to handicap such a voice as his and the audience went wild over his singing. No such voice has been heard in Hendersonville during the 17 years residence of the writer. Superb and then some.

Lieut. and Mrs. Horner of the R. & C. Dept. of the Q. M. C. attended the concert, as did Lieut. Guinn of the same department.

Corp. Myer is authority for the statement that this concert is only the beginning and that it is his purpose to bring in the near future, at least, a dozen entertainers of the same meritorious rank to give an entertainment for the local chapter of the Red Cross.

Corp. Myer desires to thank on behalf of himself and all the men, the people of Hendersonville and the visitors for the hearty reception and cheerful manner in which they treated the soldiers, and says that on their next visit they will bring an aggregation of entertainers that will double the receipts for the Red Cross. After paying the expenses incurred, which amounted to about $35, the net sum of $190 was turned over to the local chapter.

Come again boys—you have captured Hendersonville, and we are your friends.

Other Interesting Notes

Corporal Myer remained over Sunday as the guest of the Red Cross and entertained the guests of the Kentucky Home with his singing. He also demonstrated his mastery of English.

That Boy, Sergt. Erwin, is some little ticket seller. He sold 84 tickets for the concert. That boy could sell tickets to a funeral and get away with it.

Corp. F. W. Taylor was "the man on the job." He reached the theatre early and not finding either doorkeeper or ticket man he jumped into the trench and got busy. Results, 71 tickets. Some quick thinker that Taylor.

Corp. Currie was right in the game and did business like a "hot dog" refreshment man.

Corp. Sapp was "there with the spiel" and was traffic man. He held up innumerable autos and sold tickets. His enthusiasm was unfeigned and he came back with the coin ever ytime.

Corp. Spangler is another boy who knows the selling game. He produces business where "none ain't."

Privates Sigman, Kahn and Levy know how to get the money and they did.

We should be glad to give the names of the rest of the boys who, by their efforts at selling tickets, made the concert a success, but Corp. Myer, our informant, was unable to furnish the information. Boys we thank you. Come again and stay longer. Sam T. Hodges.

BOARD OF TRADE FOR CITY PARK

The Board of Trade held its monthly meeting Tuesday night when the session was marked by a small attendance, the summer rush of business having affected the meetings of this organization along with many others.

Secretary A. S. Truex said that it was a "dirty shame" that people would not take more interest in the organization when at this time it had saddled upon it the correspondence and underlings of nearly every department of the government except the draft board.

He declared that the people were too lax in their duty toward the only organization in the city whose purpose it was to advance the community's general interests.

Dr. A. C. Tebeau reported that he would appear before the city commissioners Thursday night of this week and make a proposition to the body in the interest of having a city park made of the Noterman place, stating that it was the city's only good opportunity and that he would give a bargain on easy terms and if not accepted would cut up the property for residential purposes by which it would give the present owners greater financial returns than would be expected if sold to the city for a park. Considerable interest was manifested in this proposition and a committee will appear before the city board in advocacy of a city park, a subject that has been frequently discussed in Hendersonville.

Treasurer Truex reported that dues were coming in slowly and that another drive would have to be made. He reported the organization of a protective league in Henderson county. The committee named to organize the league was discharged.

President C. F. Bland reported that a county fair for this fall had been abandoned by reason of lack of interest on the part of those whose support would be necessary in order to make the fair a success.

REV. R. V. MILLER'S SERVICES POPULAR

The services of Rev. R. V. Miller at the Methodist church last week were highly appreciated. Each service was well attended by both home people and visitors who were anxious to hear Mr. Miller's able Bible lectures.

The liberal offering testified to the popularity of the services, the church authorities having turned over to Mr. Miller $128.00, $102.34 of which were free will offerings in Mr. Miller's envelopes, and $16.95 loose collections, after paying all expenses.

The following contribution from Sam T. Hodges is of interest in this connection:

"Beginning Sunday evening, Aug. 25th, and continuing each evening, except Saturday, and closing Sunday evening, Sept 1st, Rev. R. V. Miller, of Hendersonville, has given a series of Bible readings which have afforded a rare treat to the large congregations who were fortunate to hear him.

"Mr. Miller has an international reputation as a Bible student second to none in the world.

"He is in great demand but always arranges to give the people of his home city one week in each summer. He goes to Canada, to the Moody Bible School, to Old Orchard and to other places of note where the thoughtful children of God gather to hear the Word expounded.

His address Friday evening, in which he traced the Prophetic hand to the present World War and went over into the future, was very instructive, helpful and comforting and the closing sermon on Sunday evening was rich in the Manna of the Word. Mr. Miller's best friends are his fellow-citizens and he is held in high esteem here both as a citizen and a Bible Teacher."

GIANT TOMATO

Probably one of the most foremost giants in the tomato kingdom of Henderson county was that presented to the Hustler office by Mrs. Galtner Rhodes from the Ioka farm on Mills River.

This vegetable was beautifully shaped and measured 15 inches in circumference one way and 12 another.

CAMP ATHLETES PLAY GOOD BALL

About 150 soldiers from Camp Sevier visited Hendersonville Saturday, the occasion being to settle the dispute as to whether the "Reclamations" or the "Remounts" were champions of the "Twilight league." The game was full of thrills and was in doubt all the way, the "Remounts" winning by the score of 8 to 2.

The following ladies of the Red Cross provided a delightful luncheon at Basin Spring in Laurel Park, which was served immediately after the game.

Mesdames J. F. Brooks, C. R. Whitaker, Ethel Patterson, W. R. Kirk, C. A. Hobbs, Clarence Latham, W. A. Carrigan and the following young ladies assisted in serving the refreshments:

Misses Carter, Bomar, Woodward, Parrell, Morrow, Einig, Carrigan, Childs and the Misses Gladys and Louise Hodges. The men showed their appreciation by their actions and the food was entirely surrounded to the complete satisfaction of all present. Smokes had been provided and chef Raymond Edwards, better known as the "Coffee King," was there with the goods. The men gave three cheers for the "Red Cross" and left the city about midnight for Camp Sevier.

The men made a good impression here and many persons complimented them on the splendid soldierly appearance and gentlemanly behavior.

Such men as these are a credit to the nation and will make "Kaiser Bill" take the "long, long, trail" when they get to Germany.

The batteries for the two teams and the names of the players were unable to furnish, as Corporal Myer was not able to give us this information.

It was a good game and the reporters were out in full force.

Notes of the Game

The Remounts have a first baseman who by the class he showed here can hold down the initial sack for any club in the big league. He's all there. The catcher for the "Reclamations" has a wing that gets in down to second like a cannon ball.

Our old friend, Billie Laval, umpired the game. Billie is well and pleasantly remembered in Hendersonville. He was the pitcher for the Hendersonville club in 1904 and was sold to Spartanburg just before the close of the season at the highest price ever paid in the "Bush" league, $35.00.

Mr. Laval is now Y.M.C.A. director of athletics at Camp Sevier. Those who know him are sure that he will make good. Sam T. Hodges.

BELLEWOOD SANITARIUM MANAGEMENT CHANGES

Mrs. Belle T. Dick, who has managed the Bellewood sanitarium in this city for the past year, has turned over the management of this institution to Mrs. B. W. Angus, of Lexington, Ky.

Mrs. Dick has gone to Louisville, Ky., for a rest of a few days at her old home and upon returning will resume on Sept 15 the management of Dixie Inn, which she ran for a short while last spring before turning it over to other management during the summer months.

Mrs. Angus is a trained nurse and comes from Lexington highly recommended for the work she has assumed.

MUCH RED CROSS WORK

The Red Cross Surgical Dressing room has been open all summer. The Hendersonville chapter and the Flat Rock branch together have made 4,200 gauze wipes and 840 large cotton pads 12x24. Mrs. Henry W. Davis, of Atlanta, has given her services and conducted a class of 20 in surgical dressing. The examinations were held Saturday. The class presented Mrs. Davis with $10 in Thrift Stamps as a token of appreciation of her services.

Just One. After all there is but one race—humanity, wrote George Moore.

550 SHEEP IMPORTED FOR THIS COUNTY

The sheep raising industry is to be thoroughly tried out in Henderson county.

For a long time there has been backing by humans as well as the hounds and the bark didn't accomplish much, but this time there is more than a noise.

R. C. Clarke and W. F. Brown have returned from Roswell, New Mexico, where they purchased 550 sheep, which will arrive within a few days. They will be placed on the Barker place, which will afford excellent range of about 1,000 acres and is believed to be admirably suited to the sheep growing industry.

Associated with Mr. Clarke and Mr. Brown in this undertaking are: J. O. Bell, Brownlow Jackson, E. W. Ewbank, R. H. Staton, W. A. Keith, S. T. Hodges and R. M. Oates.

These men believe that sheep can be made a success. Mr. Clarke says he has brought horses here and the results were satisfactory and that the results of the importation of hogs during the past winter was highly satisfactory. He pictures a big success for sheep.

HOME MILITIA TAKES HIKE ENTERTAINED

The Thirty-eighth North Carolina Reserve Militia, of Henderson County, enjoyed a ten mile hike to the old home place of Lieut. J. Mack Rhodes on Mills River Monday and were served to a bountiful dinner, when the 40 men in uniform waded deeply into a sumptuous spread of fried chicken, corn on the cob, butter milk, etc., etc.

The men left Hendersonville at 8 o'clock and returned at 6 o'clock in the afternoon. They drilled on the meadow below the farm house and also enjoyed a game of baseball captained by Lieut. Rhodes and Lieut. C. P. Rogers, resulting in a victory for the former team by the score of 5 to 3.

While it was quite a strenuous day for a few members of the company who are not used to quite so much physical exertion, it was an enjoyable occasion and the men were loud in their praise of the hospitality extended by Lieut. and Mrs. Rhodes, who provided the entertainment, and they were unanimous in the decision that it was the most enjoyable event in the history of this organization.

The names of the following have been added to the list of 19 who registered the latter part of August with the local exemption board and were published in the Hustler last week: John Burton, colored, Hendersonville. Norman J. Liverett, Dana. James Mitchell Byers, Hendersonville.
